CONSTABLE LOCATED FUGITIVE Constable Nolan's Sharp Watch Rewarded When He Saw William Petroski in Coal Car at New Haven—Was Riding by in Freight Train That Did Not Stop—Re-captured by Police at Bridgeport—Not Much Hurt After His Jump From Moving Train Last Friday—Returned to State Hospital.

William Petroski, the patient from the Norwich State hospital, who escaped from a train Friday near Westbrook by jumping from the window of the toilet room, was recaptured Saturday night by the police in Bridgeport and was brought back to the State hospital here on Sunday afternoon by Constable Michael Nolan, arriving there at 2 o'clock.

When taken into custody Petroski still bore marks of injuries sustained when he made his leap from the passenger train going about 35 miles an hour. On account of his condition he was taken to St. Vincent hospital by the Bridgeport police. Petroski's cuts and bruises indicated that he had landed in a lot of cinders when he jumped from the train and they made ugly bruises and cuts. He had a sprained left wrist, a severe contusion and contused wound of the scalp, and a slight fracture of the outer table of the frontal bone.

NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN SPEAKER AT BENEFIT. Conducted by Hebrew Organization For Aid For Non-Combatant Sufferers in Europe.

Eight hundred men, women and children gathered at the Davis theatre on Sunday evening when a benefit performance and lecture was given under the auspices of the Federated Jewish Relief societies of the city for the non-combatant European War sufferers.

Charles N. Gordon, the chairman, made the opening remarks and said it was his very great pleasure to introduce his honor, Mayor Murphy, and Congressman Meyer London of New York state. Seated on the stage with Mayor Murphy and Congressman London were Charles N. Gordon, chairman, Rev. Dr. Goodman, Rev. B. Davidson, E. Weinstein, Charles Rubin, Louis Sachner, N. Rich, Max Strlin, D. O. G. W. Goodman, Anna Bloom, Bessie Sternlieb, Meyer Rich, Benjamin Kreiger, Charles N. Gordon.

In his opening remarks Congressman London spoke of the magnitude of the cause that called the people together at the theatre Sunday night. He referred to the two countries, Belgium and Poland, which are innocent victims of the war. The speaker said the war is not a peoples' war but is a rulers' war. For thousands of years religion has been teaching against war. It is commanded, "Thou shalt not kill." This seems to be interpreted, "Thou shalt not kill retail, but wholesale and in wholesale murder. For thousands of years religious leaders have been teaching peace but all this time the armies of the world have been increasing in power.

Devastation of Poland. We hear a great deal of the conditions in Poland but do not understand the deplorable conditions in Poland. It is our duty to help those in need in Europe and the people in the United States and of the United States must generously help the victims of the war. In Poland there are eight millions of people who have been deprived of their rights and who have fallen victims of the war. Little towns are destroyed by the armies. No soon as the armies have passed, destruction and complete devastation have taken place. When we hear of one man who has been killed, or of one man who has been wounded, or of one man who has been captured, or of one man who has been taken prisoner, or of one man who has been killed, or of one man who has been wounded, or of one man who has been captured, or of one man who has been taken prisoner, we should think of the millions of people who are suffering in Poland.

Speke in Jewish. Congressman London then spoke in the Jewish language for the benefit of those present who were not thoroughly familiar with the English language. A Keystone comedy was then shown and the meeting closed with the singing of America.

Reception For Congressman. After the performance at the theatre there was an informal reception at the Wauregan house parlors. For Congressman London and he cordially greeted all who wished to meet him. The congressman was met at the station and taken to the theatre and subsequently to the hotel in Mr. Leonard's limousine. He remained in the city over night and leaves this (Monday) morning to continue his trip to Washington.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburget Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a tea-spoonful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.
