W. H. S. MINSTREL SHOW.

Entertaining Program Under Auspices of the Athletic Association.
 An entertaining minstrel show, with all the earmarks of the real thing in that line, was given Wednesday night under the auspices of the athletic association of the Windham High school at the assembly hall of the new high school building. In the neighborhood of four hundred were present, and were well pleased with the efforts of the youthful aspirants for the histrionic honors, who had been ably coached by Willimantic's celebrated minstrel, George (Remington) Bartlett.

The hall and stage were prettily decorated, college and school pennants forming an attractive part of the decorative scheme. Following the hour's entertainment, dancing was enjoyed in the school gymnasium. Miss Dorothy Crane being pianist.
 During the show, Freddie Bland appeared while a medley was being sung, and made a decided hit as a female impersonator, singing "Along Came Ruth." The close of the performance was brought about with the singing of "Alma Mater," during which three young men dressed in the regulation costumes for baseball, basketball and football, represented the sports over which the association has control.

Donald Crane was intercomer, Sidney Donohue and Edward Cotten premiers; Edward Ottenheimer, Louis Hickey, Harry Cohen and Harold Mowbray, end men; Lester E. Ellis and Arthur Squires, vocalists, and the chorus consisted of John Carr, Howard Manley, John Manley, Robert

GIRLS! CLEAN AND BEAUTY! NO DANDRUFF--25 CENT DANDERINE

STOP WASHING HAIR! TRY THIS! MAKES HAIR GLOSSY, SOFT AND ABUNDANT.
 Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cream" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be clean, soft and abundant, possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.
