GREENVILLE
Funeral of Edgar Nelson Brown—Local Notes of Interest Gathered About the District.
A large number of mourning relatives and friends attended the funeral of Edgar Nelson Brown, held from his late home, 308 Central avenue, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, pastor of the Greenville Congregational church, officiated. A double quartette from the Bass-Clef rendered very touchingly "The Christian's Good Night and Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me." The casket was surrounded with many handsome floral tributes that bore silent testimony to the many friendships won by the deceased. The remains were borne to the waiting hearse by Warren Church, Joseph D. Pfeiffer, R. C. Perry, John C. Atterbury, James W. Semple and William A. Fletcher. Interment was in the family plot in Yantic cemetery. Rev. Mr. Ricketts read a committal service at the grave.
Friends Church & Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Personals and Notes.
A. B. Maine was a business caller at North Stratton Junction.
Raymond Burke and Frank Murtha, Jr., walked to Jewett City and return Sunday.
Miss Josie Marshall of Baltic was the guest of friends here over the week end.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.
At the Monday performances at the Auditorium, it was evident that one of the best musical comedies of the season is "The Hinky-Dee Girls," presented by the Marcus Musical Comedy company. The large audiences were highly pleased with the sparkling humor and the pretty song numbers. The principal drawing cards were Happy McNally and Tom Carroll, two lively comedians, who kept things in a continual hum. These two funny fellows were ably assisted by Gladys Lloyd, a charming soprano, and a large chorus of pretty girls. The company will present an entirely new show Wednesday.
On the movie programme the feature film was "Evie Girl," a personification play in two reels. A Romance in Bear Creek and a sparkling comedy, "Thou Shalt Not Flirt," featuring Billie Rittchie.

Wedding Guests Left for Their Homes
number of the guests at the wedding in the Lettie family left Monday evening for their homes, having spent the day Monday in sightseeing around the city. Those who left Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. James Owaroff, Mrs. Joseph Swartzburg and son Ruthford, Mrs. M. Swartzburg and daughter Ida of the Bronx, Miss Rosa Owaroff of Brooklyn, N. Y., Samuel Schulman, Mrs. Fannie Roth and daughter Anna, Mrs. Fishman and daughter Jeannette, Joseph Friedland and Mr. Bloom of New Haven, David Trowig, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Miller of Storrs college. The remaining guests will leave the latter part of this week.

CITY'S BUSINESS TRANSACTED
In Common Council Session That Lasted Ten Minutes—
Three Claims for Damages Filed—Petitions for Sidewalk Grade—Telephone Co. Wants to Extend Conduit in Talman Street.

The March meeting of the common council was held Monday evening and was a brief session which required only 10 minutes for the transaction of the necessary business.
It was called to order at 8:35 by Mayor T. C. Murphy. The roll call showing Councilmen A. E. Crutcher and Hugh Kinder as the absentees.
Clerk S. D. Moore read the petition from Margaret V. Jackson for a sidewalk grade on the westerly side of Palmer street from Hamilton avenue to Carter avenue, which was referred to the public works committee.
The Southern New England Telephone company petitioned for right to excavate in Talman street to extend conduit about 125 feet. This was also referred to the public works committee with power. The petition was accompanied by a plan.

Claims for Damages.
L. M. W. Vining sent notice of a claim for damages which he is to make for a fall on Central avenue on December 29 on the sidewalk opposite the barn of the Shore Line Electric railway. Mr. Whiting's ankle was sprained and his shoulder bruised. It was referred to the finance committee.
Notice of a claim for damages was given by William H. Allen for a broken leg and other injuries by a fall on Broadway hill sidewalk on February 7 when the sidewalk was slippery with ice. The petition through her counsel, T. J. Kelly and it was referred to the finance committee.
Max Blazer also gave notice of a claim for damages on January 28, by a fall on the sidewalk opposite No. 248 Main street because of a trap door or chute which was out of condition. His knee and elbow were strained and he was otherwise injured. He asks $1000 damages and made petition through Attorney V. P. A. Quinn. It was referred to the finance committee.

REV. W. A. KEEFE
WAS THE SPEAKER.
At Meeting at Fitchville Under auspices of Holy Name Society.

Rev. William A. Keefe of Plainfield was the speaker on Monday evening at the service held in St. John's church, Fitchville, upon the invitation of the Holy Name society of that parish. The exercises consisted of the usual Lenten devotions, conducted by Rev. David R. O'Donnell, after which Father Keefe delivered a very eloquent sermon upon the aims and high ideals of Catholic Manhood, which the Holy Name societies throughout the country were promoting.

The church was filled with the members of the organization and their friends and the sermon made a deep impression upon the large congregation which had assembled. A good sized delegation from Norwich, members of St. Patrick's Holy Name society attended the services, making the trip in automobiles.

Appetite Follows Good Digestion
Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.
The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle and its business of homes with it is the indispensable family remedy. FIFTH DIVIDEND IN ATLANTIC NATIONAL BANK.
Declared by Receiver—Makes a Total of 67 1-2 Per Cent. For Creditors.
A dividend of 7 1-2 per cent. for the creditors of the Atlantic National bank of Providence was announced by the receiver Monday. This is the fifth dividend and makes a total of 67 1-2 per cent., or $158,557 paid to the creditors. As a result of the failure of the institution in April, 1913, Edward P. Martz, a former president and Henry E. De Kaik, a broker of New York, were found guilty last January of misapplication of the bank's funds.

AT DAVIS THEATRE.
Myrtle-Harder Co.
The Myrtle-Harder Co., which was here at the Davis theatre just a year ago made its reappearance at the Davis on Monday for a week of high quality New York successes, presenting the Louis Mann play, Elevating a Husband, for both the matinee and evening performances on Monday to the great pleasure of good sized houses at both times.
John Bertin, who is leading man with the company this year, and Miss Emma Myrtle, leading woman, are surrounded with an entirely capable cast that showed pronounced ability in this sparkling comedy and with the two principals were given well earned curtain calls for their acceptable work. The cast includes Harry Casadei, Alice Louisberry, Harry Blaisdell, George Haines, Gerald Russell, Emma Myrtle, Nell Russell, Jack Bentin, Lloyd Vertman, Mary O'Loughlin, William Heine, James Marsden, May Strively, Louise Hinessey, May O'Loughlin, Jessie Marion.
For Tuesday evening the play announced is "The Girl of the Golden West." This Tuesday matinee will be Ready Money. The matinee play on Thursday will be a special production of Fine Fatters.

Bonds Were Accepted.
William La Duca, Central Vermont freight conductor, who has been a prisoner in the county jail in New London charged with indecent assault on Harry Jewett, an East New London boy, pending trial in the criminal superior court, secured bonds of $2,500 Saturday afternoon. The bonds were furnished by a surety company and were approved by Judge Gardner Greene Saturday afternoon when La Duca was released.

Party For His First Birthday.
Mrs. Casper K. Bailey entertained relatives and a few friends Friday afternoon at her home on East Main street in celebrating the first birthday of her son, Kirkner. Supper was served from a most attractive table, the centerpiece being the birthday cake with its twelve lit candles. Beautiful gifts were received. Piano selections were rendered during the late afternoon.

Treadwell Discharged from Bankruptcy
New York, March 1.—John Treadwell, formerly interested in mining properties on the Pacific coast, who went into bankruptcy last November, at which time he gave his liabilities as $2,321,660 and his assets as of unknown value, received a discharge from his debts today by Judge Hough in the United States district court. Extensive stocks and machinery were used to liquidate his debts.
