COLUMBIA WILL HAVE FOOTBALL
Favorite Fall Sport Will Be There Once More After a Ten Years Lapse.

Columbia is going to have football once again. That much was determined at a meeting of the students of Columbia college, held in University Hall on the campus of the undergraduates, were practically unanimous in endorsing the resolution that had been submitted by the faculty committee, but they did not take it all with the best of grace. It is true that there will be football there once more, after a lapse of ten years, but it will not be the football of other days. It will be a sort of expurgated edition, somewhat devalued in its general aspect from the days of "Bill" Morley, Harold Weeks, "Tom" Thompson, Chauncey Berrien and other stars of the gridiron, who brought a lot of publicity to the blue and white.

For instance, when the sport is re-habilitated on the Heights none of the big teams may be met in the first five years. During that period the sport will be on probation. One student got up in the meeting and said that Pennsylvania was desirous of resuming relations on the gridiron with Columbia and others pleaded for a chance to play Cornell or other colleges with which there were closer athletic relations than some of the teams that will be allowed on the schedule. This was all out of order, though, and the students were obliged to accept what was offered them. They felt that half a loaf was better than none at all, and when it came to a vote after a somewhat discussion there were only five who had the courage to stand up and voice their disapproval of the resuscitation of the sport. As there were about a thousand voting students present it may be seen that the preponderance of opinion was in favor of football.

There is just one matter further to be settled, and that is the official ratification of the movement by the faculty. That will not take place until April 30, when that body holds its next meeting.

In reply to questions it was stated definitely that any home game to be played by Columbia will be played on grounds owned by the university. That means that any college gridiron contest in which Columbia may take part next fall, or for the next five years, must be played either on South field or Columbia Oval, at Williamsbridge.

WITH THE TROTTERS.
The purse money of 1914 footed up more than $3,223,990.

Everett L. Swan of Orange has bought the trotter Mada Lloyd, 2:21 1-4.

The Nebraska trotter Sadie S., 2:14 1-4, is to be tried by Tommy Murphy.

Dick McMahon is going to try his luck with Lady Elmhurst, 2:10.

The grand circuit horses that last through to Lexington will go to San Francisco.

Anne Axworthy, the dam of Judson Girl, 2:07 1-4, will be bred to Peter Volo.

The early closing purses of the Bay State Short Trip circuit will be announced shortly.

Cox, Murphy, Geers, Snow and Andrews plan to race on the Pacific coast next November.

George W. Leavitt has sold to Miss Katherine Wilks of Galt, Ont., the filly Southern Lady, by The Northern Man, 2:06 1-2.

Lassie McGregor, 2:06 1-4, has been bred to Peter Volo, 2:03 1-2. The M. and W. winner is owned by Arthur H. Ocsden.

Gov. Cox, the 3 year old son of Moko and Melva J., 2:10 1-4, has been sent to Ed Allen at Lexington, Ky.

Young Miss, the dam of Bingen, is in foal to The Northern Man, 2:06 1-2. The daughter of Young Jim is 2:05 at age.

Louis Pieper of Lynn is starting to hammer the New England league. He says Pitchburg would be a great city for it. If he ever gets sore at the asteri association he'll nominate Norwich for the circuit. Everybody knew that Louis would get sick of the New England league.

Probably the man who will miss Hank O'Day most now that he has been declared a free agent, is Heinie Zimmermann. Undoubtedly Heinie is shedding tears of joy over the prospect of a season without Hank to contend with.

Connie Mack is looking around the southern forests in search of a suitable pennant pole for the 1915 flag. It strikes us that Connie should first get Directors of Textile field at Manchester, N. H., now say that the field has not been leased to anybody yet, though the general impression is that the New England league has no chance there. Manchester feels that the New England Feds will locate there without any doubt.

Managers Stallings has made the remark about the lack of speed among the champs on the bases. The Boston leader seems to think sprinters are of more use to a ball team than marathons.

SPORTING NOTES

According to a current report, Action, 2:11 1-4, was recently priced at $25,000.

The Baltimore Feds claim that 7,000 orders have already been accepted for the opening game in Baltimore.

John Hummel is whaling the ball for the Brooklyn second team. He is also putting up a fine first base game.

Roger Bresnahan has signed up another backstop for the Chi Cubs. Roger evidently doesn't intend to don the shin-guards again this season.

It's funny how unpleasant the weather can be in the South all winter, and then old "J. Pluvius" starts an annual six-weeks' engagement as soon as the ball tossers arrive.

One scribe considers the International league the Belgium of the baseball war. He sees the Feds whaling the allies and sampling all over the international league territory.

A Chicago despatch reads: "A national 'dope trust' to beat the Federals was discovered recently." This trust should not be confused with the scribes given to baseball writings.

Manager Stallings has made the remark about the lack of speed among the champs on the bases. The Boston leader seems to think sprinters are of more use to a ball team than marathons.

We read that "a team of Giant rookies, including Larry Doyle," is doing stunts in the South. Can it be possible that the Giant captain has advanced in age so far that he is to be classed in his second childhood?

Benny Kauff, crack batsman of the Feds, is said to have applied to the Giants for a job. The Giants will look over his contract to see if there is a loophole that would permit his jump back to organized ball.

Cigarettes have been banned from the training trip of the Cleveland Indians by Manager Birmingham "Pete" Shields, formerly of the Waterbury club, probably won't object as long as the customary cud is not prohibited, too.

Newark is strong for the Feds because Charlie Ebbets' first consideration is to train his own game. Just now the Giants are in a bit of a bind for a job. The Giants will look over his contract to see if there is a loophole that would permit his jump back to organized ball.

Negotiations for the sale of that Bridgeport club have been on for almost a year now. Every once in a while somebody is pictured as willing to buy the club before a certain date, but that somebody always changes his mind.

John Henry considers Booth Hooper ex-New Havener, "one of the most serviceable pitchers" on Washington's staff. "He is one of the few pitchers that I have seen crack in while some in New York who are capable of recognizing talent."

Things are boiling down at Coffee Pot park in St. Petersburg, Fla. The Phillies have been there less than a week and are all in the best of contention for the club before a certain date, but that somebody always changes his mind.

Larry Lajole is the surprise of the Athletics' camp. He is showing plenty of pep for so early in the fray. Just now Kopf is picked for third base and of course Barry and McInnis are fixtures. Oidring Strunk and Murphy promise to be the regular outfielders, and one of the regular outfielders, Jimmy Walsh is subbing at first base.

The Athletics do not appear rugged enough in the pitching department. Bush, Bressler, Fenwick, Shawkey and Wyckoff, youthful veterans, do not impress the scribes very strongly for the work expected from them.

Floors of Iron Dust.
A new finish for concrete floors where a hard surface and a dustless one is desired consists of ninety-five per cent of iron dust or iron flour. It is added to the dry cement in the proportion of fifteen to twenty-five pounds to each one hundred pounds, and one part of the mixture is used with two parts of sand. This preparation is applied as a top coat to a thickness of one-half to one inch. It forms a hard and durable floor, claimed to be waterproof and not slippery. This composition also is made use of where it is desired to make new concrete unite with old.—Chicago Journal.

The city of Peking will be encircled by a railroad which will hug the historic walls.
