20TH ANNIVERSARY.

Celebrated by Norwich Lodge, N. E. O. P.—Jewel to Grand Warden Armstrong.

Addresses by grand officers of the New England Order of Protection and a supper marked the 20th anniversary of Norwich lodge, No. 248, in Buckingham Memorial on Monday night.

There were about thirty present at the celebration including Grand Warden William G. Coxeter of Hartford, Grand Secretary John J. Minnix of New Haven and Deputy Grand Warden Charles W. Wheeler of New London. A chicken pie supper was served under the direction of E. H. Berry and addresses were made by Grand Warden Coxeter, Grand Secretary Minnix, Deputy Grand Warden Wheeler, E. M. Newbury and Dr. Anthony Peck.

Grand Warden Coxeter presented Warden J. Oliver Armstrong a past warden's jewel. He is serving his second term as warden. Sumner W. Armstrong was toast master of the evening.

During the evening Grand Warden Coxeter called attention to the anniversary of the grand council which will be held in Waterbury on April 14th. The 250 delegates whom it is expected will attend will be tendered a reception and dance the night before the convention.

TOO STRONG FOR FIFTH CO. TEAM

Tenth Co. from New London won at Indoor Baseball, 22 to 17.

The strong Fifth company team went down to defeat at the armory on Monday night when they met the Tenth company team of New London at indoor baseball, the score being 22 to 17.

The New London team got a lead of four runs in the first inning, the Fifth company being shut out in this inning, but the home team evened up the score in the third inning, the tally standing 4 and 4. In the next inning the Fifth company scored two runs, again standing even, and then the local boys jumped ahead six runs in the fifth when the visitors were held down considerably in the next three innings, but they spurted in the eighth, getting eight men over the home plate. This was too much of a lead for the Norwich soldiers to overcome.

The score by innings and the lineups follow:

Score by Innings: Tenth Co. 4 1 0 4 0 2 2 3 1—22 Fifth Co. 0 3 1 4 0 0 1 2—17

The lineups: Tenth Co.—Ferry of, Rockhols of, Dorson of, Sizer of, Daniels of, Capwell of, Keefe 2b, Baier 3b, Goss ss, Stanton.

Fifth Co.—Clark of, Clinance p, Huntley 1b, Waldon 1b, Sargent 2b, Colmas 3b, Ellsworth 2as, Vars if, Matray cf, Klump.

A team representing Pequot lodge, No. 85, of New London, will play the Fifth company team at the armory on Wednesday night. The Tenth company players of New London issue a challenge to any indoor baseball team in the state and invite managers of state teams to answer the challenge through the columns of The Bulletin.

RECEPTION AT MILLER'S.

Given by Monday Afternoon Class—A Dozen Pretty Numbers.

One of the prettiest receptions of the season was that held Monday evening by the Monday afternoon class at Miller's Dancing Academy on Oak street. Parents and friends of the young people in the class were present during the evening and they were delighted with the program of the twelve numbers on the program. The opening number was a march-onesstep, and this was led by Thomas Joseph Dodd, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dodd and Miss Anna Paxson Rodier, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Rodier. Master Dodd wore a white suit, while his little partner wore white dress over pink. All the little girls were very prettily dressed and carried handsome arm bouquets.

The program which was arranged under the direction of Herbert T. Miller, dancing master, was as follows: March—one step (1); Polka Populaire (Castle), Maxine One Step, Hestiation, One Step (2), The Argentine, The Canter, Viennese, and Celebration One Step, (3) Fox Trot, Waltz Canter.

By special request the maxixe was repeated by the class during the intermission and during intermission a light collation was served.

Thomas Joseph Dodd was master of ceremonies and his aides were William Haggerty, Ralph Parker, Howard Williams and Philip Hall. Mrs. Nellie H. Crowe and Mrs. James H. Whitney received.

AWARDED SHEFFIELD $1,750.

Jury in Superior Court Gave Verdict in Alienation of Affections Suit.

Lucien M. Sheffield was awarded $1,750 damages by a jury in the superior court in New London Monday afternoon in his suit against Alva G. Seaworth of Old Saybrook for the alienation of his wife, Mrs. J. Sheffield. Sheffield said for $5,000.

The jury returned the verdict at 3.20 after deliberating over an hour and a quarter Friday afternoon, and four hours and 20 minutes Monday.

At 12.40 the jury returned to the court room and announced their verdict to the foreman that it had been unable to come to an agreement.

Judge Bennett told the jury that it ought not to have any more difficulty settling the matter. He stated that the jury ought to reach an agreement and that failure to do so would be a denial of justice and ordered them to retire again. At 1 o'clock the jury was excused for lunch and at 2 o'clock it was ordered to retire. Over an hour later the verdict was returned.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

The following were the resolutions offered by Corporation Council Joseph T. Fanning and passed by unanimous vote when the vote was taken:

Whereas, the proposition before the present town of Norwich, which divides into two towns, the town of Norwich, whose boundaries have remained substantially unchanged since 1785, must be considered a matter of grave concern to the inhabitants of this city, which holds more than two-thirds of the population of the town, and provides 74 per cent. of its grand list, and this movement has been initiated and promoted without the indorsement of the majority of the voters of the town who will be prejudicially affected by the new municipal corporation;

Whereas, the citizens of this community view the project as a measure which interferes with the regular and just government of the town, and subjects it to the public weakness which invariably marks the change in municipal government, and

Whereas, particular and serious disadvantages will result to the city from carrying out the proposed plan which will include a vote of the people, interests, but undoubtedly will require necessary many changes in the city charter, and under the new arrangement the city's water works, sewerage and Meadow Brook will be subject to taxation in the new town, the jurisdiction of the city court will be shared with the new town, and the city's maintenance will be increased, the amount payable to the city as a town's share for maintaining the city's water works, sewerage, and Meadow Brook will be
