U. S. VICE CONSUL AT MOSCOW

Appointment of Hon. Luther K. Zabriskie of Preston—Recently Completed Four Years at Consulate at Callao, Peru—To Sail From New York on April 1st—Will Reach Russia via Sweden.

LUTHER K. ZABRISKIE, Appointed Vice Consul at Moscow.

Friends of Hon. Luther K. Zabriskie of Preston learned with pleasure Friday night that he had been officially notified in Washington of his appointment as American vice consul at Moscow.

cow, Russia, a city of 1,618,000 people, and one of the most important in the dominions of the czar. For the past four years Mr. Zabriskie had been deputy vice consul at Callao, Peru, and his new appointment can be looked upon as recognition of the satisfactory and able way in which he filled that position which made it possible for him to deserve appointment to this more important post which has now come to him.

He returned from Peru about the first of the year and took examinations in Washington for appointment for a full consulship. No reports have yet been given out on the results of these examinations, but Mr. Zabriskie, it is known, is highly gratified with his appointment to the post in Russia. It will not be his first visit to that country, as he traveled there for a time after his graduation from Yale. His appointment carries the directions to proceed to his new post as soon as possible and he is planning now to leave Washington for New York on Thursday, April 1st, on the steamer Hellig Olav of the Scandinavian-American line. This will land him at Christiania, Norway, and from there he will probably travel by rail to Stockholm, Sweden, thence by rail and sledges around the Baltic sea to the Gulf of Bothnia to Petrograd, and from the Russian capital to Moscow.

JURY'S VERDICTS APPROVED BY JUDGE BENNETT

Declines to Allow Motions to Set Aside in Two Cases.

Judge William L. Bennett declined to set aside the verdict for the city of New London in the case of B. H. Hilliar against the city in which the jury returned a verdict for the defendant in the superior court Thursday. The matter came up at the short calendar session of the superior court Friday morning. On the motion of the plaintiff to set aside the verdict as against the evidence and unjust.

VERDICT AGAINST DOCTOR WHO SUED TROLLEY CO.

Jury Finds for Defendant in $5,000 Damage Case.

A verdict for the defendant trolley company was returned by the jury in the superior court late Friday afternoon in the suit that was brought for $5,000 damages by Dr. Wallace B. Keeney of New London against The Shore Line Electric Railway Co. Dr. Keeney had attempted to board a Washington street car on State street, New London, in January, 1914, when he was struck and injured by the car.

Alienation Case Verdict Stands.

A motion to set aside the verdict of $1,750 for the plaintiff in the case of Lucien M. Sheffield of New York against Alva G. Beckwith of Old Saybrook, for the alienation of the affections of his wife, was also heard and denied Friday morning. The motion was argued by Attorney Morgan for the defendant on the ground that it was excessive and against the cutting down of the grade by the city in laying down the new walks, whereas the jury by its verdict had not only implied that no damage was done to the property, but that it had been benefited.

CHAMPIONS OTIS SKINNER.

Julian Dillaby Scores Boston. Play-acting Committee for Ignoring the Actor.

Kitty MacKay, the play of Scottish humor and character, sugar-coated with a sentiment that is hardly true to the one or the other, now current at the Shubert, has pleased the Play-acting Committee of the Drama League and the following bulletin approves it: "An amusing comedy of Scots manners. Although the plot is weak and there is a dearth of original ideas, the part of Kitty MacKay with natural sprightliness. On the whole, an entertaining evening."

Other matters disposed of at the session were as follows:

The case of Strickland of New London, motion for permission to amend complaint; Murphy vs. McKay, that the receiver be ordered to pay out of the premises occupied by him as such receiver; Turner vs. Turner, executor, upon a motion for judgment; Fenton vs. Fenton Building Co., order approving receiver's accounts; Jennings vs. Nadler, et al., order that injunction be made permanent; Knickerbocker Exchange, Inc., vs. Briggs, default for failure to plead; Thames Loan & Trust Co. vs. Aetna Construction Co., permission to file motion to strike out and Cook, et al. vs. Park, hearing in damages, all went off the list.

MOOSE OFFICERS.

Dictator George and Secretary Hazard Are Both Re-elected.

At their annual election in the new Moose home on Friday evening, the members of Norwich Conn., lodge No. 950, chose the following to guide them through the coming year:

Dictator, Joseph A. George; past dictator, C. D. Beaver; secretary, Frank B. Hazard; treasurer, W. H. Simpson; vice dictator, George H. Moies; prelate, J. T. F. Burns; inner guard, Eugene Fowler; outer guard, Hillard Veins; trustees, H. H. Jarvis, one year; Frank C. Sterry, two years; William Disco, Jr., three ears.

Both the dictator, J. A. George and the secretary, F. B. Hazard, who were re-elected, have served the lodge ably and faithfully since it was instituted, May 9, 1914, by Jules P. Boutvier.

After re-assuming office Dictator George appointed Michael Sadusky as JOSEPH A. GEORGE, Re-elected Moose Dictator.

Home, Dorothy Dean; You Can't Pay Your Landlord with Love, Bert York; Dancing the Blues Away, Alice Graves; Prof. Coffey and Miss Lillian, dance, one-step cakewalk; diet, Lew Orth and Miss Lillian; song and dance, Colton and Clifford.

Al Craig, manager of the Davis, who is a member of the local Moose, favored with a vocal selection, When You and I Were Young, Maggie.

Several of the company are members of the order and it was through their courtesy that the theatrical troupe offered to entertain the local lodge. Their efforts were very much appreciated and it is hoped that they will repeat the visit if they should ever come to Norwich again. During the evening the committee in charge provided sandwiches and coffee.

Short Calendar Motions.

Other matters disposed of at the session were as follows: The cases of Strickland of New London, motion for permission to amend complaint; Murphy vs. McKay, that the receiver be ordered to pay out of the premises occupied by him as such receiver; Turner vs. Turner, executor, upon a motion for judgment; Fenton vs. Fenton Building Co., order approving receiver's accounts; Jennings vs. Nadler, et al., order that injunction be made permanent; Knickerbocker Exchange, Inc., vs. Briggs, default for failure to plead; Thames Loan & Trust Co. vs. Aetna Construction Co., permission to file motion to strike out and Cook, et al. vs. Park, hearing in damages, all went off the list.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES.

Five Churches Are Uniting This Week—Fast Day Services at Universalist Church.

Five of the churches in the central part of the city will begin union services for holy week on Monday. The times, places, topics and suggestions are as follows: Monday, March 29, at 5 p. m., Second Congregational church, The Turning Point, Jn. 6:49-65.

Tuesday, March 30, at 7:45 p. m., Trinity Methodist church, The Divine Paradox, Mk. 8:31-27.

Wednesday, March 31, at 7:45 p. m., Central Baptist church, The Cup of Sorrow, Mk. 10:35-45.

Friday, April 2, at 11 a. m., Church of the Good Shepherd, The Law of Love, Jn. 6:12-26.

Friday, April 2, at 7:45 p. m., Broadway Congregational church, Sanctified and Sent, Jn. 17:9-19.

On Thursday evening, April 1, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed by each church in its own house of worship.

A hopeful sign of spring was the fact that a start was made Friday at cleaning up the gutters on Franklin square.
