SPORTING NOTES

Jack McCarron, a well known middleweight local champion, has accepted an engagement in Allentown, Pa., the other evening. Unlike so many of the present day boxers, McCarron has always done his fighting on the ring, not via the press agent route.

Fred Murray of Stanford university turned in the best performance in the Stanford-Olympic dual meet at Palo Alto, California, last Saturday, when he won over the high hurdles in 15 2-5 seconds and the low in 24 1-5 seconds, the latter making a new Pacific coast record.

Walter Christie took the University of California track team to Los Angeles last Saturday, and they ran away from Ralp Glaves' proteges of the University of Southern California, 44 2-5 points to 37 1-3. The track event times suggest bad conditions as no exceptional records were made. In fact, Howard Drew won the 100 and 200 yard dashes for U. S. C. in 10 4-8 seconds and 23 seconds.

Trainer Steve Farrell of the University of Michigan has discovered a novel method by which he hopes to instill into his charges the sort of enthusiasm and vim that are a necessity to the successful track team. Farrell proposes to make the athletes of Michigan do their training to the accompaniment of music furnished by the "varsity band," and his plan is heartily advocated by the supporters of the team.

Far-Connolly and Youssif Hussain, both of whom are fairly well known both of whom are fairly well known in the case, met in a wrestling match at Onondaga night last week, and were on the mat four hours with neither man getting a fall. Then they came to New York and the police stepped in and stopped further hostilities, to the intense disgust of the crowd. And still there are those who imagine that no professional wrestling match can be strictly on the level.

PLAINFIELD RETAINS ITS PRESTIGE Whitewashed All-League Association Football Team in Live-ly Contest at Taftville—Score 4 to 0—Underwood Played Strong Game—Victors Showed Great Team Work.

Before a large and enthusiastic crowd the Plainfield association football team retained its laurels in defeating an All-League team picked from the Eastern Connecticut association football league on the Providence street grounds, Taftville, Friday afternoon by the score of 4 to 0. The upstate boys played a superior game in all stages and held their reputation as a smooth working combination. Underwood, the undoubted giant on the field, played a corking game, scoring three of the goals for the victors, and in general was about the liveliest man on the field. The game was for the benefit of the British war fund.

The All-League team won the toss. Immediately after the kickoff the Plainfield boys started savagely at attack, and before five minutes were up Underwood had planned the initial goal, by kicking the ball into the goal. The rest of the game was a mere proposition they were up against, hovered near the Plainfield goal and time after time they were repulsed from scoring, determining an excellent chance to score which they failed on. After several corner kicks by both sides, and much give and take variety of play, in which Pilling and Knowles starred, the half ended with a lively scrimmage near Plainfield's goal. Score, Plainfield 4, All-League 0.

On the restart the Plainfield combination played rings around the Leaguers, who were handicapped for some time with the dropping out of White and Pilling. Underwood, who had entered the game later on. The Leaguers' goal was attacked time after time, but through Sutton and Goal Keeper Pennington the opponents were driven back. In this half the Leaguers missed several chances to score. The brilliant work displayed by the Plainfield team in this period was of a very noticeable nature, and on excellent passing. James Greenhalgh, Luthur McCoy was hailed as the champion of the white race until he was carried lifeless from the ring, killed by a blow delivered by Arthur Peiky, who now plays the role of punching bag at New York clubs.

Carl Morris, another giant, who left the locomotive to become the challenger of Johnson, was exploded in Madison Square Garden when Jim Flynn battered him to pulp. Rodeo club defeated the Cincinnati Nationalists here today, 1 to 0. Score: Chattanooga 1, Cincinnati 0.

It will interest our New England colleagues to learn that Carl Shattuck, the California winter thrower, won with a throw of 161 feet 3 inches. This is 4 feet 5 inches better than John De Witt's intercollegiate record, but is nearly a foot short of Shattuck's own collegiate record.

Expect Whirlwind Bout. George H. Monte and Billy Fitzgerald have at last been successful in getting Kid Swift to go in the ring with Jack Monte. The bout will not start before a whirlwind preparation is finished and will decide the lightweight championship of Eastern Connecticut. Both boys have always been bitter rivals in the ring. Monte is managed by his younger brother George and trained by Homer Monte. They are confident that he can defeat Swift, whom they claim he has already mastered in the wrestling game.
