Spinners at Dayville Mill Settle Disagreement—Two New Teachers Engaged—Death of Mrs. Fred Lavree—Good Friday Services Largely Attended.

That flurry of discontent that sent nearly a score of spinners on their way from the mill of the Asawauqua Woolen company at Dayville Thursday afternoon has quickly passed on and left clear skies, as was expected.

The difference that caused the spinners to leave their jobs—good jobs, well paying jobs—was adjusted Friday morning and the men will be back to work Monday morning.

A conference for Friday morning brought about a quick adjustment of the difficulty. The men objected to working so much overtime. When they got back to work Monday it will be with the agreement to continue overtime work, but they will not be called upon to do so much of it as has been the case for the last few months.

In discussing the incident of the spinners' walkout, Angus Park, who operates the mill, said Friday afternoon that he had no desire to have his employees work overtime and they were only called upon to do so that the business of the company might not suffer.

The settlement of the matter is good news for Killbuck, which is deriving not a little of its prosperity from the successful operation of the fine mill at Dayville.

Borough Brevities.

Peter Pigeon of New Bedford, formerly of Danielson, was a visitor in town Friday.

W. E. Keach of the West Side was in Providence on a business trip Friday.

Miss Dorothy Paine is spending the Easter recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Paine.

Mrs. E. H. Keach is in charge of the arrangements for the annual church in Putnam Easter Sunday afternoon.

Rev. H. N. Brown is to conduct a service to the parish at 7 p. m. in Putnam Easter Sunday afternoon.

Let Off Easy.

Manager J. F. Lewis of the Orpheum theater remarks that the new delivery service of mail is being finely conducted by the post office and the carriers are Young and Greene. The court: 30 days.

Teachers Secured.

Announcement was made Friday that Miss Grace Eddick of New Haven has been secured as principal for the school at Ballouville and Miss Ruth Dexter of South Killbuck as teacher to fill the other vacancy.

A local business man who occasionally smokes a cigarette has christened them Ford cigars.

The mills at Ballouville and Attawaugan close at noon for the remainder of the week.

Hundreds of residents of Danielson attended the Good Friday services at the various churches in the borough.

Question of Salary.

The question of paying salaries to the warden and court of burgesses will again come up at the annual borough meeting. For years past the officials have been paid the same and taking the ticks without pay.

Miss Mary L. Kingsbury, assistant junior secretary of the Women's Board of Missions, is to give an illustrated talk on India in the vestry of the Congregational church next Saturday afternoon.

Chicks by the Thousand.

At Elm Valley farm in Elmville 1,100 chicks, only a few days old, may be seen in one brooder house. More than 1,000 eggs are hatching in one big incubator that is expected to turn out the factory-made chicks about April 14.

Resplendent in brand new uniforms, donned for the first time, members of the Ballouville baseball team had their photograph taken as a group Good Friday afternoon. The uniforms are very pretty—gray with navy blue (as it were) trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cyr and Mrs. Cyr's sister, Miss Eugenie Goyette, who have been spending the winter at the Cyr home, in Montreal, have returned to Danielson to remain for several months.

Towns across the Rhode Island border are considerably agitated at this time over the big Providence reservoir project that is threatening if carried out as planned, to wipe several villages off the map.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Fred Lavree.

Mrs. Philomena Lavree, 36, wife of Fred Lavree, died at their home on the Green Hollow road. Besides her husband she is survived by five children.

Sneak thieves have been operating in the village of Williamsville, getting into homes while residents were out attending an entertainment.

Electric lighting and power companies in Windham county are very much interested in knowing about the extent of rights likely to be granted to the power company being organized in New London county and which is seeking charter rights to do business.

Peter Pigeon, who formerly lived here, was a visitor in the city from New Bedford Friday.

Easter Even Service.

There is to be an Easter even service at St. Philip's church this afternoon.

Putnam was represented at the orchard demonstration in Thompson Friday afternoon, the affair being under the auspices of the Farmers' association.

There has been an extra large demand in Putnam this year for flowers for Easter, and a large supply to draw from.

Putnam is to be invited to enter a contest in founding a country club in the town.

Some of the mills in towns hereabouts will remain closed today, giving the employes an extra holiday.

Good Friday was an exceedingly quiet day in Putnam, the streets being as deserted as on a Sunday.

His Sent Letters to Legislators.

Edgar M. Warner has sent to members of the legislature a circular letter urging the passage of the bill providing for a farm for inebriates.

A Dry March.

A weather observer states that the precipitation in Putnam during the past six weeks has been less than .25 of an inch, making the driest March on record.

May Decide on Club Name.

The second meeting of those interested in founding a country club is scheduled to be held this (Saturday) evening, at which time a name for the organization may be selected.

Congregational Church Receipts $3,725.

The annual report of the treasurer of the Ecclesiastical society of the Putnam Congregational church shows that the receipts during the fiscal year just closed amounted to $3,725.85.

This amount, $282 was from parish rents.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. B. C. Boardman.

Funeral services for Mrs. Laura (Hosford) Boardman, wife of Rev. E. H. Boardman, were conducted at her home in Thompson Friday afternoon at 2:30. Boardman died Wednesday.

County Farm Agent Active.

Worthington C. Kennedy, newly appointed agent of the Windham County Farmers' association, has done not a little traveling about towns in this section during the present week and has already made the acquaintance of many farmers and taken up their farm problems with them.

Death of Miss Dickerson - Sidewalk Bids to be Opened Monday - Sale of Lot.

Word was received in Mystic Thursday that the remains of Miss Priscilla Dickerson, daughter of Thomas Dickerson, after a short illness, she had resided in this town for all her life and had gone with her father for the winter to Essex.

She was only sixteen years of age and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves her father, two brothers, Leon and Newton Dickerson, Miss Catherine Dickerson, Mrs. Eugene S. Lord of Deep River, Mrs. Carl Schofield of Guilford, Mrs. Charles Vinal of Middletown.

To Open Bids.

The bids for the cement sidewalk construction along Broadway, East Main and Wilbur streets and Greenmanville avenue are all in and are to be opened Monday next before the committee from the Men's club.

Highway improvement society, the highway superintendent of the town of Stonington. There are eighteen property owners along the route that have already agreed to the sidewalk improvement plan and others are likely to acquiesce so it is likely that in the next few months will see a long stretch of cement walk from the railroad station to the Velvet mill.

The town of Stonington is allowed to expend $150,000 annually for sidewalk construction, the town's share in case of each property owner bearing one half of the expenses involved. Highway Superintendent Edward E. Bucklin were at work on Thursday surveying in front of the residence of Dr. A. H. Meyers where a cement walk is to be built soon.

Buy Babcock Lot.

William Dudley of New York, a well known summer resident has purchased the John R. Babcock lot situated on the corner of East Main and Willow streets. What is to be done with the lot is not known. As it was offered to the government for a federal building although nothing has been heard of it
