

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

THE NEW FREEDOM

—Ohio State Journal

WHICH GLOVE?

—Baltimore American

READY TO JUMP

—Pittsburgh Dispatch

NO BACKBONE?

—Brooklyn Eagle

NO ADMITTANCE

—Cleveland Leader

AN INTERRUPTION

—Chicago News

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

LISBON

Candidate to Preach Sunday—Auction at Adams Place. The pulpit at Newent church will be occupied Sunday morning by Rev. Robert Thorne, who comes as a candidate. There will be special Easter music. Schools in town have been closed this week for the Easter vacation. F. E. Hyde was a business caller in Mystic Friday. Harry G. Foote of Mount Hermon school returned home Tuesday for the summer. Paul Bradlaw of Storrs Agricultural college is spending the Easter recess at his home here. A C. E. social was held at Mrs. A. F. Read's Thursday evening. Miss Alice Kennedy has been the guest of friends in Bridgeport for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Ransom T. Reed and Miss Beatrice Reed spent the week end in Exeter, R. I. The red-winged black-bird is here with his cheery c-a-k-e-e. The chick-a-dee is singing his spring song which resembles that of the pheebe. A flock of starlings numbering a hundred or more, which was noticed occasionally through the winter, is now seen daily. There was a sizable crowd at the auction sale of farming implements and household goods, Wednesday at the late residence of Andrew Adams.

CHESTERFIELD

The supper held in the M. E. church Thursday evening was a great success. Mrs. George Holmes called on Mrs. J. E. Powers Friday. Among those who helped clean the church were Mrs. J. E. Powers, Mrs. George Holmes and Misses Mary Tinker and Florence Powers. Among those who are here spending the Passover are Misses Flora Platt, Goldie Kaplan, Mollie Kaplan, Messrs. Bennie, Harry, Leon Joe, Samuel, Bennie Kaplan and Bessie Jacobs. There will be preaching service in the M. E. church Sunday at 2 p. m. Rev. T. H. Peabody of Norwich will preach. P. Ribner lost his family horse on Sunday. Misses Hazel Powers, Mary Tinker and Florence Powers were callers in New London Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Israel Ribner and

NORTH LYME

George Ingalls has moved his mill from J. L. Raymond's to Bill Hill. Mrs. Willis Hall and family have been visiting at H. B. Maynard's this week. John Hyde and family moved last week to the house recently vacated by Charles Sweet and family who had lived there the past 31 years. Miss Marion Stark is spending the vacation at her home here, and is entertaining Miss Myra Sweet of Willimantic. Miss Gertrude Ward was a guest of Miss Marion Stark Tuesday. Merrill Babcock has hired the L. Q. Raymond farm for another year. H. A. Gates and family move to the Wilcox place this week. Allen Way will soon move to the Tillotson farm in Salem. Work is progressing on George Babcock's new house. They hope to occupy it in a few weeks.

LEFFINGWELL

John Lyman of Yale was the week end guest of Margaret Beebe. Miss Gladys Leffingwell of Norwich was a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell. Samuel C. Beebe spent Saturday with his son, DeLoyd, at New Britain. Gladys M. Beebe and Paul Turner of Mount Vernon, N. Y., are spending the Easter vacation with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beebe. Ernest Taylor has appendicitis. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church held a baked bean supper at Mr. and Mrs. Silas Leffingwell's on Wednesday evening. About 100 attended and a good sum was realized.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

William J. Tanner moved to Wakefield, R. I., Monday. State inspectors are examining the cattle in this vicinity. No case of foot and mouth disease has been reported.

Henry Mattison has moved to S. L. Barber's Grand house. Walter Brown is seriously ill with pneumonia. Charles Mattison has moved to Glasgow. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes visited Mrs. Holmes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fanner Sunday. Eugene Parto was a week end visitor in this vicinity.

ROAD SOCIETY

Miss Sarah Davis of Lower Pawcatuck who has been at Maple Lawn for a week is now the guest of Mrs. Susan Smith on Hangank Hill. A number from here attended the Fellowship meeting at Westerly on Wednesday. Mrs. Fanny Worthmore was in Providence Friday. Miss Martha Williams of Boston returned Friday for the holidays. Seth N. Williams has completed jury work at New London. John Kane of New London spent Sunday with Horace Frink. Mrs. Maria P. Stanton entertained at tea Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Edwards are at their summer home here after spending the winter in the south. Miss Grace D. Wheeler left Friday for a visit with friends in Boston. Schools closed Thursday for ten days' vacation. Lawrence Williams is having a bungalow built on Quaquegnon Hill.

GRISWOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Campbell and daughter, Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Reid and daughter, and John Gardner of Lebanon, visited over Sunday with Charles Bilven and family, of Providence. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Peckham spent Sunday with the Edmonds. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Norman and son were visitors in Baltic Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Montgomery entertained friends last Friday evening in honor of Mr. Montgomery's birthday. William Saunders and Mrs. Lydia Portage have been ill with severe colds the past week.

MOHEGAN

Mrs. W. P. Church is visiting friends in Worcester and Wallingford. Lemuel M. Fielding and son, Osgood, of Norwich, called on friend in this place Sunday. Mrs. Fred Smith is visiting friends in Chicopee Falls. Services were held in this place on Sunday, both morning and evening. Mr. Perry lost a valuable horse on Monday.

GOSHEN

Many Witness Play—Services on Fast Day Followed by Church Meeting.

A good number from Goshen attended the pleasing drama, The Village Postoffice, presented by the young people in Exeter, Wednesday evening. People were surprised when they woke up Tuesday morning to find it snowing. It seed at one time as though it would be a repetition of the March blizzard of '88, the air was so dense with the falling snow flakes, and the wind roared through the forest. Fast Day Services. Fast Day services were held in the church Friday, also the annual election of church officers and reorganization of the Sunday school. Fishermen who have used large hooks and line have caught some large suckers. A farmer lost a valuable cow last week, the animal getting hung in the stanchions in the barn. F. G. Stark has purchased an automobile. E. L. Waterman has cleared a large field of virgin soil. The buildings were reduced to a size that could be conveniently moved with dynamite.

EAST COLCHESTER

Twenty-Ninth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahoney Celebrated by Friends. Saturday evening a few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahoney to celebrate their 29th wedding anniversary and also the hostess' birthday. An enjoyable time was spent. During the evening an appetizing turkey supper was served. They received many beautiful gifts. William Smith of New London was a recent guest of friends here. School in the seventh district closed Friday, the 26th, for the Easter vacation. Forest fires in the surrounding places are plainly visible these bright nights. Mrs. Edward Mahoney was in Norwich Tuesday calling on little Francis Fargo, who is seriously ill in Backus hospital. Mrs. E. Eastland was a caller on friends here Sunday. R. H. Gray was a business caller here this week. James McGrath is building a shanty on the farm he has leased to Polish people.

ASHWILLET

Daniel E. Pierce is ill with a fever at his home near Billings pond. Herbert Walker moved his goods to the Eccleston farm here, occupied for a number of years by A. A. Morgan and family. A fire in the woods on their Stewart farm Monday night, was put out

NORTH STONINGTON

Birth Day Club Visits Mrs. Knowles—Next Fellowship Meeting Here the 21st. Rev. A. L. Townsend of Voluntown preached in the Third Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Lucian Drury officiated at the funeral services of Denison S. Turner, Monday. He is survived by his wife, who was Marian Miner, a son and two daughters. The snow storm made its appearance Tuesday morning with a blizzard-like wind for a while before it stopped snowing.

LAUREL GLEN

School closed Friday for one week vacation. George Hill, who is employed at the Norwich State Hospital, spent Friday night with his family here. The fire last Thursday burnt over the wood-lot of the Thompson brothers, John Geer, and Mr. Birch and others. Dr. Hale of Springfield, Mass., was at his summer home last week. Joseph Duff spent Sunday with his family in Jewett City. Emma Birch returned Saturday from a week's visit with her aunt in Westerly. Mr. and Mrs. William Price and daughter were in Westerly last Saturday. Miss Kate Thomas is caring for Mrs. Runch and infant son. Malcom Thompson is moving his saw mill from the Birch lot to one of John Burdick's. There was preaching in the chapel last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Van Horn, of Ashaway. Mrs. Amanda Knight is ill.

PENDLETON HILL

Malcom Thompson is soon to move his saw mill to B. G. Palmer's wood lot. Mrs. James M. Cook and Clifford Thompson have been confined to the house with severe cases of grip. Miss Mary Chapman, who teaches at Laurel Glen and Clark Coon, who teaches at Stone Hill, are having a week vacation. The Hill school is also closed for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Button and daughter Olive, attended the Methodist social at Glasgow Hall, Friday evening. Irving Thompson has a new automobile. Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson and son Malcom were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, of Bradford, R. I.

CLARK'S FALLS

Mrs. Cassius Collins has returned from a hospital in Providence, much improved in health. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Maine attended the funeral of the latter's grandfather, Dennis S. Turner. S. Frank Palmer has hatched out over three hundred Rhode Island Red chicks. Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Palmer were guests of George W. Burdick and family Sunday afternoon. Their son, G. Chester Burdick, Mrs. Burdick's daughter Thetis and infant son George Chester Jr., were with them. William F. Bromley, who has been in Massachusetts for some time, is in the village calling on friends and looking after his home. Frank Tillinghast called on Clifford Thompson who has been ill.

FRANKLIN

Motor Trip to Hartford—Enjoyable Social and Entertainment. Miss Helen Adams of Norwich was the week-end guest of Mrs. Arthur Smith. S. N. Hyde was a recent Hartford visitor. Mrs. Charles Beckwith and Mrs. George Kahn were Jewett City visitors Thursday. A party consisting of Ernest Smith, Huntington Lathrop, Mrs. Arthur Smith and Miss Florence Geer were in Hartford Thursday, making the trip in Ernest Smith's new automobile. Easter the Theme. The Congregational church Sunday, and there will be special music by the choir. Theodore Smith has returned home, after spending several months in Swansboro. Successful Social. A very enjoyable social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kahn, Tuesday evening of last week with a large attendance. The entertainment consisted of dialogue and music. The social was under the auspices of the Fitchville Baptist church. Miss Millie Ward of Lebanon was a recent guest of Mrs. L. A. Robinson.

LIBERTY HILL

Woodland Fire Threatens Clubhouse—Burial of Mrs. Sarah H. Jones. Miss Annie Harvey, teacher of the district school has been ill for two weeks past, but is convalescent. Her sister, Mrs. Everett C. Payson is teaching for her. The U. E. society had a social at the parish hall Thursday evening. A steam saw mill is located on the Leverett Brothers' farm. Mr. Leverett is having lumber sawed for a new barn. Henry U. Oehler's mother of New York, has been the guest at his home the past week. Mrs. E. A. Noyes returned to her home here Friday after spending the winter with her daughters. Threatening Fire. A fire started in the woods at Short Hills near Leonard Bridge station Monday noon burning over a large tract of woodland. About 50 men fought the fire. It was not put out until the heavy snow squall on Tuesday's morning. The fire came within a few hundred feet of Liberty club house. Burial of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Sarah H. Jones died in Hartford Sunday noon at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Church. The body was brought to Exeter Wednesday for burial. Mrs. Jones was a former resident of this place and Lebanon.

PRESTON

Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Brattleboro and Shelton Keneston of Bates college are with their father, Rev. L. M. Keneston, during the Easter vacation. Mrs. Charles K. Cray is ill. Miss Oakley of Norwich is caring for her. Mrs. A. E. Shedd, Miss Marjory Willis and Miss Della Rude went this week to visit friends in New York state. Miss Florence Kennedy entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon, it being her 12th birthday. Most of the schools in town are closed for the Easter vacation. Text: G. C. Pollock preached at the Congregational church Sunday because of illness in the pastor's family.

OKDALE

Ecclesiastical Society Holds Annual Meeting—Fred Brooks Recovering Slowly. The annual meeting of the First Congregational society was held in the chapel Monday evening. The report