

Extra Special CORNED BEEF This Week Try It—It's Great

NEW CABBAGE SOMERS

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms

For appointments address E. BULLARD, Bliss' Place, Norwich, Conn.

We advertise exactly as it is

Good clothes are like good tools; You can do better work if you know you have the best things to wear or to work with.

It is commonly acknowledged the country over that the store which sells Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes leads in all its lines of merchandise.

Come in here next time you want something to wear; big or small, you'll get the best merchandise in each line that's made; you'll get the best at any price you want to pay.

SUITS $12.00 to $30.00 and all prices between

Murphy & McGarry 207 MAIN STREET

The Thames Loan & Trust Co.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

MRS. MABREY'S NUT BREAD at RALLION'S

Wedding and Engagement RINGS

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, April 7, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Lawns and fields are showing green as the snow melts.

Only three more boxes left for the Knights of Columbus ball—Adv.

The first hurdy-gurdy of spring was about the streets Tuesday.

Somerset lodge works the Entered Apprentice degree tonight at 7.30 p. m.—Adv.

A party of Norwich women plan to start early in May for a two months' trip to California.

The town of Lyme was snowed under in the week end storm. One drift measured 7 1/2 feet.

Delegates are being chosen to attend the state S. of M. encampment at New Britain April 14 and 15.

Some of the college students will leave town today to resume their studies for the spring term.

Apron, cake and candy sale, Spritual Academy, Wednesday. Salads and bean supper, 20 cents—Adv.

Miss Duncan of Quakerstown is holding revival meetings Sunday at the schoolhouse at Lantern Hill.

The conference year ends this week and the books at Trinity Methodist church will be closed Thursday.

There was a good attendance Tuesday afternoon at the women's prayer meeting at Baptist chapel, Mrs. C. R. Gallup being the leader.

Tiny barrels which were distributed some time ago for the organ fund at the Methodist church at Moosup, are to be opened in the vestry Friday evening.

George P. Maynard of Niantic, who has been head machinist at the London auto station for several years, has begun work at the Crocker house garage.

Thursday evening at the union meeting at Wesleyan church, Rev. E. O. Mead, of Exeter and Liberty Hill is to speak on My Jewish Neighbor.

Eggs have been advanced in price in Connecticut towns in the past few days. Producers claim there is no money in them with food at the present prices.

Heavy colds and rheumatism prevalent at the State Soldiers' home at Norton at present. Over a hundred and fifty of the old soldiers are under the care of the doctors.

Only three more boxes left for the Knights of Columbus ball—Adv.

Grand Army men here have started the annual march in honor of the national flag on Monday, April 5, at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, in the week of April 26.

In Washington they are still discussing the lecture by Frank Edward of Norwich, which was given at the column in the Washington Star, makes the theme of an illustrated story.

Norwich, England, with which Norwich is connected by some pleasant correspondence last spring is again the subject of this week because the independent labor party, holding its meeting here, has come out strongly for peace.

At Old Mystic, Joseph Johnson of Montville has leased the Henry Meach house and will soon move his household goods and family from Montville, where he has been employed at the mill of the Mystic Woolen Co. of Old Mystic.

The April session of the Tolland county superior court will not open until Friday, but next Tuesday at 11 a. m. with the exception of State's Attorney Charles Phelps will attend the state cases, and prisoners will be put to rest at this time.

The contract for the construction of the Lord's Point bridge was awarded Monday by the selectmen to A. Vito of Thompson. Three bids were offered, the lowest being that of Mr. A. Zaccary of New London, $15,000; A. Vito, $5,800 and Louis Dotolo of Westerly, $5,850.

The state treasurer of the W. C. T. U., Nellie Geger, announces in the April issue of the Willard memorial fund for the Willard memorial building at Ellington, South Norwich, that the entry, Uncasville, Danielson and Willimantic $2 each; total $48.

Someone has discovered that on the 2d and 12th of April in 1908 there were three snow storms. On the 29th of April there was one inch of snow on the 29th. On the 8th there were three inches of snow, and one inch on the 15th of April. There has been no snow during April in 1912 and 1913.

Worcester papers are praising the tact and diplomacy of Bishop Thomas F. Davies, who on Monday brought about reconciliation between the Rev. Arthur J. Watson, rector of Trinity Episcopal church of Milford, and one of his parishioners, Francis Townsend, an advisory council having been held because of the altercation.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

Organized For Girls and Women Employed in Shetucket Mills

PERSONALS

Alexander Sharpe has been in New York on a business trip.

Michael Placenza of Groton spent the week end in Norwich.

Miss Mary Fields of Lafayette street is visiting her brother in New Jersey.

Mrs. Benjamin A. Tait of Plainfield was the guest of friends in Norwich this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Prentice of Cliff street are in Washington, D. C., for a week's outing.

Mrs. Andrew Millea is in Wolloston, Mass., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alexander N. Morrissey.

Mrs. George L. Griswold and daughter, Miss Ruth Griswold, of Groton, were visitors in town Tuesday.

John J. Manning of Fourth street has returned after having passed the Easter vacation in Providence with relatives.

Miss Agnes Thorp and Mrs. Sarah A. Craig of Norwich, have been guests at the home of their aunt, Hannah Thorp, of Ashaway, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Tryon, who have been visiting relatives here for the past week, have returned to New York. Tryon is a member of The Blue Bird company.

Earl Mathewson of Norwich, and his brother, Paul Mathewson, of New York spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of their mother, Mrs. Ellen M. Mathewson in Durham.

Rev. Dr. P. J. McCormick, who has been spending the Easter vacation at his home in Norwich, returns this (Wednesday) evening to Washington, D. C., where he is a professor at the Catholic university.

After passing three weeks with Mrs. John Duff of Rockwell street, Miss Jackson has returned to Willimantic, where she is the wife of a brother, who is a guest for several days of Mrs. Duff, returned Tuesday.

GAVE CLEVER PRODUCTION OF THREE ACT FARCE

Local Amateur Actors Won Much Applause in "The Time of His Life"

The three act farce, The Time of His Life, given at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

The productions developed were quite exciting and the different personalities a source of much amusement, especially the eccentric Mr. Wycombe and his wife, who were the center of the play. The play was held at the Osprey Memorial hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Parish House association, had a good audience, who were highly amused and entertained by the play. The characters as they appeared on the stage, were: Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south, and his wife, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Carter's brother, William E. Perry; Mrs. Bob Grey, Marion L. Landon, and her sister, Mrs. Peter Wycombe, a "personage," Katherine Isbister, a "pet" Wycombe, a "damelet" with a digestion, Raymond Sherman; Mr. Bob Grey, William Humphrey Almy; Mr. James Landon, and his wife, Mrs. Landon, a peppery disposition, Benedict C. Puleo; Officer Hogan of the Twenty-second Police Station, Earl E. Mathewson.

The three scenes were laid in the dining room of the Grey home at three o'clock in the evening. Real food was a part of the program, with cakes and chocolate served at intervals, and a delicious roast lamb with mint sauce, green peas and mashed potatoes, fruit salad, custard, and coffee, and a lunch of crackers and cheese in the middle of the night.

SOLID FRONT AGAINST DIVISION

Representative Citizens of Norwich Appeared Before Committee—Annexation Talk is All by Irresponsible People, They Say—Town Officers, Bank Officials and Residents in Proposed "Old Norwich" Oppose Division of Town—Hearing Continued for a Week.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill.

The committee on new towns and probate districts gave hearing Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, before the committee at Hartford on the proposed bill providing for the division of the town of Norwich into two towns, the hearing of which was continued to the hearing of week ago, with this array of legal talent present. Attorneys Fanning, Shields, Newich, Alcorn, Day and Wells, all of those opposing the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in favor of the bill. Witnesses were called by the committee on the bill and Henney and Carpenter for those in