

SOLONS OBJECT TO DISHONOR ROLL

Posted by Woman Suffrage Workers as List of 31 Members Who They Claim Had Pledged to Support Suffrage, and Failed to do so—House Appoints Committee of Conference on Deer Bill—Only Twelve Members Present in Senate, But They Went Ahead With Business.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Hartford, April 9.—Some of the members of the house objected to their names being placed on the Dishonor Roll of the woman suffrage movement, and they held an indignation meeting prior to the opening of the house session and formed the Anti-Dishonor club. Soon after the prayer by the chaplain, Mr. Woodworth announced that his vote on the woman suffrage amendment to the constitution was wrongly recorded, which stated that he was among the absent or not voting, while as a matter of fact he was present and did vote yes on the proposition to reject the resolution. He did not want to be classed as a defector as it was not his intention to duck any question of importance.

Mr. Rathbun of Hebron said his name appeared among the thirty-one that were on the Dishonor Roll, as having been pledged to favor votes for women. He said he was strongly opposed to the proposition and had never pledged his support to it, but confessed to making a remark to Miss Pierson that it might be fair to let the people decide the question. Mr. Chittenden, of Granby, another of the alleged "defectors," announced that he had made no pledge to the women and his name was wrongly on the list of 31 offenders. Mr. Ferry, of New Haven, also disclaimed having pledged support to the woman suffrage movement. Mr. Stoddard, of Woodbridge, a democrat with a woman suffrage badge plank in the party platform, said he hoped to remain a member of the club, to take his medicine and not be a quitter, and added that so far as he was concerned he would worry. This ended the play and the house proceeded to business.

When the calendar was reached, Mr. Davidson, of Bethany, objected to the consideration of matters on the calendar, claiming that the matters were wrongly started for action. When convinced that he was in the wrong and the matters thereon were wrong there in the regular course of procedure, he withdrew his objection.

The Talking of Land.
The bill giving the town of Woodbridge the right to take gravel, under certain conditions, to be used in road construction, was taken from the table and a motion to reconsider was tabled. Mr. Stoddard, of Woodbridge, said he preferred to have the matter fought out in the house rather than in the senate.

Hamden Town Court.
The judiciary committee reported favorably a bill to create the town court of Hamden. Tabled for calendar.

Disagree on Deer.
The act concerning the killing of deer, which was rejected in the senate and passed by the house, was returned to the house, the senate adhering and asking for committee of conference. The house agreed and appointed as the committee on the part of the house, Mr. Penn of Wethersfield and Mr. Peasley of Cheshire.

Bristol Officers Continue.
Bill was passed in the house under suspension of the rules and transmitted to the senate, which provides that the borough officers of Winsted shall continue in office until October. This action was taken to meet the requirements of the proposed consolidation of Winsted and Winchester into the town of Winsted.

Measurements Needed.
The judiciary committee reported unfavorably on an act which provided for the measurements and photographing of persons arrested for minor offenses. The report was accepted and bill rejected.

Grade Crossing Signals.
Unfavorable report came from the committee on railroads in regard to signals at grade crossings, it being explained that these matters were within the jurisdiction. The report was accepted and bill rejected.

Baseball Pools.
The act concerning baseball pools was passed in the senate and provides for the regulation of pools, directly or indirectly make any pool, wager, or bet, upon a baseball game, or upon any element thereof, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than one year in jail, or both, for any subsequent offense.

Turpentine Adulteration.
An act was passed in the house which provides that no person, firm, or corporation shall manufacture, mix for sale, offer for sale, or have in his or its possession with intent to sell, or sell under the name of turpentine, or spirits of turpentine, any article not wholly distilled from rosin, turpentine gum, or scrapings from pine trees, and unmixed and unadulterated with oil, benzine, or any other substance, unless the package containing the same shall be labeled "Adulterated Spirits of Turpentine." Nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the manufacture or sale of such compound or imitation provided the package containing the same shall be plainly marked as such. Any package in which such turpentine is delivered shall be plainly marked "Adulterated Spirits of Turpentine."

School Fund Investment.
The act concerning the investment of the school fund which passed in the house, Friday, was passed as follows: The state treasurer shall collect all loans from the school fund secured upon real estate located outside of the state as rapidly as it is practicable to loan the same in the state, and all such loans shall be collected before July 1, 1915. No loans from the school fund shall hereafter be made outside of the state.

MILLINERY NOTES

Charming New Models Brought Out Daily

This department renews itself in a remarkably short space of time so large and constant is the outward bound stream of hats. If you want to see something new as well as pretty and dainty you go to The Boston Store for it.

A feature of the later styles is the many chic variations of the ever popular Sailor Hat. You will find Sailors big and little—Sailors with large brims and Sailors with practically none—and all just as pretty as can be.

THE VERY NEW "CHIN CHIN" SAILOR

It is a very clever little Sailor—has an almost woked air of smartness with its rakish lines and abbreviated, rolled-up brim. Just what you want for a Street Hat.
