REGULATION OF JITNEY BUS

Principal management and advocated delay in any legislative action. This matter is too new for legislative action, he said.

The jitney now pays taxes to state and town and drivers are licensed, and there should be no taxation. It is not class legislation to tax trolley roads, he said.

John D. Tobin, of Waterbury, representing jitney owners, said those he represented had fully taken insurance for protection of passengers.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
The Six of Sixty Superiorities
IF YOU KNEW THE MEN who make the Roocar—the men who administer the affairs of the big twenty-acre factory—as intimately as we know them, you'd consider the purchase of no other car at anywhere near the price.
FOR THEN YOU'D KNOW things we can't very well explain in an "ad."
IF YOU KNOW A MAN—know him to be honest and sincere, as well as able, then you know that the product he manufactures will be—must be, as honest, as sincere as he is himself.
WELL THAT'S WHAT WE KNOW about the men who make the Roocar. Ability of the highest order backed up by an integrity of the highest type. Good materials and good workmanship backed by a good intent. That tells more of the quality you buy when you buy a Roocar than all the metallurgical lore and technical testimony we could give you—and yet the latter two are incorporated—the best that science knows—in Roocar cars.

Enough for All.
A minister declares that each individual makes hell for himself. Some husbands, however, considerably make enough for their wives and children also.—Kansas City Journal.
Unwritten Law Again.
The term "Unwritten Law" means the opinion or convictions that have been arrived at by the great public and which are acted upon as though they had become actual laws.
The committee on executive nominations reported favorably on the nomination by Governor Baldwin of Justin B. Holman of Old Saybrook and Robert H. Fife, Jr., of Middletown, to be members of the state board of charities for four years from July 1, 1915. The report was accepted and the resolutions confirming the nominations passed under suspension of rules.
"Political Jobbery."
The bill providing for a revision of the general statutes was taken up for action. It provides for a commission of six and a clerk, each of whom shall receive $5,000 and an allowance of $1,000 for expenses, making in all an expense of $42,000.
Senator Morse said the committee on appropriations was advised of the necessity for the revision.
Senator Bree said there was not an imperative necessity for the revision. The compensation for the work was excessive and the expense should not be incurred in the present condition of the state's finances. The job only benefited the revisers. It was nothing but political jobbery to give a few lawyers a job for two years.
Senator Isbell said he had yet to find anyone who believed there was a lack of necessity for the revision. The compensation was reasonable.
Senator Bree said the bill was a few lawyers for the benefit of a few lawyers.
The bill was passed.
Calendar.
Passed—Authorizing the use of school buildings for political meetings; raising from twelve to sixteen years the age at which children may be employed in giving entertainments.
Sunday Moving Pictures.
The committee on the judiciary reported a bill concerning the licensing of moving picture exhibitors on Sundays. It authorizes the warden of boroughs and officials of cities, having a population of more than 1,000, or the board of selectmen of towns, not having a city or borough within its limits, to grant licenses for moving pictures between 7 and 11 Sunday evening.
The senate adjourned to Wednesday at 11:15 a. m.
COURT MESSENGER RESIGNS.
Bernhard R. Tilly, in Poor Health, Gives Up the Place.
Bernhard R. Tilly has resigned his position as superior court messenger. He assigns poor health as the cause for the resignation.
Mr. Tilly has been court messenger for many years, having charge of the law library here. There are several candidates for the position, which carries with it a salary of $1,200, but the vacancy has not been filled.
