

HOW SHE ENDED TEN YEARS OF SKIN-TORTURE

Oct. 23, 1914—"I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. They itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I would not go amongst people. I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned."—(Signed) Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Weatherford, Okla. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and doctors have prescribed the Resinol treatment for twenty years.

TRAFFIC IN DOPE ALL THROUGH THE STATE. Disclosed by Investigation in Hartford by State Pharmacy Commission.

Traffic in drugs, the ramifications of which extended to the remotest corners of the state, has been disclosed by the investigation of the state pharmacy commission as a result of which the pharmacy license held by Frank L. Palmer, who conducts the drug store at the corner of High and Asylum streets, Hartford, was suspended this week for a period of six months. According to the commission, the investigation is not complete and further action is likely. The investigation implicates Dr. Howard Franklin Smith of No. 79 Ann street, Hartford, and shows that he has for several years been selling prescriptions to peddlers of "dope" and that these were in almost every instance, taken to Palmer's drug store, where they were filled. The amount of the traffic is indicated by the statement that one out of half a dozen or more men peddling the dope is known to have disposed of more than $10,000 worth of morphine in the last two years. With wireless stations powerful enough to reach vessels in all Chinese waters, the government of that nation will establish a typhoon warning service.

Bought the Warren House. Barney Katz has purchased from Abraham Bronstein of New London the house No. 33 Summit street in this city, long known as the Warren house. He is to make some alterations in it and it will be occupied as a private residence. Mr. Katz has had a prosperous business career since coming here from Montville, where he ran a farm for 11 years before he came here and went into the liquor business.

Bridgeport—Postmaster Charles E. Greene is working hard for a new federal building and is meeting with encouragement from the post office department.

Now Is The Time To Buy Your Spring Shoes

Our stock is complete and because of the low rent and being a little out of the main shopping district our prices are below those of others. It will pay you to come here to buy your shoes.

Men's Specials Regular $2.50 to $4.50 Men's Shoes, from $1.95 to $3.45

Women's Specials Pumps and Oxfords in black, tan and white, regular $2.50 to $4.00, from $1.95 to $2.95.

Don't Fail to Take Advantage of These Specials

Alexander's Boot Shop

Opp. Colonial Theatre, 9 Main St.

WHAT GOOD are all the beautiful flowers and fields, lakes and rivers, if you do not see all the beauty they possess? Glasses fitted now by us will correct that slight error of eyesight and give you every detail sharp and clear.

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Opticians and Lense Grinders, PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING, Opticians and Lense Grinders Replacements

THE DEL-HOFF

European Plan Rates 75 cents per day and up. HAYES BROTHERS, stephens 1227, 26-28 Broadway

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no other way.

WIVES TELL OF CRUEL HUSBANDS

Two Given Divorces From their Heartless Partners—One Husband a Soldier the Other a Theatrical Man, But Both Bad Actors—More Evidence Asked For in Armstrong Case—One Suit Dismissed as Court Had no Jurisdiction.

Two out of the six divorce cases on the uncompleted list were disposed of in the superior court here Friday morning by granting divorces to the petitioners, who in each case were the wife. One case was continued for more evidence, another was dismissed for non-residence, and two were put over.

Dates to Be Secured. The case of William H. Armstrong of this city against Ella Daniels Armstrong of Waterford, in which Mr. Armstrong is suing to have the marriage annulled as he claims he was already married when he married this defendant, was called up. Attorney Tolley E. Babcock appeared for Mr. Armstrong, who has already secured a divorce from his first wife.

The matter has been before the court before and postponed for more evidence. Mrs. Mary Carl of Plainfield, aged 73, was a witness Friday. She knew Martha Knowles, the first wife of Armstrong, she said, and her parents were John and Esther Knowles of Plainfield. She has not seen Martha for 25 years. At that time Martha called upon her with a man named George Huntington and a four-year-old child. She introduced Huntington as her husband.

The witness indicated the date by the date of her own daughter's wedding and the case was continued in order to have a copy of the dates produced.

Dismissed For Non-Residence.

The divorce suit of Lydia A. Loring of New London, against Harry K. Loring, formerly of Waterford, but now of parts unknown, was dismissed for non-residence. It could not be shown to the satisfaction of the court that either plaintiff or defendant had resided in Connecticut the requisite two years to give the court jurisdiction. Attorney John J. Lawless appeared for Mrs. Loring. The couple was married on August 31, 1902 and the wife claimed that her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year.

Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

Mrs. Loring testified that they were married in Amsterdam, N. Y. He is a telegraph operator on railroads and she has not been able to locate him since he left her one time after they had quarreled about his drinking habits. While she went out of the house to get some groceries he cleared out and took the four children with him.

Deserted in Less Than a Year. Divorce on the grounds of desertion was granted to Hildur W. Phelps of New London from Walter C. Phelps of No. 385 Lenox avenue, New York. She was married on the 21st of June, 1910. Her husband deserted her on February 10, 1910. Her maiden name was Rhodes. The couple have four children.

birth of her son, who is now four years old, a donation of $75 was made by the soldiers at the fort to help her and the money was given to Phelps. Mrs. Phelps testified that she never saw any of the money after Phelps got his hands on it. She expects soon to return to Sweden to live with her mother and to take her boy with her.

Had a Cruel Husband. Desertion and intolerable cruelty were the grounds upon which Bertha Hulme Egil of New London was given a divorce from George R. Egil, Jr., alias Rudolph George, of Middletown, Pa. She was also allowed to change her name to Bertha Hulme. The plaintiff and defendant were married on September 23, 1910 and she claimed that his cruelty towards her began about April 2, 1911. Attorney V. P. A. Quinn was counsel for the petitioner.

Mrs. Egil testified that her husband was an actor, and that she lives in Occum and lived in Willimantic in September, 1910. On the second day after the wedding, her husband stabbed her in the back with a small dagger, but the wound was a slight one. One day later when they were living with her husband's people at Occum, he fired a gun towards her, but did not hit her. Once he hit her to a bed and once he horse whipped her. At a later time by their joint efforts they saved up $100 but he took this and went off with a stock company. She rejoined him later, but he continued to abuse her.

He gave her a beating the last time he saw her and she was rescued by her mother. Then he took his trunk and went to his home in Pennsylvania and has not been seen here since.

Thomas J. Kelly, a justice of the peace in Baltic, called the parents of Mrs. Egil were also witnesses in the case. The parents told of the way their daughter was abused by her husband.

The divorce suit of Mary Genevieve Middaugh vs. William Henry Middaugh went off and the suit of Yetta Ancelovitz vs. Abraham Ancelovitz was postponed.

The bulk of the property is to be held in trust until the death of the widow or for twelve years if she should die within that time. The income is to go to her and seven of the eight children until the division of the estate and then each of the seven children is to receive an equal share. The other child, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is left $100,000 outright.

The children who share equally in the property are Lucy T. Edwards, Stewart M., William T., Richard S., and Winthrop W. Aldrich, and Mrs. Stephen Maurice Edgell.

SENATOR ALDRICH'S ESTATE ALL LEFT TO FAMILY. Will Requests That the Warwick Neck Estate Be Retained by Family.

Warwick, R. I., May 7.—The entire estate of the late Nelson W. Aldrich, for thirty years United States senator from Rhode Island, was left to his family by his will, which was filed today for probate. The value of the property is not given. The will requests that his Warwick Neck estate be retained by the family always.

The bulk of the property is to be held in trust until the death of the widow or for twelve years if she should die within that time. The income is to go to her and seven of the eight children until the division of the estate and then each of the seven children is to receive an equal share. The other child, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is left $100,000 outright.

The children who share equally in the property are Lucy T. Edwards, Stewart M., William T., Richard S., and Winthrop W. Aldrich, and Mrs. Stephen Maurice Edgell.

SUFFRAGISTS ATTEMPTED TO "HECKLE" PRESIDENT WILSON. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw Disavows All Responsibility For Action.

New York, May 7.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association in a statement issued tonight expressed regret and disavowed all responsibility for the recent persistent attempt of two Philadelphia suffragists to "heckle" President Wilson.

"Personally," Dr. Shaw says, "I am very hopeful that we shall have the support of Mr. Wilson when the question of suffrage for New Jersey goes to the voters on October 19 and in the meantime we are willing to let Mr. Wilson take his own time and his own way of expressing his views."

DIVER STILL SUFFERS FROM PROLONGED SUBMERSION. When Lines Became Entangled Around Lines of Submarine F-4.

Honolulu, May 7.—Diver W. F. Loughman, who on April 17 was submerged for four hours in the Pacific ocean at a depth of 220 feet when his life line became entangled with the lines wrapped around the sunken submarine F-4, was not up stairs in her day to be taken to San Francisco. He is still suffering from the effects of his submersion.

ENGLAND TO SPECIALLY TAX CHEAP LIQUORS. As Most Mischief Is Done by Spirits of That Quality.

London, May 7, 8.35 p. m.—The following official communication was issued this evening by the British government: "As most mischief is done by raw, cheap spirits of a very quality, the government proposed to substitute for their taxing proposal a complete prohibition of the sale of spirits less than three years old.

The trade will receive time to provide for storage. "The beer duties are withdrawn without modification. The wine duties are withdrawn."

Meeting of Italian Senate Postponed. Rome, May 7, 6.50 p. m.—The date for the convening of the senate and the chamber of deputies has been postponed by royal decree until May 20. The original date set for the opening of parliament was May 12.

6,000,000 Bushels of Wheat in France. Paris, May 7, 5.55 p. m.—The government estimates the present stock of wheat in France at six million bushels. It is understood that contracts have been placed abroad, largely with the United States, for four million bushels to be delivered before the appearance of the new wheat on the market.

Movements of Steamships. Naples, May 6.—Arrival: Steamers Palermo, New York; 7th, Duca Degli Abruzzi, New York.

Bergen, May 6.—Sailed: Steamer Kristianford, New York.

Baby's Happiness Depends On Health

Cross, fretful babies usually need a laxative to make them comfortable, and comfort begets happiness. Constipation is the cause of much discomfort. Mothers should watch closely the condition of their children's bowels and see that they are regular.

A mild, pleasant tasting laxative such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is ideal for children because of its natural composition and gentle action, and because it contains no opiate, narcotic or other harmful habit-forming drug. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere. A teaspoonful at bedtime will bring easy, certain relief.

A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 453 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

MRS. CARMAN'S DAUGHTER TO BE A STAR WITNESS

New York, May 7.—When Elizabeth Carman faced District Attorney Smith at the first trial of her mother for murder in September of last year one of the most remarkable surprises of the entire case occurred. The spectators in the crowded courtroom leaned forward for what was expected to be one of the supremely critical moments of the dramatic proceedings. To their amazement however, they heard Mr. Smith inquire of the little girl—she was only thirteen then—with solicitous kindness, "Elizabeth, you love you love your mother very much, don't you?" "Yes sir, was the fervent reply. "That is all," politely announced the prosecutor. All that the district attorney might have accomplished by a vigorous cross examination he had obtained. He believed by a single question. But when Elizabeth takes the stand at this trial she will undergo a different experience. Other tactics will be used by the district attorney. Cunningly laid traps will be spread before her. The prosecutor will try to wring from her what he believes is the truth—namely, that Mrs. Carman was not up stairs in her room at the time Mrs. Bailey was shot on the night of June 30 last, as Elizabeth and Mrs. Ida Powell, a sister of the accused, swore in corroboration of Mrs. Carman's testimony.

ELIZABETH CARMAN

New York, May 7.—When Elizabeth Carman faced District Attorney Smith at the first trial of her mother for murder in September of last year one of the most remarkable surprises of the entire case occurred. The spectators in the crowded courtroom leaned forward for what was expected to be one of the supremely critical moments of the dramatic proceedings. To their amazement however, they heard Mr. Smith inquire of the little girl—she was only thirteen then—with solicitous kindness, "Elizabeth, you love you love your mother very much, don't you?" "Yes sir, was the fervent reply. "That is all," politely announced the prosecutor. All that the district attorney might have accomplished by a vigorous cross examination he had obtained. He believed by a single question. But when Elizabeth takes the stand at this trial she will undergo a different experience. Other tactics will be used by the district attorney. Cunningly laid traps will be spread before her. The prosecutor will try to wring from her what he believes is the truth—namely, that Mrs. Carman was not up stairs in her room at the time Mrs. Bailey was shot on the night of June 30 last, as Elizabeth and Mrs. Ida Powell, a sister of the accused, swore in corroboration of Mrs. Carman's testimony.

New York, May 7.—When Elizabeth Carman faced District Attorney Smith at the first trial of her mother for murder in September of last year one of the most remarkable surprises of the entire case occurred. The spectators in the crowded courtroom leaned forward for what was expected to be one of the supremely critical moments of the dramatic proceedings. To their amazement however, they heard Mr. Smith inquire of the little girl—she was only thirteen then—with solicitous kindness, "Elizabeth, you love you love your mother very much, don't you?" "Yes sir, was the fervent reply. "That is all," politely announced the prosecutor. All that the district attorney might have accomplished by a vigorous cross examination he had obtained. He believed by a single question. But when Elizabeth takes the stand at this trial she will undergo a different experience. Other tactics will be used by the district attorney. Cunningly laid traps will be spread before her. The prosecutor will try to wring from her what he believes is the truth—namely, that Mrs. Carman was not up stairs in her room at the time Mrs. Bailey was shot on the night of June 30 last, as Elizabeth and Mrs. Ida Powell, a sister of the accused, swore in corroboration of Mrs. Carman's testimony.

New York, May 7.—When Elizabeth Carman faced District Attorney Smith at the first trial of her mother for murder in September of last year one of the most remarkable surprises of the entire case occurred. The spectators in the crowded courtroom leaned forward for what was expected to be one of the supremely critical moments of the dramatic proceedings. To their amazement however, they heard Mr. Smith inquire of the little girl—she was only thirteen then—with solicitous kindness, "Elizabeth, you love you love your mother very much, don't you?" "Yes sir, was the fervent reply. "That is all," politely announced the prosecutor. All that the district attorney might have accomplished by a vigorous cross examination he had obtained. He believed by a single question. But when Elizabeth takes the stand at this trial she will undergo a different experience. Other tactics will be used by the district attorney. Cunningly laid traps will be spread before her. The prosecutor will try to wring from her what he believes is the truth—namely, that Mrs. Carman was not up stairs in her room at the time Mrs. Bailey was shot on the night of June 30 last, as Elizabeth and Mrs. Ida Powell, a sister of the accused, swore in corroboration of Mrs. Carman's testimony.

New York, May 7.—When Elizabeth Carman faced District Attorney Smith at the first trial of her mother for murder in September of last year one of the most remarkable surprises of the entire case occurred. The spectators in the crowded courtroom leaned forward for what was expected to be one of the supremely critical moments of the dramatic proceedings. To their amazement however, they heard Mr. Smith inquire of the little girl—she was only thirteen then—with solicitous kindness, "Elizabeth, you love you love your mother very much, don't you?" "Yes sir, was the fervent reply. "That is all," politely announced the prosecutor. All that the district attorney might have accomplished by a vigorous cross examination he had obtained. He believed by a single question. But when Elizabeth takes the stand at this trial she will undergo a different experience. Other tactics will be used by the district attorney. Cunningly laid traps will be spread before her. The prosecutor will try to wring from her what he believes is the truth—namely, that Mrs. Carman was not up stairs in her room at the time Mrs. Bailey was shot on the night of June 30 last, as Elizabeth and Mrs. Ida Powell, a sister of the accused, swore in corroboration of Mrs. Carman's testimony.

New York, May 7.—When Elizabeth Carman faced District Attorney Smith at the first trial of her mother for murder in September of last year one of the most remarkable surprises of the entire case occurred. The spectators in the crowded courtroom leaned forward for what was expected to be one of the supremely critical moments of the dramatic proceedings. To their amazement however, they heard Mr. Smith inquire of the little girl—she was only thirteen then—with solicitous kindness, "Elizabeth, you love you love your mother very much, don't you?" "Yes sir, was the fervent reply. "That is all," politely announced the prosecutor. All that the district attorney might have accomplished by a vigorous cross examination he had obtained. He believed by a single question. But when Elizabeth takes the stand at this trial she will undergo a different experience. Other tactics will be used by the district attorney. Cunningly laid traps will be spread before her. The prosecutor will try to wring from her what he believes is the truth—namely, that Mrs. Carman was not up stairs in her room at the time Mrs. Bailey was shot on the night of June 30 last, as Elizabeth and Mrs. Ida Powell, a sister of the accused, swore in corroboration of Mrs. Carman's testimony.

New York,