

NEWS FROM THE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

UNCASVILLE

Church Supper—Ball Team Wins at Colchester—Lunch Served by Scouts on Memorial Day.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

Home from Montreal. Arthur Plouff, who has been in Montreal for several weeks, has returned to his home in this place.

May Basket Races. The classmates of Miss Rose Hickey met at her home Tuesday evening, giving her a May basket party.

Mrs. Ida Browning has returned to her home in Palmerston from Boston, where she has been visiting since her return from spending the winter with her brother, Rev. Mr. Douglass, in Florida.

The Massachusetts company has let the contract to Fred Spencer for painting its buildings.

William Wilbur after a week spent with relatives in New York has returned to his work in Chelsea, Mass.

BOZRAH

About 125 At Eleventh Anniversary of Bozrah Grange Wednesday Evening.

Mrs. Clifford Lathrop and children of New London are visiting her parents in Franklin, and attended the Grange Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Alice D. Abell, one of the charter members of Bozrah Grange was present Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Drake of Norwich is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Grandy.

Grange Celebrates Anniversary. About 125 Patrons of Husbandry from a dozen or more granges of the state, gathered in the hall Wednesday evening to unite with Bozrah Grange in celebrating its eleventh anniversary.

The Overseer and Lecturer of the State Grange were present, and masters and past masters of the sub-ordinate granges were also present.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church gave a well patronized and successful party Friday evening. About $13 was made.

Miss May Benham entertained the members of the Good Cheer Sunshine society Thursday afternoon.

All Stars in Colchester. The Montville All Stars baseball team went to Colchester Saturday afternoon, where they played two games with the baseball team there.

The second game was won by the All Stars 5 to 2. After the game the members of the team attended the social and dance in Grange hall, returning home at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hickey recently entertained Mrs. Nellie O'Connell of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKensie are entertaining Mr. McKensie's sister, Miss Elizabeth McKensie of Brooklyn, N. Y.

George Gilbert, who was graduated recently from a dental college in Chicago, is at the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Gilbert.

Science Adams entertained the members of the Country club at its regular meeting Friday evening at his home at Hill Top.

Lunch for Scouts. Mrs. Mary Cornet served lunch to the Boy Scouts at Quaker Hill, who marched in the Memorial day parade, at her home. After lunch the boys left for New London to march with a division there.

Howard Rogers, who has been spending two weeks at the home of his father, Frank H. Rogers, has returned to Chelsea, Mass.

OLD MYSTIC

Rev. William Crawford of Baltic assigned to Methodist Pastorate—Ball Games—Notes of the Holiday Week.

William Crawford of Baltic preached Sunday in the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Crawford has been assigned to the pastorate.

Rev. Mr. Buckingham of Suffield occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning at an evening. He was entertained by Deacon and Mrs. William D. Beckwith.

Lost to Mystic. The Old Mystic Young Men's association baseball nine played the first game in a series in Mystic Monday morning, the latter nine winning 5 to 3.

The second game was played Monday afternoon at Industrial place, Mystic, and the Mystic nine won 4 to 2.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid society met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Maurice B. Caswell.

The Methodist Union Workers met Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the parish house. Supper was served at 5 o'clock.

The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corner met Thursday with Mrs. Alfred Watrous. The weather was fine and the attendance good. Supper was served at 5.30 o'clock.

Oral School Picnic. The pupils and teachers of the Mystic Oral school held a picnic Monday in Percy V. Stone's park.

Calvin H. Hoxie, Jr., returned Monday to the U. S. ship Vermont, after spending a month's furlough with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Q. Eldredge of Riverview cottage were visitors at Saybrook Point Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lambert and family spent Sunday and Monday with relatives at Stafford Springs, making the trip in their automobile.

The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corner met Thursday with Mrs. Alfred Watrous. The weather was fine and the attendance good. Supper was served at 5.30 o'clock.

Oral School Picnic. The pupils and teachers of the Mystic Oral school held a picnic Monday in Percy V. Stone's park.

Calvin H. Hoxie, Jr., returned Monday to the U. S. ship Vermont, after spending a month's furlough with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Q. Eldredge of Riverview cottage were visitors at Saybrook Point Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lambert and family spent Sunday and Monday with relatives at Stafford Springs, making the trip in their automobile.

The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corner met Thursday with Mrs. Alfred Watrous. The weather was fine and the attendance good. Supper was served at 5.30 o'clock.

Oral School Picnic. The pupils and teachers of the Mystic Oral school held a picnic Monday in Percy V. Stone's park.

Calvin H. Hoxie, Jr., returned Monday to the U. S. ship Vermont, after spending a month's furlough with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Q. Eldredge of Riverview cottage were visitors at Saybrook Point Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lambert and family spent Sunday and Monday with relatives at Stafford Springs, making the trip in their automobile.

The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corner met Thursday with Mrs. Alfred Watrous. The weather was fine and the attendance good. Supper was served at 5.30 o'clock.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Leffingwell.

Fred N. Palmer of Hartford was a Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Palmer.

Florence Thacher of Norwich Town was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beebe.

Charles Leffingwell and Ruth McNeil of Norwich visited at Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell's Monday.

Mrs. Hannah Kingsley of Franklin returned home Monday, after spending a number of days with Mrs. O. B. Leffingwell.

Mrs. F. E. Pattison and Mrs. Mary Brown called on Mrs. C. L. Palmer, Tuesday.

LISBON

Memorial Day Sermon—Picnic on the Green—Address by Miss Eadie.

The congregation at Newent church Sunday morning listened to an impressive Memorial day sermon by Rev. J. W. Payne. His text was two words from the ten commandments: Remember and Honor.

C. E. Picnic. Monday afternoon the Christian Endeavor society held a picnic on the church green. There were ball games and races in the early part of the afternoon. At 4 o'clock they assembled in the church to listen to an address by Miss Helen Cagle of Hanover on the work of Dr. and Mrs. Parker in India. She showed an interesting collection of curios, sandwiches, cake, lemonade, bananas, ice cream and peanuts were passed by the social committee of the society.

Paul Bradlow of Storrs college, who was at home for the week end, accompanied on his return Monday by his brother, George Bradlow, and Clarence Whitaker, who spent the day at Storrs.

Miss Agnes Enquist and two cousins of New Britain were at Mrs. Olaf Nelson's over Memorial day.

J. Herbert Irons of Hartford spent the early part of the week at his home here. Monday he and his cousin, Miss Nellie Mell, took a motorcycle trip to New London and Ocean Beach.

Large and varied pieces of cloth from the fire at Tatfield were scattered over the fields at C. A. Mell's and other neighboring farms.

Jewett Place Sold. The old Dr. Jewett place in Newent, owned for many years by Hartford Douglas, has been sold by Hartford purchasers.

Mrs. H. L. Kennedy spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. Susan Kanahan, of Jewett City.

Automobile Guests. Mrs. Fred Kanahan entertained an automobile party of friends from New Britain at her home Memorial day.

Alfred Kennedy spent Monday with his uncle in Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Barber of Waterbury were Memorial day guests at R. R. Barber's.

Charles Alboni of Brooklyn, N. Y., was at his mother's for the week end. Mrs. Edmunds spent Monday in Danvers.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds of Ekono will occupy the pulpit at Newent church Sunday morning and will also be present in the evening.

GOSHEN

Bridgeport Man Buys Hinckley Homestead—Birth Party for Deacon Manning.

John Laird is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, W. G. Thomas. Homestead Sold.

C. L. Hinckley has sold the old Hinckley farm homestead to a Bridgeport purchaser.

Rev. John H. Knott spent a few days in Hartford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Green and family have moved to Willimantic.

Birth Party. Deacon Nathaniel Manning of Lebanon was given a surprise visit by his children and grandchildren on his 66th birthday Monday. Mr. Manning also received a number of presents and post cards by mail. There was a handsome loaf of birthday cake, artistically lettered with suggestive dates.

Mrs. Smith of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hobart McCall.

W. I. Mott was a caller in New London this week. Jacob Fox has greatly improved his farm house with new blinds and fresh paint.

Mrs. Osborne and daughter Miss Hazel Osborne of Malden, Mass., are guests at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. R. York.

FITCHVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eastland had as guests Memorial day Mr. and Mrs. George Eastland and family of New London, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill and children, also Misses May and Ruth of Norwich and Harry of New London.

Misses Mary and Maud Fitzgerald of New York have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Corneilus Kater Walker, in Boston.

John Kelley of Quincy, Mass., spent Memorial day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foley have returned after spending several days in Boston.

Mrs. Margaret O'Brien and daughter, Margaret, of Greenfield, Mass., spent Monday with Mrs. Margaret Popham.

William McManus was in Hartford Monday at the ordination of Father H. C. Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelley spent Memorial day in Colchester.

Miss Edith Kinkaid of Providence is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Francis Kinkaid.

Miss Annie Brady has returned after visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Babcock, at Storrs.

Mrs. Harold Winchester of Norwich spent Thursday in Fitchville with relatives.

Frank Thompson was in Hebron Memorial day.

the week into the Beckwith place near Hamburg, Conn.

Mrs. James Beebe went to Middletown last Monday for a visit with her daughters.

Miss and Mrs. Warner Brown of Elmwood were visitors at Ludwick Bill's Sunday.

GLASGO

Aftermath of the Holiday—Woods Fire Difficult to Conquer.

Ralph Wilbur of the Wintham high school spent the week end and Memorial day at his home in Glasgo.

Miss Hevren, teacher in the senior room, spent the holiday at her home in Willimantic.

Mrs. Elmer spent the week end with her aunt at Stewart Hill.

The threat mill closed Saturday noon until Tuesday morning in observance of Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Job Thorpe were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young.

Sarah Cameron entertained friends from Westerly Memorial day.

Woodland Fire. A woods fire in the south part of the town, burned over quite an area Saturday afternoon. The strong wind made it extremely difficult to subdue the flames. Fire Warden Burdick, with a large force of men, succeeded in getting the fire under subjection after a few hours.

Mrs. E. P. Tucker of Westerly is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Young.

Mrs. N. Dayton, who has been sejourning at a little better.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Clark and daughter Evelyn spent Monday in Westerly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin.

The Ladies' Aid society will be entertained by Mrs. R. H. Young next Wednesday afternoon.

ROAD SOCIETY

(Stonington)

Mrs. Stephen Palmer is visiting friends at her old home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Noyes Palmer and Seth N. Williams enjoyed an automobile ride to Norwich recently.

Miss Dorothy Wheeler spent Sunday at her home with her aunt, Miss Lucy Billings.

Rev. Samuel Cathcart of Westerly preached an excellent patriotic sermon here Sunday morning.

N. G. Williams of Vermont and Ledyard visited the church Sunday.

Miss May Noyes of New Britain was the guest of Mrs. Noyes Palmer over the holiday.

Dogs made havoc with geese belonging to Seth N. Williams Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lincoln and daughter Marjorie, of Leonia, N. J., arrive today to spend several days with Mrs. Lincoln's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Barber.

Stonington grange will entertain the neighboring granges next Wednesday evening at the church parlors.

PENDELTON HILL

County Agent Warner Buys Seed Potatoes for His Work.

Malcolm C. Thompson's men and horses are improving the highways with the road machine.

Misses Winifred and Cecil Palmer, of Apponaug and Warwick, R. I., spent Sunday and the day following at their home here.

Misses Edith Chapman and daughters Rilla and Alice, spent Saturday in Ashaway.

County Improvement League Agent Warner has been a guest at the Palmer homestead, where he purchased several bushels of seed potatoes for use in his county work.

Mrs. James M. Cook entertained several friends at her home among the number being Miss Rachel Kenyon.

Alonzo Park of Chicago, Ill., has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. James O. Miner, at the Francis Park place.

Martin Chapman is making repairs on his buildings.

Birdseye Palmer and Walter Daigene have over the week end at the Palmer homestead during the past week.

Mrs. Homer Kinnie was in Norwich recently.

Callista Egglestone of Glasgo spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Irving Button.

Miss Olive Button and sister Ethel spent Saturday in Glasgo.

ASHWILLETT

Charles Culver lost a valuable cow last week, the animal getting hung up in the woods.

Grover C. Main and family are entertained over the week end at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Main.

be about the house some, after having been ill for several weeks.

William Odon of Ashaway, R. I., was a caller here Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Ruth Conrad were business callers in Norwich, Wednesday.

LEBANON

Memorial Exercises Held Saturday—Address by Rev. J. B. Slocum—Athletics Defeated by Willimantic.

Lawyer Ralph Royall of New York was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Royall, over Memorial day.

Miss Helen Whitmore of Hartford is spending some time with friends in town.

George L. Wilcox, a student at the Putnam trade school, spent a few days recently at R. A. Hoxie's.

Mark C. Center, who was employed at Edgar J. Tucker's, went to Springfield, Mass., to spend Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hewitt and Mrs. Minnie Hewitt went by automobile Sunday to Keene, N. H., returning Monday afternoon. They spent Sunday night with Irwin Hewitt's son, Rodney Hewitt, and his wife.

Memorial Exercises. Memorial day services were held in Lebanon grange hall Saturday afternoon. Lebanon grange orchestra furnished music. Rev. J. B. Slocum of Norwich was the principal speaker. At noon dinner was served in the church parlors for the veterans.

Willimantic Won. The Lebanon Athletic baseball team played a team from Willimantic Saturday afternoon at home grounds and were defeated 13-1.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perkins and son were in town recently.

Mark C. Center, who works in Hartford, was in town for Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noyes entertained over Memorial day their son, Lawrence Noyes, and daughter, Miss Nettie Williams was a recent guest of Mrs. Harold Cummings.

Mrs. Charles Geer spent Tuesday with her son, Clinton Goodwin.

William Totten lost his horse Monday night.

Holiday Dance. The Lebanon Athletic club gave a dance in Grange hall Saturday evening. Music was by Stanton's orchestra, with Prof. Congdon prompter. There was a small attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eitcher and family came last Saturday to their summer home. Misses Carrie and Rena Eitcher returned to New York Monday to resume their duties as teachers.

Charles H. Abell was in town for Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Davis of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting at Mrs. Joseph Abell's on Town street.

Mr. Plummer of Florida is spending the summer with Alonzo Boothby.

Mrs. Louis Taylor was the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Johnson, of Mousup over Memorial day.

Mrs. John Phillips has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. John Still and children of Hanover.

Mrs. Philo Burgess is entertaining her nephew, Mr. Elven.

Karl Bishop of Lebanon and J. Hendrick of Lebanon, R. I., were attending church in Hartford this week.

Mrs. Roland Slate and child are visiting at the home of Mrs. Slate's parents at Clinton Wood recently.

Miss Helen Ward of Willimantic has been spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Ward, of North Franklin.

Missionary Meeting. The Baptist society missionary meeting was held in the chapel Wednesday afternoon.

The Lebanon grangers went to Bozrah Wednesday evening to attend the grange meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith of Franklin, Conn., were in town recently.

Miss Virginia Loomis, who teaches at Farmington, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Loomis, over the holidays.

VOLUNTOWN

Address on Memorial Day by Arthur F. Libby, of Norwich—Romona Club Gives Dance—Clambake at Beach Pond.

Memorial day was observed in town Monday morning, with a parade to Robbins cemetery, where the graves of the soldiers were decorated. The parade was led by Voluntown band, at the direction of Leader William Richardson, which furnished an excellent grade of music along the line of march and rendered inspiring selections at the cemetery and during the march in the hall.

The school children also won praise for their singing during the exercises, their numbers showing careful and trained by their teachers.

The Romona club gave valuable aid by the pleasing rendition of their number on the program. Miss Ola Tanner and Miss Margaret Jones were featured in their cornet solo made a great hit with the large audience.

Arthur F. Libby of Norwich, in an eloquent address, explained the meaning of Memorial day and paid a glowing tribute to the valor of the veterans of the Grand Army, receiving hearty applause at the conclusion of his address. Following was the order of exercises.

The parade left Union square in the following order: Voluntown band, 15 men, leader, William Richardson; children of the public schools; color guard of Court Liberty, F. O. A.; officers and members of Court Liberty, F. O. A. 20 men; Charles C. R. E. line; Boucher; officers and members Court Advance, I. O. O. F., 20 men in charge of C. R. Charles Downing; delegation from Grange; Master Walter Tanner; automobiles containing veterans of the G. A. R.; Mr. Libby of Norwich, Rev. John Thompson of the First Baptist church, Rev. Lewis, Rev. William Reynolds of Ekono and party; citizens in autos and teams.

The line marched to Robbins cemetery, where the graves of the veterans were carried out. Selection, Nearer My God, to Thee, band; raising of flag, children singing The Star Spangled Banner; prayer, Rev. William Reynolds; decorating by veterans of graves of the comrades; selection, Rock of Ages, band; address, Rev. John Thompson; singing, Tenting Tonight, school children; benediction, Rev. William Reynolds; Taps, sounded by William Richards. During the sound of Taps the school children strewed their flowers on the graves of the veterans. The reformed, returned to Union hall, where the