Rowe Calk Co. People Favor Davenport Building—But Have Place in Hartford Which They May Take—Depending Upon Expense of Fitting Up Factory Site in Hartford.

President Warren L. Chase of the Rowe Calk Co., of Hartford, whose plant was damaged by fire last week, spent the larger part of Saturday here, where he was shown possible sites which could be used as his company if they could be induced to locate in this city.

The coming of President Chase followed the action taken by the Norwich Chamber of Commerce at its meeting on Friday evening. Of the sites that saw here Saturday, the facilities provided by the so-called Davenport building pleased Mr. Chase best of all and he has indicated that he is second choice after a site in Hartford.

The company has been shown a location there with which the officers are very well satisfied but it will need considerable remodeling and other changes upon which they are getting figures from engineers and contractors. If these come within a certain figure which the company has set, they will keep the concern in Hartford by moving it to the new location that has been shown as possible.

Nothing heard since he started for Groton. No word received from Consul Zabrickie, who sailed April 1 from New York.

Although Hon. Luther K. Zabrickie of Preston, who sailed from New York on the first of April on the way to Moscow, where he had been appointed vice consul.

Not a word has been received from him since then and it is not known whether he has reached there or is still on the way.

The boat on which he sailed was to make its first port on the other side of the Atlantic in Groton, and he had promised to write to his father, A. D. Zabrickie, from there, but no letter has been received.

It is of course possible that he may have been written in transmission and delivery.

Mr. Zabrickie is thinking of making an inquiry of the state department at Washington to see if they can secure for him any information of present whereabouts of his son. He has had word from the German Lutheran church, Vice Consul Zabrickie has successfully passed the examinations making him eligible to appointment for consul.

POLICEMAN'S DISCOVERY BALKS ATTEMPTED BURGLARY Preparations Made to Get into Moore's Store on Water Street.

Preparations for an entrance into and probable burglary of the wholesale fruit and produce house of James E. Moore at No. 89 Water street were disclosed and interrupted Saturday morning about 1 o'clock by a discovery made by Henry B. Fenton.

The store runs through to Commercial street and where there is a door constructed of heavy slats so as to provide ventilation, the policeman found a carpenter's horse and a stool placed in the rear of the space over the door which was wide enough to allow a man to crawl through.

A search of the building by the policeman and by Mr. Moore who was summoned from his boarding place on Franklin street showed that no entrance to the place had been made, but the timely arrival of the policeman probably scared the would-be burglar away and balked the break that he had planned to carry out.

Rain Broke Up Band Programme. The big crowd on hand Sunday afternoon at Mohagan park to hear the band concert by 'Tubby' band were disappointed as only three members of the band got to the band stand. These were the bass drum and the two bass horns. They were the only instruments by automobile just before 2:30 o'clock. At 2:30 there was a smart shower in the city, although it did not rain in the park and the remaining members of the band thinking that it was going to continue raining decided that their services would not be required so they did not go to the park. The concert will be given next Sunday afternoon.

NEW POSITION TENDERED TO DR. POLLOCK

Superintendent of State Hospital Invited to Similar Position in Neighboring State.

It was understood here Sunday that Dr. Henry M. Pollock, head of the Norwich State Hospital for the insane.

It ought to be, President Chase told the Norwich men that the Davenport building would appeal very strongly to them.

The company expects to get figures on the estimates today and will communicate with the committee from the Norwich Chamber of Commerce during the day.

For his visit here Saturday President Chase was brought from Willimantic by George W. Carroll, one of the enthusiastic members of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Carroll went up to Willimantic for Mr. Chase in his automobile.

By 7 o'clock the Hartford men had completed their inspection of available sites and they then returned to Mr. Carroll's office where they remained until 8:30, discussing the situation. Mr. Carroll took them back to Willimantic in time to catch a 7 o'clock train for Hartford.

The Norwich committee learned from President Chase that the company has ordinarily employed 50 men, but an account of war orders this number has been increased to 300 and it is necessary to reestablish the plant and get it going as soon as possible.

It's a New England representative is Joseph D. Pfeiffer of this city.

WATER SUPPLY TAINTED FROM BOG MEADOW.

Department at Work to Help Situation—Some Improvement Noted.

The necessity of using the water from Fairview reservoir for seven hours while the break in the Stony Brook line was being repaired a week ago Saturday is blamed by Supt. J. J. Corkey for the bad tasting water which has been experienced in the city during the past week.

The Fairview water had evidently become impregnated by the water from Bog Meadow, which it is known sometimes acquires a poor taste in the hot months from the vegetable growth on the bottom of the basin, but it is surprising that this has developed this season, when the weather has been so cool. The last water from Bog Meadow was let into Fairview on May 22d and it is also surprising that it should not have cleared in that time in the large basin under the influence of sunshine and air. Had it been allowed to stand in Fairview it would have cleared, it would have cleared without doubt and the present unpleasant situation would not have been so serious. In the past week the water department men have been at work nights clearing all the dead ends and opening all the blow-offs to improve the general condition of the water. Some improvement has resulted and it is expected that the water will be back to normal condition in a day or two more.

All the supply is now coming from Stony Brook and has been ever since the break was repaired.
