

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

PASSENGERS NOT ALLOWED ON THE BRIDGE

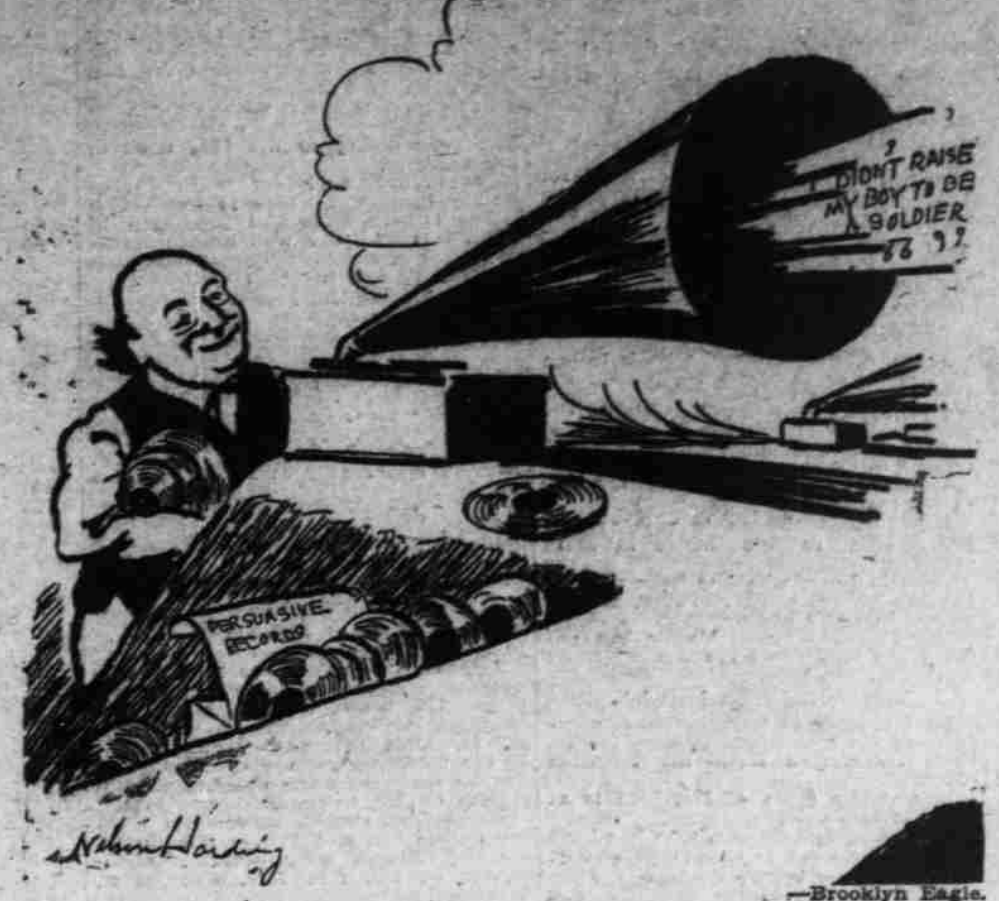

Chicago News

THE LIGHTNING ROD AGENT

Des Moines Register and Leader

COAST DEFENSE

Brooklyn Eagle

PICK UP YOUR BED AND WALK

SOMETHING FOR HIM TO THINK ABOUT!

Atlanta Journal

SAVAGE, WHY DO YOU STARE?

Cleveland Plain Dealer

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

GALES FERRY

Pastor Preaches First in Series of Sermons—Mrs. Latham C. Smith's Birthday Dinner—Funeral of Mrs. Amos Hurlbutt.

Rev. James M. Potter spoke from St. Luke xv. 18th verse, Sunday morning in the M. E. church. The sermon was the first in a series on The Prodigal Son. The theme was The Lure of a Far Country. Special prayer for the president was offered. Miss Grace A. Chapman sang at the offertory. Lead, Kindly Light. The flowers were arranged by Mrs. Franklin H. Brown.

The Epworth League service at 7.30 o'clock was conducted by D. C. Perkins. The topic was Remembering Jonah's Whale and Forgetting His Message. The hymns sung were old-time ones.

Guests on the Holiday. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lawless entertained Monday Mrs. Carlos Chapman of Groton, Mrs. D. J. Cavanaugh, the Misses Beaudry and Earle Wooten of New London. In the evening Ernestine Rabot, Mrs. Lawless' young daughter, entertained her young schoolmates and some friends with fireworks and light refreshments on the lawn.

Birthday Dinner. Mrs. Latham E. Smith celebrated her birthday, which anniversary falls on July 4, on Monday at her home near the village. Although the morning proved showery, a party of friends assembled to dine and to wish Mrs. Smith many happy returns of the day. A fine chowder dinner with its accompanying good things was served. Mrs. Smith received many gifts, including money and linen. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Perkins and Miss Alice Hooper of Norwich are at the Perkins cottage.

Rev. P. C. Wright and family of Philadelphia, formerly of Norwich, arrived Tuesday at the Jones cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Holley Webber of Providence, R. I. are at the Pioneer, the cottage of Reginald Fitzmaurice.

Funeral of Mrs. Hurlbutt. The funeral of Mrs. Amos Hurlbutt, who died suddenly about 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning, July 5, of angina pectoris, was held Thursday morning at the family home at 11 o'clock.

Personal Mention. The guests at the Rison cottage for the holiday were A. C. Rison and son

Charles, from New York, and Robert Wilcox and Miss Addie Secom of Watertown, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary C. Watrous left the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Comstock, last Wednesday to become assistant superintendent of the Florence Crittenton home, Newark, N. J.

John C. Reynolds of New York spent Wednesday and Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlbutt and Mrs. Miss Georgianna Hurlbutt, who has been spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlbutt, returned to New York Sunday evening.

Called at Houseboat. An automobile party including Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Parker and children and Miss Mattilda Randall of Norwich were callers on Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham on the houseboat Gypsy Wednesday.

Mrs. E. V. Mann of Providence, R. I. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Franklin H. Brown, at Red Fern cottage.

Attended Camp Meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Peckham and Mr. and Mrs. Justin H. Peckham of Long Cove attended the Adventist camp meeting at Danielson Saturday and Sunday, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scranton of Durham are guests at the home of Mrs. Scranton's sisters, the Misses Mathewson.

Miss Sarah S. Latimer spent several days last week the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kenney, of New London.

The Misses Geer of Norwich are at their cottage, The Pines, for July.

Mr. John C. Perkins and Miss Alice Hooper of Norwich are at the Perkins cottage.

Rev. P. C. Wright and family of Philadelphia, formerly of Norwich, arrived Tuesday at the Jones cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Holley Webber of Providence, R. I. are at the Pioneer, the cottage of Reginald Fitzmaurice.

Funeral of Mrs. Hurlbutt. The funeral of Mrs. Amos Hurlbutt, who died suddenly about 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning, July 5, of angina pectoris, was held Thursday morning at the family home at 11 o'clock.

Personal Mention. The guests at the Rison cottage for the holiday were A. C. Rison and son and Miss Katie Mackey of Norwich Town spent several days with their uncle, James Mackey.

Owens Old Coins. A resident of this town has in her possession two one-cent pieces, one bearing the date 1788. It is as large as a 50-cent piece. On one side is the profile of Liberty and the words United States of America. The other one, dated 1812, nearly as large as a 50-cent piece. On one side is the profile of Liberty surrounded with 13 stars, also the date. On the reverse are the words One Cent, a wreath of oak leaves and the words United States of America. Also a half-cent, size of a silver quarter. On one side is the profile of Liberty surrounded with 13 stars, also the date, 1831. On the reverse are the words Half Cent, a wreath of oak leaves and the words United States of America.

Entertained Class. Miss Mary R. Gibbs entertained her Sunday school class of the Second Congregational church, Norwich, at the home fat at Bartlett's near the start of the Yale-Harvard boat races.

Surprise Visit and Gifts for Newlyweds—J. W. Club Meets—Old Coins.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron White, who were married recently were given surprise party Friday evening, July 2. About 40 friends were present. Sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served. Gifts of money and useful articles were received by Mr. and Mrs. White.

Party for Son. Mrs. Jennette Hoffman, in honor of her son Herbert, entertained Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frink, Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Race, Mrs. H. Race and the Misses Grace Frink, Florence and Ella Rockwood, Rena Race and Hazel Clyde of Mystic, Charles and John Frink, Fred Race, Jr. and Frank Rockwood, Jr. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream, popcorn cakes and coffee were served by the hostess. Games, whist, vocal and instrumental music made the evening a pleasant one for all.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ladd, Charles Ladd of Norwich were week end guests of Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Mrs. Hannah C. Meach of West Hartford is the guest of Mrs. Hannah Kingsley.

Marion and Joseph Brennan of Baltimore are spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Mrs. Arthur Chapman and children have returned after spending several days in Fitchville.

Mattinee Whist. The J. W. Club met with Mrs. Chrystie Foster Wednesday afternoon. Five tables of whist were played. Prizes awarded: First, to Miss Ella Hoffman; second, Miss E. Foster. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream, strawberries and lemonade were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Browning and son have returned after spending several days with Mrs. Harold Riley of Boston.

Herbert Hoffman has returned to his home in Northampton, Mass., accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Jennette Hoffman.

Miss Anna Shahan of Philadelphia

and Miss Katie Mackey of Norwich Town spent several days with their uncle, James Mackey.

Owens Old Coins. A resident of this town has in her possession two one-cent pieces, one bearing the date 1788. It is as large as a 50-cent piece. On one side is the profile of Liberty and the words United States of America. The other one, dated 1812, nearly as large as a 50-cent piece. On one side is the profile of Liberty surrounded with 13 stars, also the date. On the reverse are the words One Cent, a wreath of oak leaves and the words United States of America. Also a half-cent, size of a silver quarter. On one side is the profile of Liberty surrounded with 13 stars, also the date, 1831. On the reverse are the words Half Cent, a wreath of oak leaves and the words United States of America.

Entertained Class. Miss Mary R. Gibbs entertained her Sunday school class of the Second Congregational church, Norwich, at the home fat at Bartlett's near the start of the Yale-Harvard boat races.

Surprise Visit and Gifts for Newlyweds—J. W. Club Meets—Old Coins.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron White, who were married recently were given surprise party Friday evening, July 2. About 40 friends were present. Sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served. Gifts of money and useful articles were received by Mr. and Mrs. White.

Party for Son. Mrs. Jennette Hoffman, in honor of her son Herbert, entertained Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frink, Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Race, Mrs. H. Race and the Misses Grace Frink, Florence and Ella Rockwood, Rena Race and Hazel Clyde of Mystic, Charles and John Frink, Fred Race, Jr. and Frank Rockwood, Jr. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream, popcorn cakes and coffee were served by the hostess. Games, whist, vocal and instrumental music made the evening a pleasant one for all.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ladd, Charles Ladd of Norwich were week end guests of Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Mrs. Hannah C. Meach of West Hartford is the guest of Mrs. Hannah Kingsley.

Marion and Joseph Brennan of Baltimore are spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Mrs. Arthur Chapman and children have returned after spending several days in Fitchville.

Mattinee Whist. The J. W. Club met with Mrs. Chrystie Foster Wednesday afternoon. Five tables of whist were played. Prizes awarded: First, to Miss Ella Hoffman; second, Miss E. Foster. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream, strawberries and lemonade were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Browning and son have returned after spending several days with Mrs. Harold Riley of Boston.

Herbert Hoffman has returned to his home in Northampton, Mass., accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Jennette Hoffman.

Miss Anna Shahan of Philadelphia

Gladya Hewitt; third, Mrs. Anna Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Barrows of Norwich Town are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Bill.

Mrs. Lydia Manning is visiting her niece and nephew, Miss Emily Latham and George Latham.

Strawberry Supper. There was a strawberry supper last Thursday evening given by the young ladies of the Baptist church. After the supper, games were played and music was furnished by a phonograph.

Harry Bruce and son of Hartford are visiting at L. H. Taylor's.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Taylor entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Burnham and daughter of Willimantic, Mr. Barrow, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Johnson of Providence, Sunday night Mrs. Barrows returned home after spending some time with Mrs. L. H. Taylor.

Irving Bogue of Norwich was a recent guest of Henry Bridge.

Miss Alma Manning is at Mrs. Harry Prentiss's in Tatville.

HAMBURG

Young People Give Dance—Supper Served L. B. S. Members.

Herbert M. Smith of Bangor, Me., visited his mother and sisters the other side of Long River last week and was the guest of his nephew, James Miller, in Sterling City Wednesday.

Mrs. William Crook entertained her brother George Holman, and family of Rutherford, N. J., over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jewett spent the past week with their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Lord.

Mrs. James Wood has returned from a trip to Hartford and Springfield, Mass.

North Lyme visiting relatives over the Fourth.

Miss Annie M. Harvey is attending summer school at Storrs college.

Miss Myra E. Moffit is visiting in Attleboro, Mass.

Myron Peckham is building a new barn to take the place of one recently destroyed by fire.

Mrs. C. B. Noyes of Willimantic is the guest of Mrs. E. A. Noyes.

Rev. E. O. Mead will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. Mra. Blake of Colchester.

Mrs. Hattie Starkweather is the guest of relatives in Norwich.

LEFFINGWELL

Fourth of July Picnic Had to Be Held Indoors.

The Sunday school held its Fourth of July picnic with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beebe Monday. On account of the rain, the dinner, which consisted of clam chowder, pie, cake, coffee, ice cream and lemonade, was served in the house instead of on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer of Rainbow, Robert H. Palmer of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rathbun and son of Norwich spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon and Clarence Leffingwell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lewis Ford of Worcester, Mass., spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Whiting at the Uncas farm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alberts and son Carl of New York are spending a number of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alberts.

North Lyme visiting relatives over the Fourth.

Miss Annie M. Harvey is attending summer school at Storrs college.

Miss Myra E. Moffit is visiting in Attleboro, Mass.

Myron Peckham is building a new barn to take the place of one recently destroyed by fire.

Mrs. C. B. Noyes of Willimantic is the guest of Mrs. E. A. Noyes.

Rev. E. O. Mead will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. Mra. Blake of Colchester.

Mrs. Hattie Starkweather is the guest of relatives in Norwich.

LEFFINGWELL

Fourth of July Picnic Had to Be Held Indoors.

The Sunday school held its Fourth of July picnic with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beebe Monday. On account of the rain, the dinner, which consisted of clam chowder, pie, cake, coffee, ice cream and lemonade, was served in the house instead of on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer of Rainbow, Robert H. Palmer of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rathbun and son of Norwich spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon and Clarence Leffingwell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lewis Ford of Worcester, Mass., spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Whiting at the Uncas farm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alberts and son Carl of New York are spending a number of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alberts.

HALLVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Little, who moved to Andover, Mass., a few weeks ago, arrived here safely and are installed in a beautiful bungalow.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fish and children have returned home after a week's visit with friends near Groton Long Point and other places.

Miss Elsie Main and Miss Claire Norman returned Sunday to their home in Wequetequock after a few days' visit with Mrs. James Wood.

Mrs. L. A. Eccleston and daughter Rita visited over the Fourth with Mrs. Frank Jagger of Danielson.

Mrs. William Lamphere entertained Monday her daughter, Mrs. Spaulding, her son, Albert Lamphere and wife of Norwich and her granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conrad, of Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. James Wood was a caller in Westery Tuesday.

NORTH LYME

O. F. Jewett and family visited Mrs. Katie Jewett in New London Sunday.

M. J. Stark and Miss Emily Stark were callers at Walker Gillette's in East Hadam Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Ward visited her parents in Leffingwell recently.

W. M. Sisson, Jr., Mrs. William Sisson, Miss Dorothy Sisson and Rev. Francis Purvis visited at Rev. J. G. Ward's in Leffingwell Tuesday.

Nelson Miner and family camped at Giant's Neck three days the past week.

C. R. Tiffany and Mrs. H. A. Rogers spent the Fourth at W. M. Sisson's.

LIBERTY HILL

Milo Davoll and family moved here from Hartford last week. About two years ago Mr. Davoll purchased the Holbrook place on Cook Hill and will now build a new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Caples were in