ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.
Wednesday and Thursday, The Diamond and from the Sky.

Synopsis of chapter 4: The Prodigal's Progress. Dr. Leonard, a doctor who is homeless. She sends a homing pigeon to Hagar, the gypsy mother, who comes at once to take her to the gypsy camp. On their way they come upon Arthur Stanley II lying cold and nearly dead, on the river's edge. Arthur is nursed back to life. Hagar discloses to him his real identity. Arthur vows to make himself worthy of Esther's love. He goes to Richmond, where he is needed of funds, he pawns The Diamond from the Sky. Meanwhile Blair Stanley has gone to Richmond. He and Arthur meet at the railway station and reunited. Blair invites Arthur to a grand society ball, where he meets Vivian Marston, a New York belle, and a friend of Blair's. On her neck is The Diamond from the Sky, which she had inherited from her father, Hagar.
In the guise of a fortune teller, she is at the ball. Vivian has just seated bravely arm reaches in, clutches The Diamond from the Sky and disappears.
The sum of $10,000 is offered for the most acceptable suggestion for a sequel to this magnificent play. This is an added feature to the regular show of Keith vaudeville and Mutual master pictures. Don't miss the big show today.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

The Goddess, Two Reals, Third Chapter in Beautiful Serial.

The lure of The Goddess is on today and everyone will be headed for the Colonial theatre to witness the third chapter in this, the most exquisite and exciting motion picture ever made.
Of course, pretty Anita Stewart will be seen as the heroine, in her bravest part of the play. The Goddess has come upon earth to bring capital, wealth and aristocracy to its poor plane of dignity and prevent an imminent revolution. The Goddess is the producer of the masterpiece, piece of the Vitaphone's greatest series. No less a name as the Goddess description. Last week many patrons were turned away because there was not a seat to be had; so, to be sure, all intending to follow the fascinating serial had better come early.
