TEUTONS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE WAR

Berlin and Vienna Claim Continued Successes in the Warsaw Campaign

PORTION OF IVANGOROD FORTRESS HAS FALLEN

Between the Vistula and the Bug the Austro-German Forces are Following the Retreating Russians Northward—Muscovites at All Points are Keeping Up a Strong Rear Guard Action and are Harassing the Teutons at Every Step—As a Precautionary Measure the Russians Have Removed State Institutions From Riga, on the Baltic, Which is Threatened by the Advancing Germans.

The German and Austrian forces whose objective is the capture of Warsaw, and, is possible, of a large part of Grand Duke Nicholas' army, are declared by Berlin and Vienna to be continuing their successes throughout the Polish region.

In north Poland the Russians have been driven back upon the advanced positions of the fortress at Lomza, and the east and west Prussian regiments have gained the Narva river, crossing in the vicinity of Ostrowo after vicious fighting in which large numbers of Russians and Russian guns are declared to have been captured.

THREATENED WITH DEATH

Then about a dozen soldiers, including the colonel, piled into my automobile, demanding that I drive them to the hotel. They tied me up and beat me with their fists. They tied a rope around my neck and a mounted Zapatista dragged him by the neck of the rope to the hotel. The colonel struck me with his revolver and threatened to kill me. I told them I was a reporter and they let me go.
