

THE FAIR

TO THE CATTLE MEN OF NEW LONDON COUNTY:

The New London County Fair at Norwich, Conn., Sept. 6th, 7th, 8th, 1915

Is the Only Fair in the State that has its plans completed for a CATTLE SHOW THIS YEAR

PREMIUM LIST IN THE PRINTERS' HANDS SILVER CUPS AND PREMIUM RIBBONS ON DISPLAY IN WINDOWS OF THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

CLARK'S FALLS

Local Ponds Full of Water—Cornfields in Fine Condition—Other Notes.

E. P. Chapman was in Westery on business Tuesday; also Cassius Collins and Horace Palmer. Mrs. John B. Perry is away from home for a week to visit relatives in Ferrisville, Providence and vicinity. Miss Myrtle McCord, Miss Volmer and Mr. Bennett of Norwich were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tillings recently. On Sunday Mr. Tillings had took his family and friends for an auto ride around Watch Hill.

Ponds Full

The mill pond and Spaulding's are brimful of water, something unusual at this time of year. No water has been taken from Wyassup this summer.

A. M. Clark and son, Prof. E. W. Clark have not only covered the mill roof with tar, but also his large icehouse and barn.

Mrs. Ellen Lewis of Westery has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Frances Maine. She also visited with Mrs. Clifford Thompson several days. Miss Doris Collins was the guest of Mrs. Jennie Thompson on Saturday.

The cornfields are looking fine now. The sun has drawn the stalks from their bowed down condition and they are nearly straight and well-blossomed.

Mrs. Lillian F. McGrath, who early last spring bought the E. P. Lewis mansion, has had many improvements made around it. A new driveway for her auto and flower beds, lawn tennis and croquet grounds have been laid out. At present she is entertaining several friends from New York city.

PENDLETON HILL

Robert F. Cone has contract to draw logs—Cone Recovering from Storm.

Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Wilson, who have been visiting friends in the place, returned to their home in Jewett City on Sunday.

Clark Coon, Walter Dalgarno and Charles Cottrell were at the rocky Point for a day's outing recently.

Malcom Thompson is running a new automobile.

Miss Sadie Kinney of Ledyard is visiting at M. O. Chapman's.

Leland Green of Jewett City was a guest of Deacon E. E. Coon and family Saturday night.

Miss Priscilla Presby is visiting her cousin, Miss Fiona Hale.

Robert F. Cone has taken the contract for drawing in logs for Malcom Thompson's new orchard. Work is soon to start on the B. F. Billings farm.

B. R. Park cut the grass on the C. D. Thompson farm Tuesday.

Corn in this section seems to have nearly recovered from the recent heavy wind and rain storm.

HAMBURG

Miss May Harding entertained Miss Beattie Bristol the first of the week.

The Misses Leora and Grace Mitchell of Norwich visited Mrs. Wood in Sterling City last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Oakes of Hadley, Mass., are visiting friends in town. Mr. Oakes was pastor of the church here several years ago.

Mrs. Edie Rich of Northampton, Mass., is the guest of her aunt, Miss Carrie Hill.

Miss Bernice Tower is entertaining guests from East Lyme.

LIBERTY HILL

Rev. G. H. Ewing to Occupy Pulpit Sunday—Rev. E. O. Mead Preached at Second Church.

Mr. Hollenbeck and family of Boston are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnard.

Miss Myra Moffitt has returned from a visit to her relatives in Attleboro and Providence.

To Occupy Pulpit. Rev. George H. Ewing of Norwich Town will occupy the pulpit here next Sunday.

Mrs. Warren of Boston is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Elmer Capels.

At Second Church. Rev. Elwell O. Mead, preached at the Second Congregational church in Norwich Sunday.

Edward L. Moffitt, who is night watchman at Dawley's lumber yard in Norwich, called on friends here recently.

Henry V. Oehlers has returned to his duties as clerk in a New York post office after his annual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Dimon are entertaining Mr. Dimon's brother from Hartford.

Mrs. G. D. Burton, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. George Clark, returned to Norwich Tuesday.

Milo Davoll has the cellar and foundation completed and has commenced to erect his bungalow.

MONTVILLE

Dwight Kelsey caught fine bass at Gardner Lake—Other interesting items.

Mrs. Eugene Chapman and daughter Alice of Simsbury are the guests of Mrs. Swamy Johnson.

Mrs. Harriet Allen and son, Bernard of Hartford, are spending the month visiting friends and relatives in town.

Caught Fine Bass. Dwight Kelsey caught six fine bass in Gardner Lake Wednesday.

Mrs. William Webster's Sunday school class spent Thursday at the Golden Spur.

About 30 young men from town attended the dance at Gardner Lake last Friday night.

Mrs. Edward Glasbrenner's auto has been taken off the passenger line for a few days for repairs.

George W. Dart's store is being shingled.

Frank Sawyer has moved into town from Thamesville. He is living in the Nesler house.

Guy Loomis of Hartford is spending his vacation with his father, G. Turner Loomis.

George Pratt and family of New Haven are spending the week at Mrs. Paton's.

GRISWOLD

Deacon Edward A. Geer visited his brothers at Three Rivers and attended the meeting at Northfield last week.

NORTH STONINGTON

Herd Tester Herrick Visits Local Farms—Playground to Close Aug. 20—Other Live Notes.

Rev. J. L. Peacock preached in the Congregational church last Sunday morning in exchange with Rev. O. D. Fisher.

Vesper Service. A vesper service was held on the lawn of the Congregational church Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. T. Carter spoke.

Rev. and Mrs. James T. Carter and two children of West Hartford have been guests of Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Fisher for a week.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Farren and daughter of North Attleboro, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John D. Avery.

Rev. John R. Brown, D. D., of Bridgeport and Rev. George W. Rigler, D. D., and Mrs. Rigler of Richmond, Va., have been guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Peacock.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Arnold and Mrs. B. A. Greene were in town Sunday.

Miss Doris T. Maine has been at Burtonwoods, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Leonard Maine and daughter and the Misses Maine and Grace Sheffield have been staying at Pleasant View the past week.

To Occupy Brookway House. Calvin O. Geer and family of East Orange, N. J., are to occupy the Brookway house in the village for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Caswell and infant daughter of Mansfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Caswell.

Miss Fannie Avery is entertaining friends from out of town.

Joseph P. Roche of Hyde Park, Mass., was a guest last Sunday and Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Gray.

The two sons of Mr. Roche, Joseph F. Jr. and Edward, are passing the month of August with Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

Herd Tester Here. C. H. Herrick, official tester of the Connecticut Herd Improvement association, No. 2, has been in town testing the herds of J. D. Avery, the Apple Brothers and Daniel E. Gray.

Mrs. William D. Morgan of Hartford is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Luther C. Gray.

Mrs. Sanford N. Billings of Stonington has been spending the week with her niece, Mrs. Henry E. Randall.

Enjoyed Picnic Supper. A few families from the west end of the village enjoyed a picnic supper Thursday night at the Gallup farm, the summer residence of Rev. J. L. Peacock.

Rev. Lucian Drury will preach in the Baptist church at Old Mystic Sunday morning.

The children's playground will close for the season Aug. 20.

OAKDALE

Local People Who Attended Storrs Meeting This Week—Local Postoffice Report for July.

Local people who motored to Storrs on Thursday of last week to attend the annual meeting of the Connecticut Poultrymen's association were G. H. Bradford, Mrs. Paul Glasbrenner, Miss Pauline Glasbrenner, Mrs. H. W. Auwood and Master Earl Auwood, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Rogers, Mrs. William O'Connell, C. M. Beebe and I. Raitner.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glasbrenner of Raymond Hill were Mr. Glasbrenner's cousin, Henry Leatham of San Antonio, Tex., and Mrs. Glasbrenner's niece, Miss May Auwood, of Waterford.

Miss Agnes Auwood spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rogers and family at their new cottage at Sound View.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beebe of the Center have had as their guests the past two weeks Mrs. Beebe's cousin, Miss Fannie Raymond, of Babylon, N. Y.

Mrs. F. C. Schofield and son Raymond returned home on Monday from Plymouth, Mass., where they have been spending a few days.

Mr. C. J. French has gone to spend a few weeks visiting friends in Massachusetts.

Postoffice Report. At the local postoffice during July, R. P. D. Carrier H. W. Auwood delivered 17,824 pieces of mail matter, the total weight of which was 2,854 pounds.

HALLVILLE

Alice Flynn is visiting with friends in Willimantic.

Miss Nettie Kroll, of Shelville, was a caller here on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. August Dejong and child were callers in Greenville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphere were guests of relatives here recently.

Mrs. Samuel Fish and children visited with relatives at the Drawbridge on Tuesday.

ROAD SOCIETY

Pomona Field Meeting—Church Picnic Held Thursday—Personal Briefs.

Amos G. Hewitt and friend of Meriden were recent guests of A. G. Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hewitt of New Haven are spending this Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Fanny Williams.

Grange Field Meeting. The Pomona grange of New London county held a field meeting near Old Mystic on Wednesday. A dinner was served by the Mystic grange to a large number, after which speeches by the national master and a number of others were listened to with pleasure.

Later athletic games were indulged in and much merriment ensued.

The Stonington grange held its regular meeting at the church parlors on Thursday evening. The evening was given over to the children under the direction of Mrs. Ralph C. Wheeler, and a good programme was enjoyed.

Later cake and ice cream were served to all.

Church Picnic. The church picnic was held at the Wequetequock casino on Tuesday. A goodly number attended and enjoyed the day.

Miss Grace D. Wheeler attended the burial of a friend in New London on Tuesday.

Thomas Browning died Sunday and was buried from his late home on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mildred Dewey of New Jersey visited her father and brothers on Tuesday.

Mrs. Hilary Noyes of Boston is the guest of Mrs. Noyes Palmer.

Mrs. Susan Smith and family and Miss Grace D. Wheeler motored to Colchester recently.

Mrs. Emma Spencer of Sloum, R. I., has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. P. C. Dixon.

HANOVER

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Park left Thursday for Bethlehem, N. H., to spend their vacation.

Mrs. Charles H. Peck of Marshfield, Mass., is the guest of her brother, James W. Eadie.

Mrs. A. B. Ladd, attended the meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society last week at which Miss Hadley gave a report of the recent conference at Silver Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Warwick and son of Oakland, R. I., were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crombie.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tanner and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harrison spent the week end visiting friends in Ware and Gilbertville, Mass.

Mrs. Paul Dressing and daughter Gladys are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Warwick in Oakland, R. I.

Frank Still and Edward Souter have returned after spending a few days at the salt water. While there they were the guests of Mrs. Still's father, whose home is in Wakefield, R. I.

Miss Lilla Still is spending part of her vacation with her brother, Frank Still.

Miss Georgiana Souter spent Sunday in Greenville with friends.

On Tuesday last Mrs. J. Tanner received news of her son's misfortune in being hurt and in a hospital. He is in the war across the water and his friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Milton Souter, with a party of friends, took an auto trip to Moosup Sunday.

Henry Smith was in Boston Sunday.

FRANKLIN

No Service at Local Church Sunday Morning—Live News Notes.

Rev. E. P. Capshaw and family are spending a few days in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hyde recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoxie of Providence, Miss Bernice Adams of New Haven, and Miss Hazel Swift of Willimantic.

Among those who attended church on Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith and son, Elmer of New Jersey, Roy Smith of Storrs and Mr. and Mrs. Spicton of Providence.

Miss Nancy Hyde and Frank Hyde were in Willimantic on Sunday.

Mr. C. W. Grant and Miss Clara Grant were recent Norwich visitors.

Miss Carrie Post of Norwich was calling on friends here Tuesday.

SHUNOC

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Randall entertained at dinner—Baptists and Congregationalists Held Joint Picnic.

Rev. John M. Collins delivered a sermon Sunday morning in the Second Baptist church. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mr. Collins spoke to a large audience at the Potter Hill, R. I. chapel and also conducted services Sunday evening at the village of Clarkville in Stonington.

Entertained at Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Randall entertained at dinner, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Nelson Phillips of Stonington at the home in the village.

Will Teach School. It is understood that Miss Anna Merrill will teach the school in Shunoc for the coming year. Miss Merrill taught last year in the Shiner district with great success.

Personal. Rev. and Mrs. Lucian Drury returned to their home in the village Saturday after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Mount Hermon.

Sunday services were well attended despite the heat.

Held Joint Picnic. The Third Baptist and Congregational Sunday schools held their annual picnic jointly this year. A special car was chartered for the occasion, but all the crowd could not be accommodated and many went by the regular and others took passage by carriages and automobiles. The affair was a thoroughly enjoyable occasion and long to be remembered.

Rev. Albert L. Townsend is passing the week in Boston. He is expected to occupy his pulpit at the Third Baptist church, Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Emeline Maine Billings of Stonington is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Henry E. Randall in the village.

Picnic Party. A picnic party, comprised of local residents, enjoyed a most pleasant time Wednesday at Ashwillet in the extreme northern part of the town.

Postmaster Floyd L. Maine carried a big load of parcels to and from that place in his Ford touring car.

George S. Stone covered a distance of 185 miles Sunday with his automobile. A party of friends accompanied him and Hartford and many places of interest were visited in the Nutmeg state in their journey.

Leonard Maine and family are passing the week at Pleasant View.

Open Air Meeting. An open air gospel meeting was held Sunday afternoon near Maine's crossing on the Norwich & Westery road. The speaking and singing was interesting and much appreciated by the large number present.

Large companies from this town were at the two local summer resorts Sunday, Watch Hill and Pleasant View.

LISBON

The Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Laura Chase of Killingly has been the guest of Mrs. Olaf Nelson a few days this week.

Mrs. Flora Noyes of Norwich and Mrs. Rev. Fitchville are staying Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson's and attended church at Newent.

Mrs. Crystal Tucker of Jewett City was a recent visitor at Mrs. Augustus Read's.

At H. J. Kendall's farm his family has been called appears to be a fresh huckleberry. The berries are of large size, juicy and very sweet, but in color instead of being black or blue, they are having a white coating that will rub off, but genuinely white.

Rev. C. A. Northrop will preach at Newent church Sunday.

CHESTERFIELD

Miss Mary Tinker has returned home after taking a two weeks' course of study at Storrs college.

Mrs. Willis Chappell and Mrs. Ethel Eddy of Fitchville are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers and family.

Mrs. Jeanette Phillips is visiting Mrs. Lydia Beckwith of New London.

Mr. Zimmerman of New York is visiting his family at Miller hotel.

Mrs. Annie Rosenthal has returned to her home in New York after visiting relatives at this place.

Miss Yeda Zimmerman is here for her vacation, with her parents.

Ellsworth Powers returned, home from Fitchville Sunday after visiting relatives there.

There will be services in the Methodist church Sunday, Aug. 15, at 2 p. m. Rev. T. B. Peabody will speak Sunday school at 1 p. m.

NORTH LYME

Mrs. Fred Miner is caring for Mrs. Babcock.

A number from this place attended the singing service held at the Hop Yard last Sunday afternoon, led by Rev. Francis Purvis of this place.

Mrs. Marion Champlin, who has been visiting friends here the past month, has gone to Willington, where she will visit Mrs. A. P. Gates.

Mrs. Alpheus Nye and children of Yantic and Miss Lila Babcock of Middletown have been visitors at George Babcock's the past week.

Miss Gertrude Ward returned Tuesday from a week's vacation spent at Northfield, Mass.

W. M. Sisson, Jr., Mrs. William Sisson, Mrs. Fred Miner and N. S. Strong motored to New London last Saturday.

NIANTIC

Building Addition to Flanders Road House—Building Boom Strikes Niantic—Chronical Events.

Eliph Munger is building an addition to Surveyor R. B. Gorton's house on the Flanders road. When the work is completed the family of the late Orin B. Gorton will reside there. At present the family are occupying the Coulter place on York avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley T. Boon of Norwich are occupying their cottage on Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbridge of Fairfield are stopping at the Eddy cottage.

James Marjorie and Eleanor Coates of the Misses Marjorie and Eleanor Coates of West Hope street and cottage at Crescent Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parnes of Waterbury, Mass., are guests of Mrs. Parnes's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Linicua, at Wild Air in the Pines.

Rev. Charles Everts and family of Somerville, Mass., are at the West cottage on the Bluffs.

Harry Angelo of New York is stopping in the Pines.

Three Houses Completed. Surveyor R. B. Gorton has sold a number of building lots on the J. V. Loce land on the Flanders road. Already three houses have been completed since the land was opened some time ago, one dwelling is in course of construction and it is rumored several more are expected to be built.

Since the opening of several new streets about the village there has been a building boom in Niantic. James Parkinon has erected a house at the corner of West Hope street and Pattagansett avenue. Mrs. George Parks purchased a piece of land some time ago on Lincoln street and erected a house which is ready to occupy. Mrs. George Beckwith has erected a dwelling house on Washington avenue which is being completed by competent workmen. John Payne of Waterford has a large bungalow in course of construction on land he recently purchased from Mrs. Henry L. Morgan in Pennsylvania avenue. Representative and Mrs. Marion R. Davis have moved into their new bungalow on Main street. This bungalow is one of a number of a city residence and is one of the prettiest places along our beautiful Main street. The house was erected by contractor P. J. Daniels and his force of men. With the aid of the Village Improvement society, those interested in our beautiful village, it should be made one of the prettiest places along the coast.

Improvement Society Met. A special meeting of the Village Improvement society was held in the lecture room of the Methodist church Monday evening. The purpose of the meeting was to decide on what dates the fair would be held. A committee was appointed and will report at the next meeting of the society, which will be about Oct. 24. The fair takes place about a week later. There was a number of speakers during the evening, among them being R. B. Gorton, Selectman F. A. Beckwith, Capt. James F. Clark, Byron Clark, C. F. Eldredge, Rev. J. W. Knappenberger. A number of suggestions were made, one being the advisability of opening new streets and lengthening a number of the old ones. Much praise is due the society, as they have taken a keen interest towards improving the village.

J. F. McCoy was in the Pines Sunday.

Mrs. Martha S. Brown entertained callers from Riverbank Monday.

Miss Dorothy Doolittle of Hartford passed Sunday with Miss Marjorie Smith of Pennsylvania avenue. Miss Doolittle resided here a few years ago.

Miss Jessie A. Willey of Norwich passed Sunday at her cottage in the Pines.

Mrs. Cass of the Alabama bungalow is entertaining friends from Bay Ridge, N. Y.

Scott Snow, Jr., of Hartford is at his cottage. Mr. Snow came down in his touring car.

John Gardner of New Haven arrived in the Pines Sunday and is the guest of his brother, R. L. Manwaring.

John Gardner of New York is the guest of his family in the Pines.

Miss Lina Harding has returned to her home at Grassy Hill after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Gleason.

John Gardner of Hartford is the guest of his family in the Pines.

Mrs. Lucy Miner of Lyme is the guest of her brother, Miss Carrie J. Perry of Norwich, and family in Washington avenue.

FITCHVILLE

Vacationists In and Out of the Village—District Happenings of the Week.

Miss Eliza Murphy of Nantuxok is visiting her cousin, the Misses Klingberger, of this place.

Miss Elizabeth MacMann is visiting relatives in Arctic, R. I.

Miss Catherine Shure of Nantuxok returned home after visiting at the home of Miss Margaret Fields for a few days.

William Lynch of Bristol, R. I., is spending a week's vacation with his cousin, the Misses Mary and Margaret Lynch.

Miss Rose Marra is visiting her uncle, John Glasbrenner, of Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Sr., are spending a week with Mrs. Clifford Canlin of Bristol, Conn.

Mrs. Thomas Foley and daughter Helen are visiting Mrs. Foley's brother, Michael Murphy, of Saybrook, Conn.

James Murphy has returned to his home in New York after spending several weeks with his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Foley.

Samuel Kinkadee is visiting friends in New York.

Miss Adeline Coughlin is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Reynolds, of New Haven.