

SKIN TROUBLE ON FACE TWO MONTHS

Started With Little Pimples. At Night Would Burn. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Now Entirely Well.

Of Mosher St., Holyoke, Mass.—"The eruption on my face started with little pimples. I suffered for a couple of months. At night when I would go to bed the pimples would start to burn and I had to get up and wash my face to cool it off for a while."

"I tried ... Soap and Ointment and they weren't a bit satisfactory. I then sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and the pimples started to disappear. I bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment and now I am entirely well." (Signed) Miss Anna Choninard, Sept. 23, 1914.

The delicate yet effective super-creamy emollient properties, derived from Cuticura Ointment, render Cuticura Soap most valuable in overcoming a tendency to distressing eruptions and promoting a normal condition of skin and hair health.

LIFE OF PRISONERS OF WAR IN SIBERIA.

Daily Routine is Along Moderate and Humane Lines.

Moscow, Russia, Aug. 17.—A detailed picture of the life of prisoners of war in Siberia has been received by a Moscow merchant from one of his correspondents in a large town several hundred miles in the interior of Siberia.

There are over 14,000 prisoners now in this locality, he states, and arrangements are being made for the reception of 10,000 more.

The correspondent declares that the lot of the prisoners is not a bad one—they are assisted to pass the time by the provision of various amusements and occupations, and the daily routine of their existence is along moderate and humane lines.

The Germans are kept separate from other nationalities.

"From 9 o'clock in the morning until 8 at night," writes the correspondent, "the prisoners are allowed to do gymnastic exercises, to play games, to sing, to play music. Gardening is also allowed where it is possible."

"The prisoners get the same food as Russian soldiers, and all but the Germans are allowed to work privately outside."

"The Germans are not allowed to go out without a special permission, and then an armed escort accompanies them. At the present time the Germans are working in construction camps, repairing roads, or loading and unloading stores."

Five hundred Germans are planting potatoes and cabbages for themselves; 100 Germans are cutting timber for firewood.

"When new prisoners come they are immediately told that they must keep good order and that they have nothing to fear, as our law obliges us to treat them kindly. Every prisoner has a right to come to see a Russian officer and to make to him his complaints, and no complaint was left unattended to, and those prisoners, whether Russian soldiers or prisoners, were immediately severely punished."

TALKED ABOUT WESTERLY

Deputy Sheriff Alleged to Have Disregarded Authority of Police Chief—Albert Anderson and William Moren Held in $500 Bonds for Theft of Oil Barrels—Business in Probate Court—Post Office Employs Plan Outing.

"There has been another alleged breach of police etiquette in Westerly, as the chief of police Thomas E. Brown is supposed to be the complaining officer in all criminal actions in the jurisdiction of the town. In this instance Deputy Sheriff George H. Barber is the alleged offender, and perhaps unwittingly as the arrests were made in Hope Valley where the deputy sheriff resides. Empty oil barrels had been stolen from the Bradford Dyeing association and Special Officer Thompson of Danbury connected with the Westerly police department called upon the deputy sheriff for assistance and the alleged barrel thieves were by Deputy Sheriff Barber arrested and brought to Westerly. Very soon after arrival and before a report was made to Chief of Police Brown, the deputy sheriff returned to Hope Valley, the district court, in Westerly, and swore out the complaint, thereby taking the case from the jurisdiction of the Westerly police."

It is alleged that empty oil barrels have been missing in pairs from the big plant on several occasions, but it was thought that they were being driven to the plant and after being loaded with eighteen empty barrels departed. The truck was owned by Deputy Sheriff Barber at Hope Valley, and Albert Anderson and William Moren were arrested for theft. When arraigned before Chief of Police E. Roche in the Third district court, both men pleaded not guilty to the charge of theft, averring that they procured the barrels by purchase. They were held in bonds of $500 each for hearing next Friday.

Judge Edward M. Burke presided at the regular session of the Westerly Probate court, Tuesday afternoon. Horace E. Burdick, administrator with the will annexed, of the late Mrs. Heloise Cenas, petitioned for authority to sell a cottage lot at Watch Hill. The petition was granted and if sold at private sale the amount must not be less than $6,000 free from encumbrance, but if sold at public auction, the sale must include the property encumbered at the time of the death of the owner. The bond was fixed at $8,000.

Charles H. Gavitt presented a petition that Rebecca A. Hope, dated June 5, 1915, intestate and leaving an estate to be administered, and asked for the appointment of an administrator. The petition was granted and Albert F. Kinney appointed, the bond being $800. Eugene B. Pendleton, Jaquie H. Hoxie and Henry F. Brooks were appointed appraisers.

The will of Lorenzo D. Richmond was admitted to probate, and his daughters Bertha M. Barr and Inez G. Steadman were appointed appraisers. Mr. Richmond died July 29, 1915, and the will was executed June 17, 1905, and witnessed by Nathan B. Lewis, William D. Martin and Sarah H. Barr. All the estate real and personal was given for the benefit of his wife, Sarah J. Richmond, during her life time, and then to be divided equally between his daughters, Bertha M. Barr and Inez G. Steadman.

Francis S. Haskell, executor of the estate of Isaac Jones, made report that the estate was solvent, and asked for the appointment of a commissioner to decide upon the claims of common creditors. After the payment of all bills and expenses stipulated by law, there was a balance of $325, a sum insufficient to meet the claims of common creditors. It was determined that it was not a first mortgage, then claim would be made as second mortgage, and if the claim was valid and the value of security established, would probably be entitled to the $325 balance, and become a common creditor for the other $15 claim. After much friendly discussion between attorneys Hull and Agard and the judge, it was agreed to continue the matter of appointing a commissioner nisi.

The will of Patrick Finnegan, who died July 18, 1915, was admitted to probate. The will was drawn December 2, 1915, and the Washington Trust company, nominated for administrator, was confirmed by the court and bond fixed at $500. Eugene B. Pendleton was appointed appraiser of the estate. The testator bequeathed to his sons, Thomas and John, $10 each, and to his daughter, Elizabeth J. Deton and Catherine A. Hence all his interest in the house and lot, 119 Westerly, to his son, Charles W. Finnegan, was given all interest in the property.
