FELL INTO HOPPER

Ernesta Ceromelli Had Leg Broken in Stone Crushers

Ernesta Ceromelli, in the employ of the contractors who are building the stretch of state road in Windham, to join the Scotland road, had his leg broken and barely escaped with his life Thursday morning, when he fell into the stone crusher, which he was feeding. Ceromelli had just thrown a big boulder into the hopper of the machine when he lost his balance and fell into the hopper. The fact that the stone went in first is all that prevented his leg being crushed. The injured man was hurried to St. Joseph's hospital, where the fracture was reduced.

Mr. Anderson sustained a fractured skull and broken both arms and is in a serious condition.

Pleasure Day for Clerks

The stores and principal business houses were closed all day Thursday, which was the annual outing day for the clerks. About 150 went to Ocean beach by trolley, 50 took the trip to Watch Hill and Block Island, under the auspices of the Clerks' Protective Association. A number of rogué acquaintances spent the day in Norwich, watching the games and renewing acquaintances, while another contingent enjoyed the annual outing of the Providence B. F. O. E.

IN THE CITY COURT

Potvin Case Continued—Providence Drummer Fined for Driving in Wrong Direction.

In the police court Thursday the case of Alphonse Potvin, arrested Wednesday, charged with assaulting his wife, and who was released under $100 bonds, was continued until August 23, so that the accused could procure counsel.

Louis Weinstein, a drummer for a Providence firm who is a frequent visitor in town and consequently should be versed in existing conditions, was before the court charged with driving in an easterly direction on the one way street running from Pleasant street to Windham road. The defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $2, with costs remitted. Chief Richmond made the point that a charge of peddling without a license also be brought against the accused as his license expired August 16. Weinstein was pretty well wrought up and expressed his intention of obeying the letter of the law in the future and his license was given him without extra cost.

Tenants Quarrel Over Peas

Miss Dorilla Desjardais was the complainant in a charge of assault brought against Mrs. F. W. Edwards. The alleged assault occurred August 18, when the Desjardais family and the Edwards family, who live in the same house on Pleasant street, got into an argument regarding peas on a tree supposed to be the property of both tenants. The Edwards woman pushed the Desjardais girl off the steps of the house and then, whether the one or the other struck her adversary seemed to be a matter of conjecture. Edward Bland, who lives in the house adjoining that occupied by the disputants, testified that he saw women of the two families arguing, but was witness to no assault. Judgment in this case was postponed and the case adjourned for thirty days. The disputants were informed that a renewal of the trouble would probably result in their being apprehended for breach of the peace.

Willimantic Camp Ground

Fourth Day of Institute Study—Meeting of East Greenwich Academy Alumni—Preacher from Norwich District—Grove Notes.

It was slightly warmer than the previous morning when a large number of the campers gathered for morning worship at the tabernacle at 8.15 Thursday, the fourth morning of Institute study. The leader was Rev. E. A. Legg of Danielson, whose theme was "The Holy Spirit and Worship." After offering a brief prayer and reading a selection from the eighth of Romans, the speaker asked whether our ideas of the Holy Spirit were as they were. You cannot understand the Holy Spirit by definitions, only by His activities. Paul calls the Holy Spirit our Helper, our Comforter, our Advocate, our Intercessor, our Spirit of Truth, our Spirit of Love, our Spirit of Peace, our Spirit of Kindness, our Spirit of Gentleness, our Spirit of Patience, our Spirit of Self-control, our Spirit of Faith, our Spirit of Hope, our Spirit of Charity.

Bible Study Hour

The hour of Bible study was unusually impressive. Dr. Friesell clearly and forcibly presented the scriptures teaching concerning Sin and its Punishment, based upon the words, "He came not into the world to condemn the world." His thought was that the greatest punishment which could be visited upon a sinner is not a literal lake of fire, but a harvest of character, that the sinner forever remain himself, the factor of God he has made himself to be, a sinner in all God, who is infinite Love, has done to save him. We shall enter into Heaven only if we are able to add to its glory by redeemed character.

Abraham First Emigrant

The next hour came with his first lecture the Rev. Frederick H. Wright, D. D., superintendent of Italian missions east of the Mississippi river. The three remaining days of the Institute he is to have the general subject of Home Missions. Emigration is God's method of distributing people. Abraham was the first great emigrant. Like him all pioneers are men of great faith. Go a few generations back and we find our ancestors were immigrants. A little Norwegian once replied to her teacher: "I am an American of Norwegian design."

Address on "Just Girls"

Another new instructor conducted the next hour's study, Miss Alice M. Robertson, superintendent of the Deaconess Training school. Her subject was Just Girls. I believe in girls because I see a woman in every kind of a girl, the fighting, sentimental, frivolous, giddy or sober girl. You must follow the girl, not try to make her follow you. At the threshold of womanhood, nothing is so beautiful as the dreaming girl.

Advice to Young Men

At the same hour Ernest W. Nafziger gave earnest advice to young men at the South Manchester house.

Children Hear Mrs. Reed

At 1 o'clock the children met at the New London house as usual and Mrs. Reed talked to them about Jesus.

Quiet Hour

At 6.15 every evening the quiet hour is observed. Miss Robertson conducts that for women, the playground. Mr. Nafziger leads the men's devotional period under the big pine near the gate.

Dr. Fred Wright Preaches

The beautiful weather enabled the people to gather in the open air for the afternoon. The covered portion of the auditorium was well filled. Ernest Nafziger had a half hour of song practice. Scripture was read by Rev. E. P. Phreaner, Norwich, Town, and

Prayer offered by Rev. H. E. Casady of East Greenwich

Dr. Wright began by speaking of some traits and an Italian paper, which are of aid in helping to hold of the three million of Italians in the land. We need the missionary spirit. The problem is not with the foreigner; it is with the American. Over 50 per cent of the laborers in this land are foreign born. Our race is dying out, but our foreign friends are multiplying like the Jews did in Goshen. If our nation is to remain Christian, these must be Christianized by us.

E. G. A. Alumni Meet

Right after the Wednesday evening service there was held at the cottage in possession of East Greenwich academy a social gathering of the alumni. Twenty-one were present and four guests. The oldest alumnus present was Dr. F. D. Maine, of Springfield, who was graduated in 1829. There was one older alumnus on the ground, who was not able to be present, although he attended the business meeting of the afternoon, Rev. E. M. Anthony of Jewett City, who was graduated in 1856.

Prof. W. E. Hattie gave an interesting resume of the rapid growth of the academy the past few years and of its present bright prospects.

The remainder of the evening was spent in giving various amusing reminiscences by several present. Ice cream and cake were served and gobble was played. The rules of the camp an hour beyond the ringing of the retiring bell, as one of the alumni present was Policeman F. H. Bushnell of Norwich Town, no arrests were made.

Personals and Arrivals

George Lincoln Yeomans came from his home in Norwich and was calling among friends on the grounds Thursday.

A chicken dinner was served at the boarding house and a roast beef dinner at the camp.

About the Grove

At the cottage of Rev. Frank Chamberlain Thursday were Nelson Ford, and Mrs. George Andrew Gardner, from Norwich Town; Mrs. A. A. Ladd, Willimantic, and Mrs. Eric Mitchell and daughter, Rev. and Nancy of Franklin, also Mrs. Phoebe Hanks of Guilford.

Bill Griswold was greeting friends here Thursday. He is in good health for a man 32 and has attended nearly all the meetings that have been held on the grounds.

At the restaurant building are Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Zabriske and son Edward and Elijah Harris, Preston; John Bath, Norwich, Pa. Mrs. Edward McDade and James Muller, Norwich.

George Ford, East Great Plain, was at camp Thursday.

Rev. W. H. Bath, pastor of the M. E. church at South Manchester, is entertaining this week his father, Rev. John Bath, of South Manchester, Pa. Mrs. Bath came on the grounds Thursday.

Judge A. E. Purdie, Arthur Silliman and two young men motored from Middlebury to the camp.

It greatly adds to the music to have again on the platform this season the veteran bass-violinist, John W. Rose, of Windham. Though he has advanced his right wrist quite badly not long ago, he pluckily draws the bow across his big Prescott double bass.

It is at the cabinet organ had the pedal stop to it, and it is hoped he may be spared many years to give the benefit of his skill to the musical services.

Sermon by Rev. W. H. Bath

Most of the speakers and those yet to come before the meeting closes have been from outside the New England Southern conference. All are excellent. Still it was gratifying to many that one of the preachers of Norwich district was the speaker on Wednesday evening at the tabernacle, Rev. W. H. Bath, pastor at South Manchester, whose text was Job 9: 1: "We suffer all things lest we hinder the gospel of Christ."

Paul, in this declaration, shows he is willing to give up his rights for others.

Our topic is: Our Rights and Our Attitude Toward Them.

Rights are always personal, between man and man. We do not think of rights of thunder, of the flood, of the earthquake. Our constitution says we have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. When my right becomes another man's wrong, I must relinquish my right. I have no right to a world out my fist, but not in another man's face.

At the conclusion of this very impressive sermon, the district superintendent spoke a few words. He said: "I wonder what would have happened if Jesus Christ had always stood up for his rights. What sort of a world would it be if Christians should always insist upon their rights? A number of testimonies were given and the meeting ended. Several hundred were present.

Noted Here and There

Miss Josephine Fiske, superintendent of the Providence Deaconess home, came to camp Thursday.

Among the ministers on the grounds are: Rev. J. M. Potter, Gales Ferry; D. W. Adams, Uncasville; G. E. Stanley, Putnam; Frank Chamberlain, East Greenwich; R. Miller, West Thompson; Samuel Thatcher, Jewett City; S. F. Maine, Hills Grove, R. L.; W. H. Bath, South Manchester; E. P. Studeny, Manchester; G. E. Priestly, Wapping; W. D. Woodward, Quarryville; J. Barber, South Coventry; F. C. Baker, Arnold's Mills, R. L.; John Thompson, Griswold; E. P. Phreaner, Norwich Town; J. E. Duxbury, East Hampton and Moodus, and E. A. Legg, Danielson.

Henry Wittig of Providence is here as baker for the fifteenth year. He is assisted by his own sons, John and Joseph.

Joshua Yeomans, who up to last season had been head waiter in the boarding house dining room for about 30 years, died last fall. His presence is greatly missed, for he has many friends among the yearly attendants at the camp.

CARRY STOMACH JOY IN YOUR VEST POCKET

Lee & Osgood Co. Has Such Faith In This Dyspepsia Remedy That They Guarantee It.

One of the greatest successes in the sale of medicine has been achieved by Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that Lee & Osgood Co., the popular druggists, has had to keep its stock on hand. It is very popular with bankers, ministers, lawyers and others whose business or profession keeps them closely confined while those who suffer from indigestion through irregular eating, worry or other causes, have found relief in this reliable remedy.

Mi-o-na comes in tablet form and is sold in a metal box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take, gives quick relief and should help any case, no matter of how long a standing. This remedy has been so uniformly successful that Lee & Osgood Co. will in future sell Mi-o-na under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it should not prove entirely satisfactory. No other dyspepsia remedy has such a large enough percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done. If any one has dyspepsia, today is the best time to begin carrying it.

Profiteering Checked Elsewhere. In several of our overseas nations—Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand—

the Government had commandeered certain necessary supplies—wheat, meat, wool—and regulated their price in England's interest against their own native profiteers. The Indian Government followed suit in the case of wheat, and the South African Government in the case of coal.—The New Age (London).
