

WILLIMANTIC

What is Going On Tonight

Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association, 10 E. Hill, 8 o'clock. Chubbuck Lodge, No. 16, I. O. O. F., 8 o'clock. Regular Drill of Co. D, First C. N. G., State Armory.

WORK, BUT FEW WORKERS.

Vanderman Company Has Orders Enough Since Strike Began. About 50 men are at work at the plant of the Vanderman Manufacturing company in this city, according to a statement made by John Reilly, manager of the company, Wednesday. At the time of the strike some seventy men were employed, so that the three has been recruited to sixty per cent or better of what it was at that time.

Mr. Reilly stated that the company had orders enough to keep the force busy, and as soon as some of the new men get the hang of their work, more orders would be solicited and taken. At the time the men were laid off, which brought on the strike, he said the orders were not so very heavy. He expected more men to arrive shortly to join the force of workers.

Patrolmen on New Beats.

The change in the beats of the members of the police force went into effect for the present month Wednesday. Officer Brannigan is now detailed as day officer, with the duties of traffic officer; Officer Paulhus takes over Main street; Officer MacArthur the center beat; Officer Grady the Jackson street beat, and Officer Manley the Sodom beat. These last changes began Wednesday evening.

Busy at Station.

Railroad trainmen and baggage men are getting the full effect of the end of the vacation season nowadays. The rush of travelers returning from the various shore resorts and vacation places is keeping the local force busy.

Thread Plant's Extra Half Holiday.

It was announced Wednesday that the entire plant of the American Thread company in this city will be

HEINZ
Tomato
Ketchup
Purest is good. With the delicate flavor of fresh, ripe tomatoes.
Improves every other food with which it is served. The ideal relish.

JAY M. SHEPARD
Succeeding Elmore & Shepard
Funeral Director and Embalmer
30-62 North St., Willimantic
Lady Assistant Tel. connection

DR. F. C. JACKSON, Dentist
Painless Extracting and Filling a Specialty
202 Main Street, Willimantic
Telephone

HIRAM N. FENN
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
82 Church St., Willimantic, Ct.
Telephone Lady Assistant

Murray's Boston Store
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Huck Towel Special
About twelve dozen of these good sturdy Huck Towels are included in this special sale. Some are all white while others have red or blue borders, but each one a good value at

Sample Blankets
At Wholesale Prices
Our sale of Sample Blankets will continue all this week and offers exceptionally good bargains in Wool or Cotton Blankets, white, grey or tan with colored borders.
Sale Prices 33c up to $7.00 Pair

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Capital $100,000 Surplus and Profits $175,000
Established 1832
Accuracy in accounting, courteous service, promptness and liberality in dealing, and a sound business policy in administering its own affairs, characterize THE WINDHAM NATIONAL BANK, which aims thereby to establish with customers relations that shall prove reciprocally permanent, pleasant and profitable.

The Windham National Bank
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

is visiting relatives in Plainfield and Jewett City.

Miss Hattie Hall, who has been employed at Yonkers on Union street, has resigned, and will take a short vacation with relatives in East Hampton before beginning her studies at the Windham high school this coming term.

COLCHESTER

Henry Crocker a Visitor After Long Absence—Auction at Webster Farm

Henry Crocker and daughter of Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, were visitors in town for a few days the past week. Mr. Crocker was born in this place. His father was proprietor of what was then known as the Crocker house, located on the corner of South Main street and Falls Hill avenue. Mr. Crocker was a student in the academy. He was in town this trip seeking old acquaintances of which he found very few, noting many changes in town since his absence.

Dr. Edwin Munson returned to New York after a few days at his summer home on Upper Broadway.

Frederick A. Back of New York was the guest of his family at their summer home on Broadway over Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Smith of New York is visiting her brother Charles L. Strong, Broke Her Arm.

Mrs. Mary A. Baker met with a bad accident at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Katie Talbot, on Broadway Tuesday morning. While going down stairs she tripped, fell and broke her arm. Dr. Howland reduced the fracture.

Henry Damm of Middletown is the guest of his parents on Lebanon avenue for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williams of New Britain were guests of Mr. Williams' parents at the homestead over Sunday.

John Cavanaugh, who has been visiting his parents on Norwich avenue for the past week has returned to his work in New Haven.

Auction at Webster Farm.

A large crowd attended the auction Tuesday at the old Webster farm south of the village. Charles F. Brown was auctioneer. All the live stock, farming utensils, furniture was sold. Mr. Walsonka, who has lived there the past two years is moving to New York.

Moving to Woodus.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien are moving from the Day house on Norwich avenue to Woodus.

Brief Borough Notes.

John T. Brown of Hartford is spending a few weeks at his summer home in Packwoodville.

Clinton Jones of East Hampton was calling on friends in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden A. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. William S. Curtis returned Monday from a month's outing at Marblehead, Mass.

J. F. Smith of Westbury, R. I. was a Colchester visitor Tuesday.

Rev. T. W. Brown and party were at Hayward's Lake Tuesday.

T. Swan Rathbun left Tuesday for Panama Exposition at San Francisco.

Places of interest while en route.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartlett of New Haven, was in town Wednesday.

Pastor's Vacation Ends.

At the Congregational church Sunday, Sept. 27, at 10:45 o'clock, the pastor Rev. H. A. Blake, who has returned from his vacation at the White Mountains will preach Sunday school at 12:10, and Christian Endeavor services at 6 p. m.

Timothy O'Connell of East Haddam was a Colchester caller Wednesday.

William Maynard of North Plains was in town Wednesday.

MYSTIC

Fanny Ledyard Chapter Meets—Conrad Rock Bravely Stops Runaway Horses.

The meeting of Fanny Ledyard chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held Wednesday afternoon in the assembly hall of Music temple. A large gathering was present at the meeting. The regent, Mrs. Ira C. Hoxie, presided. A very interesting session was held after which a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Stopped a Runaway.

A very exciting runaway occurred about noon Wednesday when Walter Knight's gray horses ran down the New London road with a load of household goods which he was moving. The horses became frightened at a passing automobile, came down Dudley hill up Water street through West Main street and onto the bridge. Several persons tried to stop the team. Finally Conrad Rock caught on behind, climbed over the goods and got hold of the reins. As the horses entered the bridge a freight car came on the bridge from the east and the animals were stopped. Along the streets pieces of furniture were strewn and broken. Outside this no serious damage was done.

Up a Few Words.

Silas Fish of New York is the guest of his family at the home of his mother, Mrs. Elsie Pfeiffer of this city.

Mrs. Jessie Williams, of Jersey City, is visiting Mrs. John E. Williams.

Mrs. and Mrs. Max Stein, and daughter, Miss Stella Stein, and son, Samuel Stein, have returned to Hartford after a visit with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hammaeber.

Mrs. Peter Hammaeber and son Henry have returned from a visit in Scranton, Pa.

Louis Stein of Hartford is the guest of his cousin, Harry Feidler.

Misses Adella and Julia Randall left Wednesday for their home in St. Paul, after spending the summer in Mystic.

Miss Grace Agalace Brown, of Boston, is the guest of Miss Ann Brown.

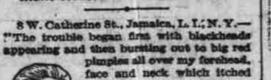

George Emmons has returned from a visit in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tucker, of

PRIPLES ALL OVER FOREHEAD, FACE

And Neck. Also Blackheads. Itched Very Bad. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Healed in Three Weeks.

8 W. Catherine St., Jamaica, L. I., N. Y.—
"The trouble began first with blackheads appearing and then bursting out to big red pimples all over my forehead, face and neck which itched very bad. They troubled me when I would shave or wash my face. I would crush them out, then they would dry and in a few days come back. At the beginning of it I consulted a doctor.

"I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the newspaper and sent for a free sample. I saw so much improvement that I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment with the Cuticura Soap and they healed me in three weeks." (Signed) A. D. Paradise, July 31, 1914.

Besides quickly soothing and healing itching skin and scalp troubles of infants and adults these fragrant super-cure ointments purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 25-c. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

Tampa, Florida, are guests of Mrs. Tucker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McKendrick.

Mrs. George I. Wilcox has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. James Mullen, in New Britain.

WILLIMANTIC ZION MISSION BUYS REAL ESTATE.

Purchases Piece of Property in That City for $2,000.

Rev. C. S. Whitted, D. D., presiding elder of the New England conference of the A. M. E. Zion church and president of the conference mission board, in company with Rev. E. W. Swain of Boston and Rev. E. George Biddle of Norwich, members of the mission board, held a special meeting with the members of the A. M. E. Zion mission of Willimantic Tuesday evening.

The mission building committee, and the following trustees were in attendance at the meeting: Luke Watson, Mrs. Queen Watson, Mrs. Hattie E. Toney, Miss Anna Pettus (and Mrs. Nancy Robinson, trustee, but not present).

Rev. T. W. Brown, pastor of the mission, and most zealous and liberal members. At the request of the mission board and pastor, Rev. Mr. Biddle of Norwich led a spirited prayer service as an opening to the business meeting. In the meeting it was unanimously voted to purchase a fine piece of property on Chestnut street for $2,000. The mission board, through the presiding elder, donated $200, thus enabling the mission to pay $500 cash down on the property, and the balance at 5 per cent interest in small annual payments. This insures the mission brighter prospects than ever before.

STANDS FOR WESTERLY JITNEYS

Designated in Different Sections of the Town—Chauffeur of New York Family Arrested on Charge of Over-speeding—Opening of State Scallop Season—Crane at Quarry Breaks

Supt. Maurice W. Flynn has designated stands for the licensed jitney 'buses in different parts of the compact part of the town where they can stand without regard to time limit, but aside from these stands the jitneys are not permitted to remain for more than five minutes. Painted arrows on the curb designate the official public stands and their limitations. The new ordinance went into effect Wednesday and nearly one-half of the number that were in operation the day before were not operated, the owners being undecided whether to take out license and comply with the ordinance restrictions or engage in some other business. Superintendent Flynn has 15 licenses and at different periods there have been double that number of automobiles engaged in carrying passengers for hire, under the new plan. The license fee is $1 for each driver for one year and $2 for the seating capacity of the car, or a four passenger car and driver the cost to the owner of the jitney 'bus is $11 a year. In addition there are many restrictions that did not apply prior to the enactment of the ordinance.

Neil E. Dahl, chauffeur for the Huntley family of New York, with a summer cottage at Pleasant View, was arrested by Chief Brown and Police-men Tuesday on the charge of over-speeding his automobile on the Watch Hill road. He was arraigned before Judge Oliver Williams in the Third district court, and upon advice of his counsel, Attorney A. B. Crafts, pleaded nolo, the attorney asking for a continuance before a sentence was pronounced in order to give the employer of the accused opportunity to be heard. The case was continued until Friday and the bond fixed at $200.

Local Laocotics. Edward Macomber is seriously ill at his home in Lester street.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Noyes of New London were in Westbury Wednesday.

Ground will be broken Sunday afternoon for the new church to be erected in Clarkville.

No extra cars were required on Wednesday to transport passengers to North Stonington.

The employees of the Westery post-office were photographed in front of the postoffice building Wednesday.

In the bankrupt estate of Robert M. Hiscox a first dividend of 3 per cent, was declared Aug. 23, payable Aug. 30.

Addison S. Archie gave a farewell bachelor dinner to some of his intimate friends at The Rhode Island Wednesday.

While working at a grindstone in the Smith Granite plant, Joseph Gavitt both hands severely crushed. He was attended by Dr. Pagan.

Miss Marie Zangrandi, an assistant librarian of the Westery public library, is on her vacation, a portion of which will be spent at Rye North Beach, N. H.

Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, Mrs. Dell Burdick and Miss Hilda Young have returned from Mt. Pleasant, Wis. where they attended the Seventh Day Baptist general conference.

After a long illness with Bright's disease, E. Hammet Mitchell, aged 48, died Wednesday morning at his late home in Greenman avenue. He is survived by Mrs. Mitchell.

The Red Letter day netted $258.75 for the Westery Visiting Nurse association, with red letters still returnable, and it is believed the sum will be increased to $400 at least.

The scallop season opened in Rhode Island Wednesday and will close Dec. 31. The license fee is $5 for the four months, and $2 for far 60 licenses have been issued as against $4 in 1914.

Miss Fannie E. Wilcox has returned from a three months' vacation spent in part on the Pacific coast and in the northwest and has resumed her duties in charge of the reference department of the Westery public library.

A part of a large traveling crane at the Smith Granite works broke Wednesday morning, and in consequence many stonecutters could not continue in their work. A new part will be procured as quickly as possible and work resumed.

Miss Katherine G. Price, soprano, of Westery, will assist at a concert to be given this evening in New London. Miss Price will sing Vol ce capete (Norma di Figaro), by Mozart, and with Mr. Weld will sing Gondoliers, by George Henschell.

The annual dividend of the Industrial Trust company is 13 per cent, with home institution in Providence and branch in Westery, and the annual dividend of the Washington Trust company is 2 per cent, the Kingston 6, and the Wakefield 7.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Rocky Hill.—A number of trains on the Valley division will be taken off next week.

Meriden.—During August Chief Donovan reports that there were eight bell and four still alarms.

Watertown.—A few more weeks and the Taft school will have entered upon its twenty-third year in Watertown.

Winsted.—Funeral services for William Mortimer Clark, who died Monday morning, were held at the Clark house.

THIS YEAR THE GREATEST EVER

Sixty-first Annual NEW LONDON COUNTY FAIR

Norwich, Conn., Sept. 6th, 7th, 8th, 1915 Opens Labor Day

Governor's Day, Sept. 7th

HON. MARCUS H. HOLCOMB
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT
TOGETHER WITH THE
MAYORS AND PROMINENT MEN FROM ALL OVER THE STATE WILL BE OUR GUESTS ON THIS DAY

MILITARY ESCORT FOR THE GOVERNOR AND HIS PARTY HIS EXCELLENCY WILL SPEAK AT 1.30 P. M.

A GATHERING IN OF
OLD FRIENDS — OLD COMRADES — OLD NEIGHBORS
WE WANT YOU WITH US BECAUSE
THIS IS YOUR GOVERNOR — THIS IS YOUR FAIR
THE ONLY FAIR IN THE STATE WITH A CATTLE SHOW
THIS YEAR
$3,000.00 IN PURSES
STEPPING BY STEPPERS THAT STEP REAL STEPS
BIG FREE VAUDEVILLE SHOW DAY AND EVENING
BIG MIDWAY

Day and Night Fireworks Two Bands Fair In Full Swing Day and Night

Crystal Lake Villa, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Burial was in Forest View cemetery.

Tolland.—Miss Edwin Pdetat gave an exhibition of the work of the second year of The Camp at Redcroft, on Saturday afternoon.

Middletown.—The new fire truck for headquarters has not yet gone into commission. The vehicle is being given a thorough try out.

Manchester.—St. Mary's Young Men's club will be twenty-five years old in October, and plans are under way for a celebration.

Middletown.—Harry S. Garforth, formerly with the I. E. Palmer company; in this city, has been made general superintendent of the Sussex mills of Sussex, N. J. The mill is the sixth largest in the country engaged in the manufacture of Jacquard Turkish towels.

Hartford.—Mois H. Whapples, president of the Connecticut Trust & Safe Deposit company, left yesterday for a vacation in the Maine woods.

Ivoryton.—By special request the game between the Cedar Hills of New Haven and the Comstock Cheney Company Baseball team of Ivoryton will be played off Saturday of this week on the local grounds.

Southington.—The annual meeting of the Connecticut Adventists' Camp Meeting association, was held Tuesday. Reports of the officers were read and they showed that the financial condition of the association was good. The officers elected are: President, Rev. Henry Stone of Wallingford; vice president, Thomas Feltman of Waterbury; secretary, Scoville S. Atkins of Yantisville; treasurer, Rev. E. V. Ellis of Danbury.

Wallingford.—Whether St. George's inn shall be continued as a hotel or whether a joint stock company shall be formed and the hostelry razed and a modern apartment house erected on the site is a matter now under serious discussion by the owners of the equity, William H. Newton and A. I. Martin.

Portland.—Invitations have been received to the marriage of James Burlington Ellsworth, eldest son of First Selectman and Mrs. Herbert E. Ellsworth, of Homestead avenue, and Miss Ruth Lillian Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strong of Kensington, Conn., at the First Congregational church in Kensington, Thursday evening, September 16, at 6 o'clock.

A Fresh Morning, a Fresh Mount and a Fresh-Rolled Cigarette

—there's a combination to kindle a man's spirits with the pure joy of living! The delicious freshness of "Bull" Durham hand-made cigarettes appeals to the countless thousands of smart, active, sport-loving, health-loving American men—gives added zest and exhilaration to their enjoyment. It is quite the fashion to "roll your own" in any company, upon any occasion, with this famously good, pure tobacco.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

To millions of experienced smokers throughout the world "Bull" Durham means much more than a particular brand of smoking tobacco — it stands for a distinctive form of tobacco enjoyment, incomparably attractive, delightful, satisfying. No other tobacco has that wonderful, original, unique fragrance of "Bull" Durham. No other cigarettes have the same delicious smoothness, freshness and mellow-sweet flavor of "Bull" Durham hand-made cigarettes. You can only appreciate this when you learn to "roll your own".

FREE An Illustrated Booklet showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U. S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

This Free Book

will tell you how you can keep your household linen beautiful. Also tells the reason why

Derryvale

Pure Irish Linens

are guaranteed to wash well and wear long. Call or write for more info today.

REID & HUGHES