

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

COMPLETE SATISFACTION

Baltimore American.

WHAT CAN HE DO BUT TAKE IT IN?

Chicago News.

HITTING TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE.

Rochester Herald.

"OLD FAITHFUL"

Brooklyn Logic.

"WHAT, AGAIN?"

Cleveland Plain Dealer.

WILL HE BREAK IN?

Kansas City Journal.

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

LEBANON

Ball Team Defeats South Windham, 8 to 2—Greenville Athletics Coming Today—Dance at Grange Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benjamin and daughters, Edith and Ethel, of Preston City were callers at E. A. Hoxie's and F. W. Hoxie's Friday.

Mrs. Agnes Hyde of Willimantic is keeping house for Elmer and Clarence Geer while their mother is in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watters of Boston visited Mr. and Mrs. Clark Standish recently.

Miss Mabel Clark of Willimantic has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Charles Hinckley.

Stanton L. Briggs was seriously ill a few days this week with acute indigestion.

Game With Greenville Today.

Last Saturday the Lebanon Athletic club baseball team played the South Windham team on the Lebanon grounds and won from them easily. The score was 8 to 2 in favor of Lebanon. Today (Saturday) the L. A. C. baseball team plays on their own diamond the Greenville Athletic club baseball team.

Mrs. Julia Geer left last Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Stevens, of Providence.

Miss Ruby Williams has returned after spending some time with friends near Madison.

Miss Alice Blakelee was the guest of friends in Hartford and Waterbury recently.

James Smith of Hartford was at Mrs. Nellie Lillie's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Richardson and son, Herbert, Jr., spent the past week in town with Mrs. Nellie Lillie. Miss Louise Gardner of Yantic has been visiting Mrs. Arthur E. Hewitt.

Miss Harriet Richardson returned to Hartford Sunday after spending three weeks with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Lillie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitcher of New York are visiting at William Robinson's.

Dance at Grange Hall.

Last Friday evening there was a dance in Lebanon grange hall given by Amos Lillie and Charles Troland. Stanton's orchestra furnished music, and Prof. Tinkham was promoter. There was a large attendance. Some farmers are having their silos filled this week.

Allison Rogers of Norwich Town was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Goodwin Sunday.

Miss Mabel K. Noyes has returned to Lebanon after spending some time at the exposition at California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gibbs left early Thursday morning for New York after spending the summer at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitcher of New York were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson of Post Hill Wednesday.

Mrs. Kate Cobb, Mrs. Adell Spaulding, Mrs. Robert Lillie and daughter, Arlene spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stark of Goshen.

Mrs. Anna Canedy has returned after spending the summer in Boston.

At the Lake.

Mrs. Segar spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Doubleday, at Columbia lake.

Miss Dorothy I. Gould of Woburn, Mass., spent a few days recently with Miss Vera Hoxie.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hewitt have left town for Keene, N. H., where Mr. Hewitt is a teacher.

Mrs. Emma Minott is visiting Rev. and Mrs. Hollis Campbell.

Teacher Resigns.

Miss Addie Hallen, who teaches at the Natchaug school in Willimantic, has been compelled to resign to stay at home and care for Miss Mary Dutton.

Rev. Mr. Kelsey is visiting at Mrs. Mary Elizabeth F. Duffy, a graduate of the Polyclinic hospital, New York, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Duffy, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinckley and children and Miss Mabel Clark spent Tuesday at Ocean Beach. The trip was made in Mr. Hinckley's new automobile.

Mrs. George Chappell is entertaining Mrs. Merton Andrews and daughter, Arlene and Lucie, of Willimantic.

GALES FERRY

Mrs. Richard Ames Entertains at Five Hundred—Party Given by Miss Richards—Cottage Season Ending.

Rev. James M. Potter spoke in the M. E. church last Sunday morning, from St. Mark—4th chapter, 37th verse, "Give ye them to eat." The theme being, "Hidden Manna." Hark! Hark! My Minnie! was sung at the offertory. Miss Minnie Bartlett arranged the altar flowers.

At the Sunday school session awards for regular attendance was given to Ethel Frost, for two months, bronze pin; Gordon Star, for two months, gold-plated star; two months, bronze pin; Allen, gold star; fourteen months, Donald Potter, gun metal star; eight months, Mrs. Fanny A. Molthrop, silver star.

The open air service was postponed Sunday afternoon on account of the rain. A praise service was held in the evening under the auspices of the Epworth league, in the vestry of the M. E. church.

Afternoon of Cards.

Mrs. Richard Ames of Yonkers, N. Y., entertained at her cottage on the Bluff, Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock at cards. Five hundred was played at five tables. Mrs. Emma J. Balcom of Montclair, N. J., took first prize, an embroidered handkerchief; Miss Eleanor Rogers of Philadelphia, second prize, box of correspondence cards; consolation, Mrs. Fanny A. Molthrop, good luck silver finger ring. Ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Ames was assisted by her daughter, Miss Bessie Ames and Miss Marguerite Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frost and daughters, Ethel and Dorothy, and son, Charles, with maids, left Monday evening, after spending July and August at their cottage on the Bluff, going to their home in Montclair, N. J.

Miss Evelyn Richards entertained about forty young people last Wednesday evening at her cottage and grounds.

Miss Richards has been spending August here with her mother, Mrs. Fred Richards, of Laurel Hill, Norwich. Dancers, of Laurel Hill, Norwich, were invited to the music of the Victrola, was enjoyed. Among the refreshments served, were frankfurters cooked over an open fire on the lawn and eaten with rolls.

Miss Fanny J. Healey of Willimantic was the guest of Mrs. Fred Richards, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Charles H. Kort, of Washington, D. C., arrived Thursday to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Lydia S. Maynard.

Mrs. Annie E. Hewitt and daughter, Miss Ida Hewitt, of East Rockaway, L. I. are visiting Mrs. Hewitt's sister, Mrs. Lucy Brown.

Among those that attended the annual Bill dinner were Mrs. N. A. Gibbs, Amanda H. Perkins, Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlbutt, Miss Beatrice Jones, Miss Laura A. Perkins, taken there by Rowland H. Perkins of New London, by automobile. Rev. James M. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Parker, Miss Minnie Bartlett and R. Irving Hurlbutt, Winthrop Hurlbutt and Mrs. C. E. Caver and children, with Miss Kate B. Colver of the Navy Yard.

In a Few Words.

Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt returned last Wednesday from a trip to Montreal, Batiscan and Quebec.

Misses Ellen and Lucy Geer of Norwich were entertained at luncheon by Miss Caroline B. Freeman of the village last Wednesday.

Mrs. Myrtle Mather and Mrs. John McGuire and daughter, Miss Laura McGuire, were members of a party who picnicked at Ocean Beach Thursday.

Miss Gladys Thompson, a student at Simmons college, spent the week-end with Miss Jennie G. Perkins.

The cottages occupied by the Bird and Beaver families on the Bluff were closed Monday for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and family closed their cottage on the Bluff Wednesday and left for their home in Newark, N. J.

Mrs. J. E. Balcom of Montclair, N. J., has purchased the cottage Whitwood, owned by Robert Will of Jewett City.

Carl Lawson left on a trip to Winnipeg, Canada, last week and Tracy Smith is supplying his place as assistant at the station agent, G. E. Lawson.

CLARK'S FALLS

Mrs. Frances Maine was called to Glasgow to help care for her aunt, Mrs. Abbie Lewis, who is in very poor health, but is somewhat improved.

Harry Kinney of Mystic has been the guest of relatives here. He was accompanied home by his cousin, Miss Edith Kinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Palmer were in Glasgow Thursday to attend the union of the family of the late Avery N. Eccleston and wife, Sally Ray, held at the home of a grandson, Frank D. Eccleston.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fish and little daughter have returned from a visit with Mr. Fish's parents at Washington, R. I.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Meeting of the J. W. Club—Surprise Party for Fred H. Race, Jr., on His Birthday.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson has gone to Lebanon for a stay of several weeks.

Miss Lydia Johnson, Mrs. Earl Rogers and daughter Barbara were guests at dinner Tuesday of Mrs. William Smith.

Mrs. Lewis Johnson was the week-end guest of Mrs. Hyde Johnson and Mrs. Speeler. Mr. and Mrs. Heath of New Hampshire were week-end guests of their son, Station Agent Clifford Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Browning and family spent Thursday in Westerly and Friday at Pleasant View.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Litchfield and Mr. and Mrs. William Weeks of Hampton were callers on Mrs. Frank Rockwood Thursday.

Mrs. T. H. Ward and daughter Nettie were calling on friends in Willimantic Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Simpson.

Misses Florence and Ella Rockwood, Jessie Park and Grace Frink and Messrs. Charles Frink, Fred H. Race, Jr., Frank H. Rockwood, Jr., and Frank Date spent Thursday in Newport.

Mrs. Arthur Chapman entertained on Sunday her two brothers, Clinton Thompson of Pritchville and Charles Thompson of Willimantic.

Miss Jessie Park has returned to her home in Worcester, Mass., after ten days' visit with Miss Florence Rockwood.

Five Tables of Whist.

The J. W. club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucius Browning. Five tables of whist were played. Prizes were awarded, first to Mrs. J. W. Clark, second, Mrs. Henry Briggs. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Surprised on Birthday.

Thursday evening, Aug. 26, about 50 friends and neighbors of Fred H. Race, Jr., surprised him, he being his 23d birthday. Games were played and a general good time enjoyed. Sandwiches, cake, fruit and coffee were served.

Charles Woodward of Hartford is visiting Walter S. Yall.

Mrs. Estella Lathrop entertained on Monday Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. Whitford.

Misses Helen Comager and Blanche Spence were Norwich visitors Wednesday.

Misses Sarah and Daisy Webber have returned to their home in Larchmont, N. Y., after ten days' visit with their cousin, Rena Race.

A large number from North Franklin attended the misgynary meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Grace Peckham.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Crandall and son, Bernard spent Tuesday at Watch Hill.

North Stonington

Those Who Will Teach in Town Schools—New Supervisor, With Headquarters in Norwich—Fireman Williams Burned.

The town schools will open Sept. 7. The teachers will be as follows: Central grammar, Miss Mary Geneva Hathorn, N. Y.; Center primary, Miss Grace Sheffield of North Stonington; No. 5, Miss Marion White of North Stonington; Shunoc, Miss Anna Merrill of North Stonington; Boom bridge, Miss Ada Lewis of North Stonington; Clark's Falls, Miss Grace Brown of Westerly; Laurel Glen, Miss Mary Chapman of Pendleton Hill; Pendleton Hill, Miss Bessie Thomson of Stratford, R. I.; Ashwilleit, Willard Eccleston of North Stonington; West Ashwilleit, Mrs. Jennie Burnham of Clinton.

New Supervisor.

G. C. Swift of Pennsylvania has been appointed by the state board of education supervisor of schools in this town. He will also supervise the schools in Ledyard. His headquarters will be in Norwich.

Local Jettings.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Frank York of Tenny, N. J., have been in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cressingham L. Gray of Dover, N. H., are spending their vacation with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Telesfor Stabile of Providence have been guests of Mrs. Fannie Stone for a few days.

Calvin O. Geer of East Orange, N. J., has joined his family in this village, where they have been for a few weeks, and is getting along well. He and Dr. Thurman P. Mays have leased a part of the house of Mrs. W. H. Hilliard.

Mrs. D. F. Chapman is soon to move into the house with Mr. and Mrs. Rupe D. Cook.

Badly Burned.

Atwood L. Williams, a fireman on the New Haven railroad, was badly burned Sunday morning by the bursting of a boiler tube when the train was near Westerly. He was taken to his home near Main's crossing, in this town, and is getting along well. His recovery is assured.

The all-absorbing interest in town this week has been the grange fair.

FRANKLIN

Local People Attend Brown Family Reunion—S. N. Hyde Entertains Brothers and Sisters.

Miss Hattie Hollister and Mrs. Anderson of East Hartford were recent guests of Miss Mabel Tracy.

Miss Helen Growe of Somerville, Mass., is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith.

Threshed Oats.

Clifford H. Robinson has returned from Columbia after threshing several hundred bushels of oats.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith and son, Ernest Smith, motored to Pomfret on Sunday, attended church there and were guests of Rev. Harry A. Beadle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver have been spending a few days in Douglas, Mass., where they attended the Brown family reunion held on the camp ground.

Miss Florence Growe of Somerville, Mass., is the week-end guest of Mrs. Louis Smith.

Family Gathering.

S. N. Hyde entertained several of his brothers and sisters Tuesday evening. The party included Mrs. Will Adams and Frank Hyde of New Haven, Mrs. Mary Swift of Willimantic and Miss Lucy Hyde of Franklin.

Addison Rockwood has purchased an automobile.

Otis Fairbanks and Earl Phillips of Norwich were recent guests of Lloyd Grand.

Mrs. and Mrs. Levis A. Robinson attended the dinner party given in honor of Mrs. Lucy E. Manning on Tuesday in Yantic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Manning and Miss Mary D. Runge and Miss Mary Burns and Paul Runge have returned to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending the summer at The Birches.

Sermon Topic.

Sunday morning at the Franklin church the subject will be Our Life. Rev. R. P. Capshaw will preach.

Schools in town will open Tuesday, Sept. 7th.

Marvin Pierce of Harwinton called at the parsonage Monday.

Miss Carlotta Capshaw has gone to Massachusetts after visiting her brother, Rev. R. P. Capshaw.

The Home Missionary society will meet Thursday with Mrs. Samuel Hartshorn.

Miss Faith N. Gager was in Providence Tuesday.

LEDYARD

Milk Producers Erecting Silos—Think Providence Milk Prices Too Low—New School Supervisor Appointed.

Gilbert E. Rogers has erected a new silo. He is expecting to ship milk to the Providence market. Many of the local milkmen who send their milk to the Providence market do not think that they are receiving enough for this product with the high price of grain at present.

Why several producers of milk who live in Ledyard send their product to Providence is because it makes it easier for them to dispose of it at wholesale.

John R. Weiman, who is a producer of milk, is erecting his second silo.

Frank G. Maynard has purchased a new touring car.

Sells White Wood Trees.

D. D. Taylor has sold a large number of white wood trees to Mr. Fitch of Hanover.

New School Supervisor.

The Ledyard schools will open Wednesday, Sept. 8th. Secretary C. D. Hine has appointed G. C. Swift supervisor of schools for Ledyard. It was found that Mr. Barber, the former supervisor of the Ledyard schools, could not be retained.

Mr. Clough of Deep River, inspector of schools, was present at a meeting of the town school committee held at Ledyard Center on Tuesday afternoon and introduced Mr. Swift. The supervisor will have charge of the Ledyard and North Stonington schools, making his headquarters in Norwich.

Daniel Whipple and family have moved into Horace Main's cottage at Lantern Hill.

Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Goodenough, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweetser of Norwich, attended the conference at Jewett City Wednesday.

Miss Florence Bennett of Norwich has been the guest of Miss Nellie Geer.

Miss Florence Geer has returned home after a visit with Rev. and Mrs. W. F. White of Old Saybrook.

Miss Aldene Clark of Stonington has returned, having spent several days with Florence Cook.

Alton Stoddard of Gales Ferry has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac G. Geer.

Party on Birthday.

A number of young people went to the residence of Miss Florence Cook Monday evening. This was Miss Cook's twenty-first birthday. The young people found Miss Cook a fine entertainer.