OMAHA FRIENDS' FAREWELL TO DAVE O'BRIEN. He Has Come to Be Sales Manager for the Thermos Company.

Concerning David O'Brien, who recently came from Omaha, Neb., to Norwich, to act as sales manager for the American Thermos Bottle company, with plant on Laurel Hill, the Omaha Sunday News said: "Good-bye, Dave, we hate to see you go, and indeed, through the Henshaw rathskeller last night when half a hundred well known Omahans gathered round the banquet board for a farewell to Dave O'Brien, Ak-Sar-Ben governor and Omaha candy manufacturer, who will leave soon to join the American Thermos Bottle company of New York."

Wearing his broadest smile and turning every serious remark into fun, the jovial Dave tried to convince his friends that they would not miss him. But he could not escape expressions of genuine regret crowded into every conversation.

After telegrams extolling the qualities of the Thermos bottle had been read from many noted persons, including Dr. Cook and T. R. O'Brien was presented a silver loving cup. Charles F. McLaughlin was the speaker and called for speeches from Judge James P. English, Tom Flynn, William Coad and the mayor.
