

Preserve DAMSON PLUMS And PEACHES THIS WEEK SOMERS

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Sept. 15, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

The ice man is having a profitable post-season. New London is to copy Norwich and have a Dollar Day. Most of the college students will leave town this week.

Even warmer weather, then rain, is promised for the last of the week.

Chief Stanton is having the fire alarm boxes about the city repainted.

Olive Eugenia Hunt, teacher of piano at Huntington Place, Tel. 376-Adv.

Persevering campers along the river banks are reveling in tent life, these hot days.

A directors' meeting of the Hopkins & Allen Arms company was held in Boston on Monday.

Miss Grace Finegan is teaching the school in the Gallup district, Ledyard, which she taught last year.

The golfers who went over the course at the Golf club Tuesday found the day one of the writing type.

Several Eastern Connecticut motor parties are in Vermont to attend the state fair at White River Junction.

Some one suggests the announcement of another band concert, as a sure way of bringing a cold wave.

Delegates will attend a meeting of the state board of Federated Women's clubs at New Haven today (Wednesday).

Although a large number of summer cottages have been destroyed at Groton Long Point, there are still 36 cottages occupied.

These hot nights old-fashioned trolley parties are being revived, as an easy means of getting cool and comfortable.

Men and teams are busy cleaning off the site of the burned barn, below Thurstonville, which is to be replaced by a storage barn.

All records for September humidity were shattered Tuesday, although the mercury did not register such high figure as would seem appropriate.

While Captain D. J. Twomey is enjoying a few days' vacation, Sergeant A. C. Matthews has charge of the desk at police headquarters during the night.

The pleasure craft anchored in the Shetucket river near the railroad bridge are being used by their owners these hot days more than at any time during the summer.

Grank officers will visit Home Lodge of Groton Thursday evening, September 15. Preparations for entertaining them are being made by the standing committees and officers.

We invite you to our fall opening of new autumn millinery, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 15, 16, 17, The Misses Grigore, Thayer Bldg., Franklin square—Adv.

A North Windham man, Edward A. Hall, who recently purchased two lots at the Venetian harbor, Groton Long Point, is having a large residence built to be ready for occupancy next season.

There will be but one change in the Free Academy faculty this term, Miss Eleanor F. Carty succeeding Miss Elsie Peck, commercial course, who was married during the summer.

Sergeant Allan M. Button of the 183d company at Fort Terry and Miss Tracy Luesia Graham of New London, were married by Rev. C. Harley Smith, pastor of the Federal Street Methodist church, New London, Saturday.

Mrs. Abbie O'Brien of Groton injured in an automobile accident at Norwich a few weeks ago, is not expected to recover from the injury. Mrs. O'Brien is 59 years old. She is at present in the hospital in Norwich.

The first regular use of any portion of the new route of the New Haven road's main line in East New London is being made, trains running over the new steel bridge which spans the tracks of the Central Vermont railway.

At Old Mystic, Paul E. Lamphere, the new superintendent at the which hosiery distillery, the American Chemical company of Philadelphia, was badly scalded about the head recently by leakage of steam from the blow pipe.

Referring to W. C. T. U. unions which are working to increase their membership the White Ribbon Banner says: We are sure of Southington, Wallingford, Middlefield, West-Hanover, Scotland and Willimantic.

Shakespeare As You Like It was given by the Meriden College Women's club in Hubbard park last week and the proceeds will go toward the establishment of a girls' scholarship at the Meriden High school for Connecticut college on the Thames.

Leonard Kehler, president of the Ward-Loe Electric Co. of Norwich, N. Y., and Mrs. Edith Armstrong Brandeth of New York were married Saturday afternoon at the Wilson cottage, Osweston, where Mrs. Brandeth has been spending the summer.

The average temperature in Madras, India, where Rev. and Mrs. William Zumbro are stationed, is 90 degrees. Rev. and Mrs. Zumbro, who are visiting Norwich relatives, state that the heat of India is much less trying than is the present humidity here.

Former Ledyard residents, Rev. and Mrs. William F. White, their daughter Eloise and son Harold, have left Saybrook for an automobile trip through New York. They will meet Edmond White, at Albany. He has been preaching in Hinsdale, N. H. this summer.

At the outing of the Tuxedo club which was held at Lawson's grove near Mannaocoe Sunday Walter Edmunds, a member of the club, was swimming when he was seized by cramps. His cries attracted the attention of several of the picnickers, who rescued him.

At the meeting of the Benevolent Union of the Central Baptist church, held Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell leading, there was an attendance of 20. The draft of a new constitution, to be voted on at the December annual meeting, was submitted by the committee of which Miss Doane is chairman.

Saybrook—A new platform is being constructed at the railroad station on the side used by Valley trains.

PERSONALS

L. L. Park of Noank has been a visitor in Norwich.

Miss Edith A. Lane of Norwich is visiting relatives in Mystic.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Sevin are enjoying two weeks' stay at Eastern Point.

Mrs. Francis O'Brien and Miss Mary Chesnut of Noank visited in Norwich early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stevens of Norwich were guests of Mrs. M. J. Niantic and Mrs. Samuel Rogers, Jr., at Niantic.

Miss Hazel Lamb of Old Mystic enters upon her third year at the Norwich Free Academy, to day (Wednesday).

James Doyle, employed as stenographer for the Thames Specialties of Montville, is having his annual vacation.

Mrs. E. F. Jodie and son Francis, have returned to New York after a six weeks' visit with Norwich relatives.

Mrs. W. J. Hunter has returned to Mohegan, after a few days' visit to her daughter, Mrs. Denison Davis, of Mystic.

Leslie Goff and William Dana have come here this week from Providence to be employed as draughtmen by the Hopkins & Allen Arms Co.

Rev. Harry J. Coleman of Southington has returned after spending a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Coleman, of Sachem street.

Russell S. Harris left Monday to attend Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs, after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ernest Harris.

Friends here learn that Bishop Thomas J. Shahan and Rev. Dr. Patrick J. McCormick, of the Catholic university, Washington, are spending a vacation in Nova Scotia.

Miss Bertha Crane has gone to East Orange, N. J., to enter upon her third year as teacher of one of the schools after passing the summer with her mother, Mrs. Daniel W. Lamb of Ledyard.

Mrs. M. W. Hall, formerly of this city, who has been spending a number of months in Mount Clemens, Mich., and his sister, Miss Hough of Southington, are spending a few days in this city.

Mrs. E. R. C. Sleigh of New York formerly of Norwich, has been registered at the Mohican hotel, New London. She was formerly employed at the Broadway Congregational church, Norwich. In recent years she has been teaching voice in New York and appearing in concert.

When Max Schwartz, in the junk business a dozen years in Norwich, testified he had known Mike Golumb three years ago as a teacher of one of the schools that was in court for March and bought it in the yard at Golumb's house, paying $100 for it. The junk was made of metal and some rubber. Golumb lives five minutes' walk from the paper mill. Mr. Schwartz said. Subsequently, he believed that there was a witness said he sold it to the United Metal company.

Charles F. Wells, manager and treasurer of the United Metal Manufacturing Co., testified that he bought the metal in question from Max Schwartz on April 4 and he identified the pieces of metal which were in court. Schwartz at 4:22 court adjourned till the next morning at 10 o'clock.

The jury on the Golumb case was composed of George H. Sprague, William O'Mahoney, Junius A. Broad, Norwich; Chauncey A. Fuller, Preston; William C. Sherman, Colchester; Samuel F. Palmer, George Moeler, Norwich; George H. Sprague, Norwich; Elmer E. Maine, Frank H. Babcock, North Stonington; John C. Tracy, Franklin; Henry C. Harris, Salem.

When the case came on at 10 o'clock in the morning Judge William A. Williams on the bench, there were 25 prisoners in the steel cage, 15 having come from the jail in this city. Among them were a man in soldier uniform, a Chinaman wearing spectacles, two small boys and two colored men.

Witnesses' seats were filled and among the witnesses and others in court were 15 women. Police officers from Norwich and also from New London, as well as members of the state police, were among the witnesses present for various cases.

Cleve W. Thompson, charged with assault with intent to kill, was sentenced to nine months in jail. Thompson is a soldier stationed at Fort Wright. On June 7 he went into the saloon of John O'Connell on Bradley street, in the New London jail.

James Monahan, of New London, 27 years of age, was sent to the state reformatory for breaking into an automobile that he was engaged to operate for $15. Monahan has served sentences in the New London jail, been apprehended for the latest crime. Monahan was employed in Westerly.

Bessie Venable, of New London, charged with assault, pleaded guilty to a home up to the end. The Venable woman slashed her lover on Golden street on Aug. 6, when he was found in company with another woman.

Jacob Jones, colored, a hostler, charged with assault, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a year in jail. Jones engaged in a row at New London with a colored man, who was en route to Norfolk, Va., after having delivered horses for the war in England.

Alfred B. C. New London, 55 years of age, was sentenced to six months' confinement following pleading guilty to forgery. Chapman forged a check on the New London City National bank to the amount of $15.

Andy Stanley Jacobs of Groton, a boy, pleaded not guilty to breaking into a building owned by George N. Groton and the case was postponed.

Frank Terrell, of New London, 22 years of age, was sent to the state reformatory, upon pleading guilty to theft. Terrell robbed a farm hand of his clothing, after persuading his victim to go to the barn of the Soltz company on Bradley street, New London.

James Morgan, of the oldest residence of the city, died at his home, No. 46 Cedar street, Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, death being due to his advanced years. Mr. Morgan was a native of Ireland, but the greater part of his life had been passed in this city. He came here when a young man and about 56 years ago was united in marriage in this city with Anne Callahan. For the past 40 years Mr. Morgan had been employed as gardener by some prominent residents, but for several years past he had led a retired life.

Mr. Morgan leaves two sons, Charles Morgan and John Morgan, both of Norwich and one daughter, Mrs. Joseph D. Fitzgerald, also of this city. He was well known to many local people and had a host of warm friends, who sincerely regret his death.

Among those who took the recent state civil service examinations for state prison attendants were the following: Daniel J. O'Connor, Norwich, rating 87.33; Edmund T. Greenhall, Norwich, 83.18; Charles E. Monahan, 80.61; Clarence E. Palmer, North Stonington, 83.50; Milo A. Appley, South Canterbury, 85.73; Luther G. Andrews, East Killingly, 85.55.

M. GOLUMB PLEADED GUILTY

First in Superior Court Session—Accused of Entering Shed at Thameside and Stealing Motor Boat Fittings—Sentences Given When Several of Accused Plead Guilty.

Mike Golumb, charged with breaking into a building here belonging to the American Strawboard Co. at Thamesville on the night of April 1 with intent to steal metal, pleaded guilty to the burglary which was tried at the superior court here before a jury at 3:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Golumb was arrested in Rhode Island by a number of months ago. He pleaded guilty to the burglary.

The accused was represented by Herman Alofsin 2nd while City Attorney John D. Hall assisted State Attorney.

Frank L. Briggs, superintendent at the local paper mill of the American Strawboard company was the first witness to testify that he saw Golumb in the yard at Golumb's house, paying $100 for it.

There was a 23 foot motor boat from which all the brass, the wheel and other fittings were missed on the boat, which was because of a building at the Strawboard company plant. Floor planks were taken up to gain an entrance into the building.

Mr. Briggs testified that he saw Golumb from the boat which were found where they had been sold to a metal company in this city. But one man, who was in the yard at the time, testified the building where the motor boat was testified Mr. Briggs.

Darwin E. Briggs, son of the preceding witness, testified that his father in the paper mill, gave corroborative testimony regarding evidences of the break and theft at the shed and that he was in court. The break, he said, was discovered on the morning of April 2nd and was found at the company's place about 20 days later.

Max Schwartz, in the junk business a dozen years in Norwich, testified he had known Mike Golumb three years ago as a teacher of one of the schools that was in court for March and bought it in the yard at Golumb's house, paying $100 for it.

The junk was made of metal and some rubber. Golumb lives five minutes' walk from the paper mill. Mr. Schwartz said. Subsequently, he believed that there was a witness said he sold it to the United Metal company.

Charles F. Wells, manager and treasurer of the United Metal Manufacturing Co., testified that he bought the metal in question from Max Schwartz on April 4 and he identified the pieces of metal which were in court. Schwartz at 4:22 court adjourned till the next morning at 10 o'clock.

The jury on the Golumb case was composed of George H. Sprague, William O'Mahoney, Junius A. Broad, Norwich; Chauncey A. Fuller, Preston; William C. Sherman, Colchester; Samuel F. Palmer, George Moeler, Norwich; George H. Sprague, Norwich; Elmer E. Maine, Frank H. Babcock, North Stonington; John C. Tracy, Franklin; Henry C. Harris, Salem.

When the case came on at 10 o'clock in the morning Judge William A. Williams on the bench, there were 25 prisoners in the steel cage, 15 having come from the jail in this city. Among them were a man in soldier uniform, a Chinaman wearing spectacles, two small boys and two colored men.

Witnesses' seats were filled and among the witnesses and others in court were 15 women. Police officers from Norwich and also from New London, as well as members of the state police, were among the witnesses present for various cases.

Cleve W. Thompson, charged with assault with intent to kill, was sentenced to nine months in jail. Thompson is a soldier stationed at Fort Wright. On June 7 he went into the saloon of John O'Connell on Bradley street, in the New London jail.

James Monahan, of New London, 27 years of age, was sent to the state reformatory for breaking into an automobile that he was engaged to operate for $15. Monahan has served sentences in the New London jail, been apprehended for the latest crime. Monahan was employed in Westerly.

Bessie Venable, of New London, charged with assault, pleaded guilty to a home up to the end. The Venable woman slashed her lover on Golden street on Aug. 6, when he was found in company with another woman.

Jacob Jones, colored, a hostler, charged with assault, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a year in jail. Jones engaged in a row at New London with a colored man, who was en route to Norfolk, Va., after having delivered horses for the war in England.

Alfred B. C. New London, 55 years of age, was sentenced to six months' confinement following pleading guilty to forgery. Chapman forged a check on the New London City National bank to the amount of $15.

Andy Stanley Jacobs of Groton, a boy, pleaded not guilty to breaking into a building owned by George N. Groton and the case was postponed.

Frank Terrell, of New London, 22 years of age, was sent to the state reformatory, upon pleading guilty to theft. Terrell robbed a farm hand of his clothing, after persuading his victim to go to the barn of the Soltz company on Bradley street, New London.

James Morgan, of the oldest residence of the city, died at his home, No. 46 Cedar street, Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, death being due to his advanced years. Mr. Morgan was a native of Ireland, but the greater part of his life had been passed in this city. He came here when a young man and about 56 years ago was united in marriage in this city with Anne Callahan. For the past 40 years Mr. Morgan had been employed as gardener by some prominent residents, but for several years past he had led a retired life.

Mr. Morgan leaves two sons, Charles Morgan and John Morgan, both of Norwich and one daughter, Mrs. Joseph D. Fitzgerald, also of this city. He was well known to many local people and had a host of warm friends, who sincerely regret his death.

Among those who took the recent state civil service examinations for state prison attendants were the following: Daniel J. O'Connor, Norwich, rating 87.33; Edmund T. Greenhall, Norwich, 83.18; Charles E. Monahan, 80.61; Clarence E. Palmer, North Stonington, 83.50; Milo A. Appley, South Canterbury, 85.73; Luther G. Andrews, East Killingly, 85.55.

ONE SESSION PROBABLE

School Board Gives Superintendent Authority to Decide, BECAUSE OF HEAT.

At its September meeting held Tuesday evening in the office of Superintendent Graham in the town hall, the town school board took into consideration the spell of extreme hot weather which we are now suffering under and it was decided that neither teachers nor scholars could do good work under such conditions. Superintendent Graham was empowered to order a session day at any time that he considered the conditions justifying the heat continues, he will have announced in the schools each morning when he decides that there ought to be one session day.

There was a full attendance of the board, with President Charles O. Murphy presiding and Secretary H. M. Lerou keeping the records. The board heard Superintendent Graham's report read to it, approved of it and arranged to have it issued in printed form. It will be ready for distribution at the voting places later.

Crowded conditions in the schools were taken under consideration and at the Greenville school it was decided to move a part of the school to the room to accommodate better the seventh and eighth grades. There were some communications received by the board regarding the school buildings which were considered. The board has already had under consideration the conditions which may arise through the coming here of more children with the new Hopkins & Allen employees' families and has looked around to see how vacant rooms in the school buildings may be used.

Communications were read from Stamford, New Britain, Meriden, Middletown, Danbury, and other places. Bridgeport touching upon how the new law providing medical inspection might be carried out.

COMPEL LAW OBSERVANCE SELLING IMITATION BUTTER. Commissioner Stadtmueller Had Four Men Before Him for Hearing.

Dairy Commissioner Frank H. Stadtmueller held hearings Tuesday in his office in the state capitol on complaints made against four persons for selling imitation butter contrary to law.

Commissioner Stadtmueller said that he was determined to make people who sell imitations of butter observe the law. He believed that there was a large quantity of imitation butter sold in this state annually. From the information which has been given him he thought the quantity reached about 2,000,000 pounds annually. There were from 20,000 to 40,000 pounds sold contrary to law. There was no excuse, he said, for violating the law. It was not his province to pass on the question of buying imitation butter instead of genuine butter.

The ground for the complaints on which he had hearing Tuesday was that the vendors had not adequate signs displayed in their stores and that the package containing imitation butter was sold by the dealer in a department, who had asked and paid for genuine butter, was not correctly stamped.

WEDDINGS. Sosnicki-Maguda. Stanislaw Sosnicki of Willimantic and Miss Cecelia Maguda were united in marriage in the Catholic church at Occum Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. F. DesSureau. The groom is a native of Russian Poland and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sosnicki. He is employed in a Willimantic cotton mill. The bride is an Austrian by birth and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mihai Maguda. She has been employed as a spinner in the Occum mill.

Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock Thomas Bruno and Miss Louiseanna LaRoche, both residents of Occum, were united in marriage in the Catholic church at Occum by Rev. Frederick R. DesSureau, the pastor. Mr. Bruno, who is employed as a mill fixer in the Occum mill, is a native of Italy and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bruno. His bride has been employed as a mill hand at Versailles.

Central Baptist Anniversary. Members of the Central Baptist church received postal card notices on Tuesday inviting them to be present Wednesday evening, Sept. 15, at an anniversary prayer meeting in recognition of the actual date of the 75th anniversary of the formation of the church. The 75th anniversary exercises are to be held Oct. 15-18.

Incidents in Society. Mrs. T. B. Blackstone of Chicago is visiting her sisters, the Misses Norton.

Mrs. Howard Hauhurst of Washington, D. C., returned to her sister, Mrs. J. Eldred Brown.

Miss Mary Esther Lippitt who is at Neptune park, returned to Smith college at the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Trumbull and their guest, Mrs. M. B. Mortimer, were week end guests in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Sayles and family, who have been here passing the summer at Hardwickport, returned home this week.

Mrs. Richard R. Graham gave a delightful informal dance for a number of young people at the Norwich Golf club Tuesday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Cornelia of Cincinnati.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerard E. Jensen and son, who have been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer, E. Jensen leave town today for Philadelphia, where Dr. Jensen is to be English instructor at the College of Pennsylvania.

Probable Settlement of Simebury Strike. Simebury, Conn., Sept. 14.—After a conference tonight between company officials and strikers, the belief was expressed that the strike at the En-

ITCHING IRRITATION

Worst Form of Skin Trouble Quickly Relieved by Inexpensive Treatment. When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting greasy ointment. Try Holcra, a pure and simple cream, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so clean that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft, white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only do minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., quickly disappear, but the most stubborn cases of salt rheum, eczema are cleaned and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that you may try Holcra at small expense, Lee & Orsog Co. Drug Store are selling a liberalized jar at 25c, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it.

Communications were read from Stamford, New Britain, Meriden, Middletown, Danbury, and other places. Bridgeport touching upon how the new law providing medical inspection might be carried out.

COMPEL LAW OBSERVANCE SELLING IMITATION BUTTER. Commissioner Stadtmueller Had Four Men Before Him for Hearing.

Dairy Commissioner Frank H. Stadtmueller held hearings Tuesday in his office in the state capitol on complaints made against four persons for selling imitation butter contrary to law.

Commissioner Stadtmueller said that he was determined to make people who sell imitations of butter observe the law. He believed that there was a large quantity of imitation butter sold in this state annually. From the information which has been given him he thought the quantity reached about 2,000,000 pounds annually. There were from 20,000 to 40,000 pounds sold contrary to law. There was no excuse, he said, for violating the law. It was not his province to pass on the question of buying imitation butter instead of genuine butter.

The ground for the complaints on which he had hearing Tuesday was that the vendors had not adequate signs displayed in their stores and that the package containing imitation butter was sold by the dealer in a department, who had asked and paid for genuine butter, was not correctly stamped.

WEDDINGS. Sosnicki-Maguda. Stanislaw Sosnicki of Willimantic and Miss Cecelia Maguda were united in marriage in the Catholic church at Occum Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. F. DesSureau. The groom is a native of Russian Poland and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sosnicki. He is employed in a Willimantic cotton mill. The bride is an Austrian by birth and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mihai Maguda. She has been employed as a spinner in the Occum mill.

Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock Thomas Bruno and Miss Louiseanna LaRoche, both residents of Occum, were united in marriage in the Catholic church at Occum by Rev. Frederick R. DesSureau, the pastor. Mr. Bruno, who is employed as a mill fixer in the Occum mill, is a native of Italy and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bruno. His bride has been employed as a mill hand at Versailles.

Central Baptist Anniversary. Members of the Central Baptist church received postal card notices on Tuesday inviting them to be present Wednesday evening, Sept. 15, at an anniversary prayer meeting in recognition of the actual date of the 75th anniversary of the formation of the church. The 75th anniversary exercises are to be held Oct. 15-18.

Incidents in Society. Mrs. T. B. Blackstone of Chicago is visiting her sisters, the Misses Norton.

Mrs. Howard Hauhurst of Washington, D. C., returned to her sister, Mrs. J. Eldred Brown.

Miss Mary Esther Lippitt who is at Neptune park, returned to Smith college at the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Trumbull and their guest, Mrs. M. B. Mortimer, were week end guests in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Sayles and family, who have been here passing the summer at Hardwickport, returned home this week.

Mrs. Richard R. Graham gave a delightful informal dance for a number of young people at the Norwich Golf club Tuesday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Cornelia of Cincinnati.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerard E. Jensen and son, who have been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer, E. Jensen leave town today for Philadelphia, where Dr. Jensen is to be English instructor at the College of Pennsylvania.

Probable Settlement of Simebury Strike. Simebury, Conn., Sept. 14.—After a conference tonight between company officials and strikers, the belief was expressed that the strike at the En-

ITCHING IRRITATION

Worst Form of Skin Trouble Quickly Relieved by Inexpensive Treatment. When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting greasy ointment. Try Holcra, a pure and simple cream, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so clean that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft, white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only do minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., quickly disappear, but the most stubborn cases of salt rheum, eczema are cleaned and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that you may try Holcra at small expense, Lee & Orsog Co. Drug Store are selling a liberalized jar at 25c, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it.

Communications were read from Stamford, New Britain, Meriden, Middletown, Danbury, and other places. Bridgeport touching upon how the new law providing medical inspection might be carried out.

COMPEL LAW OBSERVANCE SELLING IMITATION BUTTER. Commissioner Stadtmueller Had Four Men Before Him for Hearing.

Dairy Commissioner Frank H. Stadtmueller held hearings Tuesday in his office in the state capitol on complaints made against four persons for selling imitation butter contrary to law.

Commissioner Stadtmueller said that he was determined to make people who sell imitations of butter observe the law. He believed that there was a large quantity of imitation butter sold in this state annually. From the information which has been given him he thought the quantity reached about 2,000,000 pounds annually. There were from 20,000 to 40,000 pounds sold contrary to law. There was no excuse, he said, for violating the law. It was not his province to pass on the question of buying imitation butter instead of genuine butter.

The ground for the complaints on which he had hearing Tuesday was that the vendors had not adequate signs displayed in their stores and that the package containing imitation butter was sold by the dealer in a department, who had asked and paid for genuine butter, was not correctly stamped.

WEDDINGS. Sosnicki-Maguda. Stanislaw Sosnicki of Willimantic and Miss Cecelia Maguda were united in marriage in the Catholic church at Occum Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. F. DesSureau. The groom is a native of Russian Poland and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sosnicki. He is employed in a Willimantic cotton mill. The bride is an Austrian by birth and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mihai Maguda. She has been employed as a spinner in the Occum mill.

Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock Thomas Bruno and Miss Louiseanna LaRoche, both residents of Occum, were united in marriage in the Catholic church at Occum by Rev. Frederick R. DesSureau, the pastor. Mr. Bruno, who is employed as a mill fixer in the Occum mill, is a native of Italy and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bruno. His bride has been employed as a mill hand at Versailles.

Central Baptist Anniversary. Members of the Central Baptist church received postal card notices on Tuesday inviting them to be present Wednesday evening, Sept. 15, at an anniversary prayer meeting in recognition of the actual date of the 75th anniversary of the formation of the church. The 75th anniversary exercises are to be held Oct. 15-18.

Incidents in Society. Mrs. T. B. Blackstone of Chicago is visiting her sisters, the Misses Norton.

Mrs. Howard Hauhurst of Washington, D. C., returned to her sister, Mrs. J. Eldred Brown.

Miss Mary Esther Lippitt who is at Neptune park, returned to Smith college at the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Trumbull and their guest, Mrs. M. B. Mortimer, were week end guests in town.</