

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

STRATEGY

—Brooklyn Eagle

"GOSH, WHAT A NIGHT IT HAS BEEN!"

—Cleveland Plain Dealer

ORDERED TO THE FRONT

—Chicago News

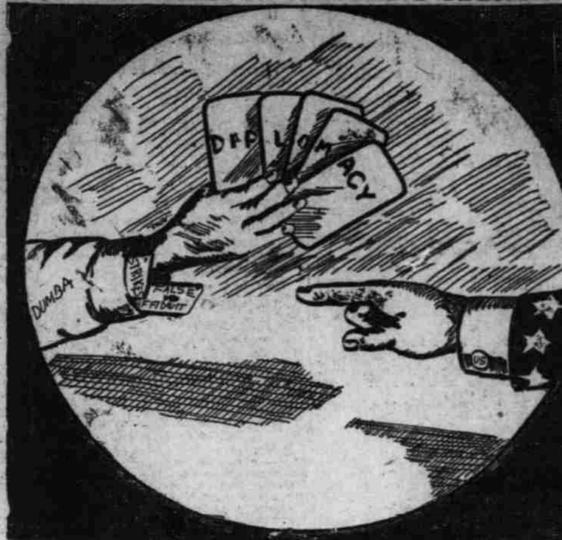

THE CHAUTAUQUA SALUTE

—Philadelphia Ledger

"Don't take it seriously, my dear Ambassador!"

ANOTHER BRAND OF SHIRTSLEEVE DIPLOMACY

—Springfield Union

DROP THE BARREL AND BUY AN ARMY COAT

—Baltimore American

FRANKLIN

Mrs. Harmon A. Gager, Starts for Missouri—Illustrated Lecture on Southern Africa. Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Whipple and their children of New York City and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anthony of Willimantic. Eugene Ayer is making a course at the Commercial Agricultural College. Mr. and Mrs. William Greene of Willimantic have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver. Starts for Missouri. Mrs. Harmon A. Gager started Wednesday for Moberly, Mo., where she will be the guest of her son, Harry D. Gager, for a few weeks. Mrs. Gager was the guest of local relatives Tuesday. Mrs. Irvin Capwell of New London is staying a few weeks at Lakeside farm. Mrs. Gilbert Lamb and son Baldwin motored to Norfolk Monday.

Illustrated Lecture. There will be an illustrated lecture on Southern Africa Sunday at the Franklin church. Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Whipple and their children of New York City and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anthony of Willimantic. Eugene Ayer is making a course at the Commercial Agricultural College. Mr. and Mrs. William Greene of Willimantic have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver. Starts for Missouri. Mrs. Harmon A. Gager started Wednesday for Moberly, Mo., where she will be the guest of her son, Harry D. Gager, for a few weeks. Mrs. Gager was the guest of local relatives Tuesday. Mrs. Irvin Capwell of New London is staying a few weeks at Lakeside farm. Mrs. Gilbert Lamb and son Baldwin motored to Norfolk Monday.

Recovering from Injuries. Herbert Wheeler, who was injured last week while filling a silo, is resting comfortably. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woodward and son Charles Woodward, of Hartford, attended church in Franklin Sunday.

Ledyard. Pastors Exchange Pulpits—Davis-Smith Marriage—Groton Grange to Work Degrees. Rev. James Potter of Gales Ferry occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Potter preached an eloquent sermon and was closely listened to. Rev. G. P. Goodenough preached in the Gales Ferry church and at Brewster's Neck on the same day, exchanging pulpits with Mr. Potter.

Teachers' Meeting. G. C. Swift, the new supervisor of Ledyard, held a teachers' meeting at Ledyard Center Wednesday afternoon. All but two of the teachers were present.

Grange to Work Degrees. Groton grange will work a class in the third and fourth degrees at Ledyard grange (Saturday) evening. After the degree work, refreshments will be served. Worthy Master Arthur D. Boucher presided at the affair.

Samuel P. Main was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Frink of Franklin. Mr. Main took along some of his fall bearing strawberries, of which he is getting quite a large crop.

Mock Trial a Success. The mock trial given under the auspices of the Christian Aid society in Palmer Memorial hall Wednesday evening proved a great success.

Henry St. Germain visited friends at Ocean Beach recently. Miss Alice Osborn has returned home after spending her vacation with relatives in New Haven.

The Palmer Memorial school closed Thursday afternoon on account of the intense heat. The estate of C. A. Chapman has recently purchased an autotruck.

Attending Free Academy. Those attending the Norwich Free Academy from here are Ida Beebe, Pauline Glasbrenner, Jennie Glasbrenner, Laura Chapman and Melvin Robinson.

SHUNOC. The funeral of Mrs. Jessie A. Vene, who died in the Backus hospital Saturday, was held in the Second Baptist church this place Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Lucian Drury officiated. There were many beautiful flowers. Burial was in the Union cemetery. Rev. Drury conducted the committal service at the grave. Mrs. Vene was 29 years of age and is survived by her husband and two children.

Students at N. F. A. Miss Faith Chapman, Miss Dorothy May Harrison, Miss Louise Breed Ladd, Miss Florence MacIntosh, Miss Gertrude Ladd have entered the Norwich Free Academy.

GRISWOLD. Close of Special Meetings Held at Bitgood Schoolhouse. William Clark and his children returned Wednesday from a visit with Mr. Clark's brother-in-law, William Billings, and family.

PRESTON. Mrs. C. K. Cray and Master Douglas Fellows have returned to their home here after staying some weeks with Mrs. A. J. Sinay of Norwich. Miss Sarah Thomas and a lady from Londonderry, N. H., spent Sunday with Miss Abbie Stanton.

PENDLETON HILL. B. F. Eccleston, 23, died very suddenly Monday, Sept. 6th, of cerebral hemorrhage. The funeral was held at Ashwillett chapel, September 9th, Rev. John Thompson officiating. Three daughters are left, Mrs. Homer Kinney and Mrs. Irving Button of this place and Mrs. Ismael Curtis of Augusta, Maine. There are also fourteen grandchildren.

ASHWILLETT. Charlie Ahlberg and Oscar Swensen are spending the week in New York. A. A. Morgan has moved into the D. S. Gullie house and will care for the place the remainder of the season. John Casey and C. F. Hayward were business callers in Norwich the first of the week.

LAUREL GLEN. Mrs. William Main and daughter, Emma, Miss Rosa Green, John Geer and family spent Saturday at Atlantic beach. Gilbert Main is home from Narragansett Pier where he has been during the summer.

MOHEGAN. Mrs. Dolbear and Mrs. Avery were in Hartford last week. There was a good attendance at church Sunday, both morning and evening. Miss Gladys Quilgson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Speck of Boston for several days has returned. LeRoy Brainard of Norwich called on Mohegan friends Sunday.

NORTH FRANKLIN. Strawberries Received From Ledyard—Second Blooming of Roses. Frank T. Main of Ledyard recently presented Mrs. J. W. Frink a basket of luscious strawberries grown on the farm of Judge S. H. Holdridge, of Ledyard.

NORTH LYME. Mrs. Erwin Rogers and Mrs. Chapman were in New London Monday. At a meeting of the A. W. T. society held recently the following officers were appointed: President, Mrs. E. Webber; vice president, Mrs. Erwin Rogers; secretary and treasurer, J. W. Stark; directors, Mrs. Mary Fogdick, Mrs. Emily Stark, Mrs. Fred Miner, Mrs. William Sisson, Mrs. N. S. Strong, Mrs. Minnie Durkin.

NIANTIC. Pine Grove Cottagers Leaving for City Homes—Vermont Visitor—Personals. Mrs. Agnes Lloyd leaves this (Saturday) evening for her home in New York, after passing the summer at her cottage at the Pines.

CHESTERFIELD. Miss Edna Walden returned home Sunday after working for Mr. and Mrs. George Comstock of Lakes Pond. Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vorance Whitney.

LEBANON. Athletic Club Team Defeats Thermos Team—J. W. Club Entertained—Surprise Party. Last Saturday the Lebanon Athletic club baseball team played on their Lebanon diamond the Thermos Bottle company baseball team of Norwich. The game was easily won by the Lebanon nine, 5 to 1.

LEBANON. Miss Sarah Danielson was the guest of Miss Amy Lamb of Norwich recently. Miss Gladys Clark returned to Liberty Hill Sunday, after spending a week with E. A. Hoxie's family. L. P. Smith went to Maine in his automobile on a business trip recently.

LEBANON. Mrs. Ray Manning and daughter Alma were in Norwich and Thamesville Monday. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. C. M. Geer, Mrs. Agnes Hyde, Mrs. E. A. Hoxie and Miss Vera Hoxie were in Columbia. Mrs. L. P. Smith was the guest of friends on Washington street, Norwich, Thursday of last week. Elmer Geer struck a picktock in his leg one day recently.

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

OAKDALE

Services Resumed at Congregational Church—Personal Items.

After a vacation of two weeks services were resumed Sunday at the Congregational church, the pastor, Rev. C. L. French, preaching from Gal. 6-1. The sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed at the close of the morning service.

Miss A. M. Fallowes and sister, Mrs. Herrick, were visitors in Palmertown Thursday at the homes of Mrs. Martha Brainard and Mrs. Charles Turner.

Mrs. Herbert Turner and Miss Ruth Morgan of Lake Konomoc visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Tuesday. F. S. Nichols of New London was a business caller in this place Wednesday.

Mr. Peckham, agent for Swift & Co. of Norwich, was a business caller here Thursday.

John Merriman returned Tuesday after ten days' visit to his mother and other friends at his former home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. E. L. Thompson was a caller in Norwich Wednesday.

LEBANON

Miss Vera Hoxie were in Columbia. Mrs. L. P. Smith was the guest of friends on Washington street, Norwich, Thursday of last week.

Entertained Club. Mrs. Arthur E. Hewitt entertained the J. W. club on Wednesday afternoon. Three tables of whist were played. Miss Florence Rockwood won first prize and Mrs. Fred Race second prize. Sandwiches, cake, ice cream and fruit punch were served.

School Fair. A school fair was held at the Model school at Lebanon Center Thursday. The school children brought in cake, fruit, vegetables and other articles, which they either made or raised during the year.

Overcome by Heat. While working at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Abel on Lebanon Town street, helping to fill a silo, Clarence Wheaton became overheated and required the services of a physician. He was later taken to the home of David Brown, where he soon recovered.

Myron Peckham has an automobile. Last Friday evening several friends met at the home of Misses Ruby and Ruth Williams and gave them a pleasant surprise.

and Miss Vera Hoxie were in Columbia. Mrs. L. P. Smith was the guest of friends on Washington street, Norwich, Thursday of last week.

Entertained Club. Mrs. Arthur E. Hewitt entertained the J. W. club on Wednesday afternoon. Three tables of whist were played. Miss Florence Rockwood won first prize and Mrs. Fred Race second prize. Sandwiches, cake, ice cream and fruit punch were served.

School Fair. A school fair was held at the Model school at Lebanon Center Thursday. The school children brought in cake, fruit, vegetables and other articles, which they either made or raised during the year.

Overcome by Heat. While working at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Abel on Lebanon Town street, helping to fill a silo, Clarence Wheaton became overheated and required the services of a physician. He was later taken to the home of David Brown, where he soon recovered.

Myron Peckham has an automobile. Last Friday evening several friends met at the home of Misses Ruby and Ruth Williams and gave them a pleasant surprise.

Tuesday afternoon Irving Gardner took Mr. and Mrs. David Picher, Lyman Picher, and son, David Picher, to Post Hill, Columbia.

Mrs. Nathaniel Loomis visited her mother, Mrs. Emma Warner, the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Neil Burgess and son Donald, have returned home after visiting her mother, Mrs. Bogue, of Yantic.

Miss Dorothy Loomis, who attends Windham high school, and Miss Florence Loomis, who attends the Willimantic Normal school, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Loomis, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips motored to Providence Friday to take home Mrs. Phillips' mother, Mrs. George Simmons, who has been spending her vacation with her daughter, Miss Williamson and Miss Louise Talcott returned to New York last week after visiting at Mrs. Edwin Danielson's.

Guest from Maine. Mrs. George Mocker of China, Maine is the guest of Mrs. John Phillips.

Mrs. Silas Burgess is visiting her sister at Springfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Boothby are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Boothby.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Taylor are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William Barrows, Jr. and two children, of Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barrows came to Mrs. L. H. Taylor's Saturday to visit. Mr. Barrows returned to Providence, R. I. Monday. Mrs. Barrows is remaining a few days longer.

Many farmers are having their silos filled this week.

Mrs. Rural Hyde and Miss Hazel Swift of Willimantic called on Mrs. Agnes Hyde recently.

NIANTIC

Pine Grove Cottagers Leaving for City Homes—Vermont Visitor—Personals.

Mrs. Agnes Lloyd leaves this (Saturday) evening for her home in New York, after passing the summer at her cottage at the Pines.

Mrs. E. J. Markel closed her cottage Tuesday and left for her home in Hartford.

Mr. Morris left Wednesday for a short business trip to Hartford.

Mrs. R. H. Lloyd and daughters, Misses Marjorie and Dorothy, left last week for their home in New York, after passing the summer in the Pines.

Mrs. Abby J. Strickland of Clinton has arrived in the village for a lengthy stay.

Edward Condon and family have moved into the National House.

Guest from Vermont. Mrs. E. V. Weil of Meriden has returned to the Grove.

Capt. F. K. Partrick, who has been ill with tonsillitis, is better.

T. F. Kelley has returned from a business trip to Norwich.

Mrs. Lucy Miner of Lyme is visiting her son, J. Percy Morgan.

Thomas Beardow of New York is at Pine Knoll.

Mrs. G. H. Mathews left Thursday for her home in Hartford, after two weeks' stay in the Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barrett, Ray-

NORTH LYME

A. W. T. Society Appoints Officers—Notes.

Mrs. Erwin Rogers and Mrs. Chapman were in New London Monday.

At a meeting of the A. W. T. society held recently the following officers were appointed: President, Mrs. E. Webber; vice president, Mrs. Erwin Rogers; secretary and treasurer, J. W. Stark; directors, Mrs. Mary Fogdick, Mrs. Emily Stark, Mrs. Fred Miner, Mrs. William Sisson, Mrs. N. S. Strong, Mrs. Minnie Durkin.

Mrs. Gertrude Ward, who has assisted Mrs. W. M. Sisson, Jr., for about a year, returned to her home in Ledyard, Friday.

N. S. Strong and H. A. Gates were visitors in Little River Sunday. Mr. Gates and daughter and Will Porter returned with them.

CHESTERFIELD

Miss Edna Walden returned home Sunday after working for Mr. and Mrs. George Comstock of Lakes Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vorance Whitney.

Miss Mildred Solomon of Norwich is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaplan.

People from here attended the dance at Golden Spur Monday evening.

J. E. Powers and Edward Walden have moved H. E. Smith's meadow.

Mrs. Higgins of Norwich is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Higgins of Walnut Hill.

ASHWILLETT

Charlie Ahlberg and Oscar Swensen are spending the week in New York.

A. A. Morgan has moved into the D. S. Gullie house and will care for the place the remainder of the season.

John Casey and C. F. Hayward were business callers in Norwich the first of the week.

MOHEGAN

Mrs. Dolbear and Mrs. Avery were in Hartford last week. There was a good attendance at church Sunday, both morning and evening.

Miss Gladys Quilgson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Speck of Boston for several days has returned. LeRoy Brainard of Norwich called on Mohegan friends Sunday.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Strawberries Received From Ledyard—Second Blooming of Roses.

Frank T. Main of Ledyard recently presented Mrs. J. W. Frink a basket of luscious strawberries grown on the farm of Judge S. H. Holdridge, of Ledyard.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain of North Windham spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Frink.

Mrs. Erwin Rogers and Mrs. Chapman were in New London Monday.

At a meeting of the A. W. T. society held recently the following officers were appointed: President, Mrs. E. Webber; vice president, Mrs. Erwin Rogers; secretary and treasurer, J. W. Stark; directors, Mrs. Mary Fogdick, Mrs. Emily Stark, Mrs. Fred Miner, Mrs. William Sisson, Mrs. N. S. Strong, Mrs. Minnie Durkin.

Mrs. Gertrude Ward, who has assisted Mrs. W. M. Sisson, Jr., for about a year, returned to her home in Ledyard, Friday.

N. S. Strong and H. A. Gates were visitors in Little River Sunday. Mr. Gates and daughter and Will Porter returned with them.

PENDLETON HILL

B. F. Eccleston, 23, died very suddenly Monday, Sept. 6th, of cerebral hemorrhage. The funeral was held at Ashwillett chapel, September 9th, Rev. John Thompson officiating.

Three daughters are left, Mrs. Homer Kinney and Mrs. Irving Button of this place and Mrs. Ismael Curtis of Augusta, Maine. There are also fourteen grandchildren.

Mrs. Charles North is in Rochester, N. Y., with her husband, Dr. Charles E. North.

LAUREL GLEN

Mrs. William Main and daughter, Emma, Miss Rosa Green, John Geer and family spent Saturday at Atlantic beach.

Gilbert Main is home from Narragansett Pier where he has been during the summer.

Mrs. Burtch called on her mother, Mrs. Johnson in Westerly Tuesday. George Hill who is employed at

ROAD SOCIETY

Miss Amy Hazard has gone to her school duties in New Jersey.

Mrs. Louise Lincoln left Friday for a few days' visit with friends in Holbrook, Mass. her mother who have come to Stonington from the Mayflower meeting at Plymouth, Mass.

Dr. L. Hest Noyes of Providence has gone to New York, after spending a few days with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams will soon leave for Nashua, N. H., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Palmer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Gates, motored to Saybrook and Fenwick Hall Sunday.

Mrs. Elliott H. Peabody of Worcester who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. G. Sutton has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Natt Hazard have been visiting their son, Prof. James Hazard in New Jersey.

William York is ill at his home at Angella.

Miss Martha G. Williams has returned Wednesday to the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Ernie P. York and son, of Flushing, L. I., Mrs. Mr. Burdick and Ellery York of Westerly, were dinner guests at S. N. Williams' recently.

The Ladies' society held a meeting in the church parlors Friday.

VOLUNTOWN

A party of sypets passed through the village Saturday and incidentally got away with a few dollars from easy victims.

guests of relatives at Woonsocket, R. I., during the week end.

S. B. Sweet and John J. Herbert were in Norwich Tuesday and attended the session of the superior court.

Mrs. William Main attended the funeral of Mrs. Jessie Veine Monday at the Second church, North Stonington.

John Newton of Westerly was calling on friends and neighbors Wednesday night with his family.

Mrs. Louise Lincoln left Friday for a few days' visit with friends in Holbrook, Mass. her mother who have come to Stonington from the Mayflower meeting at Plymouth, Mass.

Dr. L. Hest Noyes of Providence has gone to New York, after spending a few days with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams will soon leave for Nashua, N. H., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Palmer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Gates, motored to Saybrook and Fenwick Hall Sunday.

Mrs. Elliott H. Peabody of Worcester who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. G. Sutton has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Natt Hazard have been visiting their son, Prof. James Hazard in New Jersey.

William York is ill at his home at Angella.

Miss Martha G. Williams has returned Wednesday to the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Ernie P. York and son, of Flushing, L. I., Mrs. Mr. Burdick and Ellery York of Westerly, were dinner guests at S. N. Williams' recently.

MONTVILLE

Dealers Obligated to Import Ice—Success of Mock Trial.

Miss Irene Randall of Willimantic is the guest of Miss Laura Chapman. The ice dealers have been obliged to purchase their ice from New London since the hot wave, their supply having given out.

Mock Trial a Success. The mock trial given under the auspices of the Christian Aid society in Palmer Memorial hall Wednesday evening proved a great success.

Henry St. Germain visited friends at Ocean Beach recently.

Miss Alice Osborn has returned home after spending her vacation with relatives in New Haven.

The Palmer Memorial school closed Thursday afternoon on account of the intense heat.

The estate of C. A. Chapman has recently purchased an autotruck.

Attending Free Academy. Those attending the Norwich Free Academy from here are Ida Beebe, Pauline Glasbrenner, Jennie Glasbrenner, Laura Chapman and Melvin Robinson.

SHUNOC. The funeral of Mrs. Jessie A. Vene, who died in the Backus hospital Saturday, was held in the Second Baptist church this place Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. John M. Collins, pastor of the church here, officiated at Potter Hill, R. I., Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Albert I. Townsend spent last week in Boston.

Mrs. H. M. Perkins has made a lengthy visit with friends in Massachusetts.

Mrs. D. W. Bissell is visiting in East Bridgewater, Mass., for a few days.

EAST COLCHESTER. Defective Chimney Causes Loss of Home—Exhibits of Pupils' Work. Farmers are cutting corn and some are having silos filled. A good crop is the report in this locality.