What is Going On Tonight Willimantic Women's Club (afternoon). Francis S. Long Post, No. 30, G. A. B. Town Building.

BUYS G. E. LITTLE HOUSE. Joseph B. Riordan Acquires Desirable Residence.

Joseph B. Riordan of the H. C. Murray company, on Monday purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Little on Prospect street, and expects to occupy it as his residence. The price paid was not made public. Mr. and Mrs. Little intend to leave town the latter part of the week, to take up their permanent residence in Richmond, Va., in order to be near several members of their family who are in that neighborhood. One son resides in Richmond, and another teaches in Wilmington, N. C. It has been known for some time that the family was to remove to the south, but the exact date of their departure had not been set.

Labor Payroll $845. The labor payroll for the city of Willimantic, as compiled by Clerk A. C. Scripture for the week ending Sept. 18th, 1915, totalled $845.07, divided among the various departments as follows: Police department, $159.65; police department special, $19.25; office streets, $14.93; sidewalk construction, $72.71; new streets, $26.23; street department, $87.98; Pleasant street special, $197.33; maintaining sewers, $12; constructing sewers, $175.47; water works, $58.53.

INFANT SON STRANDED. Milhomme Baby's Head Caught in Crib Ornamentation.

Joseph A., the nine months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosalva Milhomme of Elm street, was strangled to death as the result of an accident Sunday evening. The child was asleep in its crib, and supposedly caught another found dead by the mother when she went to look at it about 7 o'clock at night. Dr. Mason, medical examiner for Willimantic, was called and gave a verdict of accidental death. It was discovered that a portion of the trimming about the top of the crib had been broken away, and in some manner the child's head became caught in the opening left by the break in such a way that death quickly resulted.
