

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, Sept. 27, 1915.

DEERFOOT SAUSAGE

CRAB APPLES GREEN TOMATOES Every Thing to Pickle Plenty of New Goods This Week.

SOMERS

3 Doors Above Bath Street MISS M. C. ADLES

MADE, PACE AND SOAP SPECIALIST Finest stock of Imported Human Hair. Creams to whiten and soften skin.

OLIVE R. RILEY Teacher of Piano N. E. Conservatory Course 218 West Thames St. Tel. 1053-3

GREEN TOMATOES RED PEPPERS and PICKLING ONIONS at Rallion's

ALLES, WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS Fresh, complete stock. Best Service. DAN MURPHY 11 Bath Street

THIS IS WELSBACH LIGHTING WEEK The City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. 321 Main St., Alice Building

WEDDING STATIONERY Correct Styles, Prompt Service, Low Prices Our facilities for supplying your requirements in this line are particularly fine and orders placed with us will receive the best of attention.

THE CRANSTON CO. JOSEPH BRADFORD, BOOK BINDER Blank Books Made and Ruled to Order. 108 BROADWAY

DRS. L. F. and A. J. LAPIERRE 267 Main St. PRACTICE LIMITED TO Hours 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

DR. SHAHAN Marion Black, 228 Main Street SPECIALIST on Diseases of the Stomach and Rheumatism 2-4 and 7-8 p. m. Tel. 821

BRACELET WATCHES in great variety at THE WM. FRISWELL CO., 25-27 Franklin Street

1914-1915 John A. Morgan & Son COAL No. 2 Nut $6.00 per ton Office and Yard Central Wharf Telephone 684

New Styles Fall Millinery MRS. G. P. STANTON 52 Shelton St. #102

VARIOUS MATTERS

The sun rises at 5.59 today and sets at 5.35. Barre Tottenville is discharging her cargo at Fort Point.

Great flocks of blackbirds have been noticed about late. Sunday afternoon's chilly shower spoiled many an outing.

Some big pumpkins are in the fields, ready for jack-o'-lantern time. A mackerel fishing party left here Saturday night in the power boat Bertha.

The Norwich-owned power boat Mildred has been sold to a New London purchaser.

Three agricultural fairs will be held in the state this week, at Ellington, Guilford and Suffield.

"Littlet Rebel," 5 reels, Colonial today.-adv.

Services for the Jewish festival of Succoth or Tabernacles were held at the synagogues here Sunday.

Workmen are making repairs on the birch mill at Waterford, preparing for an early season's opening.

Some of the closed cars on the long runs of the Shore Line electric railway were steam heated Sunday morning.

At Chester fair, Carl E. Musser of Storrs Agricultural college and W. B. Bunnell of New Haven were judges.

Trinity college, Hartford, where there are several Norwich students, opens its 90th year with an entering class of 65.

The fall convention of the Lutheran churches of Connecticut will be held Tuesday and Wednesday in South Manchester.

One tennis court of the four under construction on the grounds of the Connecticut College for Women will be finished Tuesday.

Charles W. Moore died at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Moore, in Lyme Friday evening after an illness of several months.

An open meeting held by Cochean club, No. 324, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Roberts' son's hall, Montville, Friday evening was well attended.

The rain on Sunday afternoon prevented the concert that was to have been given in Mohawk park by the Davis theater orchestra.

There has just been completed the erection of a 50 foot smokestack for the oil company at East New London. The stack is 40 inches in diameter.

The Lord's Point ferryboat, Althea, has been leased to a motion picture company for use in producing several films and has been taken to Block Island.

Rev. R. B. Parker, formerly of Norwich, preached in Colchester Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Methodist church at Hebron at 11 a. m. on Why Not Go to Church?

At Trinity M. E. church all the women of the congregation have been invited to the Ladies' Aid society tea at the persons of Mrs. Pearl Stead, Wednesday afternoon.

Comfort circle of the King's Daughters will be represented at the state K. D. convention in New Haven by the leader, Mrs. Albert W. Utley, and by Mrs. William Waters.

Only once before this season has the surf at Neptune park been so high as it was following Sunday morning's gale, but fathers would not mind the temperature of the water just high.

Charles Crandall, at one time a resident of Groton borough, but of late living in Scotland, has returned to and bought back his old home on the Eastern Point.

A former Mansfield pastor, Rev. Walter E. Sampson, field secretary of the Connecticut Temperance union, preached at the morning services in the First Congregational church at Saybrook on Sunday.

The people of Sprague are about to engage in a no-license campaign. Meetings are to be held where the liquor question will be discussed, there will be music by band and talkers from other cities.

At a county Sunday school institute at the Old Lyme Congregational church Sunday addresses were given by Henry B. Johnson of Norwich, president, and by Miss Jennie L. Congdon of Norwich, county superintendent.

During the big blow, late Sunday afternoon, a skylight was carried from the roof of the home of Mrs. Covey on Church street and just escaped landing on Henry W. Branches, who was going up the steps at his home next door.

In the superior court at Middletown today the session will be for Middlesex Banking company matters only. It will be a continuance of Friday's short calendar session, and Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich will preside.

Oscar A. Leonard of Tolland, president of the Rockville Fair company, showed at the fair his herd of 28 head of pure bred Holstein cattle, a section of which was exhibited at many of the largest fairs in New England and has won a large number of first awards.

About 50,000 operators' licenses have been issued by the state department of department. The total receipts of the department for the year which ends Tuesday, Sept. 26, are estimated at $500,000, or about 10 per cent more than the previous year.

The farmers of East Lyme and vicinity are organizing for the purpose of setting a resolution through the town meeting to compel all peddlers who live out of town and those who live in town and buy their produce to take out a license before they can sell there.

The state highway commissioner has awarded a contract to Frank A. Wilcox of Norwich, for $7,750.24, a section of native stone macadam on the Roberts-ville road in Colerbrook, and to Fred D. Agass of Norwich, for $1,200, for a new reinforced concrete bridge over Wash brook, in Bloomfield.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.

William McLaughlin, son of Charles McLaughlin, of Poquonoc, who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks with infantile paralysis, was removed Saturday to the home of his mother, Mrs. George Chapman, of New London.