

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

"A CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE"

William Harding - Brooklyn Eagle

A PUNCH AT THE RIGHT TIME

Baltimore American

Now, If the Bear Will Just Stand Still

SPOOKS

City Journal

ANOTHER "MOVING" GEORGIA PICTURE

Atlanta Journal

BEGINNING TO FEEL THE PINCH

Chicago News

WHEN A FELLOW NEEDS A FRIEND

St. Louis Republic

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

NORTH FRANKLIN

Birthday Surprise Party Given Station Agent Heath—Fine Apples at Frink Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rookwood entertained a party of relatives and friends at their home Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. W. Woodward is spending several days in New York.

Mrs. Albert Stiles is visiting friends in New Haven.

Harvests Fine Apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Browning and son Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Race and daughter Rena and Mr. Sample spent Sunday in Wickford, R. I.

Mrs. C. H. Peckham entertained an automobile party from Boston Tuesday.

Surprised on Birthday.

About 50 neighbors and friends of Station Agent Heath surprised him at his home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Annie Rockwood of Wickford, R. I. is visiting Mrs. A. R. Race.

Mrs. Earl Rogers entertained Wednesday Mrs. Myra Kelley, Mrs. Nettie Boland and Miss A. Boggs.

Herbert R. Hoffman has returned to Northampton, Mass., after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. Jennette Hoffman.

Mrs. M. C. Whiting has returned to Philadelphia after spending the summer with Mrs. William Smith.

Mrs. E. R. Brown and daughter Clara spent several days this week at the were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Etta Watson of Greenville.

Mrs. Hannah Buckley and Miss Theodosia Donovan of Norwich spent Thursday with Mrs. C. Mahoney.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson is passing several days with relatives in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leonard of Jewett City were guests Wednesday of A. R. Race.

Guests at Chapman Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chapman entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Beechick, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thompson and daughter Arline of Pithville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Trink of Hartford and Dr. Monroe of New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bridger of Norwich were Wednesday guests of Mrs. Hannah Kingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kahn and son James and Mrs. C. H. Peckham attended the Brooklyn fair.

VOLUNTOWN

Successful Novelty Sale, Social and Dance—Party for Mrs. Teresa Duffy on Birthday.

A very successful novelty sale, social and dance held in Union hall Saturday evening was attended by a good sized crowd.

Music for dancing was furnished by Ritchotte's orchestra.

Parties from this village attended the dance at Grange hall Friday evening.

Attended Beach Supper.

Several local people attended the beach supper at Pachau's grange.

Barbara P. Fenier assisted in the programme with a couple of solos that were well received.

Birthday Celebrated.

A party of friends paid a surprise visit to Mrs. Teresa Duffy Sunday evening on her birthday.

Mrs. C. H. Peckham is visiting in Avondale, R. I.

Mrs. Annie Rockwood of Wickford, R. I. is visiting Mrs. A. R. Race.

Mrs. Earl Rogers entertained Wednesday Mrs. Myra Kelley, Mrs. Nettie Boland and Miss A. Boggs.

guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Anderson.

Death of Clarence Daigneau.

Clarence, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elva Daigneau, died Saturday after a brief illness.

Funeral took place Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services were held in Robbins cemetery.

Oliver Boucher and Joseph Lavonie spent the week end with friends in Southbridge, Mass.

CHESTERFIELD

Burial of Daniels Infant—Housewarming at Miller Place.

Alice, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daniels, was buried Thursday in the family lot in Chesterfield cemetery.

Rev. T. H. Peabody made a address at the grave.

Carlton E. Wheeler, supervisor, was visiting schools here the last of the week.

Miss Julia Sullivan spent the week end with her parents in New London.

The meeting in the M. E. church was well attended Sunday, although it was a bad day.

Mr. Miller had a great many from different places at his party Sunday evening after moving into his new residence.

A large crowd was present. Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed.

Earl Brown of Salem was a caller in this place Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Williams of Boeton is visiting her parents of North Chesterfield during her vacation.

Albert Walden is making repairs on J. E. Powers' ice pond.

LEFFINGWELL

Arthur Fish and family of Bozrahville were Sunday guests of Mr. Fish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fish.

Tringa Foote of Preston was a caller on Harry Palmer Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Leffingwell is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rathum.

Miss Mildred Swan is spending a number of days in New London, the guest of her cousin, Miss Wilcox.

Mrs. M. O. Swan and daughter Frances are spending a number of days visiting relatives in Westerly, Hamilton and Newport, R. I.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Squirrels Doing Damage in Cornfields.

John Kelly of Moosup is visiting at E. S. Hall's.

William Gardner is transacting business in Westerly this week.

Squirrels are doing considerable damage to the cornfields in this locality.

William Clark and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Horace Perkins, were week end visitors in Foster Center.

Horace Perkins, who has been receiving treatment this summer, appears to be entirely cured.

NIANTIC

Prof. R. P. Williams and Family Leave for Corn Cracker State—Whist Given at Beebe Cottage.

Mrs. Martha S. Brown of Washington avenue entertained her grand-daughter from East View Wednesday.

Lincoln Harding is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Lucy Gleason, Mr. Harding was a visitor in Hamburg last week.

Mrs. Lucy Miner of Lyme is visiting her son, Mail Carrier J. Percy Morgan, and family.

Mrs. Reed and children left Thursday for their home in New Jersey after passing the summer at the Manwaring cottage in Main street.

Walter Barker and family are moving to Mrs. Bronson's house in Smith avenue.

Leave for Corn Cracker State.

Prof. R. P. Williams and family left Wednesday for their home in Paduch, Ky., after a month's stay at the Manwaring cottage in the grove.

Professor Williams is physical instructor in one of the public schools in Paduch.

Elias B. Manwaring has returned to his home in New Haven.

Whist at Beebe Cottage.

A whist was given at the Beebe cottage in the Pines Wednesday afternoon.

Members of the class who entered the Connecticut College for Women in New London this week.

his farewell sermon as pastor of the church next Sunday, Oct. 3d, as his work in New Britain demands his full time.

Rev. B. D. Remington, pastor of the Colchester and Salem Baptist churches, is spending his vacation in Washington, D. C., at the 49th reunion of the G. A. R.

Miss Ruby Fuller, teacher in the Harris district, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in South Coventry.

Miss Irene Shea, teacher in the White Birch district, spent the week end with relatives in Colchester.

Miss Elizabeth Shea of the Center school spent the week end at her home in Colchester.

Married in England.

Rev. T. A. Williams of Union, formerly pastor of the Congregational church here, recently married Miss Beatrice Register of England.

Archibald Francis of New London spent Sunday with friends at Hillside farm.

Mrs. Nathaniel L. Clark visited her brother, Thomas S. Clark, on South Main street, Colchester, last Monday.

Mrs. Charles S. Ray and Miss Katherine L. Ray spent Saturday with friends in Norwich.

September Strawberries.

Ripe strawberries, unsurpassed by berries ripened in June, are luxuries enjoyed by the family of Nelson E. Webster of Hillside farm during September.

Copies of the printed town reports have been received by the selectmen and distributed among the taxpayers.

Mr. Washburn, who purchased the J. R. Douglas property last spring, is making repairs and improvements on the buildings.

James H. Beebe and Gilbert J. Murray have filled the silos on their farms.

Winfield W. Hanney was a Colchester caller the past week.

Miss Ives Hunt Sterry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hunt Sterry, was a member of the class which entered the Connecticut College for Women in New London this week.

Local Friends Visit Leffingwell Pastor—Burial of Charles Beckwith at Hamburg.

M. J. Stark, Miss Emily Stark, Mrs. W. M. Sisson, Jr., and children and Mrs. Louis Gelling attended church at Leffingwell and visited at Rev. J. G. Ward's Sunday, it being Mr. Ward's last Sunday at Leffingwell.

He moved Monday to Plainville, where he is to become pastor of the Baptist church Oct. 1.

Burial of Charles Beckwith.

The body of Charles Beckwith, late of Hartford, was brought to Hamburg for burial Monday morning.

Mr. Beckwith was a son of the late Joel Beckwith of Salem.

Mrs. Edwin Rogers and Miss Leslie Rogers visited Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers in New London Saturday.

N. S. Birney is at Ray Harding's this week, filling the silo and threshing grain.

Miss Lena Hyde motored to Middletown Wednesday.

Soldiers Camp on Rogers Farm.

About a thousand soldiers from the encampment at Niantic camped on Rogers farm Friday night and called on the neighbors for fruit, eggs, milk, etc.

Misses Marion, Olive and Jennie Stark were home over Sunday.

GLASGO

Ladies' Aid Society Meets With Mrs. Palmer—Thread Company Driving Another Well.

Mrs. Martha Brown of Jewett City is the guest of Mrs. Sterry Kinney; also Mrs. W. G. and Mrs. Cherry of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young attended the grange fair in Pachaug Friday evening.

Edwin Lewis and his mother started Monday on an automobile trip to New Hampshire to visit his brother, John Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Eccleston have returned to their home in South Windham after spending a week with their brother, Frank Eccleston, and family.

The Ladies' Aid society was very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Palmer Wednesday afternoon.

The next meeting in two weeks will be at the home of Mrs. Samuel Shaw.

Sister-in-Law Ill.

Mr. Bill is planning a visit to Clark's Falls to see his sister-in-law, Mrs. James Bill, who is over 80 and is seriously ill.

Rev. John Thompson was in Dighton, Mass., the past week.

Albert Green took a party to East Greenwich Sunday.

Clarence Luther is attending the business college in Norwich this year.

Driving Another Well.

The American Thread company is having another well driven in the village by Spalding of Woodstock.

Frost did considerable damage in lowlands Thursday morning.

MOHEGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Denton Davis and son Raymond of Mystic spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hunter.

Lefroy Fielding cut his fingers badly for several weeks.

Mrs. Hannah Church has returned after visiting her son, Willard Church, in the city.

Mrs. Bates is visiting her grand-daughter, Mrs. Fred Smith.

ASHWILLETT

Mrs. Julia A. Crumb entertained her brother, Groves C. Wilcox, from Groton Centes last Sunday.

L. A. Morgan was in North Stonington village the first of the week.

George D. Main was a caller here the first of the week.

Farmers are hustling to cut up their corn which was frosted in lowlands last week.

FRANKLIN

George Carpenter of Phillips, Me., was a recent guest of his cousin, Mrs.

LEBANON

Meeting of J. W. Club—Whist Club Elects Officers—Funeral of Herbert Kneeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. Clement Fowler, and little daughter Lois, were in Hartford recently, making the trip in their automobiles.

J. W. Club Meets.

The J. W. Club met at Mrs. Myron Peckham's, Wednesday afternoon.

Five tables of whist were played, prizes going to Miss Ella Hoffman, first; Mrs. Bertha Ward, second; and Mrs. Myron Peckham, third.

Miss Vera Hoxie was in Norwich, Monday.

Mrs. Alma Manning spent the week-end with Mrs. Agnes Hyde.

Charles Perkins was in Boston last week.

Officers of Whist Club.

The Lebanon Whist club met last Friday evening in Lebanon Grange hall.

Officers were elected for the ensuing six months as follows: President, Charles A. Perkins; vice president, Fred Burgess; secretary, Miss Gladys Hewitt; treasurer, David Pitcher.

The same executive committee that served for the past six months were re-elected.

Eleven tables of whist were played. The following were the prize winners: Ladies' table, Mrs. Myron Peckham; second, Miss Geneva Stark; consolation, Mrs. Charles Triland; gentlemen's first, Edward Mason second, Edward Williams consolation, Charles Sweet.

At the next regular meeting, the prizes for the highest six months score will be given on Oct. 15.

L. F. Smith was in Guilford attending the fair.

Mrs. Charles Hincley is entertaining Mrs. George Durrenburger and her son, Joseph, of Portland, Conn.

Funeral of Herbert Kneeland.

Funeral services for Herbert Kneeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kneeland, were held from the Congregational church at Lebanon Center, Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock.

Rev. Scott Campbell, pastor of the Congregational church officiated at the funeral. The school children of the center congregational church presided at the funeral.

George Hewitt, Howard Williams and Richard Bishop acted as bearers. The school children with the teacher, Miss Fischer, from District No. 6, of which Herbert Kneeland was a pupil, attended the funeral in a body.

There were many beautiful flowers, including a bouquet of choice carnations from the school children. Burial was in Exeter cemetery.

Amos Loomis Dies Suddenly.

Friends and neighbors were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Amos Loomis, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Loomis, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Irons is visiting in Providence, Rhode Island.

Shower for Mrs. Fuller.

Mrs. Oso Fuller, a patient at Backus hospital, Norwich, was given a post-card shower by friends and relatives on her birthday, Thursday.

She received many cards.

Miss Ruth Paton, entertained over last Sunday her sister, Miss Grace Paton of Willimantic.

Miss Winnie Robinson was in Norwich last Friday.

Many at Musicals.

Monday evening, Harry Bill, the talented blind singer, gave a musical in Lebanon Grange hall.

Mr. Bill was assisted by Miss Geneva Stark at the piano. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the music and songs.

Will Have Four Basketball Teams.

The members of the Lebanon Athletic club met in the club rooms Saturday night and decided on forming four basketball teams this season.

The following men were named to select the players: Mr. Albert Patis, David Pitcher and Walter Burgess.

Mrs. William Nettles of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting at Mrs. Joseph Abels.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton S. Bowen of North Windham and Miss Phoebe Irish of Lebanon Center.

Farewell Sermon.

Rev. E. J. Ayres, pastor of the Baptist church, preached his farewell sermon last Sunday.

Miss Virginia Loomis, a teacher at South Farmington, was in Lebanon on Wednesday.

Loomis is a student at the Willimantic Normal school. Miss Dorothy Loomis, a student at Windham high, and Mrs. Royce Loomis, a student at Franklin Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., were called home Wednesday night, owing to the sudden death of their youngest brother, Amos Loomis.

North Stonington Rally Day at Congregational Church—Grange Hall to be Dedicated October 21st.

Last Sunday was observed as Rally Day at the Congregational church. A good congregation was present.

The pastor, Rev. G. D. Fischer, preached an appropriate sermon from the words, "The Kingdom of God is within you."

Miss Alice E. Avery sang a solo.

The Congregational church held a Rally social Friday evening in the vestry.

Mrs. Rice is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John D. Avery.

Rev. Maurice E. Caswell and daughter, Miss M. G. Rathbun were entertained at tea at the Congregational parsonage, Wednesday.

Miss Mary Ann, Allyn of Leyard is visiting at the home of Luther C. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Norman of Worcester, Mass., spent Tuesday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. T. P. Norman.

Mrs. Harry Myers and son, Master John Myers, of Preston, visited in the village Wednesday.

Mrs. Maurice E. Caswell and daughter of Old Mystic were in the village Thursday.

Miss Dora T. Maine visited friends in Providence last week.

The Clarence Palmer family will soon remove to Westerly, where Mr. Palmer is employed.

Return to Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Greene and son, F. Stewart Greene, have returned to Westerly after spending several weeks at Greene Gables, their summer home in this town.

Filling the silo is the chief business among the farm farmers at present.

The Grange hall is to be formally dedicated October 21.

Pendleton Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gatchell, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Willie Amy and her husband for the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Pawtucket, R. I.

Harry W. Palmer of several weeks ago, Sunday and Monday with friends in the place.

Clark Coon, who is teaching at Stone Hill spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coon.

Birdsey Palmer has sold another wood lot to Malcom Thompson, this one being situated on a portion of the Ray farm. Messrs. Price, Almy and Jordan are cutting the timber.

Charles Miller of North Stonington was in the place Tuesday and carried away a load of goods from the C. D. Thompson place.

Arthur Cobby who is driving a four-horse team for Malcom Thompson is boarding at Sheffield Douglas.