Bridgeport—Young women acted as ushers Sunday at the Washington Park Methodist Episcopal church.

as they worked a year ago, and that's assigned as a reason why the town went for license by a record majority.

That it is not always sunshine for the judge and the lawyers in the superior court for Washington county, was clearly demonstrated on Friday, when Judge Chester W. Barrows granted the request of counsel for the defense in the case of Robert Melnik against John Monti, to take a view of the location of the club house.

The Western Cycle club, one of the few surviving in this section of the country, has comfortable well equipped quarters and never was in a more prosperous condition during the twenty years' existence.

The officers were: W. Marshall Taylor, president; L. Hahn, secretary; J. C. Longhead, secretary; George A. Bicknell, captain; Albert T. Kennedy, lieutenant; Samuel P. Lawton, Jr.; Everett E. Whipple, trustees.

At the annual elections of the town of Plainfield, held in the town house in Central Village, Monday, there was a great victory for the republicans.

Westerly interest in New York Wedding

Niece of Rev. William F. Williams, Miss Chambers, Marries Rev. Laurens H. Seelye—Court Examines Location of Automobile Collision—Distribution of C. Gilbert Tanner Estate Ordered—Charles H. Dean Seeks Release From Jail.

Miss Kate Ethel Chambers, Ph. D., niece of Rev. William F. Williams, rector of Christ Episcopal church, Westerly, and daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Nestor F. Chambers, of Adams, Turkey, was united in marriage Monday afternoon in the chapel of the Western Theological seminary at New York, with Peter Laurens Hickok Seelye, of Chatham, N. J., the ceremony being performed by the great uncle of the bridegroom, Dr. L. Clark Seelye, first president of Smith college, now president emeritus.

The bride was in attendance by her uncle, Dr. Talcott Williams, in whose home in Philadelphia and New York, she lived for twelve years ago, making frequent visits to her uncle in Westerly.

Her sister, Miss Elizabeth Nesbitt Chambers, who attended school in Westerly, now of Bryn Mawr college, was maid of honor, and Julius Seelye, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride wore a short gown of canton crepe trimmed with white satin and a train of embroidered chiffon. The veil of tulle was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Paul Douglas of Cambridge, Mass., Richard S. Douglas, of Worcester, C. R. Stanley, of New Rochelle, N. Y., Cal. Charles H. Mills of Montclair, N. J., and Rev. Theodore A. Wainwright, of Washington, D. C., were the ushers. The pages were Herbert Bixler, son of Rev. J. W. Bixler of New London, and the bridesmaids, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers of the Cornell Medical school.
