MYSTIC
Surgers Who Entered Seidner Store Had a Sweet Tooth—Petition for Buoy in Channel—Greenberg-Bendett Betrothal.

Tuesday morning when the clerk of Seidner & Son's delicatessen store on Willow street opened the store, she found that someone had broken into the place during the night. It was supposed to be the work of boys, as candy and sweet things were about all that was taken. Entrance was gained through the front window, a pane of glass having been broken, enabling the burglars to enter. As it was a stormy night and there were no electric lights it gave the intruders a fine chance to do their work, and as no one else occupies the building, no one heard them come or go. Miss Seidner stated Tuesday she never left any money there as far as she could ascertain, only a few dollars' worth was taken.

Petition for Buoy in Channel.
Congressman Richard P. Freeman of New London, at the request of representative Crandall of the town of Groton introduced a bill in congress Friday asking for the installation of either a bell buoy or a whistling buoy in Wicopisset channel, at the east end of Fishers Island, as an aid to navigation. A buoy at this place is a necessity to the safety of fishermen using the passage in foggy weather or at night time. The fishermen of Stonington, Noank and Mystic, several of whom spoke to Mr. Crandall with regard to it, will be greatly benefited by the improvement. At nearly all times of the year the passage is a dangerous one on account of the swiftness of the ebb and rough water.

On entering the shop he soon discovered that the prizes were stolen. The authorities were notified of the case, but up to last evening no trace of the robbers was found. The way in which these robbers broke into these different places and got away without anyone in town hearing or seeing them shows that a night policeman would be a great benefit and safety for the interest of the town and townspeople. If a night policeman had been on duty these robbers probably would not have made such an easy get away with their booty.
