

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties

New London County

UNCASVILLE
Odd Fellows Still Without a Lodge
Room—K. of C. Plan Ladies' Night—
Pupils Who Won in Speaking Contest.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held a meeting in the vestry Wednesday afternoon at which it was decided to hold an entertainment for the church on Friday. It was voted to suspend the regular meetings of the society until after the holiday season. Charles Russell, of New London, has entered the employ of C. S. Johnson for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapel and children have been spending a few days with friends in Palmer, Mass.
Start for Wisconsin.
Mrs. Kate Ferris and son left Tuesday for New York, where they will spend a few days, then going to Wisconsin to spend the winter.

Looking for New Quarters.
Thames lodge, L. O. O. F., held a meeting in Robertson's hall, appointing a committee to attend a purchase of new paraphernalia and supplies to replace those destroyed by fire when the Palmer Memorial school building was burned. The lodge is deliberating over the choice of new quarters. No place has been selected for regular meetings.

Mrs. Charles Burgess, who is confined to her home by illness, is improving.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph St. Germain are entertaining Albert Forques of Seattle, Wash.
The house which Exlous Bonville has been building near St. John's church is completed and ready for occupancy.

Plan for Ladies' Night.
At the meeting of Pequot council, K. of C., held in Hickey's hall, the members made arrangements to hold a ladies' night on January 1. It was also voted to change the time for meeting from Tuesday evening to Sunday afternoons during the winter. The application for membership was received at this meeting.

To Care for Children.
At the Methodist church a new plan was put into effect Sunday. Arrangements were made by preparing a room in the chapel where Mrs. Charles Tibbets, wife of the pastor, assisted by Mrs. Dart, will care for the children of mothers who wish to attend services and cannot get to church because of children being unable to attend service, or having no one with whom to leave them.

The Uncaesville Manufacturing company has been building a new building and the machinery is being set up by W. J. O'Brien. John Burke and Charles W. Nichols. Miss Alice Quinn has begun work as stenographer for a firm in New London.

Walter Auwood, who has been confined to his home by illness, is improving.
Prize Winners in Contest.
The third in the speaking contest series was held in the evening at the Vocational school building, New London, with the prize winners from each of the two previous contests in this town, also those from East Lyme and Waterford participating. There were two groups of contestants. The juniors—Thomas L. Bounty, Selena Beckwith, Jeannette Perkins, Gladys Kopp and Helen Richmond. The seniors were Francis Gallagher, George Killeen, Blanche Maynard, Rufus Rose, Stella Gruskin, Percy Allen, Gladys Kopp and Flora Bruce. Prizes were awarded as follows: Juniors—Jeannette Perkins, Jordan, first; Selena Beckwith, Jeannette Perkins, second; Helen Richmond, third. Seniors—Francis Gallagher, first; George Killeen, second; Rufus Rose, third. The judges were Dr. Alice Wood of Connecticut college, Major H. A. Hull and Prof. F. S. Hitchcock.

In connection with the contest speaking, Misses Grace Coulter and Louise Long furnished a selection from Julius and Ethel. Much interest was shown in the play entitled William Tell; the pupils from the Palmer Memorial school presented the Sunbonnet Girls. Miss Edna Rose played a violin solo. A large number of parents and friends of the contestants went down from this town to attend the exercises. Much interest has been shown in the contests, which were arranged by Carl E. Wheeler, supervisor of the schools in the three towns in which the contestants attend school.

Leaves for Boston.
Mrs. Ida Browning has closed her home and gone to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Walden, of Boston.
Truman Keyes, who has been confined to his home with an attack of grip, is able to resume duties.
Joseph Miller, employed by the C. M. Robertson company, caught two of his fingers in the machinery, jamming them badly.

Pupils in Temporary Quarters.
The town hall has been partitioned off and new desks are being put in so that six grades of the pupils of the Palmer Memorial school are occupying it. The other two grades are occupying the chapel of the Baptist church, which has been made convenient for them to occupy. Now the regular schedule work can be done.

Auto Burned.
While attempting to start the engine of his automobile Sunday morning, Orville Walden had quite an experience. The engine caught fire and the machinery was badly burned. Oscar Church came to Mr. Walden's assistance.

At St. John's Roman Catholic church Sunday afternoon the Children of Mary held a meeting and voted to give a social and dance with sale of fancy articles, cake, etc.
Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Dart of Hill Top are entertaining Mrs. Dart's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Lees, and Mrs. William Fieldhouse of Paterson, N. J.
Miss Nellie Hollins has moved to New London to make her home with her niece, Mrs. Blanche Leeds.

Gave a Dance.
Friday evening the Country club gave a dance in Hickey's hall.
Tuesday evening following a business meeting the Epworth League of the Methodist church gave a social, of which the following were in charge: Rev. E. A. Tibbets, Charles Ramage, Elmer Beckwith and Robert Dodson.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berth and daughter of Hanover spent the week end with relatives at the village.

The public schools closed Friday for the Christmas vacation, opening Jan. 3 for the winter term.

GALES FERRY
Meeting of Woman's Home Missionary Auxiliary—New Devotional Communion Service Used Sunday—Exercises to Be Held Christmas Eve.

The local auxiliary of the W. H. M. society was entertained Tuesday afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock, at the home of Miss Kate B. Colver, at the Navy Yard.

Mrs. M. M. Potter, vice president of the society, presiding, a Christmas programme was given. Mrs. Potter opened the meeting with the reading of scripture and prayer. Several readings were given, O Little Town of Bethlehem, by Mrs. Fanny A. Northrup, "Give Me to Stay," by Mrs. C. Colver, "The Angel's Chorus," by Harriet B. Brown and The Friendly Dove, by Mrs. James M. Potter. The Missionary Entomias were in charge of the social hour. The hostesses were Miss Lard and Perkins. The business meeting followed with roll call and minutes of last meeting, read by Miss Lard and Perkins. Several reports of the secretary and the treasurer, Miss Kate B. Colver were heard. The usual social hour followed with refreshments. Special note was made by the hostesses of the birthday of the corresponding secretary, Miss Laura A. Perkins. Orders for the book, Home Missions in Action, were taken at this meeting.

New Communion Service Used.
Holy communion was administered by the Rev. James M. Potter, in the M. E. church, Sunday morning. The new individual communion service was used. Prefacing this service, the Rev. Potter made brief remarks, on the love of Christ, and offered a duet, "Tell Me the Story of Jesus," was sung by Misses Marie and Gertrude Allen. Rev. Mr. Potter read the Epistle and Gospel. Several readings were given, by the Rev. Mr. Potter, Rev. George E. Scrivener, urging interest in the Forward Movement. A meeting to be held in the Methodist Street church, Providence, R. I., December 30th, when Bishops Hamilton, Wilbur and Johnson will be present. Urging also interest in the work of Evangelism and Benevolence. Rev. Mr. Scrivener will hold the fourth quarterly conference with this church, December 22.

At the Sunday School session, Dorothy Birch received a rolled gold watch for two regular attendances and Mrs. J. A. Birch, rolled gold pin for eight months regular attendance.

Christmas Exercises.
The Christmas exercises of the Sunday school will be given Christmas eve, Friday evening, at 7 o'clock. A special programme is being rehearsed. The primary department under the direction of Miss Grace C. Chapman, teacher of the village school, and Miss Alice Satterlee, secretary of the Sunday school, will be in charge.

Mrs. Charles J. Hurlbutt, president of the Epworth League led the Sunday evening service with this topic, The Promise of Heaven.

Came to Anthony, R. I.
Mrs. Emma Bennett, and little granddaughter, Em-Beth Bennett, left the village Thursday afternoon for Norwich and on Saturday went to Anthony, R. I., to spend the holidays at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Maynard.

Miss Alice Satterlee, Mrs. Eugene LaFontaine, Miss Grace C. Chapman, Mrs. Lucy F. Hurlbutt, and Mrs. Mathewson, Charles H. Comstock, were among those that attended the theatre in New London, last Thursday.

Orrin Bennett went to New York last Thursday to spend some time.
Mrs. Edna Keeney of New London called on relatives in the village on Saturday.

Y. Mrs. Irwin Haley of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Billings F. S. Crandall at Stoddard's Wharf.

hotel, there are three handsome cottages and a valuable piece of land adjoining the property which are owned by the Lucas, a well known company from Bloomfield driving at work there driving a well and have struck a large quantity of good water. They were obliged to drive through 175 feet of earth in order to obtain the water. Trenches about two feet deep are being dug which will carry the water through pipes to the cottages on the estate. A large pond in the rear of the cottages is being lowered to give the pleasure of the widening of the road. This improvement has been needed for some years and will be a great benefit. Mr. Gorton has made the improvements towards developing some idle land belonging to the estate. A large piece on the Flanders road has been divided into building lots and houses have been erected by the purchasers.

Visited the White House.
Tower Operator and Mrs. J. P. McCoy have returned from a lengthy trip to New York, Washington, Scranton and other cities in Pennsylvania. Their trip around Washington was a very enjoyable one as well as to the places of interest. The pleasure of visiting the White House before returning home.

Brief Notes.
Mrs. George Curtis, who has been a guest at Mrs. Adam E. Bishop, left Monday for her home in New Haven. Mrs. Olivet M. Case of the Sweet Rest bungalow will leave soon for Hartford to pass the holidays with her sister and brother-in-law.

Mr. Morris left Wednesday for his home in Hartford, to remain over the holidays. He has a beautiful building at cottage in the Grove for Mrs. E. E. Claussen of the same city. Mrs. Claussen, who is a summer resident of the Grove, was a visitor in the Pines Monday.

Mrs. N. F. Lence is visiting in Hartford.

Mail Carrier J. Percy Morgan passed Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Miner in Lyme.

GLASGO
Sunday and Day School Children to Have Christmas Trees—Sale and Supper Clear $80.

Miss W. F. Green returned to her home in Hartford, Wednesday, after spending several days with Mrs. W. G. Burdick.

Trees for Children.
School in the eighth district closes the fall term Tuesday with a Christmas tree and exercises in the evening. Social hour, Christmas tree and exercises in the evening. There will be a Christmas tree for the children and exercises in the Bethel church Friday evening, December 24th.

Profits Over $80.
The Ladies' Aid Society held their annual Christmas sale and supper in the evening at the Social hall. The supper committee comprised Mrs. W. G. Burdick, Mrs. R. H. Young, Mrs. Harriet Palmer, Mrs. H. L. Burton, Mrs. E. G. Gustafson, Mrs. Hilma Gustafson, Mrs. Samuel Shaw, Miss Mabel Blanchard, Mrs. W. W. Billings, Miss Mabel Burdick, Miss Sarah Cameron, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Hilma Gustafson, collectors of supper and ice cream tickets; Mrs. R. A. Wilbur, Mrs. Frank Eccleston were in charge of the fancy work booth. At the apron counter; Mrs. Sterry Kinney, Miss Edith Eccleston took the mystery packages in charge and E. H. Wilgus sold the ice cream. The proceeds amounted to $85.95 and about $80 was added to the treasury. The booths were decorated with red and green crepe paper and Christmas bells.

HANOVER
Sunday School to Have Entertainment and Tree—C. E. Nominating Committee.

The Sunday school Christmas entertainment with a tree for the children of the village will be held in the Congregational church, Christmas eve. The children are rehearsing for the entertainment and the committee is collecting money for the tree.

Nominating Committee of the C. E. society Sunday evening the following nominating committee was appointed to bring in names for the officers for 1916: Mrs. W. G. Burdick, Mrs. G. Park, Miss Emily Tanner and Mr. Charles H. Blackburn.

Arthur Croft of Fort Wright, was a week-end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Croft. James Tanner and family motored to East Lyme, Sunday.

William Croft of Yantic was at the home of his parents, over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Grog of Dayville, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Park.

PENDELTON HILL
Henry Johnson has returned to Norwich, after spending two weeks vacation with the family of M. O. Chapman.

Miss Cecile Palmer spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mary Palmer.

Mrs. Homer Kinney and Mrs. Irving Butten were in Norwich Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson and daughter, Kathryn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Latham Bentley of Westley, Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. James M. Cook, Thursday, at Malcom Thompson has hired the farm of A. Espanet, the Swan farm, so-called, for the coming year. Sheffield Douglas and family are the present occupants.

Mrs. B. G. Palmer entertained Sunday, her mother, Mrs. Prentice Miner and Mrs. Will Miner and son. John Cornwell has returned from a stay of several days in New York.

CLARK'S FALLS
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick and daughter, Evelyn, were guests of Horace F. Palmer and family, Sunday, returning to their home on Chase Hill, Hopkinton, on Monday.

The rain storm has filled the streams and ponds here to overflowing.

R. D. Maine and John B. Perry were in Westley on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Catherine Thomas of Taunton, Mass., is with Mrs. G. A. Champlin for a few days.

Mrs. Addie Bill, who has been ill, is able to be about the house.

The snow is about two inches deep here and the thermometer has been quite low.

Mrs. Nathan N. Main is caring for Mrs. G. C. Main and infant son.

Mrs. Herbert Walker is ill at her home here. It is reported that Mrs. S. Pugh of

NORTH FRANKLIN

Friends Entertained By Miss Rena Race—J. W. Club Plays Whist.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White and daughters, Celia and Mildred, visited R. H. White of South Coventry, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Browning and son, Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Race and daughter, Rena, were Jewett City visitors Sunday.

Mr. Herrick, the cow inspector, spent Wednesday with J. W. Frink. Mrs. Harold Riley of Summerville, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Browning.

Miss Rena Race entertained 21 friends at her home Saturday evening. Whist was played and vocal and instrumental music was rendered by Miss Florence Hoffman and Eugene Clarke. Sandwiches, cake, fruit and coffee was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Crandall of South Windham, Theodore Crandall and Mrs. Hermon Gager were callers on Mrs. J. J. Mahoney Thursday.

Miss Agnes Lamb of Willimantic was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lamb.

At the Card Tables.
The J. W. club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Reuben Manning. Games of whist being played and prizes were awarded first to Miss Della Briggs, second to Mrs. Will Clark.

William Lamb was a Willimantic visitor Monday.

Mrs. Paul Brennan and family of Baltic and Mrs. T. H. Duggan of Jewett City, spent Thursday with Mrs. C. Mahoney.

Mrs. Theodore Crandall was a Norwich visitor Saturday.

Mrs. William Smith entertained at home Tuesday. Rev. B. P. Capshaw, Mrs. Capshaw and daughter, Esther, Deacon Charles Beckwith and Mrs. Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. George Avery, Mrs. Ella Smith and Miss Lydia Johnson.

Mrs. Eugene Clark spent Wednesday in Norwich.

Mrs. Charles Edwards of Willimantic spent Sunday with Mrs. Albert Ward.

OAKDALE
Local Union Fair and Supper Clears $35—Plans For Christmas Concert.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson and little son, Clinton, were week end visitors of Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Turner of Lake County, N. C.

F. C. Scudfield and sister, Miss Jessie Schofield, and Miss Ida Edmond were in Social hall Saturday.

Joel H. Fox, Fox and Sons, of Dolbeare were in Norwich Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pierce were in Norwich Thursday.

The Ladies' Social union held a fair in the chapel at Montville Center, on Wednesday evening. O baked bean supper was served from 5.30 to 9 p. m. About $35 was realized from the sale of quilts, rugs, shirtswaists, aprons and fancy articles, also cake and home made candy.

Christmas Tree and Concert.
The executive committee of the Sunday school together with a committee appointed by the C. E. society is planning for a Christmas concert and a very clever Christmas eve.

Rev. W. S. Beard of Willimantic was at Dolbeare Hill on Thursday, calling on his uncle, E. F. Parker.

BOZRAH
Mr. and Mrs. Orrin S. Maples Start For Tennessee—Grange Meeting.

Leroy Lathrop shot a large red fox this week.

Charmers Sparks has moved from the village to a cottage in a new bungalow recently built by William Goss, on Miner's Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin S. Maples left Monday morning for a month's visit in Tennessee. They are to stay a few days in New York and Washington.

Mrs. Lucretia Lathrop called on Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Buckley of East Great Plain Sunday.

There was a good attendance at the grange evening at the village. Mrs. Jabez Lathrop and Mrs. Albert Grandy were in Norwich Thursday and called on Mrs. William Drake.

NORTH LYME
Christmas Exercises With Tree to Be Held at Baptist Church.

Mrs. H. A. Rogers of Salem visited Mrs. William Elison the first of the week.

SALEM

Porter-Lane Marriage at Congregational Church—Ladies' Aid Society Holds Successful Sale.

Rev. Lemuel Frink of Norwich occupied the pulpit in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

The Y. P. S. C. E. meeting Sunday evening was held at the vice president, Miss Mabel Jew.

Supervisor J. A. Young of Colchester visited the schools in town one day last week and held a teachers' meeting in the Central school.

G. J. Murray was a business caller in Colchester Saturday afternoon.

Porter-Lane.
Miss Bessie Lane of this place and Philip Porter of Goshen, Mass., were united in marriage at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon at 8 o'clock by Rev. H. A. Blake of Colchester. The bridal couple were unattended. Only a few intimate friends were present. After the ceremony a supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kingsley. Mr. and Mrs. Porter left an early start for Goshen, Mass., where they will reside.

Brief Mention.
William Darling and James Lane were in Norwich last evening.

Miss Ella Darling spent Friday in New London.

Mrs. Lella Rogers and daughter, Miss Violet Rogers, and Mrs. Helen Malona were Saturday callers in Norwich.

The Ladies' Aid society met at Miss Harburt's Tuesday afternoon.

Successful Sale.
Thursday afternoon and evening the Ladies' Aid society conducted a food and fancy work sale in the grange hall, which was prettily decorated.

Carl Rogers and Harold Darling were in Norwich Tuesday.

Ernest Beebe of Syracuse, N. Y., has been spending a few days in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe.

The assessors met in the town hall Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Maskowitz and son Julius of Hanover have been guests for a few days of Mrs. Maskowitz's daughter, Mrs. Abram Siminowitz.

NORTH STONINGTON

Annual Election of Grange—Sunday Schools to Have Festivals Christmas Eve.

At the annual meeting of the grange the following officers were elected: Master, Clarence H. Davis; overseer, Harrison Kinnear; lecturer, Mrs. John A. Gray; secretary, Philip E. Gray; assistant steward, Amos P. Miner, Jr.; chaplain, Rev. Lucian Drury; secretary, E. Frank White; treasurer, Charles C. Gray; gatekeeper, Henry Langworthy; Pomona, Mrs. Clarence H. Davis; Ceres, Mrs. Reuben D. Cook; Flora, Miss Ada F. Lewis; Ida, Mrs. Thompson.

Mystic Pastor Heard.
Rev. A. F. Earnshaw of Mystic preached in the Congregational church Sunday morning in exchange with the pastor.

Ernest H. Hewitt of Boston was a guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tryon.

Supervisor of Schools Gordon C. Swift will spend the holidays in Edinboro, Pa.

Visited Schools.
A. L. Young, supervisor of schools in Voluntown, accompanied Supervisor Swift on a round of visits to the schools in this town Monday.

Both the town schools and the Wheeler school will close Dec. 22. Each of the local Sunday schools will hold a Christmas festival on Christmas eve.

GARDNER LAKE

Boys in Camp—Miss Fuller Resigns at Sixth District School.

Miss Roby Boynton and Miss Ruth Dow of Palmontown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Boynton the week end.

Sydney Dolbeare was in New London Tuesday.

Point Comfort lodge is closed for the season. Mrs. Fannie Du Mars has returned to her home in Rochester, N. Y. Miss Mrs. Max Oakes is spending some time with her niece, Mrs. E. L. Latimer.

Occupying Oat Cottage.
Some of the boys of Camp I-sho-worra are spending a week at the Oat cottage, Spring Grove.

Miss Fuller Resigns.
Miss Ruby Fuller is to complete her duties as teacher in the Sixth district at the end of the present term. Miss Fuller was a very competent teacher and both parents and pupils regret her departure.

ROAD SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Wheeler have been in Hartford this week attending the Agricultural society meeting.

Tony Miller, who has been in the employ of Seth Williams, left Wednesday for New York.

Miss Mary Starr Wheeler of Wellesley returned Friday for the holidays.

A. G. Wheeler was in Gales Ferry Wednesday.

A number from here attended the funeral of William York at Angullia Monday.

Mrs. Frank Mattison of Westley is caring for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Henry Mattison, who has been ill.

Stonington grange gave a chicken pie supper Wednesday evening which was well attended. Miss Stanton of Westley gave several recitations, much to the enjoyment of all present.

Mrs. M. C. Phillips and son, Roger, of Troy, N. Y., spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. E. Powers.

Some young people of this place are enjoying the good skating.

Raymond Brothers have moved their saw-mill from North Lyme to the place known as Wilson woods.

Mrs. C. Phillips and son, Roger, returned home, after spending several weeks with Mrs. Charles Powers.

Mrs. J. C. Phillips of Fitchville is visiting relatives here.

Miss Julia Sullivan spent the week-end at her home in New London.

ASHWILLETT

Mrs. Nathan N. Main is caring for Mrs. G. C. Main and infant son.

Mrs. Herbert Walker is ill at her home here. It is reported that Mrs. S. Pugh of

It does make a difference WHERE YOU BUY YOUR VICTROLA. to Buy it of us means Better Service... THE PLANT CANNON CO. NORWICH CONN.

OLD MYSTIC

Tomorrow to Be Observed as Christmas Sunday at Baptist Church—Roy Bates' Pictures on Exhibition—Prizes for E. W. Brown's Poultry at New York.

Sunday will be observed as Christmas Sunday at the Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. Fred Eugene Coburn, will preach at the morning service. An exhibition of some of his paintings, Mrs. Henderson will sing at the morning service. The evening service at 7 o'clock will be a story picture service, entitled The Light of a Christmas Candle.

Wind 40 Miles an Hour.
The storm of Monday afternoon and night was very severe along the Mystic river, disabling the electric light service early in the evening and later turning to snow and sleet. The wind at 7 o'clock was in a stormy hour by the anemometer at Riverview cottage. The sleet and ice stopped the tower clock thereby blocking the outside hands, at about 3 o'clock in the morning.

Exhibiting Pictures.
Roy Elliott Vator, son of Rev. Welcome E. Bates of Mystic, who is holding an exhibition of his paintings this week at the Baptist parsonage. Mystic has two pictures among the 66 on exhibition which were painted by the old Mystic painter. One is a picture of the bridge near the old Hyde factory. This painting is entitled The Bridge, and is valued at $175. The other entitled Old Mystic Pastures is priced $50.

The United Workers of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon in the parish house. There was a good attendance. Supper was served at 5 p. m.

Won Prizes at New York Show.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Brown have returned to Riverhead, poultry farms after attending the Grand Palace poultry show in New York. There were 5,500 entries and 1,600 exhibitors from 28 states, also from England and Canada. Mr. Brown was awarded the following prizes: First prize cock, fifth prize pullet, first prize hen. Mr. Brown also won all the prizes in his class at the recent Southern New England poultry show held in New London.

The Baptist Young People's union will hold the regular monthly social and business meeting at the home of Miss Susan H. Babcock.

Sunshine Club Meets.
The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corner met Thursday with Mrs. C. Edwin Stapleton. Supper was served at 5 o'clock.

Lawrence Rattigan has moved his home to Riverhead, N. Y. Mrs. Mary J. Williams' house to the lower tenement in the house in Pearl street, Mystic, owned by Charles H. Denison. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tinker have returned from a visit to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Anson S. Kenyon of Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laxton have returned to their home in Mystic, after spending the week-end with Mr. Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barnes of Oakdale.

Move from White Rock.
Fred Marcy and family have moved from White Rock to the house situated near the John W. Burrows' store, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Denison. Calvin H. Hoxie of Springfield, Mass., is spending his vacation at the Hoxie home.

Mrs. Charles B. Capwell have moved to Captain Payne's residence in Mystic.

Miss Fay Johnson has returned from a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. William A. S. Harvey, of New London.

Miss Gladys Main of Norwich was a recent guest of local relatives.

Mrs. Charles B. Chapman has returned from a visit to relatives in Ledyard, Gorton and Groton borough.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laxton have returned to their home in Mystic, after staying at Riverhead farm for five days during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Brown.

The Baptist Sunday school voted at the last session to hold a Christmas social, but the evening is not yet decided upon.

At the end of last June Great Britain owned 368 merchant steamers of more than 7,000 tons each. Germany possessed 124 and America 63.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER. Made from Cream of Tartar. Celebrated for Perfect Baking Results. No Alum No Phosphate.

Christmas Skates. BUY THEM NOW!