PROPER REGARD FOR SAFETY.

Serious has been the handicap which has been placed on transportation in New England as the result of the storm of a week ago.

It was a trying situation from which the roads looked upon the nation to be some time before it will be able to get back to normal conditions.

The fact of the matter was that speed could not be secured and maintained with safety and between the two, safety deserved the greater consideration.

AUSTRIA'S ANSWER.

Evasive to the extent that it does not deal with a single one of the demands which were made upon it in the note from this country.

To all intents and purposes Austria's foreign minister wants to talk over the circumstances which surround the shelling and sinking of the Lusitania.

The fact of the matter is that it makes little difference whether there was one or more American lives lost.

Even though it was impossible to be there the whole country extends its best wishes to the president and his bride.

It will probably grieve Henry Ford when he learns that the baseball war is over and that it was settled without his influence.

That new faculty rule which prohibits feminine roles in dramatic productions at Yale might be applied to the football team also.

Just as soon as the Christmas shopping can be completed it will be time to devote all extra time to planning the New Year's resolutions.

Shopping days slip merrily by, but there is a worried look on the faces of those buyers who failed to take advantage of the shop early opportunity.

ITALY IN THE BALKANS.

Even though the efforts made by the allies to prevent the overrunning of Serbia by the Austro-German and Bulgarian armies was not effective.

There were two thousand bills presented at the opening of congress and yet that body thinks it can get along without economy and efficiency in running this nation.

army of 120,000 into Albania. This may be for the purpose of defending that state against invasion.

BURLESON AND THE PORK BARREL.

It takes considerable courage for one man to step in and block the plans of an organized body even when he is convinced that he is conscientiously doing his duty.

Even though it was in the south, Mr. Burleson looked upon the plan as too elaborate and unwarranted and he proceeded to block it.

PROTECTING OURSELVES.

In the arrest of Paul Koenig of the Hamburg-American line and two others charged with conspiring in this country to destroy the Welland canal.

When the present time for this country to act in protecting its own rights and in running down some of the guilty agents.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

According to latest advices there is no shortage in the mistletoe market.

The man on the corner says: But for human nature life would be extremely dull.

A new speed record is being established in the exchange of notes between this country and Austria.

Rainy days at this season of the year only add to the burden of the storekeepers as well as the shoppers.

Health authorities of Jamaica have decided that the consumption of yams, cocoa, sweet potatoes and cassava by the natives in preference to imported foodstuffs is responsible for the increasing death rate.

Ever woman who cares to be lovely should keep her nerves at rest, ward off wrinkles, banish the crow's feet and cultivate roses by sleeping at least eight hours a day.

Perfect cleanliness means perfect beauty. Perfect cleanliness means clean blood as well as clean skin.

TO WRAP A CAKE. A great many persons find it difficult to wrap up a cake that has a soft frosting without having the frosting stick to the paper.

Lamp burners should be washed frequently to remove dust and carbon from the burner.

A sponge in a porcelain umbrella stand will keep the umbrellas from striking the bottom of the jar.

When making a mayonnaise in which only the yolks of eggs are used, the economical housekeeper will use the whites in a dessert.

Ink stains on mahogany can be removed by painting them with a solution of six drops of nitre mixed with a teaspoonful of water.

A bathing cap may be kept in good condition for another year by sprinkling it thickly inside and out with toilet powder before putting it away.

If brass or copper have become rusty, the rust may be rubbed off with a weak solution of oxalic acid.

A skilful housekeeper will "interchange" the same utensils when cooking, so as to use the fewest possible.

Meat patties for luncheon dishes are economical because they can be made of almost every sort of cold meat.

If hot fat is spilled on the floor, throw cold water on it at once, and it will not soak into the boards so deeply.

Paint the inside of bureau drawers with white enamel if you would have them always fresh and easy to keep clean.

TO STARCH LINGERIE. Many housewives experience great difficulty in laundering fine lingerie.

When the dainty crepe de chine blouse shrinks a bit after its first laundering.

WHEN BLOUSES SHRINK. If the dainty crepe de chine blouse shrinks a bit after its first laundering.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY. Persons who wish to gain flesh should drink pure milk, hot or cold.

The breath should be held for eight or ten seconds, then allowed to escape slowly through slightly parted lips.

It is not advisable to use skin treatment on young girls for enlarged pores, pimples, blackheads, etc.

TO WASH LACES. White laces that have become discolored from unbleached cotton, should be put immediately into hot water.

NEEDLEWORK NOTES. Turkish towels stamped for making into embroidered combing jackets cost 50 cents without the fringes.

Make casement curtains for upper windows of unbleached cotton. It looks just as well as the real thing and wears better.

The cutest thing ever for baby's breakfast or tea time is an apron bib. It is cut along generous lines and looks much like any other bib.
