DANVERS, MASS., WOMAN RECEIVES BLESSING

Mrs. W. H. Brown Tells How She Was Relieved After Long Suffering.

Mrs. W. H. Brown of Danvers, Mass., was a victim of stomach trouble which tortured her for years. She tried many treatments and medicines and got little relief.

Then she took May's Wonderful Remedy and got results right away. In telling of her case she wrote: "For years I have suffered terribly with stomach trouble. I could find no relief. Then, like a blessing from above, I heard of your remedy; sent for it, and after a few treatments am now well. It is a great blessing to my friends of your miraculous remedy."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distressing pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now. It is an absolute guarantee. If not satisfactory money will be returned.

or a Russian fighter, may do so by contributing ten cents to the Soldiers' Pipe fund.
The men at the front want and need a good pipe. The demand for such an article has been very insistent, and Viscount H. Y. de Lendonck of Yainpe Ste.-Catherine, Belgium, has undertaken to supply the need. He has had manufactured in America an excellent pipe for the purpose; strong, light, and of good quality. He has in hand the receipt of contributions and the prompt shipment of the pipes to the army of the allies the giver designs.
For a contribution of $25 the Soldiers' Pipe fund will deliver to soldiers in Europe a pipe and will have printed across the bowl of each a sentence or motto in the language designated by the donor. One-half of purchase price can remain on mortgage.

POETRY

AT CHRISTMAS TIME.

Along the road to Bethlehem
Three weary men slowly fared
And wondering shepherds gazed at
And bowed the heads which they had
And three men who had journeyed far
Rode slowly over the hills that night,
So follow us, dear friends, to see
Whose constant beams were broad
And bright.

At Christmas time they heard a voice
That sweetly sang from on high;
"Rejoice, ye sons of men, rejoice!
The words rang clearly from the sky.
The trembling wise men passed to hear
The song that angels sang to them,
And ceased to doubt and turned from
That Christmas night in Bethlehem.

We hurry through the busy days
And in the market-places contend,
We strive to win in sinful ways,
Forgetting brother, wronging friend;
We foster ill will, and strive to gain,
We have no time for being kind,
We rudely push the laws aside,
And give no guidance to the blind.

We madly struggle after gain,
Forgetting all the Master taught;
We worship riches, and disdain
The words of His Messiah, that He
Yet, each year, at Christmas, love
Assails our hearts and chastens them,
And brings us glad remembrance of
Your loving guidance to the blind.

We cease a little while to hate,
We turn a little while from sin;
We greet the stranger at the gate,
We give the beggar's bread in kind,
We still acknowledge Him our King,
As they did, that first Christmas day.

Three shadowy wise men slowly fared
Along the road to Bethlehem;
And three weary men slowly fared
And wondering shepherds gazed at
And bowed the heads which they had
And three men who had journeyed far
Rode slowly over the hills that night,
So follow us, dear friends, to see
Whose constant beams were broad
And bright.

Humor of the Day
"We are just like one big family in our town."
"Is the scragging that bad?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.
"Mrs. Grabber is gifted with a sixth sense."
"And what is that?"
"Inexhaustibility."—Buffalo Express in that last issue.
"Because they knew the actor wasn't really dead."—Topeka Journal.
"Are you fond of music?" asked Miss "A."
"Not very," replied Mr. Oldhatch.
"But I prefer it to popular songs."—Cincinnati Enquirer.
"Courtesy seeks—Love, why do they call you blind?"
"Love—Well, if you had been sitting around in the dark as long as I have, you'd be blind too."—Gargoyles.
"So you think Katherine made a very suitable match."
"Yes, indeed; you know what a very beautiful girl she was. Well, she married a composer."—Tit-Bits.
"Doctor, do you believe in people taking vacations?"
"Considering the practice it brings me, I should be an inmate to decay the custom."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
"You say you are a pacifist?"
"Yes," replied the indignant person, "and let me tell you, sir—"
"Well?"
"If you're a pacifist, don't shake your fist at me."—Birmingham Age-Herald.
"Where did you work last, and how long?" demanded the Colonel. "Did you quit of your own accord or were you discharged?"
"Looky, yuh, boss," sourly returned Brother Bogus. "I 'snt purposed' marrying yuh. I 'snt axin' for a job."—Puck.
Broad—By the way, old man, do you remember borrowing $10 from me last year?
Short—Yes.
Broad—And you said you only wanted it for a short time?
Short—That's the truth, I didn't keep it 20 minutes.—New York Sun.
