

WILLIMANTIC

What is Going On Tonight... BAD STORM SUNDAY.

The storm which had been prophesied for Christmas struck Willimantic late Saturday night, with a high wind and rain and sleet, turning to snow Sunday morning...

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY.

Celebrated with Elaborate Services at Catholic Churches—Special Music at Episcopal Church.

Christmas day at St. Joseph's church there were four masses, at 8, 8.15, 9.15 and 10.30, at which Rev. T. F. Bannard and Rev. P. J. Mooney were assisted by Rev. J. Keating of St. Thomas seminary, Hartford...

FUNERAL.

William A. Lathrop, Mary E., widow of William A. Lathrop, died early Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George C. Stanley, in Andover, Chronic nephritis was the cause of death...

Alice Sweet of Denver, Col., and Arthur B. Lathrop of Simsbury, and a brother, George H. Clark of South Coventry.

in Willimantic in the neighborhood of ten years, coming here from Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. John Smith, Mary, widow of John Smith, died early Christmas morning at her home on Broad street, following three months' illness with heart trouble.

William D. Smith, 79, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. H. Baker, in Andover, Christmas day. Senility was the cause of death.

Christmas Cheer for Town's Charges. All the inmates of the almshouse received presents Christmas and had their usual Christmas dinner...

Brief Mention. G. J. Ketchum, a Providence, R. I., visitor over Christmas in Hartford.

Mrs. Judith Peterson of Hartford and Mrs. J. J. Peterson of Worcester were remembered with Christmas gifts by the firm, an annual custom.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn spent Christmas with relatives in Bridgeport. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Daniels and Miss Annie Doyle of British Columbia are visiting with relatives here.

Mrs. Samuel Dean of New Bedford is the guest of Mrs. Mary Collins. Miss Helen Lawton of Lakeboro spent the holiday season with friends in Danvers.

Mrs. Martin Wolfe of Jewett City has been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murray, of Academy street.

Mother Dies in Maine. Frank G. Stinson, clerk in the store of K. A. Darbie, was called to his home in Maine Christmas eve on account of the death of his mother.

Business Hustle Rewarded. Business men report the Christmas trade as exceedingly satisfactory generally and a number of stores brook their best previous high records for business done at this season of the year.

Tree Damaged by Gale. At the beginning of Sunday's baby blizzard a big limb was blown off one of the fine trees near the Congregational church and fell across the trolley track.

Gave $100 to Hospital. The report of the special committee on Thanksgiving of the Day Kimball hospital shows, among a list of contributions from Danvers, a generous one of $100 from the Connecticut Mills company.

It is understood that there is a movement on foot among milk producers whose market is Danvers to advance the price per quart during the winter season, but no definite arrangements have been made yet.

Theatres Well Patronized. Danvers people flocked to the motion picture shows during the Christmas season and the attendance was the largest recorded during any holiday period since the pictures became so popular.

Thousands of calendars will be given away in Danvers this week by the enterprising business men. Some of the designs are very artistic and represent Mrs. L. S. Casey of Turner street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Loughlin have returned to their home in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bernard and Miss Alma Dion are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. F. Archambault of Arctic, R. I.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect Head. Heavy in this tonic and inactive effect, laxative Bromo Quinine can be taken by anyone without causing nervousness or ringing in the head. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. DROVE'S signature is on box. 25c.

Year End White Sale. Our Annual Year End Sale of Undermuslins starts this morning and will continue through the balance of the week.

Never before have we offered such wonderful bargains in dainty Undermuslins as we offer at this sale. GOWNS, CORSET COVERS, CAMASOLES, ENVELOPE CHEMISES, SKIRTS, DRAWERS AND COMBINATIONS are all included.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Big Holiday Patronage at Theatre—Post Office Service During Holidays—How Christmas Was Observed—Severity of Sunday's Blow—Night School Four Nights Weekly—Judge Fuller's Last Week on City Bench.

Gift for Postmaster Potter. Postmaster Charles A. Potter was presented a handsome vicuña hat as a Christmas gift by the members of the post office force.

James A. Stanton of Meriden was a visitor with friends in Danvers over Sunday.

Employees of the Jacobs Manufacturing company were remembered with Christmas gifts by the firm, an annual custom.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn spent Christmas with relatives in Bridgeport. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Daniels and Miss Annie Doyle of British Columbia are visiting with relatives here.

Mrs. Samuel Dean of New Bedford is the guest of Mrs. Mary Collins. Miss Helen Lawton of Lakeboro spent the holiday season with friends in Danvers.

Mrs. Martin Wolfe of Jewett City has been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murray, of Academy street.

Mother Dies in Maine. Frank G. Stinson, clerk in the store of K. A. Darbie, was called to his home in Maine Christmas eve on account of the death of his mother.

Business Hustle Rewarded. Business men report the Christmas trade as exceedingly satisfactory generally and a number of stores brook their best previous high records for business done at this season of the year.

Tree Damaged by Gale. At the beginning of Sunday's baby blizzard a big limb was blown off one of the fine trees near the Congregational church and fell across the trolley track.

Gave $100 to Hospital. The report of the special committee on Thanksgiving of the Day Kimball hospital shows, among a list of contributions from Danvers, a generous one of $100 from the Connecticut Mills company.

It is understood that there is a movement on foot among milk producers whose market is Danvers to advance the price per quart during the winter season, but no definite arrangements have been made yet.

Theatres Well Patronized. Danvers people flocked to the motion picture shows during the Christmas season and the attendance was the largest recorded during any holiday period since the pictures became so popular.

Thousands of calendars will be given away in Danvers this week by the enterprising business men. Some of the designs are very artistic and represent Mrs. L. S. Casey of Turner street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Loughlin have returned to their home in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bernard and Miss Alma Dion are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. F. Archambault of Arctic, R. I.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect Head. Heavy in this tonic and inactive effect, laxative Bromo Quinine can be taken by anyone without causing nervousness or ringing in the head. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. DROVE'S signature is on box. 25c.

PUTNAM

Good Post Office Service During Holidays—How Christmas Was Observed—Severity of Sunday's Blow—Night School Four Nights Weekly—Judge Fuller's Last Week on City Bench.

Miss Katherine Thayer spent the holiday with relatives in Danvers. Dr. S. E. Overlock, who has been a patient in a Boston hospital for some time, is reported as steadily improving.

Mrs. George Blythe and son spent Christmas with friends in Danvers before Judge E. G. Wright of the probate court today.

No Vacation Games. No basketball games in the high school league are scheduled during the vacation period.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Chase of Thompson entertained about a score of relatives at their home on Chestnut street.

A hearing pertaining to the estate of Leotide Bennett is set to take place before Judge E. G. Wright of the probate court today.

John A. Perverse of Lowell spent the holiday with friends in Putnam. The Community Teacher Training class is to meet in the parlor of the Congregational church this evening.

Invited to Wauregan. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillips of Wauregan have invited Putnam friends to be guests at a New Year's eve party at their home.

Offering for Hospital. An offering for the Day Kimball hospital was taken at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Children's Festival at St. Philip's church is to be held Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. George Stone, pastor of the Advent church, preached at the church of the denomination in Danvers Sunday afternoon.

Irving G. Davis of the extension service at the Connecticut Agricultural college, is to give illustrated talks on farming subjects in towns in this section.

Post Office Service Excellent. The postoffice force had one of the busiest Christmas seasons in the history of the office, but continued to give splendid service notwithstanding the pressure brought to bear on them in keeping even with the game.

Good Holiday Trade. Reports by merchants indicate that the holiday trade was very satisfactory in Putnam.

New electric motor has been installed at the mill of the Manhasset Manufacturing company.

At St. Mary's church the Christmas donations by the parishioners were very generous.

Those who were engaged in distributing Christmas cards to the homes of the needy in Putnam were very happy in the work that brought pleasure to many homes.

Bright Business Outlook. On the eve of the new year it is predicted by some manufacturers here that Putnam plants are to have a very prosperous year.

Miss Josephine Gifford and Miss Gladys A. Farmer assisted the choir in singing at the service at the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Yuletide Cheer at Hospital. Patients at the hospital were served a Christmas dinner and in other pleasant ways were reminded of the holiday season.

Some of the new automobile markers for 1916 have been received in Putnam, but they are not to be used on machines until next Saturday morning.

A number of the French residents of the city leave this week to spend the New Year with relatives in Canada, where excursions are being run by different roads.

Christmas proved an exceedingly quiet holiday in Putnam. The day was made much of in many homes, where family members returned for the day were being entertained.

Blew Out Window Pane. In the heavy sale of Christmas night at the hospital, a window pane was blown out during Sunday morning some damage was done in the city. The wind was so strong as to blow out window panes in some sections of the city.

New Judge for City Court. The change in the city court judgeship comes next week, when Judge M. H. Geisler will be succeeded by former Judge L. H. Fuller, who was appointed by the last legislature to be judge here for two years from January, 1916.

Night School Four Nights Weekly. It is probable that the night school, which is to be established in this city on Monday evening of next week, will have a very successful year.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

Invited to Wauregan. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillips of Wauregan have invited Putnam friends to be guests at a New Year's eve party at their home.

Offering for Hospital. An offering for the Day Kimball hospital was taken at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Children's Festival at St. Philip's church is to be held Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. George Stone, pastor of the Advent church, preached at the church of the denomination in Danvers Sunday afternoon.

Irving G. Davis of the extension service at the Connecticut Agricultural college, is to give illustrated talks on farming subjects in towns in this section.

Post Office Service Excellent. The postoffice force had one of the busiest Christmas seasons in the history of the office, but continued to give splendid service notwithstanding the pressure brought to bear on them in keeping even with the game.

Good Holiday Trade. Reports by merchants indicate that the holiday trade was very satisfactory in Putnam.

New electric motor has been installed at the mill of the Manhasset Manufacturing company.

At St. Mary's church the Christmas donations by the parishioners were very generous.

Those who were engaged in distributing Christmas cards to the homes of the needy in Putnam were very happy in the work that brought pleasure to many homes.

Bright Business Outlook. On the eve of the new year it is predicted by some manufacturers here that Putnam plants are to have a very prosperous year.

Miss Josephine Gifford and Miss Gladys A. Farmer assisted the choir in singing at the service at the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Yuletide Cheer at Hospital. Patients at the hospital were served a Christmas dinner and in other pleasant ways were reminded of the holiday season.

Some of the new automobile markers for 1916 have been received in Putnam, but they are not to be used on machines until next Saturday morning.

A number of the French residents of the city leave this week to spend the New Year with relatives in Canada, where excursions are being run by different roads.

Christmas proved an exceedingly quiet holiday in Putnam. The day was made much of in many homes, where family members returned for the day were being entertained.

Blew Out Window Pane. In the heavy sale of Christmas night at the hospital, a window pane was blown out during Sunday morning some damage was done in the city. The wind was so strong as to blow out window panes in some sections of the city.

New Judge for City Court. The change in the city court judgeship comes next week, when Judge M. H. Geisler will be succeeded by former Judge L. H. Fuller, who was appointed by the last legislature to be judge here for two years from January, 1916.

Night School Four Nights Weekly. It is probable that the night school, which is to be established in this city on Monday evening of next week, will have a very successful year.

Invited to Wauregan. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillips of Wauregan have invited Putnam friends to be guests at a New Year's eve party at their home.

Offering for Hospital. An offering for the Day Kimball hospital was taken at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Children's Festival at St. Philip's church is to be held Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. George Stone, pastor of the Advent church, preached at the church of the denomination in Danvers Sunday afternoon.

Irving G. Davis of the extension service at the Connecticut Agricultural college, is to give illustrated talks on farming subjects in towns in this section.

Post Office Service Excellent. The postoffice force had one of the busiest Christmas seasons in the history of the office, but continued to give splendid service notwithstanding the pressure brought to bear on them in keeping even with the game.

Good Holiday Trade. Reports by merchants indicate that the holiday trade was very satisfactory in Putnam.

YANTIC

Dialogues and Music Entertain Visitors at Meeting House Hill School—Christmas Social—Personal Items.

The Meeting House Hill school carried out its closing program Friday evening, when many journeyed to the hill to enjoy these exercises: Duet, The Song of the Christmas Star, Vivien Miner and Alice Guyette; dialogue, Jack Horner's Christmas Pie; Jack Horner, Warren Rockwood; Boy Blue, Arthur Rockwood; Do Peep, Gladys Guyette; Simple Simon, Gregory Mackinstry; Mother Hubbard, Jennie Rockwood; Jack Delina, Minnie C. Bunting; Anita Armstrong; The Bethlehem Babe, Margaret Fitzpatrick; dialogue, Santa Claus; Santa Claus, Mrs. E. E. Elsie; Santa Claus; Cashaw; Frank, Stanley Armstrong; Lionel, Carl Leonard; Chris, Archibald Mitchell; dialogue, Elsie, Elsie, Elsie; Sister, Rachel Mitchell; Louise, Mary Daniels; Lucy, Margaret Fitzpatrick; Fairies; The Little Babe, Gladys Guyette. Refreshments were served after the plays and gifts were distributed.

Mrs. George Avery, assisted by Miss Elsie, of Smith's Corner, held a Christmas social at their home Wednesday afternoon and evening at which many were entertained. Among the list of town guests were Miss Florence Geiv of Leyard and Misses Ruth and Olive Hitchcock of Preston City. Refreshments were served and games and music were enjoyed.

In a Few Words. Eugene Manning of the Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, is spending the Christmas recess with his parents in Danvers. Miss E. E. Elsie, a Miss Beatrice Wilcox of Newton Upper Falls is spending the holidays with her parents in Danvers.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgher of Newport, Vt., are spending some time in the village. John O'Brien has been spending the holidays in Lowell with relatives.

Frank W. Stretch left to spend Christmas in Gilberville with his mother, Mrs. Anne Stritch.

Patrick Conolly has been passing the holidays in Lowell with his mother, Mrs. J. Conolly.

Mrs. Sarah Schlough and Miss Bertha Schlough of Waltham, Mass., are holiday guests of Mrs. Schlough's sister, Edward Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Burdick have been in Danvers, visiting with Mrs. Burdick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vasher, over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Congdon and children, Elsie, Dorothy and Christopher, Jr., are holiday guests of the Misses McHale of Oakland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Congdon of Stafford Springs have been in town, spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Congdon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson entertained Mrs. Frank Way, Miss Ethel Way and Earle Way of North Franklin Friday.

William McHale of Garden City, L. I., is at his home here for the holidays.

Mrs. George Clark and daughter, Alva J. Clark, are passing the holidays with relatives in Danvers.

Miss Anna Park spent Christmas in Franklin with her cousin, Miss Estelle Lathrop, and will leave town for New York, where she will pass the remainder of the holiday recess.

James Higgins spent Christmas in Billerica with relatives.

HAMPTON GRANGE Elects Officers—Ralph Burchnell Master.

At the last regular meeting of Little River grange, the following officers were elected: Master, Ralph Burchnell; overseer, Mear Jewett; lecturer, Mabel Peck; gatekeeper, Arthur Fitz; Burchnell; assistant steward, C. B. Jewett; chaplain, Olive Burnham; treasurer, C. E. Burnham; secretary, Leila Ogden; steward, Richard Fitz; Pomona, Arline Thompson; Flora, Mrs. Edwards; Ceres, Angie Burnham; lady assistant steward, Estella Pearl.

Capital $100,000 Surplus and Profits $175,000 Established 1832. Accuracy in accounting, courteous service, promptness and liberality in dealing, and a sound business policy in administering its own affairs, characterize THE WINDHAM NATIONAL BANK, which aims thereby to establish with customers relations that shall prove reciprocally permanent, pleasant and profitable.

The Windham National Bank WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Don't You Want Good Teeth? Does the dread of the dental chair cause you to neglect them? You need have no fears. By my method you can have your teeth filled, crowned or extracted ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN. Consider These Other Features: STRICTLY SANITARY OFFICE, STERILIZED INSTRUMENTS, CLEAN LINENS, ASEPTIC DRINKING CUPS. LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH BEST WORK. If these appeal to you, call for examination and estimate. No charge for consultation. DR. F. C. JACKSON, Dentist, 752 MAIN ST., WILLIMANTIC, CONN. 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sunday, 10 to 2. Lad. Assistant. Phone 44.

Murray's Boston Store WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

After Christmas Sale of Suits, Coats and Separate Skirts OPENS TODAY

Our annual after Christmas sale of Suits, Coats and Separate Skirts offers a good opportunity to replenish your winter wardrobe at very little cost. The collection of Suits, Coats and Skirts in this sale represents a wide variety of styles and fabrics at less than half their former prices.

SUITS Suits that formerly sold up to $30.00 are now reduced to $6.98, $10.00 and $12.50. COATS Coats that formerly sold up to $30.00 are now reduced to $5.00, $7.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00 and $17.50. SKIRTS We have two exceptionally good values in Skirts—one lot consists of Skirts worth $2.50 for $1.48. Another lot consists of Skirts worth $3.50 for $1.98. Other Skirts are reduced to $2.89, $3.89 and $4.98.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Every Woman Would Like A Parlor Desk, a Cedar Chest, a Floor Rug or a Parlor Mirror.

Every Man Would Like A Roll Top Desk, a Morris Chair, a Smoking Set or a Kitchen Clock.

Every Girl Would Like A Music Rack, a Tabourette, a Picture or a Fancy Lamp.

Every Boy Would Like A Card Table, a Cellarette, a Book Case or a Cuspidor.

Every Baby Would Like A Go-Cart, a Crib, a High Chair or a Rocking Horse.

Now these things are all necessary and the people should have them. Better look them up at LINCOLN'S Furniture Store Phone 285-3 Main and Union Streets.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

JAY M. SHEPARD Succeeding Elmore & Shepard General Director and Embalmer 60-62 North St., Willimantic Lady Assistant Tel. connection

HIRAM N. FENL UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER, 62 Church St., Willimantic, Ct. Telephone Lady Assistant

DR. F. W. HOLMS, Dentist Shannon Building Annex, Room A Telephone 223