With gasoline selling around 25 cents a gallon and snow on the ground, a number of Danielson automobile owners have decided to dispense with motoring joys—and troubles—until gas prices are lower, and the weather better.

PUTNAM

Windham H. S. Cancels Game With P. H. S.—Edward J. Cassant Managing Hotel in Middletown, N. Y.—Affairs For New Year's Eve—Substance of Judge Gardiner Greene's Ruling in Brooklyn Case.

Judge E. M. Warner, who has been quite seriously ill the past week, was improved Thursday, but unable to leave his home.

Henry E. Church of Hartford was a visitor with friends in Putnam on Thursday.

Harry Morse, the well known vaudeville and comedy star, is ill with grip at the home of Marshall Kenyon, Grove street. Mr. Morse was taken ill while on tour near Boston. Mrs. Morse is also here.

John M. Morse, Jr., of Worcester was a visitor with relatives in Putnam Thursday.

Miss Mary Graham of Norwich has been spending a few days with friends in Putnam.

Maurice Castel of Southbridge was a visitor with friends in Putnam on Thursday.

Attorney Charles L. Torrey was in Putnam on a business trip Thursday.

Miss Bernice Bates of Stamford is visiting West Woodstock friends.

Attorney Arthur S. Macdonald is here have had the experience, common to the time of cars of coal consigned by the railroad which could not be kept running. An order for a car of bituminous coal at $7.65 a ton, an astounding advance over normal prices, was placed here today, on the promise of prompt delivery. Shortage of labor at the mines, inability to secure a sufficient number of vessels, the strike of the coal trade, railroad embargos and shipping delays due to the series of storms are given as reasons for the inability to get a sufficient quantity of coal into town.

BOROUGH PLACES $25,000 LOAN. Interest Only 3.55 Per Cent.—Secured Through Danielson Trust Company.

The borough of Danielson has just placed a loan of $25,000, for a period of six months, with the Danielson Trust company at 3.55 per cent, an unusually low rate. The officers of the Trust company state that this rate was made possible because of the low interest rates prevailing just now in Boston, where the loan for the same day, on the promise of prompt delivery. Shortage of labor at the mines, inability to secure a sufficient number of vessels, the strike of the coal trade, railroad embargos and shipping delays due to the series of storms are given as reasons for the inability to get a sufficient quantity of coal into town.

HAD DISLOCATED SHOULDER. Oliver Champagne, Who Migrated from Norwich to Brooklyn Jail.

Oliver Champagne, it has been found at the Windham county jail, came to the institution this week with a dislocated shoulder, the dislocation having taken place, it was evident to the physician called to attend the prisoner, at least a month ago, a fact that made the matter of getting the shoulder back in place rather a difficult proceeding, on account of conditions that had developed.

Champagne is the roving "Charlie Chaplin" who walked from Jewett City to Danielson early this week for the special purpose of being arrested, preferring the jail at Brooklyn to the one at Norwich.

There were 35 prisoners at the jail Thursday.

TRUANT ROSA CAPTURED. Conductor Winfield Colwell Tempts Runaway Police Dog with Bones.

You remember Rosa—the thoroughbred police dog that escaped on November 18 from Henri L. Baer's Paide kennels at East Killingly? Well, Rosa has finally been captured. She met her Waterloo, or Warsaw, or Harman's Waterloo, near the plant of the Consumers Ice company, at East Killingly, Thursday, for the conductor Winfield Colwell, who runs nights on the Rhode Island line between Danielson and East Killingly, and who was off duty at that time, made the capture and incidentally earned the reward of $25 offered by Mr. Baer for the return of Rosa.

The dog, a valuable animal, was suffering from a cold and evidently not feeling as kippy as usual, facts that were aids to Mr. Colwell in capturing the exceedingly smart animal. The weeks she has been in liberty, catching her has been a problem as hard as trying to capture a wild fox.

When Mr. Colwell learned that members of a trolley crew that Rosa was near the ice houses he went to a market, got some bones and started out on what was supposed to be a full quest. Rosa was lying in the sun on the snow-covered trolley road, and by using great care and patience (and not trying to hurry the job too fast, Mr. Colwell finally induced Rosa to accept a bone from his hand. Then she was but a minute's work to slip leash around her neck. Rosa refused to budge an inch with Mr. Colwell, and had to carry her to his home in Elmville. Mr. Baer called during the afternoon and took the record truant home.

Excepting for the cold, Rosa seemed in quite satisfactory condition, notwithstanding she has been living in the woods for several weeks.

Judge Greene Decides Brooklyn Case. Judge Gardiner Greene, Norwich, in the superior court, filed his decision in the mandamus case brought at the instance of the selectmen of the town of George W. Eastman, treasurer of the town, George W. Eastman, to comply with certain demands relative to the handling of funds of the town, these being of a technical nature, and in no way involving Eastman's integrity or ability, the issue being simply whether the selectmen or the treasurer have the right to say where the funds of the town shall be deposited, as to which shall make loans for the town and as to where the town's sinking fund shall be kept.

Both sides score points under Judge Greene's decision, which is very lengthy. The court ruled that the treasurer has the right to choose a depository for the town's funds; that the selectmen can make loans and the treasurer must sign on the notes and that the sinking fund of the town of Brooklyn, now in the savings department of the Windham County National bank, must be deposited in the Brooklyn Savings bank, a state institution, where this fund was formerly deposited.

The issues raised have been exceedingly interesting, as they were unique and, of the counsel engaged in the case stated Thursday, without exact parallel in all the cases in which decisions have been rendered in American or English courts, even far back as the days of William the Conqueror, in the twelfth century.

Excerpts from Judge Greene's decision, as filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court at Putnam, are given in the news from that town this morning.

Jefferson, Me.—"When my baby was two months old eczema broke out on her in water blisters. Her neck and under the arms were affected most. "They said it was eczema. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment she used before I had used the Soap and one box of the Ointment she was free from the eczema." (Signed) Mrs. Frank Tibbets, October 27, 1914.

PLAINFIELD Henry Truesdell, Long Superintendent in Mills of Kirke H. Leavens, of Norwich, Reaches 92nd Birthday—Wame With Jewett City Team Tonight.

Henry Truesdell celebrates his 92nd birthday quietly at his home on School House Hill, Packerville, Tuesday. Mr. Truesdell was greatly pleased at receiving a shower of post cards and other tokens.

Mr. Truesdell was for many years superintendent of the cotton mills at Packerville. When the late K. H. Leavens of Norwich bought his plant to Central Village in 1882 he went there and managed the two old Fenner mills for several years, retiring when Mr. Leavens quit mill work.

C. H. Truesdell, his oldest son, is agent of the Blackstone mill at Attawapung and Fallouville; Walter Em-smith Truesdell, his second son, is a prominent New York City business man.

Mr. Truesdell and his estimable wife are both quite feeble. They reside in a cottage within a few feet from where Mrs. Truesdell, who was Miss Em-smith, was born. The Em-smith family at one time owned all of the farms near there, the original grant being received from the Indians.

Heard and Seen. James W. Higgins of Packerville is seriously ill.

John E. Fletcher of Boston was in Plainfield Thursday.

Miss Alice Baldwin, who has been caring for Mr. and Mrs. Truesdell in Packerville, has gone to Danielson to reside.

W. F. Curran of Moosup is in a New York City hospital.

Paul Feltier of Norwich and Henry Simino of Tatville were recent visitors here.

John E. Baker of New Haven was a special visitor Thursday.

William Amer Fuller of Putnam was a recent visitor here and in Packerville.

Loretta and Genevieve Mc-Avey are visiting in Tatville at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Mary Clark.

On Holiday Outing. Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Allard and children of Lawton Heights are in Danielson over New Year's.

A number of cases of grip are reported hereabouts.

Sleighing in this section is fine. A number of sleds were out on Thursday and last evening making the best of this sport.

To Play Jewett City Five. The Plainfield High School five will meet the Narragansett of Jewett City this evening. A fast game is looked for as both teams are reported to have their men in the pink and condition. The Plainfield five will be picked from the following men for this evening's contest: Winsor, Denison, Kenyon, Nolan, Potter, Smith, Bradford, and Durby.

Paul Feltier is visiting in Natick, R. I., at the home of relatives.

Paid For Their Joke. Two small boys in Central Village caused a great deal of excitement on Thursday afternoon. Both boys had been sliding back of the company's houses and one thought of a scheme. The Moosup river is right back of these houses and the boys were sliding down the bank and into the water. "When I slide down the hill this time you go up near the house and tell the people that I have slid into the river." After the boy had slid down the other boy hid his part in a first class way and had all the people of that section down to the river bank. Then the great surprise of the town, people the supposed drowned boy arrived and greatly relieved the anxiety caused their parents. What the both boys received from their parents is not for publication.

Selectmen's Rights. The selectmen, on the other hand, superintended the concern of the town, and the first selectman is ex-officio town agent. The selectmen have to adjust and settle all claims against the town. The $10,000 note was an important claim against the town, and the arrangement for its payment would have been a duty of the selectmen. If the treasurer's vote had not been passed. With these facts in mind, it seems to me that the town, in expressly providing that no note made by the treasurer should be paid, unless countersigned by the first selectman, meant to leave the arrangement of the new loan with the selectmen, where it belonged. In other words, the treasurer as custodian of the town funds, was to sign for the town such necessary notes as the first selectman, on the town's behalf, should approve and countersign.

The motion to quash is sustained as to part one of the alternative writ, and overruled as to parts two and three thereof.

Norwalk.—The inmates of the Fairfield county home and other charity to the number of about one hundred were guests of Dr. James G. Gregory at a special motion picture matinee at the Regent theatre Wednesday afternoon.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 30.—Albert Johnson, one of the two negroes under arrest charged with robbing a registered mail pouch containing $1,000,000 in securities on Christmas eve, today confessed, according to the police, Johnson and the other negro were mail wagon drivers. They delivered two pouches of mail to a railroad station and a third they took to their homes and cut it open, according to the police. The men took out a half million dollars' worth of stock certificates and checks and then tossed the bag back in the wagon and returned to the post office intending to later abandon the wagon and escape, the police said. Meanwhile the postal officials had been notified that the pouch was missing and the men were arrested. Nearly all the securities taken from the bag were recovered.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 30.—An American legion recruiting office for the British army is maintained in Windsor, Ont., opposite here. Outside the office is an advertisement bearing the United States and British flags and (6) the flag incident is said to have been the excuse for a threatening letter recently received by Lieutenant N. "We are not seeking men in America," said Lieutenant Moore today, "we want American-Canadians and we are setting them."
