Miss Adles' New Year Suggestions. Ladies who do not fall to see the newly invented styles, to fill on scanty temples and around the ears.

DAVIS THEATRE. Triangle Photo Plays - Keystone Comedies and Three Keith Vaudeville Acts.

Today begins the second week of the Triangle photo plays in Norwich an dhat they have made a big hit with the patrons of this theatre.

The vaudeville programme for this show is head and shoulders above most Opera company, a quartette of good singers, who present a big scenic singing offering.

Matinee today at 2.15, all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents. Evenings at 8.45 and 8.15, 10 and 20 cents. If you want to get full value for your money visit the Davis theatre.

COLONIAL THEATRE

"An Unwilling Thief," Astounding Three Real Edison Features.

It is some time since Herbert Prior and his magnificent Edison cast have been seen at the Colonial theatre, but today the astounding tale of "An Unwilling Thief," a drama in three acts, will occupy the attention of the interested spectators.

A famous Tom Mix Western drama is another feature today and is entitled The Girl and the Mail Bag. This is sufficiently stirring and dangerous to satisfy the expectations of most acting patrons.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

Big Girl Act. Paramount Feature and Charlie Chaplin Here Today and Tomorrow.

Positively the biggest bill ever offered by the Auditorium is booked to appear today and tomorrow and it includes three great vaudeville numbers as well as two multiple reel photoplays.

The Little Hellas, a musical comedy with ten people in the cast, mostly girls, and running twenty-five minutes. This act is brimful of life from start to finish and has two comedians in it that are a treat to the minute.

There are seven pretty, dashing girls who sing, dance and wear clothes to perfection. On the whole, it promises to be one of the best musical comedies ever seen here and is bound to make a tremendous hit.

Besides this exceptional feature, two other well known acts have been secured, America, a striking violin novelty, and Joe Smith, who is a very clever tramp comedian.

As the picture programme is corking new four reel Charlie Chaplin comedy entitled The Mixup has been booked. This picture without doubt overshadows anything Chaplin ever appeared in and is a perfect scream from start to finish.

From the regular Paramount feature today and tomorrow, Hazel Dawn will be seen in The Heart of the Matter. This picture has the excellent standard expected of all Paramount Players productions.

There is a surprise in store for the audience, including James Kirkwood, Irene Bowley, Russell Bussell and several others equally well known. The production is of the highest artistic and artistic standard of recent feature releases and is bound to please. There are also some short films and the usual news items that will be given.

POETRY

AFRAID AFRAID AFRAID (AN, no, there is no "I" in "I") In that I fear—I am afraid of Tenible traces of it will pass and leave no trace Of loved things worth remembrance so

AFRAID that in its golden mead of hours I may (forget, too oft, to use the phrase)

AFRAID that to its laughter I'll forget How many hearts bear grief and eyes are wet.

AFRAID, ah! most afraid, I may not Love's countenance and, blind, may let him go!

Youth conquered all its strife and strength and stress Accounted for—then, only, shall I press Forward to Joy, with Age as guide and friend— Fearful, I trust, whatever Time portend.

THANATOS ATHANATOS. At eve when the brief wintry day is sped I must abide my fate's faint flickering glare— Conscious of wrinking face and whitening hair— Or those who, dying young, inherited The immortal youthfulness of the early dead. I think of Raphael's grand signiorial Of Shelley and Keats, with laurels fresh and fair— Shining and sheltered on each sacred head— And soldier boys who snatched death's starry prize, With life's
