

NEW YEAR'S TALK

AT CUTLERY PLANT. Given in Shop Talk Series By Rev. Dr. Slocum.

The Y. M. C. A. shop talk delivered at the Cutlery plant on Tuesday at noon by Rev. Joel E. Slocum, D. D., pastor of the Central Baptist church...

To resolve to keep young, adding something that is wholesome and good to the vital forces of body, mind and soul, is a sensible resolution for the new year.

As we are concerned with that which lies right ahead of us and as this is the time for wishing each other good things, I wish you a Happy New Year, in the largest sense of that word.

Just before Dr. Slocum began his talk he took the opportunity to acknowledge the Christmas greetings he had received from the men in the shop...

OBITUARY.

Isaac Wheeler Geer.—After a short illness due to the infirmities of age and a weak heart Isaac Wheeler Geer entered into rest at his home in Ledyard, near Poqueantuck, Jan. 2, P. M.

Mr. Geer was educated in the common district school and began his life as a successful farmer. He did not care for political office, but was always actively interested in the church.

Having spent his life on the ancestral farm, he was a member of the entire neighborhood well and was authority for all the early families who lived at Poqueantuck and on the farms for miles around.

He leaves one sister, Mrs. Louise Brown of Groton, two nephews, Charles D. Geer, music teacher and director, with whom he lived; Isaac W. Geer, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad, stationed at Toledo, O.

Following an illness of several days with pneumonia, James C. Tucker, 35 years of age, died at his home, No. 35 Boswell avenue, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Tucker was the son of Denison Baldwin and Abbie Tucker. He was born in Griswold, Feb. 29, 1828. Most of his long life was passed in this city. He was united in marriage with Ellen M. Wallbridge a number of years ago.

Mr. Tucker is survived by a daughter, Mrs. George A. Bigelow, of Worcester, Mass.; three sons, Frank B. Tucker, of Battleboro, Vt.; and a sister, Mrs. Henry Jones, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

John Kimball.—Grip, resulting in pneumonia, caused the death of John Kimball at his home, No. 315 West Main street, Tuesday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

Mr. Kimball was born in Ledyard, March 7, 1836 and was the son of Erastus Nathan and Lydia Lester Kimball and most of his life was passed in this city.

Mr. Kimball was highly esteemed by a wide circle of warm friends, by whom his death is sincerely mourned.
