HORSE NOTES Nutwood Wilkes 2:16 1-4, and is well known in the harness horse world.

A. B. Scott, superintendent of Dromore Farm, St. Clair, Mich., states that the report that Sonoma Gray 2:04 1-4, and Native Belle 2:02 1-2 are to be bred to Peter the Great 2:07 1-4 is not true.

The Belmont, Wis., horseman, F. P. Curry, recently had a very promising two-year-old pacer filly by Walter Linnart, 2:05 1-4, from W. H. Jones, of Newville, Tenn.

Wallace McKinley 2:26 1-4, the good son of McKinley 2:11 1-4, owned by Charles Mack, Washington Court House, Ohio, is now credited with twenty-seven standard performers.

Judging by the way that the youngsters by him performed the past season, the good son of Bellini 2:13 1-4, Atlantic Express 2:07 3-4, is going to be a sensational sire of speed.

Willie Kolehmainen, the holder of the world's marathon record of 26 1/2 miles 3:54 yards, set off his way to America and will settle down to Brooklyn. He is a brother of Hannes Kolehmainen, the amateur distance runner.

STOCK PRICES FOLLOW. Most Severe Declines Were in the So-Called War Stocks.

New York, Jan. 11.—Liquidation of speculative specialties, which had its inception last week on publication of the Gary statement, gathered steam today, the movement receiving assistance from a formidable short interest in the most volatile stocks in the so-called war stocks, losses of 3 to 7 points being sustained at their extreme declines by Crucible Steel, Pressed Steel Car, American Can, Baldwin Locomotive, Studebaker and Colorado Fuel.

There were no surface developments to account for the reaction, other than the belief that financial institutions are manifesting an increasing conservatism in the accept industrial securities in loans.

Heavy trading in Anglo-French 5's at a slight reduction from recent high quotations featured the bond market, which was otherwise irregular. Total sales, par value, aggregated $5,970,000.

MORAN DESERVES A CRACK AT WILLARD. Pittsburgh Fighter a Tough Boy and Has a Hard Punch.

This Frank Moran is a big, strong, cool, husky guy. He has jaw that resembles the bumper at the end of a railroad siding, and he has an arm like a fence post, writes Walter Trumbull.

RED SOX RELEASE WAGNER. Heinie Considered One of the Brainsiest Infielders in American League.

The release of Wagner was not entirely unexpected. For the past three seasons in fact, ever since the great championship struggle of 1912, and his wonderful work in the fight for a world's title with the Yankees last year, the same little Dutchman had been slipping.

NATIONAL AMATEUR BILLIARD TOURNAMENT Class A 182 Balk Line Matches Begin Feb. 28 in New York.

New York, Jan. 11.—Members of the National Association of Amateur Billiard can take the Iron Billiard club of the Arion society, New York city, as the place for holding the national class A 182 balk line championship at the annual meeting completed today.

Together with Carrigan, Wagner remained of the team that played the Red Sox last season. Heinie play on many a game did Heinie play on many a game did Heinie play on many a game did.

During the entire campaign of 1912, Wagner was the brains of the Red Sox infield. He added, however, that when Wagner might have held on even longer. But with such men as Hooper in the infield, and Manager Bill himself behind the bat, it seems only reasonable to suppose that President Lannin would have become convinced that he had plenty of brains in his outfit and could therefore afford to turn Wagner loose.

Might Have Held on Longer. But for the accession of Jack Barry, who has the brains and strategy necessary to run the Red Sox infield, Wagner might have held on even longer. But with such men as Hooper in the infield, and Manager Bill himself behind the bat, it seems only reasonable to suppose that President Lannin would have become convinced that he had plenty of brains in his outfit and could therefore afford to turn Wagner loose.
