Charles Barber Coon, 88, who has been ill for the past six months, died Wednesday morning at his home, No. 4 Elm street. He was born in Glasgow, Conn., April 16, 1877, the son of Moses B. and Martha H. Coon. His only child he moved with his parents to Hopkinton, near Woodville, and there spent his boyhood. When Mr. Coon was thirteen years of age his father died, his mother having previously died, and he was left to his own resources.

He went to Kenyon and lived with Abel S. Kenyon of the firm of Abel S. and Ethel Kenyon, woolen manufacturer.

He attended the district school and also the Standard news-stand, now known as the Lachlan institute, and also worked in the mill. He became proficient in his work. In 1877 Abel Kenyon retired and Ethel Kenyon conducted the business. The faithful service of Mr. Coon was appreciated and he received gradual promotion until he became superintendent and then manager of the plant. In 1883 he was taken into partnership and the business was conducted under the name of Kenyon and Coon for 15 years.

In 1881 after about forty years of active service in the woolen business, Mr. Coon retired at the age of 44, and devoted his time to his personal affairs. Upon his retirement the mill employees presented him a handsome gold watch, suitably inscribed, as a testimonial of their regard. From that time on Mr. Coon always carried that watch and prized it highly as a reminder of the good fellowship that existed between employees and employer.

Mr. Coon took up his residence in the house where he died in 1875. His wife was Harriet Newell Gardner, daughter of Henry G. and Mabel Briggs Gardner, of South Kingston.

She died May 24, 1916. They had no children, but they reared from her girlhood Minnie A. Taylor, wife of George A. Chapman, and she has always resided at the Coon home, treated as a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coon. She deceased survived by a sister, Mrs. Horace Bingham, of Westerly, R. I.

For twenty-three years, prior to the death of his wife, it was the custom of Mr. Coon to spend the summer at Champlin, to spend the summer at Daytona, Fla. Mr. Coon made his last trip to Champlin with Mrs. Willard and James Cross.

Mr. Coon represented the town of Richmond in the state senate in the sessions of 1877 and 1878. In the latter session he was prominent in Odd Fellowship in the state, but later in life, by reason of impaired hearing, as a result of scarlet fever when young, but which resulted in much inconvenience as he grew older, caused him to retire from activity in fraternal and political life. He was an owner and director of the old Willard general store, which was a company, a director of the Natick Savings bank and a life member of the Washington County Agricultural Society.

Local Laocian. Everett A. Mathewson, 51, one of the proprietors of the Mathewson hotel, Narragansett Pier, died at his home at the Pier, Tuesday.

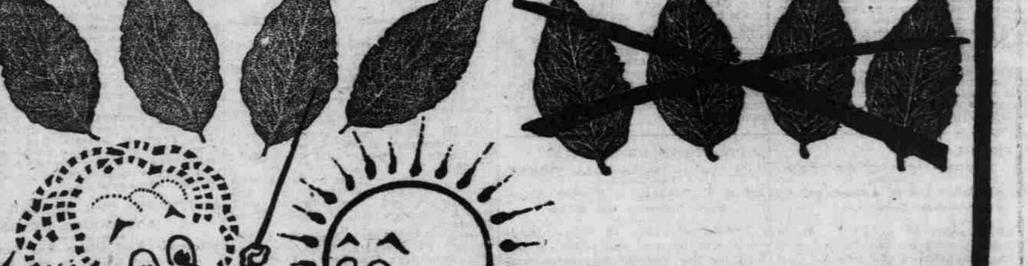

An amendment has been submitted amending the automobile laws, to require operators to dim the headlights when approaching other vehicles.

The senate on Monday confirmed the nomination of John A. Farrell to be postmaster at Westerly. Frank P. Lamb at Natick and John McKee at Warren.

For the accommodation of summer visitors, an amendatory act has been introduced to provide for the registration of automobiles for half year periods at half rates.

A bill has been introduced in the Rhode Island general assembly which provides for local boards of child welfare in each county of the state and for the granting of allowances to widowed mothers.

TOBACCO THAT'S JUST RIGHT FOR PERFECTIONS

Only Nature's choicest tobacco gets into Perfections.

No frills—no fancy business—and you don't want 'em either. You want a nickel's worth of SMOKES—not frills—for your 5c.

Every leaf of it is naturally good and full of the original, fresh taste that Nature put into it.

You get it in Perfections. You get tobacco that IS tobacco.

Perfections are famous for containing nothing but natural Virginia tobacco.

Why smoke something else not quite so good? Make a quick, happy change to Perfections because they're JUST NATURALLY GOOD
