The Bulletin Norwich, Saturday, Feb. 19, 1916. WEATHER Conditions. A storm that formed over the region of the Great Lakes Thursday night advanced eastward to the Atlantic coast and Friday night its center was over New England; it is moving rapidly eastward. This disturbance has been attended by snows and rains in New England and New York.

Storm warnings were displayed Friday morning on the Atlantic coast north of the Virginia capes and cold wave warnings have been ordered for the Atlantic states from North Carolina north to Maine. The indications are that the weather will be fair Saturday and Sunday generally east of the Mississippi river. Much colder weather is indicated for the Atlantic States. This change to colder weather will be of short duration, however, and the temperature will rise Sunday over the greater part of the country east of the Mississippi river.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be moderate to fresh to northwest gales; middle Atlantic northwest gales. Forecast. Northern New England: Snow, followed by clearing Saturday; colder with a cold wave; Sunday, fair. Southern New England: Eastern New York: Fair and colder with a cold wave Saturday; Sunday fair with rising temperature. Observations in Norwich. The following records reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday: Ther. Bar. 7 a. m. 28 29.88 10 " 27 29.91 12 " 27 29.92 6 p. m. 29 29.95 Highest 39, lowest 28.

GREENEVILLE Esther Goldblatt Saves Herself But Loses Slide—Personals and Notes. James McMahon, who has been located at Fort Worth, Tex., in the U. S. cavalry, has completed his enlistment and is at his home on Prospect street.

Grammar School Holds Exercises. The Greenville Grammar school held exercises in the assembly room at 1:15 o'clock Friday afternoon in commemoration of Washington's birthday. The following interesting programme was carried out by the scholars: Columbia the Gem of the Ocean, all the children; Elizabeth, Elizabeth, William Baker; Young George Washington, Esther Glessner; Boy Scout March, seventh grade; Crossed the Delaware, Stessie Rodsay; George Washington, Frances Danlowicz; W. W. Wood, eighth grade; George Washington, Benjamin Tilly; Sweet and Low, all grades; The Model Woman, Grace Young; The Stripes and the Stars, Robert Peckham; remarks, Mr. McNamara; Star Spangled Banner, all grades.

Escaped from Serious Accident. Esther Goldblatt, who was coasting on the Seventh street hill, nearly met with a serious accident Thursday afternoon. The child slid down the hill on to Central avenue just as a trolley was coming. Fortunately, she had presence of mind enough to roll from her sled to the ground. The sled went under the car and was demolished.

Personals. James Dixon was in town to make arrangements for building a new office for the Texas Oil company on White street.

Miss Helen Todd, who has been in Connecticut for nearly two weeks, has completed the schedule of suffrage meetings arranged for her in the southern counties. Tuesday she went into Windham county, where she will hold seven meetings between now and the afternoon and at Woodstock in the evening. On Friday Miss Todd spoke in the afternoon at Moxup and in the evening at the Willimantic opera house. Saturday afternoon Miss Todd will speak at a meeting in Miss Stevens' studio in Pomfret, and in the evening she will address a mass meeting in Danbury.

Honored by Classmates. Edward Francis Murray of Norwich Town, Conn., has been honored by his classmates at Trinity college by being elected president of the class of 1918. Murray is very popular on the college campus and last year played a star game at shortstop on the varsity baseball team. He is also a member of the Sophomore Dining club, the college year honorary society at the college.

EAGLE ARMORY SOLD AT AUCTION Was Purchased For $25,000 By Occum Resident Fifty Years Ago This Week—Grand Totals of Assessors' List Showed Houses Valued at $3,340,877 and Manufactories at $886,450.

The real estate of the Norwich Arms company, known as the Eagle armory, was sold at public auction 50 years ago to an Occum resident. The grand totals of the assessors' list after the abatement of the board of relief showed that the 1,788 dwellings in the city were valued at $2,340,877 and the manufactories valued at $886,450. While crossing the Preston bridge, a local resident, Mrs. John Ranigan, fell through a hole between the planking, badly injuring her left leg. The Central Baptist Sabbath school presented William H. H. Ellis a beautiful writing desk, gold pen and other articles of value.

Ice Broke Up in Shetucket. Wednesday, Feb. 14, 1866.—About 3 a. m. Tuesday the ice in the Shetucket broke up and was hurried into the Thames. The heaviest Monday night carried down the dam at Woodstock and also two tugs and a tugboat. The destruction to property was complete. Loss probably $50,000 or over. Today is Wednesday the first day of Lent, which lasts forty days, and is observed by Episcopalians and Roman churches as a special season of religious solemnity.

First Thunderstorm of Season. Thursday, Feb. 15, 1866.—The first thunderstorm of the season prevailed Wednesday night, and was severe enough for the season. The real estate of the Norwich Arms company, known as the Eagle Armory, of Greenfield was sold at auction today to the highest bidder. The advantages of this property have before been stated. The steamer Norwich which is reported to have been wrecked at her dock in New Orleans a few days since was a twin screw propeller built at that yard.

Eagle Armory Sold at Auction. The Eagle Armory and other real estate of the Norwich Arms Company of Greenfield was sold at auction Tuesday to H. R. Potter, engineer of the Occum company for $25,000. For what purpose the property is to be used or by whom occupied is not yet made public. A house standing near the depot of the Norwich and Worcester railroad on Thursday, became frightened by the approach of the 1:30 p. m. train and jumped over the track in front of the train. The horse with buggy attached kept on until he had passed under the Central Wharf bridge and approached the bridge. The horse and buggy were thrown over the bridge and the buggy was crushed.

MAY HOLD EXAMINATION FOR STATE CHIROPODISTS. Attorney General Answers Three Questions on Law Passed at Last Session of Legislature. The opinion which Attorney General George E. Hinman gave Thursday to Secretary M. S. Mandell of the state board of examiners in chiroprody is of special interest to those practicing chiroprody throughout the state. The attorney general answers three questions on the law as passed at the last session of the general assembly. Senator Bishop of Norwich recently introduced a bill which would amend the operation of the law as it applied to the granting of certificates, as he had a client who was aggrieved by the decision of the board.

REPORT SHOWS UNEXPENDED BALANCE OF $3,940.04. Over One Hundred Blind or Partially Blind in Three Departments of State Institution. The report of the state board of education for the blind for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30 has been submitted to Governor Holcomb. At the close of the year there were 107 blind or partially blind persons in the three departments of the institution in charge of the board. The appropriation of the general assembly for two years amounted to $47,000. The expenses for the past year amounted to $21,413.14. The amount for the previous year was $21,853.82. This left an unexpended balance of $25,586.86 from the appropriation, which has been turned back into the state treasury.

CONN. HARDWARE ASSOCIATION. Thirtieth Annual Conference to Be Held in Hartford Next Week—Officers to Be Elected. The 13th annual conference of the Connecticut Hardware association will be held in Hartford for two days, beginning Wednesday, Feb. 23. The banquet will be given at the Hotel Bunker. Officers to be elected are: President, Joseph H. Lawler, D. Fletcher Barber of Boston, president of the National Retail Hardware association, and Rev. Howard V. Russ, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Hartford.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE? When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer. The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparil, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system. Get it today.

MEDICAL EXAMINER FOR WHITE CROSS COUNCIL. Supreme Physician Buckley Gives Local Appointment to Dr. William T. Driscoll—Council Members Express Satisfaction. Dr. William T. Driscoll of No. 321 Main street has been appointed medical examiner for White Cross council, No. 13, Knights of Columbus. The appointment comes through Dr. E. W. Buckley of St. Paul, Minn., the supreme physician of the order. Dr. Driscoll was initiated into the order in New Jersey and later transferred his membership to the local council, and his appointment gives very general satisfaction to the members of the council, by whom he is highly esteemed.

Unclaimed Letters. The list of unclaimed letters in the Norwich postoffice for the week ending Feb. 19, 1916, is as follows: Mr. Biederman, Amaro L. Gomes, Josephina Hall, Frank Krupinski, Adeline Meehan, Mrs. A. C. Sellen, Oscar Sutherland. The Taftville second basketball team will play Hartford team at Taftville Saturday afternoon. The lineup: Taftville second team—Murphy and Edwards guard; Raymond's team—S. Raymond and J. Raymond forwards, Coleman center, Murphy and Hasbegg guards.

HASBEENS' SECOND DANCE WAS A BIG SUCCESS. Number Present from Out of Town—Attractive Decorations. The second dance given by the Hasbeens in Ponemah hall Friday evening was attended by a large crowd, about 300 being present. The hall was very attractive with white and blue lighting. Along the walls were signs appropriate for the occasion. At one end of the hall was the stage, which was decorated with white and blue lighting. At the right side of the stage was the programme of dances, all of which were given in the square and round dances. Across the top of the stage was a large sign, "Welcome." Situated on one side of the hall was the throne of the king, which was occupied by Prof. Tinkham.

PERSONALS AND NOTES. Mrs. M. D. Pruitt leaves tonight for a few days' visit in New York. The Soul of Broadway at the Hillcrest theatre today—adv. A sleigh party of 12 couples went to Baltic Thursday evening. Matthias Farfale has charge of the arrangements.

EVER HAVE IT? If You Have, the Statement of This Norwich Citizen Will Interest You. Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back? In the "small" right over the hips? That's the home of backache. If it's caused by weak kidneys, Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Norwich people testify to their worth. Read a case of it: Mrs. Catherine Hogan, 23 Hickory St., Norwich, says: "I was hobbling around day after day with aches and pains all through my back. I tried a number of medicines with no benefit. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me. My back is now as strong as ever." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mrs. Hogan. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
