DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON George W. Eastment Resigns as Brooklyn Town Treasurer—Over Forty Police Dogs Sold—Interest in Episcopal Mission—Funeral of William P. Law—Talk of Pony Polo.

George W. Eastment has filed his resignation with the selectmen of Brooklyn as treasurer of the town. Mr. Eastment contested with the selectmen a few months ago, in the courts, over where monies of the town should be deposited, but whether that affair which was adjudged by the courts, had anything to do with creating a feeling that would cause Mr. Eastment to disassociate himself from seven affairs cannot be learned, as he is away from home on a business trip.

J. Carl Witter was in Providence on Tuesday on a business trip. Miss Jean McKay of Roberts, Montross, has been the guest of Miss Eleanor of Hawkins street.

Mrs. Rosa Warren, who has been a patient in a Providence hospital, has returned to her home here.

Attended Norwich Show. Mrs. John Phillips of Wauregan was among the visitors from this section to the automobile show in Norwich Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Witter have returned from a visit in Providence.

Miss Conwell Resigns. Miss Ruth Conwell, in charge for several years of the commercial department of Killingly High school, has resigned.

Miss Ruth Gallup will act as an assistant in the department for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nado, Mr. and Mrs. Clapham Pelanger, Miss Susie Collins and other from the section attended the funeral of Charles L. Nado, at Pomfret Tuesday.

Painfully Buried. Mrs. S. C. Grass, who has been severely scalded by the overturning of a large can of hot coffee, is improving from the very painful injury.

John B. Williams of New London was a visitor with friends in Danielson Tuesday.

The case of Frank Edwards of South Killingly is expected to come to trial in the superior court at Putnam Thursday.

Coroner Investigating. Coroner A. G. Bill was in Putnam Tuesday investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Frank Bazillion, who was injured in a fight.

Prisoners from the jail were brought here, en route to Putnam for hearings in the superior court, in charge of deputy sheriffs Tuesday afternoon.

It is expected that Quineback Basketball league officials will take up the matter of Killingly's protest of last Saturday night's game with Putnam at a meeting today.

Second Vote For Major. A second vote is being taken this week for a major of the Coast Artillery corps. Captain E. L. Darbie, of the Thirtieth company, being the leading candidate and having the support of the officers of the Eastern Connecticut companies.

Sells Forty Police Dogs. Henri I. Baer, who has the police dog farm near East Killingly, was within a few weeks disposed of more than 40 of the animals, being shipped to many points throughout the country.

Digging Through Drifts. In some towns in this section men in the employ of the state were engaged Tuesday in digging through snow-drifts to the height of several feet, that gutters might be cleared before the thaw, which is beginning to set in.

Interest Shown in Mission. The interest that is being shown in the mission at St. Alban's here this week and in the meetings in the Episcopal churches in Putnam, Brooklyn, and other places, is being noted by those who have the success of the mission at heart. The attendance is expected to be very large throughout the week.

FUNERAL. William P. Law. At the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Dunfield, in East Killingly, on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, funeral services for William P. Law, 86, were conducted by Rev. E. E. Bland, pastor of the Union Baptist church.

Mr. Law was a life-long resident of East Killingly and was one of the best known citizens in that section of the town. Besides his daughter he leaves a son, William H. Law, of East Killingly.

Hazard of Sleighting. Sleighting is one of the postimes, or business propositions, that may be regarded as extra hazardous. For the past few days there has been repeatedly demonstrated on Main street, the going is pretty rough and uneven over the snow banks that line the east side of the street. There has been spill after spill, the most notable case being the upset of a big load of hay.

Big Plans For Elks' Entertainment. Local members of Putnam lodge of Elks will be out in force tomorrow night when they go to Putnam to be entertained by the brothers of Putnam lodge, to which the locals belong, resident of that city. It is whispered that this night will shine like a seventh magnitude star among the many big nights that Putnam lodge has to its credit and every other possible way of entertainment and "eat" is going to be provided to make all happy.

Pomfret May Have Pony Polo. Pony polo may be one of the sports introduced into Windham county this summer. The plan is under consideration by a wealthy summer resident of Pomfret. A forty-acre tract of beautiful land, available for the playing field and it has been looked upon with a view to adapting it to polo playing. Pony polo will be a decided novelty in this section where the expensive and exclusive game has heretofore been necessarily enjoyed by most people through the newspapers.

PUTNAM Thomas E. Gay Sent to Prison for Rape—Henry Trudeau, Embeszzler, to Buy Medicines for Sick Wife, Put on Probation—Divorces for Two Husbands—Frank Bazillion Dies as Result of Encounter With Adrian Breaute.

The March term of the superior court was opened here Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Judge Howard J. Curtis presiding. Prayer was offered by Rev. George D. Stanley of the Methodist church.

State Prison for Gay. Most of the criminal cases were of a minor nature and were disposed of by giving jail sentences of short length or by nolle. One man, Thomas E. Gay, Danielson, charged with attempted murder, was committed to himself on the mercy of the court, making a statement in his own behalf.

When Mr. Aldrich was asked to say what he cared to in favor of the defendant, he said: "I don't care anything to say; it is up to the court."

Minister Intercedes for Gay. Rev. A. E. Kimmoth said to the court that Gay had seemed to be impressed with the sermon he had heard him deliver a few weeks ago and confessed to him that he had seen the judgment in his past career and now desires to lead a better life.

Gay again addressed the court, pleading that he be placed on probation, and that he might have a chance to establish a home in Danielson, where he was recently married, for the second time, and to be permitted to see his wife and children, whom he could do what is right. "I feel sure that I can be what I want to be," he said.

Judge Henry E. Pack, who prosecuted Gay in the lower court, was asked to give his opinion on the case. Judge Pack said that it had been known to some Danielson people for the past two or three years that Gay had been in the habit of robbing, but no action had been taken against him because the object of his attack would not face the publicity that would follow the introduction of the case in court.

Assignment of Cases. Cases were assigned for trial as follows: First case next Tuesday, Phoebe Boutin vs. Mary Hardwick; second case Tuesday, Dechaud Nicholas et al. vs. Chaffee Brothers company; first case next Thursday, W. E. Labelle vs. Shore Line Railway company; second case Thursday, William Poquekette vs. John Phillips; third case Thursday, Harry A. Nichols et al. executors, vs. Antonion.

Pomfret Wife Proved Unworthy. An uncontested divorce, ground adultery, was granted to Arthur Carter from Clara A. E. Carter, Pomfret, by Judge E. E. Bland, here.

Frank Bazillion Dead. Injured in Quarrel With Adrian Breaute a Week Ago—Breaute in Jail Under $1,000 Bonds.

Frank Bazillion, who remained unconscious for nearly a week after engaging in a quarrel with Adrian Breaute a week ago last Sunday night, on Main street, near the Bugbee building, died at the Day-Kimball hospital, Monday night.

His death marks decidedly more serious the case against Breaute, who, on a charge of simple assault, is held at Brooklyn jail after being sent, under $1,000 bonds from the city court last week, to await developments in the case.

The body was removed to the rooms of an undertaker here and Tuesday afternoon was viewed by Medical Examiner Dr. F. A. Merrill and Coroner A. G. Bill, Danielson, who has ordered a burial.

It was stated by State Attorney Charles E. Searis Tuesday afternoon that Breaute will be brought into the superior court on a bench warrant and charged with manslaughter.

Breaute will plead self defense, it is understood to justify his attack on Bazillion. William Barrar is held at the jail as a witness of the fight that resulted in Bazillion's death.

FUNERAL. Charles L. Nado. The funeral of Charles L. Nado, formerly of Danielson, was held from the home of his father-in-law, Joseph Allard, in Pomfret at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning with services at Holy Trinity church, Rev. J. J. Fitz being celebrant of the high mass of requiem. The music of the mass was sung by the male choir of St. Mary's church, Putnam, relative from Worcester, Providence, Waterbury and Danielson attended the service. There were
