ANDRE DEAD AS RESULT OF INJURIES

Drove Through Window of Fast Express Train Enroute to New London. Joseph Andre, of Torrington, the man who jumped from an express train near Saybrook Junction Tuesday afternoon, died at the Lawrence hospital, New London, Wednesday afternoon.

Andre was in the custody of two special officers who were bringing him to the state hospital in this city, when he made his attempt to escape. He was riding in the rear of the train under a keen surveillance of the two officers when about 3.30 he asked permission to go to the toilet. He was accompanied as far as the door by one of the officers who held the door knob from the outside.

The door had scarcely been closed when Andre, instead of breaking glass and rushing through the door to the toilet, the officer was astounded to see that the window was broken and Andre was not in sight. Andre had plunged through the glass without stopping to open the window. Several months ago another lunatic jumped from an express train at Saybrook, using the same ruse of going to the toilet. On this occasion the man, who was a Pole, crawled out of the window and was seen to fall on his feet and managed to escape without serious injuries.

REACHED SETTLEMENT IN DAMAGE CASE.

Weeks Suit Against the Shore Line Is Dropped. The suit of Mabel Weeks of New London against the Shore Line Electric Co. for $10,000 damages for injuries received on a trolley mishap several months ago, was settled Wednesday and taken from the superior court docket. The case was down for trial in the superior court the plaintiff alleged that she received her injuries happened near Willetts avenue, New London. An open trolley of the defendant was going to Ocean Beach, when a control blew out on the road. The plaintiff claimed that she was badly frightened and that she suffered a severe shock to her nervous system.

FINDING IN NEW LONDON CASE.

Widow of Pietro Minucci Awarded $3,120 for Death of Her Husband. Josephine Minucci of No. 92 Smith street, New London, widow and dependent of Pietro Minucci, who was electrocuted while working on a roof on Washington street, New London, June 11, 1915, has been awarded compensation of $3,120, by Compensation Commissioner James J. Donohue of this city.

Minucci was employed by James A. Dolan & Co., of New London, he having entered the employ of the company on June 1, 1915. On June 11, 1915, he was working on the roof of a house at No. 25 Washington street, New London, when he came in contact with a live wire and was electrocuted. It was ascertained that his death arose out of and in the course of his employment.

NO AMERICAN SOLDIERS HAVE BEEN WOUNDED.

But Transport Trucks Return With Injured and Sick Men. Columbus, N. M., March 22.—Transport trucks returning here today from General Pershing's headquarters, brought four enlisted men in need of medical attention. Only two were seriously injured and these were taken on litters to Fort Bliss, Texas. Of these, P. M. Roberts, a private in Company C, Fourth Field Artillery, was suffering from pneumonia and William Brooks, a horseman in Troop M, Seventh Cavalry, was badly crushed by a fall from his horse, Colonel Diaz. The others were suffering from minor diseases.

Military leaders here denied persistent rumors of an overland march which American soldiers were held to have been wounded. It being ascertained that the cases received today were the first of any kind in the command. An additional field hospital corps and an ambulance company arrived in Columbus today and it is believed it will be sent to join the expeditionary column shortly.

Preparations were being made at the base hospital here today, establishment of medical supply depot for the troops in the field and also to establish a dental operating room. Reports received indicated that Lieutenant J. S. Brown of the aviation corps, who was seriously injured in a crash landing, was recovering.

CIGARETTES FOR SOLDIERS.

Four Hundred Sent to War Zone by Norwich Young Man. Among the articles sent from Norwich to the soldiers in the war zone, were 400 cigarettes contributed by Richard Tarrant and James Ibbelton to Corporal Kenneth Tobin, who is with the Canadian regiment.

Corporal Tobin formerly resided in Norwich, having moved to Canada a few years ago. When the war broke out he enlisted in the army and was the first Canadian troops to go to the front and he has seen a great deal of fighting.

GROUNDHOG OUT

Even the Snow Blockade Did Not Keep Him From Investigating Conditions. W. J. Towns of Spring Hill in the town of Mansfield, writes The Bulletin, under the date of the 22nd, as follows:

I was looking out of the window to see the snow fall, and what should I see but a woodchuck running through the front yard over the snow banks. I went out to see whether he had come from and he had dug out through a snow bank that was over his hole just a little way from the house.

Saves Money on Printing Bills.

Dr. John T. Black, secretary of the state board of health, has adopted the policy of inviting bids for the printing of his department and he finds that by it he has saved one-third in the cost. He has decided to publish the monthly bulletin of the board on the twentieth instead of the first of the month. This change in date will, it is hoped, be found more convenient for town officials and physicians making reports. It will, besides, effect a substantial saving in the printing bill of the board by discontinuing the practice of making changes in the proofs of the bulletin after the matter had been set up in type.

State Coal From New Haven Road, Constable E. C. Black made two arrests Tuesday, taking into custody two Navy Yard residents, George

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very irritating. The plain refined cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two spoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get purified cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last a year in the family or month.

CARRANZA TROOPS ALIGN WITH VILLA

here was that if Herrera has joined Villa the international situation might be so complex that by comparison the pursuit of Villa would be regarded as incidental.

Believes it a "Border Rumor."

Consul Beltran of Carranza's government received no report of the reported revolt of Herrera and he was inclined to laugh at it as a "border rumor." According to the version reaching here, Herrera was removed on Monday from command and immediately took steps to alienate his garrison.

That Carranza has enough loyal troops in northern Mexico to drive him from the city of Chihuahua if he attempts to hold that place, was believed by military men here, but it was feared that retention of Chihuahua would not be his plan.

May Have Cut Wires.

Military observers here see a possible connection in Herrera's alleged revolt with the interruption of wire service between Casas Grandes and Juarez yesterday and the wire cutting today between Ojinaga opposite Presidio, and Torreon. It was suggested that the persons who cut the wires between Casas Grandes and Juarez might have thought that they were being used by General Pershing for communication with General Funston.

DISAFFECTION REPORTED AMONG CARRANZA TROOPS.

Border Men Believe They Are Not Giving Real Cooperation. El Paso, Texas, March 22.—The silence which for two days has enveloped the Mexican situation as far as any definite news of the pursuit of Francisco Villa is concerned, gave fresh force today to the numerous reports from various sources of grave disaffection among the Carranza troops.

On the border, at least, it is firmly believed that the soldiers of the first chief are far from giving any real cooperation to the American expeditionary force. It is admitted that General Carranza and some of his lieutenants are sincerely anxious to avoid friction with the United States but it is not believed that the head of the defacto government represents the attitude or sentiments of his army or fellow citizens.

Claimed Wires Were Cut.

Since yesterday morning General Gavira at Juarez has claimed that the wires along the Mexican Northwestern railroad between Juarez and Casas Grandes have been cut and that consequently he could give no information in regard to the reported battle at Namiquipa between the Carranza and Villa forces.

American here, especially refugees from Mexico, are skeptical both as to the reported battle and the cut wires. They point out that severed communication is one of the most familiar ruses used by Mexican officials when they wish to withhold information and that it is strange that the wires to Casas Grandes, a distance of only 130 miles, along a railroad, could not be repaired in two days' time.
