

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties

New London County

GLASGO

Work to Start on New Cement Storehouse—Ladies' Aid Society Entertained.

As soon as the weather will permit, work will be commenced on the new stockhouse for the American Press company. It will be made of cement blocks.

Thomas Eccleston and family will occupy the tenement recently vacated by Mrs. Hall.

Peter Mitchell and family, who a few years ago moved to Williamsville, have come to the village to reside.

Mrs. Harriet Palmer is visiting friends in New York for a few days. J. G. Bill was a guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Eccleston.

Notwithstanding the bad traveling there was a good attendance at the Ladies' Aid society meeting held at Mrs. E. H. Clark's Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting in two weeks will be at the home of Mrs. P. J. Gustafson.

Rev. John Thompson is the guest of Norwich town friends while in attendance at the N. E. conference.

At the last quarterly conference of the Bethel church there was a unanimous vote for the return the coming year of Rev. Mr. Thompson.

Children Contributing to Battleship Fund. Considerable enthusiasm is manifested among the children in Glasgo school over the invitation of Marjorie Sterrett a 13 year old schoolgirl of Brooklyn, to contribute a dime to help build a battleship which she wishes to be called America.

The last contest game was played at the Burnet's Corners school Friday afternoon. The Excelsiors played an excellent game and defeated the varsity, 14 to 8.

Guets of Miss Brown. Miss Mildred Brown entertained the following young friends Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Brown, to celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Funerals of Mrs. Susan Crumb. The funeral services of Susan Crumb, who died in Preston, were held Friday, with burial in Preston City cemetery. Mrs. Crumb was a former resident of this town.

Frank Gardner was elected a delegate to the S. E. conference from the Voluntown M. E. church.

NORTH STONINGTON

Recent Pruning Demonstrations—Republican Caucus Held Thursday.

Rev. O. D. Fisher, superintendent of the Congregational Sunday school, conducted an interesting review of the lessons of the quarter at the session of the school last Sunday. All the classes participated in the exercises.

Guests at Hating Farms. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tinker, pleasantly entertained a large party of relatives and friends Saturday evening with music and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Annual Meeting. The United Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church held the annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at the parish house. The secretary read the annual report and the roll was called.

News in General. Prof. William G. Park, who teaches at the Epworth school, is spending the Spring vacation at his summer home Seaview cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamilton Smith have returned to New Haven after a visit to Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldredge.

The Old Mystic schools closed Tuesday for the teachers to visit other schools.

A large flock of wild geese passed over the village Monday about noon, flying in a northerly direction.

Miss Nellie Schoonover has returned to Elmhurst after a visit to the Misses Wilcox of Milford.

George Sawicki and daughter, Miss Mildred Sawicki of Stafford Springs, were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kiswick.

John W. Shank in Old Mystic. Monday evening the Epworth League of the Methodist church held a business meeting followed by a social. The affair was in the Sunday school room and was well attended.

Charles S. Johnson has hired Charles Howard as head farmer on his farm at a short time on account of illness, and is at her home in Hamburg.

Miss Jessie Harding spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding.

The dancing class met Tuesday evening. George Wilkie, who is attending school in Hartford is spending a few days with his parents at Ely's Ferry.

Rachel and Jewett Tiffany, who are attending school in Deep River are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tiffany.

Mrs. Harry Clark and daughters of North Lyme, were Sterling City visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. Leonard Otis is entertaining her sisters, Maggie and Minnie Tynan, of Jewett City.

Miss Elsie Rich and children of Northampton, Mass., were in the past week at her home in Sterling City.

FRANKLIN

Mrs. Lavinia A. Robinson and grandson Arad Robinson were in Williamstown Saturday.

OLD MYSTIC

Entertaining Program at Shamrock Social—Methodist Pastor at Norwich Conference—United Workers' Annual Meeting.

Rev. Fred Eugene Coburn preached last Sunday morning from the subject, His Witnesses. The subject of the sermon was Out of This Tribulation.

Rev. William Crawford preached last Sunday morning from the subject, Some Directions for Profitably Hearing the Gospel. The subject of the evening sermon was Discouragement and Its Cure.

A shamrock social was held Friday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League, at the parish house. The room was prettily decorated. Dinner was served from 6 p. m. to 10. The following program was rendered: Vocal solo, She's the Daughter of Mother McCreary, Miss Fay Johnson, pianist, Miss Mildred Peckham, reading, What the Little Girl Said, Miss Charlotte Marchand; vocal solo, Ireland is Ireland for Me, Theodore Johnson, pianist, Arched reading, I'm a Soldier, Miss Butler and the Owl, Miss Mildred Peckham; piano solo, Tam of Shanter, Miss Della Williams. The following musicians played a number of selections: Pianist, Louis P. Mitchell; first violinist, George Koch; second violinist, William W. Mitchell; banjoist, Joseph Mitchell; drummer, Elisha N. Davis, games were greatly enjoyed.

The last contest game was played at the Burnet's Corners school Friday afternoon. The Excelsiors played an excellent game and defeated the varsity, 14 to 8.

Guets of Miss Brown. Miss Mildred Brown entertained the following young friends Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Brown, to celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Funerals of Mrs. Susan Crumb. The funeral services of Susan Crumb, who died in Preston, were held Friday, with burial in Preston City cemetery. Mrs. Crumb was a former resident of this town.

Frank Gardner was elected a delegate to the S. E. conference from the Voluntown M. E. church.

Recent Pruning Demonstrations—Republican Caucus Held Thursday.

Rev. O. D. Fisher, superintendent of the Congregational Sunday school, conducted an interesting review of the lessons of the quarter at the session of the school last Sunday. All the classes participated in the exercises.

Guests at Hating Farms. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tinker, pleasantly entertained a large party of relatives and friends Saturday evening with music and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Annual Meeting. The United Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church held the annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at the parish house. The secretary read the annual report and the roll was called.

News in General. Prof. William G. Park, who teaches at the Epworth school, is spending the Spring vacation at his summer home Seaview cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamilton Smith have returned to New Haven after a visit to Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldredge.

The Old Mystic schools closed Tuesday for the teachers to visit other schools.

A large flock of wild geese passed over the village Monday about noon, flying in a northerly direction.

Miss Nellie Schoonover has returned to Elmhurst after a visit to the Misses Wilcox of Milford.

George Sawicki and daughter, Miss Mildred Sawicki of Stafford Springs, were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kiswick.

John W. Shank in Old Mystic. Monday evening the Epworth League of the Methodist church held a business meeting followed by a social. The affair was in the Sunday school room and was well attended.

Charles S. Johnson has hired Charles Howard as head farmer on his farm at a short time on account of illness, and is at her home in Hamburg.

Miss Jessie Harding spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding.

The dancing class met Tuesday evening. George Wilkie, who is attending school in Hartford is spending a few days with his parents at Ely's Ferry.

Rachel and Jewett Tiffany, who are attending school in Deep River are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tiffany.

Mrs. Harry Clark and daughters of North Lyme, were Sterling City visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. Leonard Otis is entertaining her sisters, Maggie and Minnie Tynan, of Jewett City.

Miss Elsie Rich and children of Northampton, Mass., were in the past week at her home in Sterling City.

Poor Success With Incubator Hatching This Spring.

Cassius Collins and son, Clay P. Collins were callers on Pendleton Hill Tuesday.

Frank Tillinghast is to have a telephone the poles are already in position.

Oscar Perry, who is employed at the home of his parents, Mrs. J. J. Perry, is hatching with incubators report poor success this year, only one-half of the eggs turning out chickens.

Thomas Wheeler called on friends in Clark's Falls Wednesday evening. Mr. Wheeler visited his uncle, Nathan Wilbur at Tomagoag recently.

John Fields of Fitchville was a business caller here during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Pritch Johnson were in Norwich Tuesday.

Traveling in this part of the town has been very bad. The mail carrier found it too dangerous to make a drive through the drifts which were not shoveled out. Local people ask for passable roads in return for taxes and other town dues.

Arthur Mahoney was home from Norwich over Sunday. Charles Browning has been a recent visitor with his brother, who is ill.

UNCAVILLE

Fire at Home of Mrs. Annie Donohue—Charles L. Hubbard Buys Potter Property—Accident to William Webster.

The Good Cheer Sunshine society met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wilson Thursday. The afternoon was spent making pillow cases and towels which will be sent to the Arthur home for blind babies at Summit, N. J. Mrs. Wilson served refreshments.

At the Thursday afternoon club's meeting most of the time was devoted to the Women's Home Mission class. Mrs. Ralph H. Moler was the speaker. The program consisted of interesting papers on different branches of the work of the society is doing. A paper read by Mrs. John E. Lathrop gave an interesting explanation of the work of the society is doing. A paper read by Mrs. John E. Lathrop gave an interesting explanation of the work of the society is doing.

Employed at Castleton. Walter Burgess, who has been employed in the C. M. Robertson big box shop has discontinued working for the firm and is with a firm in Castleton, N. Y., leaving town Friday night for Castleton.

Found House Afire. Upon returning home Thursday morning from mass at St. John's Roman Catholic church, Mrs. Annie Donohue found her house a fire. The woodwork around the stove had caught. With the help of some of her neighbors the fire was put out but a great deal of damage was done.

Address on Woodcraft. Cochean Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. District Deputy George F. Baldwin of Providence gave an interesting address on Woodcraft. Norman Lathrop is spending a while in Willimantic for rest and change after an illness.

Dr. Elmer Wood, who has been ill for several weeks, is improving.

Charles L. Hubbard of Norwich has purchased the property of Hadley Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Potter will vacate the place about April 1, moving to Norwich.

Accident After 45 Years. William Webster, machinist at the Palmer Bros. Co.'s mill, while at work on the planing machine, caught the fingers of his left hand in the gear, decorating two of the fingers badly. Mr. Webster a few days ago rounded up the mill and this is the first time he has been seriously hurt.

The household goods of John Schwick were moved to Tatfield recently, he having obtained work there. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hickey entertained Friday, Nellie O'Connell and granddaughter of Hartford.

Dr. George Gilberts of New Haven spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Martha Gilbert.

Sunday School Pupils Entertained. Friday evening the Sunday school pupils of Mrs. Jennie Phillips met at her home and were pleasantly entertained. Music was enjoyed and games played. A peanut hunt furnished much amusement, the prizes going to Robert Dodds and Miss Fannie Smith. Those present were Miss Ethel Bennett, Miss Anna Austin, Misses Alice and Ruth Osborn, Miss Ruth Davis, Miss Lillian Sawyer, Misses May and Fannie Smith, Miss Grace Keyes, Earl Holmes, Lathrop Miller, George Miller, Robert Dodds, William Lund, Louis Phillips and several others. Sandwiches, cocoa and cake were served.

Clarence Wood, who has been the guest of his mother for several days, has returned to his home in Derby.

Work on the Waldon property recently purchased by Morris Freeman, is progressing nicely. Mr. Freeman expects to move in about two weeks.

Mrs. George Hewitt is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Lane and son, Carl Lane.

Surprise Party. A surprise party was given Miss Eloise Landphere Monday evening in celebration of her birthday which occurred Sunday. Miss Landphere was remembered with a number of pretty gifts besides a beautiful bouquet of roses. The evening was spent in playing games and several selections of music. Miss Landphere served refreshments. Miss Ruth Burgess, Miss Minnie Chapel, Miss Carrie and Ethel Wood, Miss Ruth Bergman, Miss Reuben Rogers and Miss May Church were among those present. Miss Reuben Austin has obtained work in New London at the Brown Cotton Gin Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Killeen entertained at their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crandall, of New London.

At St. John's Roman Catholic church the Lenten devotions Wednesday night were conducted by Rev. Edward Quinn of Waterbury. The service Friday evening consisted of the Stations of the Cross, followed by benediction.

League Meets. Monday evening the Epworth League of the Methodist church held a business meeting followed by a social. The affair was in the Sunday school room and was well attended.

Charles S. Johnson has hired Charles Howard as head farmer on his farm at a short time on account of illness, and is at her home in Hamburg.

Miss Jessie Harding spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding.

The dancing class met Tuesday evening. George Wilkie, who is attending school in Hartford is spending a few days with his parents at Ely's Ferry.

Rachel and Jewett Tiffany, who are attending school in Deep River are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tiffany.

Mrs. Harry Clark and daughters of North Lyme, were Sterling City visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. Leonard Otis is entertaining her sisters, Maggie and Minnie Tynan, of Jewett City.

Miss Elsie Rich and children of Northampton, Mass., were in the past week at her home in Sterling City.

Poor Success With Incubator Hatching This Spring.

Cassius Collins and son, Clay P. Collins were callers on Pendleton Hill Tuesday.

Frank Tillinghast is to have a telephone the poles are already in position.

Oscar Perry, who is employed at the home of his parents, Mrs. J. J. Perry, is hatching with incubators report poor success this year, only one-half of the eggs turning out chickens.

Thomas Wheeler called on friends in Clark's Falls Wednesday evening. Mr. Wheeler visited his uncle, Nathan Wilbur at Tomagoag recently.

John Fields of Fitchville was a business caller here during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Pritch Johnson were in Norwich Tuesday.

Traveling in this part of the town has been very bad. The mail carrier found it too dangerous to make a drive through the drifts which were not shoveled out. Local people ask for passable roads in return for taxes and other town dues.

Arthur Mahoney was home from Norwich over Sunday. Charles Browning has been a recent visitor with his brother, who is ill.

NIANTIC

Death of Timothy Kelley—Repairs to be Made About Congregational Church—Grove Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Parks of Penn avenue still move to New London soon. Howard Wadsworth has returned to his home in Meriden after a short visit here.

Enford Rogers has been entertaining a friend from Hartford. Arthur Atkinson has returned from a visit to relatives in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Burial of Timothy Kelley. The body of Timothy F. Kelley was taken to New London Tuesday morning for burial in St. Mary's cemetery. Mr. Kelley died at his home in York avenue about 8 o'clock Sunday morning. He was 63 years of age and had been ill some time.

Improvements will be made about the Congregational church as soon as the weather permits. There have been some donations for the work.

Pine Grove Notes. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robbins, who are passing the winter in Auburn, Maine, are expected in the Grove in a short time. It is understood Mrs. Robbins has leased the restaurant for the coming season.

R. L. Manwaring has concluded a visit to relatives in Meriden and is assisting his son, Norman E. Manwaring, in moving from New York to his new residence at Freeport, L. I.

Mr. Wadsworth has finished work on his new cottage and has returned to his home in Hartford.

Francis Matthews of Hartford is making visits to friends in New London. Mr. Matthews is a summer visitor to the Grove.

Mr. Ellen V. Weil has been entertaining her brother from Providence, R. I. at her bungalow in the Pines.

Mrs. Anna Wood, who has been ill for several weeks, is improving.

Charles L. Hubbard of Norwich has purchased the property of Hadley Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Potter will vacate the place about April 1, moving to Norwich.

Accident After 45 Years. William Webster, machinist at the Palmer Bros. Co.'s mill, while at work on the planing machine, caught the fingers of his left hand in the gear, decorating two of the fingers badly. Mr. Webster a few days ago rounded up the mill and this is the first time he has been seriously hurt.

The household goods of John Schwick were moved to Tatfield recently, he having obtained work there. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hickey entertained Friday, Nellie O'Connell and granddaughter of Hartford.

Dr. George Gilberts of New Haven spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Martha Gilbert.

Sunday School Pupils Entertained. Friday evening the Sunday school pupils of Mrs. Jennie Phillips met at her home and were pleasantly entertained. Music was enjoyed and games played. A peanut hunt furnished much amusement, the prizes going to Robert Dodds and Miss Fannie Smith. Those present were Miss Ethel Bennett, Miss Anna Austin, Misses Alice and Ruth Osborn, Miss Ruth Davis, Miss Lillian Sawyer, Misses May and Fannie Smith, Miss Grace Keyes, Earl Holmes, Lathrop Miller, George Miller, Robert Dodds, William Lund, Louis Phillips and several others. Sandwiches, cocoa and cake were served.

Clarence Wood, who has been the guest of his mother for several days, has returned to his home in Derby.

Work on the Waldon property recently purchased by Morris Freeman, is progressing nicely. Mr. Freeman expects to move in about two weeks.

Mrs. George Hewitt is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Lane and son, Carl Lane.

Surprise Party. A surprise party was given Miss Eloise Landphere Monday evening in celebration of her birthday which occurred Sunday. Miss Landphere was remembered with a number of pretty gifts besides a beautiful bouquet of roses. The evening was spent in playing games and several selections of music. Miss Landphere served refreshments. Miss Ruth Burgess, Miss Minnie Chapel, Miss Carrie and Ethel Wood, Miss Ruth Bergman, Miss Reuben Rogers and Miss May Church were among those present. Miss Reuben Austin has obtained work in New London at the Brown Cotton Gin Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Killeen entertained at their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crandall, of New London.

At St. John's Roman Catholic church the Lenten devotions Wednesday night were conducted by Rev. Edward Quinn of Waterbury. The service Friday evening consisted of the Stations of the Cross, followed by benediction.

League Meets. Monday evening the Epworth League of the Methodist church held a business meeting followed by a social. The affair was in the Sunday school room and was well attended.

Charles S. Johnson has hired Charles Howard as head farmer on his farm at a short time on account of illness, and is at her home in Hamburg.

Miss Jessie Harding spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding.

The dancing class met Tuesday evening. George Wilkie, who is attending school in Hartford is spending a few days with his parents at Ely's Ferry.

Rachel and Jewett Tiffany, who are attending school in Deep River are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tiffany.

Mrs. Harry Clark and daughters of North Lyme, were Sterling City visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. Leonard Otis is entertaining her sisters, Maggie and Minnie Tynan, of Jewett City.

Miss Elsie Rich and children of Northampton, Mass., were in the past week at her home in Sterling City.

Poor Success With Incubator Hatching This Spring.

Cassius Collins and son, Clay P. Collins were callers on Pendleton Hill Tuesday.

Frank Tillinghast is to have a telephone the poles are already in position.

Oscar Perry, who is employed at the home of his parents, Mrs. J. J. Perry, is hatching with incubators report poor success this year, only one-half of the eggs turning out chickens.

HANOVER

Men's Club Elects Officers—Next Conference of Six Churches to be Held at Jewett City.

The committee of the Men's club of the Congregational church reported the list of nominations for officers Sunday and the following were elected: President, John E. Selune; vice president, Law Armitage; secretary, Ralph D. Standish; treasurer, Charles M. Harrison. A special meeting of the club and all men of the congregation will be addressed by Rev. Arthur Varley of Tatfield next Tuesday evening.

Next Conference at Jewett City. The conference of six churches will be held at Jewett City Congregational church, Wednesday April 6th, with sermon in the morning by Rev. Mr. Reynolds, of Lisbon; after noon, speakers are Rev. Charles H. Hyde of Norwich, and George H. Hylke of Norwich Town.

Supper and Play. The Ladies' Guild held a supper at the vestry Wednesday evening. The entertainment consisted of choruses by the C. E. double quartet and a drama, "Aunt Deborah's First Luncheon." The entertainers were Mrs. M. J. Travers, Mrs. Nellie Dwyson, Miss Elizabeth Travers, Miss Ruth Abelar, Mrs. Warfield, Mrs. Alice Davidson, Mrs. Cartwright, Miss Gladys Crombie, Annette, Miss Euphemia Souter; Mary, Miss Georgiana Souter; Mrs. Deborah Smith, Miss Ella Abelar.

Back from Elm City. Mrs. James Bennett has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Andrews in New Haven.

Mrs. F. G. Gray and daughters, Elizabeth and Frances, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Park, Mrs. Gray is recovering from an illness contracted at Westley, R. I. by the illness of her granddaughter, Miss Mahon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan A. Bennett have returned to their home after a week's stay in New York.

That is all we ask for Murad. That is all Murad desires.

Above all, give them the Murad message: Judge for yourself—compare Murad with any 25 Cent Cigarette

SALEM. No-wich Minister Preaches at Congregational Church—Personal Mention.

Rev. J. O. Barrows of Norwich Town preached in the Congregational church Sunday morning. Mr. Barrows was called by the Y. P. S. C. E. service Sunday evening was led by the vice-president, Miss Mabel Jew.

Rev. Laurence Frink of Norwich will occupy the pulpit tomorrow (Sunday) morning.

James Beebe was a recent caller in Norwich. Sherwood Miner and son, Charles spent Sunday with relatives in Millington.

Mrs. Edgar Beebe and daughter, and Archie Francis, of New London, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Webster, at Hillside Farm.

Henry Darling of New London was a week-end guest at the home of his aunt, Miss Ella Darling.

Arthur Porter of New Haven spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Murray and son, Ronald, were callers in Borrah recently.

Miss Lida Darling of New London spent Sunday with relatives in town.

At East Great Plain. Master Charles Miner is spending the week-end at the home of his uncle, Wellington Miner, at East Great Plain. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogers and son Lester were Colchester callers Monday.

Charles Ray of Colchester was at Crystal Spring Farm, Tuesday.

North Franklin. Birthday Party for Effie Ladd—Twenty Have Sleighride to Lebanon.

Miss Effie Ladd entertained a few young friends Friday, it being her fifth birthday.

Mrs. Cruthers of Norwich spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Miss Lydia Johnson is spending two weeks in West Hartford, the guest of Mrs. Josephine Hart.

Mrs. Mary Rogers of Norwich is spending several weeks with Mrs. J. L. Simpson.

Misses Dorothy and Florence Loomis and Fred Abel of Lebanon, and Royce Dan of Ferris Institute of Brooklyn, N. Y., were callers on Mrs. Emma Warner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers and daughter Barbara were dinner guests Sunday of Miss Blanche Spencer.

Miss Helen Comagoe was a recent guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. W. Geer of Norwich.

Mrs. Albert Stiles was a guest one day last week at Mrs. William Smith's, Sleightide to Lebanon.

Reuben Manning took a party of twenty on a sleighride Saturday evening to Lebanon, where they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fuller.

At Social Corner Gathering. Mrs. Frank Tracy, Mrs. Frank Rockwood and Mrs. Fred Race attended the Social Corner gathering Thursday at Aunt Abby's, Norwich Town.

Wages Increased. A notice was given by the Palmer Bros. Co. of an increase of 5 per cent in wages of the employes, to take effect Monday, beginning March 27.

PRESTON. E. B. Burdick is moving from the Dwight Benjamin place to the Myers place.

Beacon N. A. Brown is visiting among friends here.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church met at the vestry Wednesday afternoon. The Ecclesiastical society held a meeting at the same time.

Shelton Keniston is spending his vacation at his father's, Rev. L. M. Keniston.

Robins in stocks and Phoebe birds have made their appearance as though spring had come at last. Monday a large flock of wild geese were seen.

Advertisement for Murad Turkish Cigarettes. Features a large illustration of a pack of cigarettes and the text: 'To Murad Smokers You know the facts about Murad. You know why more Murad are smoked than any other high-grade cigarette. You know it is because Murad at 15 Cents is better than many 25 Cent cigarettes. Smokers of Murad, we ask you to do us and your friends a favor by telling them these things. We ask you to give them the real facts—the plain truth about Murads as you know it. That is all we ask for Murad. That is all Murad desires. Above all, give them the Murad message: Judge for yourself—compare Murad with any 25 Cent Cigarette. REMEMBER—Turkish tobacco is the world's most famous tobacco for cigarettes. FIFTEEN CENTS. EVERYWHERE WHY? MURAD THE TURKISH CIGARETTE. Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.'

of Rixtown, were recent callers in North Stonington. Clarence Palmer of Wetherfield has been visiting relatives in town. Mrs. L. Welton and son Gus, who have been at their farm here during the week. Mrs. Charles Palmer and Miss Lucy Irene Pierce of North Stonington, were Sunday callers at Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Main's. E. H. Clark and children Henry, Stephen and Evelyn, of Rixtown, were Sunday callers on Mrs. Julia A. Crumb and C. F. Hayward. S. Ahlberg recently lost his horse