CHANCELLOR DEFINES GERMANY'S ATTITUDE

Peace Impossible On the Basis of Destruction of Prussian Military Power

NO MEASURE CONTEMPLATED AGAINST AMERICA

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg Declares if Germany's Adversaries Desire to Continue the Slaughter and Devastation of Europe the Guilt Will be Theirs—Must Have Guarantee That Belgium Shall Never be Used as a Military or Economic Fortification Against Germany—Infantry of Both Sides is Quiet Everywhere in France—In Russia the Germans Have Taken Up the Offensive.

The German imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, in outlining the attitude of Germany before the Reichstag, declared that any suggestion of peace on the basis of destruction of the Prussian military power would make possible only an answer—the German sword. If Germany's adversaries desired to continue the slaughter of men and the devastation of Europe the guilt would be theirs, he said.

case of attempted blockade running, the officials here contending that a steamer from Para for New York could never have gotten so far off her course. This is the first seizure made by the admiralty of a complete cargo of rubber.

He characterized as "the silliest of all the imputations" the report that the war Germany would take measures against the American continent and attempt to conquer Canada.
