JITNEY KNOCKED DOWN TWO.

Car Driven by Joseph Hochberg Bumps Into Robert Pickett and Traffic Officer Paulhus.

In attempting to turn around at the corner of Railroad and Main streets Thursday afternoon at 4:15, Joseph Hochberg, driving a jitney, ran down Robert Pickett and Traffic Officer Paulhus. Officer Paulhus said that he was standing in his usual place in the center of the street when Hochberg, whose car was standing on Railroad street, near Hurley & Grant's store, held out his hand, signifying his intention of turning around on to Main street. Just at this time Mr. Pickett was crossing Main street and Officer Paulhus stopped to come along. Hochberg did not seem to understand driving a car very well, for in turning he did not make a wide enough turn and ran into Mr. Pickett and Officer Paulhus.

The car knocked Mr. Pickett to the pavement and pinned him down and it was necessary to lift the car to release him. Officer Paulhus was knocked down and dragged a short distance. Hochberg has a license to drive an automobile and also to drive a jitney. It was said that this was his first day in the jitney business.

He will appear before the police court this morning to answer to the charge of reckless driving. He is 39 years of age, the son of Isaac Hochberg of 181 Main street.

Officer Paulhus was only slightly injured, his knees being scraped and his clothes torn.

Mr. Pickett was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where it was said that the only injuries he could find were scratches on his face and hands.

It is not known at present whether he is internally injured or not. He will be kept at the hospital for a few days to determine the extent of his injuries.

Can't Find Dandruff.

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Danderine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store and save your hair. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch.

Lays an Egg, or Else is Merely Bluffing—Given a Chance for Life.

Maurice Davis of 65 Chestnut street on Monday of this week purchased two Rhode Island Red roosters which he intends fattening for the closing Sunday of the Passover. During his residence on Chestnut street he says that he never has kept poultry and the sole occupants of the coop since Monday noon were the two roosters. Early Thursday morning he was awakened by a loud crowing of one of the birds. On visiting the coop he found one of the roosters sitting on old deserted nest. Lifting the rooster out of the nest, he found an egg. He has interviewed a number of local poultry experts, but they say that it is beyond them. Mr. Davis says that if the bird lays another egg before Sunday his life will be spared and he will enter him in the international egg laying contest at Storrs.

Football Games May Be Postponed.

It is doubtful whether there will be any spring football here, as it is thought that none of the neighboring football clubs will organize. It was expected that a series of games would be played between Plainfield and Willimantic for the Lee Clegg trophy which was won by Willimantic in 1914, when the Olympics of Plainfield were organized, but it is now thought that this series will fall through. If a series could be arranged between these two clubs the games should be close and interesting for athletes. Willimantic landed in the last place in the Eastern Connecticut Football league and Plainfield won the Bulletin cup, the trophy of this league, for the second time, the game which the Willimantic team, reorganized, played in the last place in the league was the best. They defeated the Plainfield team, which finished in second place, in good shape, and in their last game were defeated by the Plainfield champs after a hard struggle, the score being 3 to 2. These facts should prove that the Willimantic team should be able to put up a hard fight against the local team, should they meet.
