

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County

EKONK

Supper and Social—School Closed Because of Measles.

Rev. Emmons White spent Sunday at Washington, D. C. The pulpit here was supplied by Mr. Woodbury, another Yale student.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Vacation Ends.

Miss Minda Tanner, Miss Esther Allen, Miss Elsie Brown, Miss Julia Ayres and Alfred Pratt returned to their schools Monday after spending their Easter recess at their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

Madeline Gallup returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Providence.

The measles patients are doing well, at school is still closed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner of Rochester were week end visitors at George Tanner's.

CANTERBURY GREEN

Putnam Pastor to Preach Tomorrow—Easter and Fast Day Services—Easter Meeting at Mrs. Clinton Frink's.

Rev. F. D. Sargent of Putnam is to preach Sunday at the Green. Easter music will be in the order of service.

Next Sunday at the Green, Easter music will be in the order of service.

Michael Laudeck, with one of the largest farms in town, is going out of the milk business.

WESTMINSTER

Easter Exercises—Everybody at Church Sunday Tomorrow.

Mrs. S. Finley has returned to the city after spending Easter with her relatives at Rosedale villa.

Mr. B. Foster has left for New York. The Ladies' Aid society plan for the next meeting Tuesday afternoon, May 2, at the parsonage.

Everybody at Church Sunday

Next Sunday, April 30, is being made everybody-at-church day for the entire town, by the three local churches.

EVERETT

Levever Barrill of East Putnam, has set his steam mill on Vernon Robbins' wood lot and expects to commence sawing the lumber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain were in Webster Tuesday.

Mr. Jerry Moffitt and Master Richard Forest, have been visiting Mrs. Moffitt's brother, Frank Chamberlain, at the M. E. parsonage.

Vernon Jepson is having the water led into his house from a good spring nearby.

Chester Mathewson has purchased some of the lumber from the house of the late C. C. Corbin, of Webster, which is being torn down, to be used in the house which he is soon to erect in place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

WILSONVILLE

Miss Annie Monast is visiting relatives in Worcester.

Mrs. B. S. Upham was a Worcester visitor, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Adams were in Webster, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard of Webster, and Miss Patricia of Worcester, were with their sister, Mrs. James Kelly, Tuesday.

Harold Adams of Hartford is visiting his father, Irving Adams.

Mrs. Brightman's daughter and son's wife have returned to their home, after a few days' visit with their mother.

Mrs. Knowlton of Boston, has been visiting local friends the past week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Douglas has returned after spending several weeks in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Kegan entertained her two sisters from Lynn, Mass., over Easter.

Francis Philip and John Monast are at work in Worcester.

B. S. Upham is making repairs on his house and grounds, installing steam heat and all modern conveniences in the house.

PACKER

Thomas J. Brown visited in New London Sunday.

Phil Simino and George Simino of Taftville spent the week end with Philip Simino.

Supervisor Barber of Putnam visited school Wednesday.

Alfred Penault of Norwich visited relatives here Sunday.

Henry Simino visited friends in Taftville Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Douglas has returned after spending several weeks in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Kegan entertained her two sisters from Lynn, Mass., over Easter.

Francis Philip and John Monast are at work in Worcester.

B. S. Upham is making repairs on his house and grounds, installing steam heat and all modern conveniences in the house.

WOODSTOCK

Funeral of Payson A. Perrin—Academy Teacher Lectures on Birds.

The funeral of Payson A. Perrin, who died at Three Rivers, Mass., was held at the Congregational chapel Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Perrin was a former resident of this town. He leaves a son, Edward T. Perrin, and a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Calkins.

Miss Agnes Bowen has been the guest of Mrs. George W. Bowen.

Lectures on Birds.

Miss Smith of the Academy faculty gave a most interesting lecture on birds of this region. The lecture was illustrated by slides furnished by the Audubon society.

Miss J. T. McCallan has opened her house for the summer.

Mrs. James J. Williamson is visiting relatives in Hartford.

Mrs. Nelson, while running a corn cutter Monday, nearly cut off her left hand. He was hurried to the Day-Kimball hospital, where the hand was amputated.

EASTFORD

Quarterly Conference—New Pastor From Boston—Easter Concert at Methodist Church.

Rev. G. G. Scrivener of Norwich held quarterly conference at the M. E. church Monday.

Rev. W. B. Anderson has been sent here as pastor.

Mrs. Cora Joslin of Phoenixville is caring for David Carpenter, who is ill with pneumonia and heart trouble.

Mrs. Fred Brown and Mrs. E. S. Keith were in Putnam Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Clark visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Miller in West Thompson Monday and Tuesday.

An Easter concert was given in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mr. Joseph Gurley, Harry Tripp and Frank Weeks were in Putnam Tuesday.

Will Colburn has purchased an automobile. Town Clerk Charles Clark is the owner of a touring car.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Mrs. A. E. Phillips is suffering from the prevailing influenza.

Francis Coffey is visiting his grandparents.

Harry Young was a visitor at R. H. Coffey's, Tuesday.

Mrs. R. R. Barlow, who has been ill for several weeks was taken to Providence, Monday, for treatment by a specialist.

Mrs. P. H. Coffey is ill.

Mrs. R. C. Kies and Miss Ines Dolne were visitors at The Oaks, Wednesday.

A. E. Hall motored to Providence, Monday.

Mrs. William Slater is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Little sister—I would laugh if I got a nice box of candy for my birthday.

Big brother—So would I.

Little sister—But why would you laugh?

Big brother—Because I'm bigger than you are.—Judge.

Tolland County

Grangers Will Visit Local Grange—Surprise Party on Birthday.

Schools resumed sessions this week. The school in the North district was awarded the custody of the banner for the best attendance last month.

A lecture is to be given before the Men's club at the Congregational church, Saturday evening, by Dr. Madison Peters of New York city on "Americans for Americans."

Willard B. Clarke spent a portion of last week with relatives and friends in New Haven and Hamden.

To Have Ball Team.

The young men interested in baseball, met Friday evening and made arrangements for a local nine for the present season. Clinton Lewis was chosen manager and Llewellyn Latham captain.

Gilead Grangers Coming.

The next meeting of the grange, Wednesday evening, May 3, is visitors' night. The Gilead grangers are to be the visitors and will furnish the program.

Easter Observances.

Rev. T. N. Owen preached an excellent Easter sermon Sunday and there was special music by the choir.

The church was decorated with flowers and potted plants and cut flowers. Conspicuous among them were two pots of daffodils and a vase of the new variety of carnations, furnished by Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lyman.

The church choir met for rehearsal Friday evening.

The Foster Band meets for practice this (Saturday) evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Theobald Lyman of Plainville have been visiting Mrs. Lyman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Utley.

The Grange Dramatic club went to Andover Thursday evening last week and presented the play "Bar Haven" at a full house.

They presented the drama at South Windham. There was dancing after the entertainment. The proceeds of these entertainments are for the improvement of Yeoman's hall.

Surprised on Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Squier entertained a surprise party Monday evening, it being Mrs. Squier's 46th birthday. The party consisted of relatives and intimate friends.

Refreshments were served, and a birthday cake with 46 miniature candles, a vase of 46 fine carnations and a box of chocolates were also present. The evening proved most enjoyable.

Frank Bogue of Hartford has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James A. Utley recently.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Four to Join Uriel Lodge—Jitney Service to Hartford Resumed.

George P. Bugbee is in charge of the railroad station at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Piche of East Hampton, Mass., motored down in their new car Wednesday, and were guests at Hiram Hayes' home.

Miss Anne Pitcher returned home with them.

Merritt Hayes has been confined to the house several weeks by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller have been entertaining the former's niece, Mrs. Nelson and daughter, of New Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Sabin and son, recently visited their former home friends at Stonington. Mr. Sabin recently bought the Fred Richmond farm.

Mr. Walter Segar is spending two weeks at the parish, Charles Hyde.

Several from the parish attended the party given at the home of Rev. J. J. Speeril, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Saml. Miller, who recently moved here, in sending two children to the school on the Green.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Constantine, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lyons.

A number of ladies spent a most enjoyable week at the home of Mrs. Clinton Frink, Tuesday. After a season of sewing there were devotional exercises and the hostess served ice cream and cake.

WOODSTOCK

Funeral of Payson A. Perrin—Academy Teacher Lectures on Birds.

The funeral of Payson A. Perrin, who died at Three Rivers, Mass., was held at the Congregational chapel Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Perrin was a former resident of this town. He leaves a son, Edward T. Perrin, and a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Calkins.

Miss Agnes Bowen has been the guest of Mrs. George W. Bowen.

Lectures on Birds.

Miss Smith of the Academy faculty gave a most interesting lecture on birds of this region. The lecture was illustrated by slides furnished by the Audubon society.

Miss J. T. McCallan has opened her house for the summer.

Mrs. James J. Williamson is visiting relatives in Hartford.

Mrs. Nelson, while running a corn cutter Monday, nearly cut off her left hand. He was hurried to the Day-Kimball hospital, where the hand was amputated.

EASTFORD

Quarterly Conference—New Pastor From Boston—Easter Concert at Methodist Church.

Rev. G. G. Scrivener of Norwich held quarterly conference at the M. E. church Monday.

Rev. W. B. Anderson has been sent here as pastor.

Mrs. Cora Joslin of Phoenixville is caring for David Carpenter, who is ill with pneumonia and heart trouble.

Mrs. Fred Brown and Mrs. E. S. Keith were in Putnam Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Clark visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Miller in West Thompson Monday and Tuesday.

An Easter concert was given in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mr. Joseph Gurley, Harry Tripp and Frank Weeks were in Putnam Tuesday.

Will Colburn has purchased an automobile. Town Clerk Charles Clark is the owner of a touring car.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Mrs. A. E. Phillips is suffering from the prevailing influenza.

Francis Coffey is visiting his grandparents.

Harry Young was a visitor at R. H. Coffey's, Tuesday.

Mrs. R. R. Barlow, who has been ill for several weeks was taken to Providence, Monday, for treatment by a specialist.

Mrs. P. H. Coffey is ill.

Mrs. R. C. Kies and Miss Ines Dolne were visitors at The Oaks, Wednesday.

A. E. Hall motored to Providence, Monday.

Mrs. William Slater is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Little sister—I would laugh if I got a nice box of candy for my birthday.

Big brother—So would I.

Little sister—But why would you laugh?

Big brother—Because I'm bigger than you are.—Judge.

COLUMBIA

To Have Ball Team—Gilead Grangers Will Visit Local Grange—Surprise Party on Birthday.

Schools resumed sessions this week. The school in the North district was awarded the custody of the banner for the best attendance last month.

A lecture is to be given before the Men's club at the Congregational church, Saturday evening, by Dr. Madison Peters of New York city on "Americans for Americans."

Willard B. Clarke spent a portion of last week with relatives and friends in New Haven and Hamden.

To Have Ball Team.

The young men interested in baseball, met Friday evening and made arrangements for a local nine for the present season. Clinton Lewis was chosen manager and Llewellyn Latham captain.

Gilead Grangers Coming.

The next meeting of the grange, Wednesday evening, May 3, is visitors' night. The Gilead grangers are to be the visitors and will furnish the program.

Easter Observances.

Rev. T. N. Owen preached an excellent Easter sermon Sunday and there was special music by the choir.

The church was decorated with flowers and potted plants and cut flowers. Conspicuous among them were two pots of daffodils and a vase of the new variety of carnations, furnished by Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lyman.

The church choir met for rehearsal Friday evening.

The Foster Band meets for practice this (Saturday) evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Theobald Lyman of Plainville have been visiting Mrs. Lyman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Utley.

The Grange Dramatic club went to Andover Thursday evening last week and presented the play "Bar Haven" at a full house.

They presented the drama at South Windham. There was dancing after the entertainment. The proceeds of these entertainments are for the improvement of Yeoman's hall.

Surprised on Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Squier entertained a surprise party Monday evening, it being Mrs. Squier's 46th birthday. The party consisted of relatives and intimate friends.

Refreshments were served, and a birthday cake with 46 miniature candles, a vase of 46 fine carnations and a box of chocolates were also present. The evening proved most enjoyable.

Frank Bogue of Hartford has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James A. Utley recently.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Four to Join Uriel Lodge—Jitney Service to Hartford Resumed.

George P. Bugbee is in charge of the railroad station at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Piche of East Hampton, Mass., motored down in their new car Wednesday, and were guests at Hiram Hayes' home.

Miss Anne Pitcher returned home with them.

Merritt Hayes has been confined to the house several weeks by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller have been entertaining the former's niece, Mrs. Nelson and daughter, of New Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Sabin and son, recently visited their former home friends at Stonington. Mr. Sabin recently bought the Fred Richmond farm.

Mr. Walter Segar is spending two weeks at the parish, Charles Hyde.

Several from the parish attended the party given at the home of Rev. J. J. Speeril, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Saml. Miller, who recently moved here, in sending two children to the school on the Green.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Constantine, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lyons.

A number of ladies spent a most enjoyable week at the home of Mrs. Clinton Frink, Tuesday. After a season of sewing there were devotional exercises and the hostess served ice cream and cake.

WOODSTOCK

Funeral of Payson A. Perrin—Academy Teacher Lectures on Birds.

The funeral of Payson A. Perrin, who died at Three Rivers, Mass., was held at the Congregational chapel Sunday afternoon.