Minister's Automobile to Be Auctioned to Satisfy Recent Judgment—Nearly 3,500 Workers Affected by Wage Increase—Decision Reserved in Ream Annulment Suit—Carpenters and Joiners Start on Higher Schedule.

For the first time in the history of Putnam, an automobile is to be on the sheriff's auction block in this city a week from Saturday.

The car, a Buick, is a 1914 model, and is to be sold to the highest bidder. Now, many and sundry things have been sold at auction here, but never in this manner, and at times the sheriff has had some curious things to sell off, including, it is said, a pulpit. Be that as it may, the day is about arrived when the proud displacer of the horse and dislocator of joints and pocketbooks will be sold to the highest bidder.

This particular automobile, a five-passenger touring car of a standard make, was the property of Rev. J. P. Marvin, formerly pastor of a church at Oxford, Mass., but better known in Putnam as the pastor of the summer camp for boys at Crystal lake, where he was in charge for several years.

The machine is to be sold under an execution to satisfy judgments recently obtained against Rev. Mr. Marvin by two Pomfret garage keepers who have accounts against him for services in connection with their business. The two judgments amount to something over $100, and also have been engaged at present in the insurance business in Worcester.

AFFECTS 3,500 WORKERS. Wage Advance in City and Vicinity Today at Start of a Prosperous Summer.

Many hundreds of mill operatives in textile plants in this city and vicinity will go to work this morning under a new wage scale that means more money for every one of them.

Notices were posted to this effect at the week end in some of the mills, while in others there may be no definite announcement, but the workers will find extra money in their pay envelopes. The advance is in line with similar readjustments of wages throughout New England.

Fifteen hundred operatives of the big plants of the Grosvenordale company in the Grosvenordale bend, carried their money today. The notices posted here do not state the amount of the advance.

REAM ANNULMENT SUIT. Contention That No Marriage License Was Ever Issued to Thompson Man and Actress.

There is a great deal of local interest in the case of Miss Eleanor Pendleton Davidson, who, at Amsterdam, N. Y., is trying to set aside the annulment of her marriage with Louis Marshall Ream, so that she may sue for a share of the $50,000,000 left by his father, Norman B. Ream, the tinplate magnate, whose beautiful country estate is in Thompson.

Saturday in his argument at Amsterdams, covering the time the couple married to Louis Marshall Ream, said that the latter was never legally married to Eleanor Pendleton Davidson, and that the latter was never legally married to Louis Marshall Ream, who sought to have annulment action by Ream four years ago set aside. Judge Borst at the conclusion of Mr. Ream's argument, estimated at $50,000,000.

In answering former Senator Edgar L. Rockefeller, Mr. Garrison contended that no marriage license had been issued to the couple in the state of New Jersey to the couple by the law. He refers in detail to the fact that the Ream, Miss Davidson and her sister, Mrs. Mary Demory, took to Westchester, N. Y., on the 10th of August, 1911, and that the couple had a large number of children.

Telegram and letters were read to the public at the Ream, Miss Davidson, Long Island, on July 8, 1911, until they were married, on Sept. 1, of that year. The Ream, Miss Davidson, Ream he was insincere and she could not marry a man like that, he wrote. I don't understand your attitude at all, except that you have badly misjudged me. But no matter what you may say or see or think, I will always love you with all my heart and soul. I wish to God I could die. If at any time you change, I will come, if from the end of the earth.

Package condensed mince meat is made up today of the best quality of dried fruit and other items which are found in the United States with the exception of spices and currants. The study of packing condensed mince meat has extended over a period of 100 years, and today is as near its perfection as we can possibly conceive. The mince meat in the factories in which it is packed is beyond reproach as the competition today in these lines necessitates the most minute detail of the business. The apples used are of the best grade of New York State, and are packed in the most favored apple known. The mince used are of the best quality, selected variety. No expensive condiments are used in the mince meat. The mince is always sugar, the different grades of mince meat are prepared in different flavors or different granulation required for different purposes. Every particle of mince meat is thoroughly cleaned and hand-picked by people trained to do so, and is never employed by a number of well known firms. He is at present working for the state of Connecticut as inspector of roads.
