GREENEVILLE. Ladies' Charitable Society of St. Mary's Parish conducts successful card party—Funeral of Thomas J. Kirby and Mrs. Julia A. Potter—Personals.

The Ladies' Charitable Society of St. Mary's parish conducted a very successful card party in their assembly rooms on Friday evening between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock.

There were 25 tables of cards played—20 at which, three Misses played and two at 48. In charge of the whist division was Joseph A. Donnelly; the auctioneer, James J. Fagan; and the 48, Edward J. Brophy, M. D. The scores for the whist were the following young ladies from the Young Ladies' Society: Misses Josephine E. Hartie, Sadie A. Driscoll, Mary T. Sullivan and Katherine M. Bray, who served delicious fruit punch to the players during the evening.

The winners at whist were: Ladies—First, Mrs. Patrick Coughlin, 37, cake plate; second, Mrs. Edward Sullivan, 38, fair apron; third, Miss Lucy O'Neil, 34, semolina; Gentlemen—First, James Hynds, 36, pair of silk socks; second, John Doyle, 27, each tray; third, John Kealey, 27, box of hankies. The cut-off was won by Mr. Doyle.

The auction bridge contest was won by Mrs. William T. Browne with a score of 1,904 points, which was won by the cut-off from Mrs. Rose Kelly, the prize being a box of stationery.

The 48 winners were: First, Jerome Connors, Mrs. Edward Sullivan, Leonard, Michael Barry, 19, pack of cards, the cut-off being won by the former.

The judges at whist were Christopher Barry, Mrs. Edward Sullivan and Simon J. Falvey, and at 48 Joseph C. Hild, John T. Sullivan and Francis J. Murray.

The success of the evening was due to the efforts of Mrs. Mary C. Moriarty, the efficient president of the society, and the following governing board of the society: Mrs. James Ward, Mrs. John Humphrey, Mrs. James Morrison, Mrs. Charles J. Murray, Mrs. Timothy J. Donovan, Mrs. William Sharkey, Mrs. David S. Gilmour, Mrs. Elizabeth McCormick, Mrs. Dennis Bowen, Mrs. Mary J. Moran, Mrs. Michael J. Cummings, Mrs. Alphonse Bellefleur, Mrs. Arthur E. Henry, Mrs. Mary C. Connor, Mrs. James Sullivan, Mrs. James Fardon, Mrs. William Sullivan, Mrs. Mary E. Hartie, Miss Elizabeth M. Curran, Miss Melanie Brunelle, Miss Elizabeth L. Hoar.

The proceeds of the evening will go towards replenishing the society's treasury, which has passed through a very successful winter for the worthy poor of the parish.

FUNERALS. Thomas J. Kirby. At 2:15 o'clock Thursday morning the funeral of Thomas J. Kirby was held from his home at 36 Fifth street. A large number of friends and relatives were present and a delegation from Fire Engine company No. 7 also attended at the service in St. Mary's church Rev. H. Kennedy officiated. Nicholas Spellman sang "I Jesu at the offertory. Miss Katherine Kirby rendered "The Mass." Mrs. Spellman, Mrs. T. J. Donovan and Miss Kirby rendered "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Miss L. C. Doucrae presided at the organ. The bearers were Cornelius J. Downes, Thomas Sullivan, William Delaney, James Casey, David Mahoney and Daniel Driscoll.

Burial was in the family lot at St. Mary's cemetery where Father Kennedy read a beautiful committal service. Undertaker M. Hourigan had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Julia A. Potter. The funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Potter was held from her late home on Centre street at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. A large number of relatives and friends attended. About the center was a number of beautiful floral tributes. Rev. H. Kennedy officiated the services. The Rev. C. H. Richards conducted the services. The Rev. C. H. Richards conducted the services.

Graduating Class to Have Outing. The graduating class of the Greenville Grammar School, which this year numbers 41, will go on an outing to Preston City today (Saturday). The class is an impressive group who will close the eighth grade school year at the end of the month.

From the Soil. The Boston army is in the main a peasant army. Tartars, Little Russians, Finns, Lithuanians, Polish, Ukrainians, Serbs, Croats, Greeks, and Armenians are all represented, but the mass of the soldiers come from the Krestjans, or peasant class.

Beauty of Work. The beauty of work depends upon the way we meet it—whether we arm ourselves each morning to attack it as an enemy that must be vanquished before night comes, or whether we open our arms with the sunrise and welcome it as an approaching friend who will keep us delightful company all day, and who will make us feel at evening that the day was well worth its fatigue.—Lady Lawson in Christian Intelligencer.

NEW LONDON JITNEY DRIVERS PROTEST REGULATIONS. Attendance of 80 at Public Hearing Friday Afternoon.

The public hearing given in the New London council chamber at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in reference to the new traffic regulations which it is proposed to enact drew an attendance of more than 80 taxicab and jitney owners and numerous other business men. The hearing was held before the street and police committees, by whom the tentative ordinances were prepared.

When Attorney G. Curtis Morgan, who with Attorney Clayton B. Smith appeared for the taxicab and jitney owners, declared the proposed regulations were "not only unjust but unconstitutional and that the Shore Line Railway Company is making a railroad freight terminal in the vicinity of the parklet and a passenger terminal in the center of the city." His address was greeted with an outbreak of applause.

Attorney Morgan opened the hearing by reading the proposed regulations, which were followed by Mayor Rogers, who said he was glad to see so many in attendance, as he felt that the suggestions to be offered would greatly aid the committee in preparing the final draft of the new ordinances.

MYSTIC MAN'S BODY FOUND IN COVE. Remains of George Francis McCormack Discovered by Section Gang.

The body of George Francis McCormack, a Mystic, was found floating in a cove near the shore of New London, Friday by members of the college rowing team of the New York New Haven and Hartford railroad. By the appearance of the body he had been overboard several weeks.

NORWICH TOWN Local Visitors Appreciate Hanover Ordination Exercises—Lightning Strikes Stately Oak at Woodside.

Those going from here to the ordination and installation of Rev. H. D. Rollason in Hanover Wednesday evening, noted the large number of ministers and laymen in the congregation of the church, twenty in number. At the close those seeking automobiles and taking in the downpour of rain, would willingly have encountered greater difficulties, for from beginning to end no word of discord marred what was a service, rich in its inspiration and its stimulus to make the most of our brief lives here.

Fine Oak Damaged. A handsome oak about 150 years old and immense in size on a place on the New London turnpike was struck by lightning in its trunk and split through the middle from top to butt, the opening 36 inches in width, and vacuous of several feet in length. Keeping its foliage through winter and beautiful with its shade in summer, the tree will be greatly missed at Woodside.

CATARH cannot be cured with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. It is a local disease, greatly influenced by common sense. It is in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrh Cure was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years. It is composed of some of the most potent ingredients combined with some of the best blood purifiers. The perfect combination of ingredients in Hall's Catarrh Cure is what produces such wonderful results in cases of catarrh of the nose and throat. F. J. CHERRY & CO., Proprs., Toledo, O.
