

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties

New London County

LEDYARD

Rev. Giles F. Goodenough Preaches at Westminster—Pleasant Session of Thimble Club—Surprise Party.

Rev. G. F. Goodenough preached in Westminster Congregational church Sunday. There was an attendance of about 400, in spite of the stormy day.

Miss Olive Hiscoc of Norwich has been a week's guest of Miss Florence Geer.

Miss Arlene Clark has been the guest of Miss Florence Geer.

Thimble Club's Meeting. The Thimble club of Ledyard met with Mrs. Charles A. Gray on Tuesday afternoon.

Alfred Taylor of Boston, father of D. D. Taylor, who has been the guest of his brother for several days, has returned to his home.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

Ray D. Holdridge, president of the Boys' Athletic club, was surprised Wednesday, when the club members gave him a party in honor of his sixteenth birthday.

William Henry Lincoln in Hampton, Friday, July 7.

Lecture on Pilgrim's Progress. Rev. J. H. Knott gave a talk on Pilgrim's Progress at the mid-week prayer meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kennedy and two sons were guests of Mrs. Kennedy's parents over Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Cochrane of Webster, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Winthrop Davoll.

Woodstock Man Wins Local Bridge Farewell Party For Mrs. Bert Jensen—Lawn Social—End of Strawberry Season.

The marriage of Miss Iva Blanchard Johnson of Old Mystic and Raymond Edward Chamberlain of Woodstock, took place Saturday, July 8th, at 11 o'clock in the Methodist church.

The bride and groom were attended by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

UNCAVILLE

Organizations of Methodist Church to Hold Joint Picnic—Birth Party—Officers of Naval Reserve at Kite-Maug.

A lunch room has been opened in the village. Mrs. Frank E. Wilson attended the meeting of the Afternoon Auction club.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kennedy and two sons were guests of Mrs. Kennedy's parents over Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Cochrane of Webster, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Winthrop Davoll.

Woodstock Man Wins Local Bridge Farewell Party For Mrs. Bert Jensen—Lawn Social—End of Strawberry Season.

The marriage of Miss Iva Blanchard Johnson of Old Mystic and Raymond Edward Chamberlain of Woodstock, took place Saturday, July 8th, at 11 o'clock in the Methodist church.

The bride and groom were attended by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

The bride was going away gown of gray gabardine, with hat to match. She carried white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Wilcox of Uncasville, a friend of the groom.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Theodore Henry Johnson, and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, were the only witnesses of the ceremony.

law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Arms on the Flinders road.

Timothy Kelley has joined the force in the employ of Arthur Havens.

A number of Niantic young men attended a dance in the Pines Tuesday evening.

Member of the village people attended the circus in New London on Tuesday.

Olivia M. Case was a visitor in New London Wednesday.

Charles Fiske has returned to his business in Hartford after a stay with his family in the Pines.

Mrs. Charles Fiske, accompanied by her daughters, Misses Gladys and Florence, are occupying their cottage.

Russell Kimberly of Hartford visited the Grove Wednesday in his car.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beebe have moved from Niantic to their cottage.

John Carlton has been a recent visitor in North Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paton have been entertaining their nephews, Arthur Pratt and Robert Pratt of New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Beebe and Miss Flora Beebe of New Jersey for the summer.

Will Hold Joint Picnic. At a meeting held by the Ladies' Aid society, the Epworth League, and the Sunday school, of the Methodist church, it was voted to combine and have their annual picnic.

The picnic will be held at the school house on the 22nd of July. The picnic for the young children members of the Sunday school of the church will be held on the lawn at the parsonage July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dart visited their cottage at the Island Sunday going with their son, Edward, in his new machine.

Mr. Leolin A. Comstock and Miss Ruth Leach have returned to their homes after spending a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Comstock, in Worcester, Mass.

Cochech camp, Modern Woodmen of America, at the meeting Monday, will follow the business with a supper on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. O. F. will hold its annual convention.

District Deputy Grand Master William Langdon and staff of New London will be present.

William Nichols, who has been with the C. M. Robertson Co. as machinist for several years has left their employ.

Home Department. A home department has been organized in connection with the Sunday school at the Methodist church with Mrs. Jennie Phillips as president and Mrs. Charles C. Tibbets as assistant.

Patrick Cunningham of Stafford Springs was a week-end guest of friends in town.

Reuben Austin took Henry St. Germain of Pequot, Louie A. Peters and John Nichols to New Haven Sunday in his automobile.

Miss Ruth Craig is entertaining Mrs. Josephine McAuliffe of New London.

Mrs. Charles Rogers has spent a few days at Norwich town.

Junior League Officers. The members of the Junior League of the Methodist church held a meeting Saturday afternoon and chose the following as officers: President, Miss Alice Hargrove; secretary, Miss Arnelia Newton; treasurer, Lester Dart.

An entertainment by the pupils of the Sunday school, singing and people of the church was given Wednesday night. Those taking part were Miss Maude Bennett, Miss Justine Stearns, Miss Alice Hargrove, Miss Lillian Sawyer, Miss May Church, Misses Ethel and Carrie Wood, Miss Marion Chapman, Miss Marjorie Donald Walden, Miss Edna Eggleston, Miss Amber Rafferty, Miss Carol Walden, Donald Walden, Miss Gertrude and several others.

After the program the cream and cake were on sale. Friday night a supper followed by an entertaining program was given for the purpose of raising money to pay the rent of cottage at Pleasant Beach which has been hired for three weeks as members of the Sunday school will camp.

During Sunday's storm lightning struck a tree standing near the house owned by Norman Lathrop and occupied by Mrs. Sheldon. The tree was uprooted and fell on the house, frightening the occupants.

Earl McDermott, who is employed in Shelton, N. H., is spending his vacation at his home in Palmettown.

Owing to the electric lights being out of commission there was no service at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Ideore F. Corman spent this week in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Snyder and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Dickson, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Avery.

Mrs. George Avery recently entertained Miss Olive Hiscoc and Miss Marion Rogers of Norwich.

Miss Helen Gosses of Boston spent Sunday afternoon and Sunday at Mill Valley bungalow.

Frank Rogers and John Rathbun were Norwich callers Monday.

Library Benefit. A lawn party was held on the Green Thursday evening. Cake, ice cream, lemonade and peanuts were for sale. The proceeds are to be used for new books for the town library.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe called on relatives on Green Hill Sunday.

Miss Lillian Egbert of Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Abram Simlowitz.

C. S. Ray and family of Colchester called on friends in town Sunday.

Niantic. Arthur Reed has moved from Flinders to the home of his brother-in-

GLASGO

Good Attendance at Meeting of Ladies' Aid Society—Postmaster III—Sale of Business.

Mrs. Frank Beleston is entertaining friends from Boston.

Mrs. Steery Kinney has guests from Waterbury for a couple of weeks.

Miss K. C. Clark spent Sunday with Montville friends.

The Ladies' Aid society was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. R. H. Young, Wednesday. Although the day was extremely warm there was a good attendance.

Funeral of Mrs. Tucker. The funeral of Mrs. Eliza F. Tucker whose death occurred on Tuesday, at Westerly, was held Thursday afternoon from the home of her niece, Mrs. E. Thorp.

Rev. W. Williams of the Episcopal church had charge of the services. Burial was in the family plot at Plainfield, Friday morning.

Mrs. Tucker formerly resided in this town.

Miss Marion Mallory of Waterbury is spending the summer vacation at her home, as is also Miss Della Mallory.

Oscar Dugas has sold his store business to Levi Dayton, who has been clerk for Mr. Dugas for the past five or six years.

Miss W. F. Green returned to her home in Hartford, Tuesday, after spending the week with Mrs. W. C. Burdick.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Geer and daughter, Mildred, were Sunday callers at W. G. Burdick's.

Henry Gault, postmaster, who has been ill for the past three months, is yet unable to get out to the business in the post office.

Voluntown. Court Advance Attends Special Service at Baptist Church—Stephen B. Sweet Sells Business.

Court Advance, No. 338, I. O. O. F., attended divine service in a body on Sunday at the Baptist church, where a special sermon was preached by the pastor, the Rev. J. B. Knowles.

Infant Baptized. Miss Elizabeth Barron of Danielson is a guest at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Briggs.

Mrs. Elsworth M. Bisgood of Windsor, a former resident of this town, was a guest of relatives in town during the week and called on friends and former neighbors.

Mrs. Philip Boucher and infant son returned home on Saturday from the Backus hospital where they have been patient and Sunday.

Henry H. Rice of Lowell, Mass., and Roy Rice of Williamstown, were recent guests of their sister, Mrs. Louis F. Rice, at Colchester.

Mrs. James Noble and children of Jewett City were guests Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Noble's brother, John Oldenham.

Business Sold. Stephen B. Sweet has sold out his business to Philip Boucher, who takes charge at once.

Miss Lois Rogers is visiting in town attended the Buffalo Bill show in Norwich.

Road Society. Strawberry Tea in Church Parlors—Burial of George H. Harvey in Evergreen Cemetery.

George Blakeslee of New Haven is visiting at Ralph C. Wheeler's.

Miss Doris Collins of Colchester is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold Frost of Hinckley Hill.

Miss Priscilla A. Billings has returned to her home in Springfield.

Dr. J. Hart Noyes of Providence visited over Sunday with his parents here.

The ladies gave a strawberry tea at the church parlors Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary D. Deane has returned to her home in Old Mystic after ten days' visit at Maple Lake.

The Misses Crawford of Old Mystic were entertained at Maple Lake recently.

During the tempest Sunday the top of the silo belonging to Fred Appleby was struck by lightning.

Mrs. Mason Hewitt and daughter, Mrs. Harold Flood, spent a few days in Boston this week.

Mr. Charles H. Haseltine of Wisconsin and Mrs. Arthur Vincent of Idaho, who have been staying at the Manor Inn for a few days were at Maple Lake of Bay.

Allen W. Harvey was in New London Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother, George H. Harvey, who died Wednesday of pneumonia, after a few days' illness. He was aged 72, the oldest son of Uriah and Mary Brackett Harvey. After the funeral the body was taken to the home of Allen W. Harvey where another service was held, conducted by Rev. A. J. Chandler. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

North Stonington. Playground Opens With Miss Norris. Supervisor—Four O'clock Tea for Baptist Society.

Rev. J. L. Pencock of Westerly, preached in the Congregational church Sunday morning, in exchange with Rev. O. D. Fisher.

Rev. S. J. Cheest of Westerly, supplied the Baptist pulpit Sunday.

Playground Opens. The children's playground opened Thursday. Miss Charlotte Norris of Westerly is superintendent. Miss Helen Gosses of Boston is assistant.

Mrs. O. D. Fisher is president of the Playground association for the season 1916. Rev. Lucian Drury is secretary and treasurer.

Four O'clock Tea. The ladies of the Baptist church gave a four o'clock tea Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fannie Stead.

Children's Party. Miss Sarah Chapman Russell, foster mother of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Chapman, entertained a party of little friends Wednesday.